

Georgia Southern University

Georgia Southern Commons

The George-Anne

11-20-1931

The George-Anne

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne>

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "The George-Anne" (1931). The George-Anne. 2291.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne/2291>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by Georgia Southern Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The George-Anne by an authorized administrator of Georgia Southern Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

GEORGE-ANNE

Published Weekly by Journalism Class

SOUTH GEORGIA TEACHERS COLLEGE, COLLEGEBORO, GEORGIA

Vol. 5

November 20, 1931

NO. 3

FACULTY ATTENDS G.E.A. CONFERENCE

The faculty one hundred per cent attended the Regional Conference of the Georgia Education Association in Swainsboro Wednesday. Besides the faculty a large number of students were present.

The folks from the college here arrived in time to hear part of the speech of Jack Williams of Waycross, president of the Georgia Press Association, and the two principle addresses one by Dr. P. P. Claxton of Austin Peay Teachers College and Dr. C. B. Glenn of Birmingham.

Mr. Wells had all those who were attending, had attended or members of the faculty here to stand. Out of the thousand who packed the Swainsboro High auditorium over two thirds stood.

G-A

Teachers will meet B. P. I. here Thanksgiving. Everybody got behind the team--let's have a big crowd and a victory.

G-A

OGLETHORPE

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Oglethorpe Literary Society was held Thursday evening Nov. 19 at seven o'clock.

The following program was given as a special Thanksgiving feature: 1-Song, "America the Beautiful". 2-Devotional, Almarita Lindsey. 3-Business. 4-Origin of Thanksgiving, Hazel Thompson. 5-Reading, "Day of Thanksgiving", I. D. Nichols. 6-Violin solo, Torrence Brady. 7-Reading, "Thanksgiving Memories", Addie B. Parker.

STEPHENS

At the regular meeting of the Stephens Literary Society Thursday evening the following program was rendered: Devotional, Charles Shafe. The Landing of the Pilgrims, Ruth Swindell, Thanksgiving, Vera McElveen. Thanksgiving Song, Society.

G-A

GIRLS BEGIN ANNUAL SOCCER TOURNAMENT

The annual girls soccer tournament began this week with the Junior Senior team defeating the Freshmen 2 to 1.

The soccer tournament always attracts much attention on the campus and the other games are being anticipated with anxiety. The Freshmen will play the Sophomores this week, the winner of that game will meet the Junior-Senior team for the championship of the school. The winner of that game, the school champions, will meet a team selected from the lady members of the faculty.

G-A

The Junior Class with the assistance of Miss Ray in observation of National Book Week gave a program at Tuesday's chapel at which time six books were revealed and accompanying them were characters from each of the books.

G--A

The Math Club had a most interesting meeting on Monday Night.

G-A

GEORGE-ANNE

Published weekly by the class in Journalism, of the South Georgia Teachers College, Collegeboro, Ga.

Members of the Class:

- Mary Jane Bowen R.L.Marr
- Horace Boykin Addie B. Parker
- John Bergerson Inez Rountree
- William Everett Dora Smith
- George Kelly Syble Lanier
- Josephine Murphy Sara Smith

"Words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions think."

-- Byron.

NEW BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY

- Sim---Robt. Browning, Poet and Philosopher.
- Bennett---Literary Taste and How to Form It.
- Alden---Tennyson and How to Know Him.
- Van Dyke---Little Rivers.
- Skinner---The White Leader.
- Hale---The New Heavens.
- Van Dusen---In Quost of Life's Mystery.
- Orth---Our Foreigners.

----G.A.----

The faculty and student body were saddened at the news of the death of Dr. Taylor's father.

Mrs. Jack Oliver of Valdosta, formerly Miss Belle Williams of S'Boro delightfully entertained the student with several vocal solos at chapel on Monday.

The Snooper is indeed peeved at the faculty reporter for not giving us some of the epitaphs used at a recent Faculty Party, but we are not to be outdone, and we quote a few: Mr. Wells, "At my head plant shrub, at my feet put a waste paper tub." Miss Wood, "Born 1857, married?? died 1931, my hopes were bright but fortune was undind. "And here's a good one, Miss Trussell, "Beneath this stone Melvina lies, alas she did die young on the 21st. of May she passed, and now she holds her tongue."

Snooping around this week we discovered that Hubert Dewberry bites his fingernails in a football game --and the boys in East Dormitory say Prof. Roberts has moved the lobby into his room---and Coach Smith keeps his dogs shut up for fear the birds will find them---and old Mr. Brown is married---and not to let the absent minded teachers get by, we pass on the story that Miss Newton walked in her classroom to give an exam and forgot she had even assigned one, and Mrs. Johnson forgot her Expression class---and they say Sidney Boswell better send a ghost back to the campus to look after Carl Hodges ---the life of the president was in grave danger one night during the week when the boys in East Dormitory saw a man walking around the new gym with a lighted stick, thinking the man dangerous for the gym, fifty of them rushed down to protect the new structure only to find Mr. Wells inspecting---Ask Powell Jones about putting the Clark love note next to his heart.

----G.A.----