STATESBORO, Ga. – In their fourth and final fall season tournament the Georgia Southern women's tennis team will travel to Spartanburg, South Carolina to compete in the Wofford Invitational. All eight Eagles will be in action this weekend to cap off a successful fall season.

"We are really looking forward to competing in the Terrier Invite this weekend. There will be twelve other universities represented, two of which are from our own conference. It is always nice to experience some competition against other Sun Belt teams prior to our spring season," said Coach Michele Stanford. "We have had a successful season thus far, and being the last tournament of the fall I know that our team is ready to compete at a high level. Everyone has been working hard on developing their games, and I know we are all ready to produce some strong results again this weekend."

The field will include Arkansas State, Bluefield College, Brenau, Coastal Carolina, Gardner Webb, Radford, UNC Asheville, Western Carolina, and Wofford.

LAST TIME OUT

The Eagles traveled to Gainesville to compete in the ITA Southeastern Regional Championships. Two Eagles qualified for the Main Draw. The Eagles competed in both Singles and Doubles. Giulia Riepe and Arienne de Winter would face off against the number 57 Doubles team in ITA rankings made up of Gabriell Castaneda and Julia Mikulski of Florida State.
