

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

The George-Anne

Student Media

11-6-1931

The George-Anne

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne>

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "The George-Anne" (1931). The George-Anne. 2290.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne/2290>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Media at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in The George-Anne by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

GEORGE-ANNE

Published Weekly by Journalism Class

SOUTH GEORGIA TEACHERS COLLEGE, COLLEGEBORO, GEORGIA

VOL. 5

November 6, 1931

NO. 2

NEWBERRY - GAME TICKETS

A special admission price of 25¢ has been arranged for our students who attend the Armistice day game in Savannah.

TEACHERS MEET NEWBERRY IN SAVANNAH WEDNESDAY

Coach Smith with at least thirty men will leave here early Wednesday morning for Savannah for their annual football game with Newberry College.

The game this year played on Armistice Day is sponsored by the Chatham County Post American Legion and as usual promoted by the Savannah Chamber of Commerce. The proceeds from the Legions part of the gate receipts will go to the unemployed Legioners.

The Teachers this year will be quartered at the Savannah Hotel where headquarters will be set up on Wednesday morning.

Though the people of Statesboro are planning an Armistice Day celebration in Statesboro for Wednesday the game in Savannah will be delayed in time for the local people to have lunch and attend the game.

MARY JANE BOWEN ELECTED EDITOR 1931-32 REFLECTOR

Miss Mary Jane Bowen, of Portal was selected editor of the Reflector for this year and Fred Paige of Statesboro was chosen business manager.

Miss Bowen is a popular member of the senior class attending college here this year for the first time. Fred Paige is a graduate of the Statesboro High School and is a member of the Sophomore Class.

The Reflector this year will not be as elaborate as in past years, due to the present economic conditions in this section, and merchants of Statesboro and this community will not be called upon for help in financing the book as there will be no advertising section.

Others selected for the 1932 staff are:

Assistant editor, Dora Smith; assistant business managers, R.L. Marr and Sara Smith; literary editor, George Wingard; assistant literary editor Almarita Lindsey; club editors, Kathryn Enecks and George Thrift; art editor, Genie Mae Harville; photograph editor, Vera McElveen.

TODAYS WEATHER FORECAST

(Furnished by Meteorology class)

Fair--little change in temperature.

BACHELORS CLUB TO HOLD FALL BANQUET SATURDAY

The Bachelors Club annual fall banquet will be held tomorrow night in the Home Economics Department with fifty guest present.

The banquet this year will be in the form of a Halloween party and a clever program has been arranged. Seven old members of the club are expected to return for the festivities, they are, Ralph Henderson of Pembroke, Sidney Boswell of Portal, LaFiece Collins of Brooklet, Howard Cannady of Pembroke, Elmo Mallard of Hiltonia, and Eugene Kinney of Garfield.

G-A

WELLS TO ATTEND SIX REGIONAL CONVENTIONS

President Wells, president of the Georgia Educational Association will be away all next week attending the six regional conferences of the Association.

GEORGE --ANNE

Published Weekly by the Class
In Journalism, of the South
Georgia Teachers College,
Collegeboro, Georgia.

Members of the class:

Mary Jane Bowen	Josephine Murphy
Horace Boykin	Addie B. Parker
John Bergerson	Inez Rountree
William Everett	Lora Smith
George Kelley	Sara Smith
Syble Lanier	R.L. Marr

AUTUMN

Out there in the great open spaces myraids of stalks of golden corn are swaying heavily before the autumnal breeze. The trees are losing, the leaves are falling, yellos, orange, red, deep green, mix and swirl and fly. The pumpkins, yellow, round and ripe, peeps from under the stubble. The birds chirp up above, contentedly.

Nature, glorious nature, under a Divine command has given her best, her all. The waving corn, the sleeping pumpkin, the whirling leaves, are mans to do with as he pleases. Do we not marvel this wonderful season? Do we wonder why we give vent to glee?

Look around you, get a picture that no artist has ever been able to truly portray.

G-A

What is education worth? In a recent lawsuit in Seattle, the valuation of a College education for two people was placed at $60,000.00

BUSINESS IS GOOD IN THE SCHOOLS

Business is good where there is a steady demand for products which serve genuine and important needs and when that demand is being fairly met. Measured by this standard the business of education has never been so good as in the United States at this moment.

There are more young people in school than ever before. They are in charge of the most alert and best trained teachers that ever blessed the nation. These teachers are presenting the strongest curriculum so far perfected and are seeking to make it better. They are working in the best buildings that ever housed the nations millions of young people. They are supported to a remarkable degree by an intelligent informed, and sympathetic public.

These teachers are working at their problems. These facts are of utmost significance for men and women in every other line of business. That means that better times lie ahead. The first wealth is human wealth. Upon all that boother wealth is built. Thirty million students are getting the best education ever given to the masses of the people. They are learning to live on a higher plane of life. They are building up health and vitality. They are being taught to value a fine home life, they are learning how to learn, they are learning citizenship, they are being trained in vocational skills, above all they are seeking to develop fine character.

The products of these schools are the pride of America. Today business is good in the schools. Tomorrow business will be good in the factories, shops and stores. By living up to the motto Children First, America is laying the foundation for new revival.

(Taken in parts from the N.E.A. Journal)

The SNOOPER

Scandal is when nobody did anything and somebody told it.

The Snooper wishes to congratulate Professor Witcher on winning first prize at a recent Halloween affair, though we understand he was acting natural----and we hear that Gordon Mays has taken Dowberry's place at the wheel of the Buick, yes, and Marshall Anerson changes girls every week, wonder why?-----and what do you think, it has been rumored Mr. Wells is planning to comb his hair before attending the six regional conventions.

Powell Jones evidently thinks one is seen and heard over a telephone. When he was called and asked if he were Powell and accident occurred-- in the vigorous nodding of his head against the Mouth Piece.

Mr. Barron, so his students say, remarked "The Pope lives in the va-ti'shun."

ATHENS CONFERENCE

Seven T.C. students will leave here tomorrow for Athens to attend the Georgia Baptist Union's Conference to be held on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Those who will attend are Madge Flournoy, Mary Jane Bowen, Geraldine Rushing, Charles Newton, Wilkins Smith, Beulah Davis, Marian Cobb. The speakers at the conference will be, Dr. W. J. McGlothlin of Furman University, Miss Ethel McConnell of Nashville, Tennessee, and Dr. J. E. Dilliard of Birmingham, Alabama.

G-A

R. M. Monts, superintendent of Statesboro High School was the speaker in chapel Tuesday

(Snooper Continued)

A Statesboro grocerman tells us that Miss Simpson shopped with a menu instead of a grocer list.

We wonder if Mr. Wells knew when he was praising Mr. Monts in chapel that only a few minutes before he ran his Buick into Mr. Wells' car---- and what do you think, one of the patrons of the training school wrote a note to Stella with the salutation, "Dear Miss Abraham"

SOCIETIES

STEPHENS

The Stephens heard A. A. Singley Thursday night talk on "The Meaning of Armistice." Besides the talk by Mr. Singley, Miss Florice Strickland read several war poems. Songs fitting for an Armistice program were sung at the program.

OGLETHORPE

The Oglethorpe's Armistice program last night was given by Stella Valandingham, Katherine Enocks, Carlton and Edward Caruth, and Henretta Doster.

G-A

The Tech High football team from Atlanta will spend the afternoon on our campus.

G-A

The Training School, under the direction of Miss Marie Wood gave a most delightful program in chapel on Wednesday.

G-A

President Wells spoke to the students of the Ge. Industrial College in Savannah Wednesday.

G-A