TEACHERS TO PLAY HAVANA HERE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

PROFS EXPECTED TO SHOOT WORKS

Kick-Off Scheduled For Three O'clock On Local Field.

Georgia Teachers College swings into action again next Saturday afternoon against her third opponent of the season, the University of Havana. The opening kick-off will be at 3 o'clock, on the local football field. This should be one of the most interesting games of the 1939 season, Havana being an entirely new opponent for the Profs.

As yet no definite information has been secured as to the strength of the Cuban squad. According to reports, however, The Caribes have been training for about four weeks. They have veterans who have had experience in the United States. They will bring to Collegeboro a squad consisting of twenty-five men who have earned positions through stiff competition.

The Cubans will have played only one game prior to meeting the Professors. This was played against a team of Cuban all-stars. In this contest the Caribes displayed a very strong line, but their offensive seemed to lack the smoothness of mid-season form. Since this game, however, the Cubans have no doubt worked hard to present a good offense against the Teachers.

Coach Smith of T. C. will throw an inexperienced, yet heavy, line against Havana. His backfield men are more experienced, but light. This combination, however, is expected to click.

A check on T. C.' registration list revealed that there are 509 students enrolled for the fall term of the 1939-40 year. Of this number 203 are Freshmen. The Sophomores have an enrollment of 162. It is interesting to note that this class is the only one to show an increase over last year's enrollment, as the other three classes show a slight decrease.

The Junior class has 81 in its ranks, and the Seniors have 62.

Glee Club Rehearsals Largely Attended

With 30 old members and 60 new try-outs present, the Georgia Teachers College Glee Club officially opened its 1939-40 season rehearsals here Tuesday, under the direction of Ronald J. Neil, Professor of Music. Of the 90 students present this week, Mr. Neil said, 60 will be chosen to total this year's chorus.

Mr. Neil, director of the Glee Club, came here, following a year's study in New York City, prior to which he was a member of the music faculty at the University of Iowa. "The aim of our club this season," he announced, "is to provide choir robes for the members and to take a short trip similar to the band trips this spring."

The program for this year will include Handel's "Messiah" to be given in December on the campus, a miscellaneous program to be given at the G. E. A. meet here, and on November 30 at the Statesboro Harvest Festival, a winter concert opera, and a short spring trip to Summit and several other communities of this locality.

"You are the first girl I have ever kissed, dearest," said the senior as he shifted the gears with his foot.

Y. M. C. A. Has First Meeting Of The Year

The Y. M. C. A. held its first meeting of the year Wednesday night in the lobby of Sanford Hall. The devotional was led by Nicholas Dunbar, with Mr. Paul Thompson, faculty sponsor, leading in prayer.

After a brief welcome by D. R. Barber, president, the purpose and method of acquiring membership into the Y. M. C. A. was explained. The main speaker of the evening was Coach B. L. Smith, who spoke on "The Importance of Getting the Right Start." About seventy men were present.

12 STUDENTS MAKE ALL A'S

Juniors Lead The List With Twenty Members.

Fifty-four students of the Georgia Teachers College made the Dean's list during the spring quarter of the 1939-40 term, according to an announcement made here last week. The Juniors led the list with twenty. The Seniors were next with fourteen, while the Sophomores and Freshmen tied with six each. There were eight short spring term students who made the honor list. It is necessary to have a grade point ratio of 4.5 to make the list.

There were twelve students who had the distinction of making all A's in their subjects. They were: Z. L. Strange Sr., Catherine Parrish, Nicholas Dunbar, William Talbert, Ernest Trowell, Miriam Girardeau, Frances McAfee, I. W. McAfee, Mattie L. Padgett, J. A. Gardner Jr., and Sara Attaway.

Following are the names by classes: Seniors—Wyatt Bonner, James Hussey, Jessie Rutland, Z. L. Strange Sr., Buck Woodard, Lucy Bunce, Frances Coney, Mrs. R. O. DeLoach, Mildred Frazier, Catherine Parrish, Cecilene Swinson, Juanita Thomas, Miriam Townsend, and Martha Watson.

EIGHTEEN NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

Several Former T. C. Students Are Elected Here.

The Georgia Teachers College began its fall academic program with 18 new faculty members. Included on the list is Willard Clanton, of Ellabelle, a member of the 1939 graduating class. There are four Teachers College graduates among the new faculty members.

Clanton, who made an outstanding record during his four years at the Teachers College, returned this fall as assistant to the registrar. During his college career Clanton took an active part in campus activities. He was president of the Dramatic Club, a member of the Reflector staff, a member of the Bachelors Club and Iota Pi Nu fraternity. He was twice an "Honors Day" student, being rec-

The George-Anne extends the heartiest of welcomes to students and faculty members.

Patronize the firms that advertise in our paper. We should show them we appreciate their kindness.

Let's everybody get behind the football team in a big way and do our part towards having a successful season.

The name Georgia Teachers College is now official. SOUTH Georgia Teachers College is no more. So we say, "Hail, Georgia Teachers."

A real interesting, as well as educational, series of Lyceum attractions have been arranged for the school year and every student should take advantage of this by attending all programs.

THE 1939-40 STAFF

The 1939-40 staff of the George-Anne has not been selected.

Every student enrolled this fall—from the smallest freshman to the mightiest senior—will be given an opportunity to become a member of the staff. Any student interested should give his name to the editor, get an assignment and go to work. The complete staff will be made up of those who show the most interest and contribute most to the paper.

OPPORTUNITY AND EDUCATION.

At the beginning of each school year numerous new faces make their appearance on the College campus. True, it is a heterogeneous group both in appearance and ambition. Some are highly ambitious, cognizant of the reward for serious and intentional application. Others have views wherein they regard scholastic work as a mere requirement, a necessary drudgery, with themselves as merely passive individuals. It is not difficult to select the group which is more likely to succeed.

Today in this country there are millions of willing youngsters eager to possess your opportunities. We know that it is human nature to take things too lightly and casually at times; but too much thought cannot be given this question. You who are now the students of this institution should realize that your future is based to a great extent on what you accomplish here. The records, the friendships, and the associations which you make on this campus will play a salient role in your future life. Concentrate your energies and become a proud and contributive part of us.

Diggings

Well, well, here we are back at T. C. with a new "George-Anne" staff, and a new dirt column. So far the dirt hasn't got scandalous, but we are hoping that the next time we will have some first class gossip.

We guess the dirt concerning the faculty should come first. We say this in due respect for certain ones, whether they be faculty or students. First, we want to congratulate Coach on the joke which he pulled on the little boy in chapel. We hear the little boy is plotting, Coach. Second, there is Mr. Turner, who is the handsome French teacher. All the girls seem to be interested, but especially Laura, who is his only student in one French class. Don't misunderstand—we mean interest in French. Then there are the Triplets, Rabun, Cartee, and Clanton. The Freshmen are wondering. Oh, yes, we must mention Mr. Ward and his influence. How about it, Roger?

Next, we want to mention some of the old romances; they are: Frap and Frank; Kathryn and B. H.; Marjorie and Jimmie; Olive and Homer; Miss Edenfield and Mr. Franklin. We need more romancing, so get busy, Frenchmen.

Mary Thomas Perry, you had better watch out in the Rat Court, cause upperclassmen are commenting about the seven young men you were seen with (at one time) in front of East Hall last Wednesday afternoon.

Some Freshmen can't wait to get their names in the column, so here goes. Skirts—Rachel Crouch, Ann Cullens, Mary K. Thomas, Betty Winn, and Margaret Brown. Pants—J. Bird Langley, Billy Ingram, Bill and Leon Culpepper, James Wingate, and J. W. Brinson.

Billie Turner, you seem to be doing all right, but watch that Booker; he's got a line, so they say.

Rachel Moore, it has been reported that you have them running around in circles. How do you do it; by setting their hair in the library?

Leon, you seem to be displaying your talent right well.

Another pair of triplents on the campus—the Carruth twins plus that other boy who looks like them.

These football players have power with the weaker (?) sex; what about it Pafford?

Ask Cobb what he knows about an iceman.

Frances Hughes isn't losing much time since Sonny is away.

We are glad to see Green rhyming with Breene again.

The world's series is making the afternoon class attendance slim, at least we hoped it could.

What freshman girl wanted to know when the sorority tryouts were to be held?

Some freshmen girls seem to think Thursday night is a girl break dance. How is it, fellows?

The health cottage is overcrowded by sick boys. Could that cute nurse have anything to do with it?

One half of a campus landmark is gone—Cope Ozier.

You girls had better get acquainted with Billy Talbert, because it is understood that the girls that he doesn't know on this campus aren't worth knowing.

James Thayer was certainly enjoying himself going all over West Hall, freshman week—working for Miss Edenfield, of course.

THINGS SPIRITUAL

By LOY SCOTT

In 1 Cor. 15:1 Paul writes: "I declare unto you the gospel." That is a great thing to declare; a great thing to accept. This declaration of good news was Paul's theme in all of his preaching and writings. He lived the principles that Christ taught, and is now recognized as one of the greatest of the great. He fought a "World War with the sword of the gospel (glad tidings of great joy) to save Christianity—the world." We fought a World War with swords of steel to end war, to save democracy, and what not. What a laugh.

I beseech you to think about this fact. Look at the difference in the two methods, and the results.

I would that we all had enough of this gospel in our souls to pray for others, but I fear we haven't.

ognized for work in dramatics and for unselfish service to the college.

Other Teachers College graduates who are appearing on the college faculty for the first time this fall are Knapp Boddiford, of Sylvania, instructor in industrial arts, who has been doing graduate work at the Ohio State University; and Willard Cartee of Metter, who taught at Swainsboro during the past year. Cartee was president of the Student Council for his senior year at the Teachers College, and replaces Leonard Kent, instructor in Commerce, who is now on leave of absence to do graduate work at the University of Chicago.

Appearing on the Teachers College faculty for the first time as instructor in the newly organized department of speech is Miss Mamie Jo Jones, who received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Huntington in 1936, and has since been teaching and doing graduate work at Northwestern University.

Heading the library staff is W. W. Smiley, who has been on the library staff at the University of North Carolina where he received his master's degree.

Fielding Russell, brother of Senator Richard B. Russell, and instructor in English, has resumed his regular position on the faculty after being away for two years on leave of absence to do graduate work.

Among the new faculty supervisors and instructors at the Teachers College modern laboratory school is Harris E. Harvill, who received his B. S. degree from the Teachers College in 1939; Miss Odille Ousley, Ewell Glen Pigg, both of whom received their master's degree from Peabody.

Replacing Dr. C. W. Smith in the department of modern languages is E. D. Turner from the University of North Carolina. Dr. Smith is now on the faculty of Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville.

SPORTOLOGY

The George-Anne smiles at you again. We are aware of the fact that when you read these pages and run across your name in print, a faint smile breaks on your face. Most sport columns have always sung the praise for heroes who shine on the Varsity. This column was conceived by its author who realizes that a vast majority of the pupils here participate only in intra-mural athletics, and also realize that numerous are the heroes that brace the teams in the intra-mural leagues. Although they may not be your hero and mine, they are starring for some club and somewhere on the sidelines there is a heart throbbing that thinks he is just as good as the best. Also gathered in the feminine ranks are potential all-Americans in their own right. Those you will also see in this column. So boys and girls, both keep playing and this column will be there to see you, for we contend that any team here is a varsity and deserves its place in our paper.

A revival of interest in football has accompanied the 1939 season at T. C. If football makes history we feel certain that this year will be a historic year for Georgia Teachers College. It may seem strange indeed to the upperclassmen to live again in the atmosphere of the greatest collegiate sport in America. For the past few years interest in football has not been what it should be at Teachers College. This year some of the emergency tanks exploded and out of these has stepped material for a winning ball team.

Putting a good football team before the eyes of Collegeboro is like giving baby dumplin an all-day sucker. Freshmen, eat your candy. Chew on it and tell us how good it was after the Thanksgiving game. We will see that you are not molested for bragging about Georgia Teachers College football team.

Our pig skin brigade has promised to give us a great season by piling up victories. Head Coach Smith, who has been carrying the burden of training the entire squad in past seasons, has now three capable and willing assistants. Line Coach London, who hails from Texas, brings with him that stubborn resistance. The Profs have already displayed this resistance in the Florida game. Backfield Coaches W. S. Hanner and Jim Wrinkle are directing the fleet of backfield aces.

Attention is now focused on the Cuba game. Although the relations will be diplomatic, there will be a clash of helmets and shoulder pads. Be priming for this game. It will be the last game before Nov. 4. Let's make it the best one.

The T. C. civil engineering department is at work spreading cinders on the ball field. I predict that by 1942 floodlights will drive the lightning bugs away, and the Professors will be in the Rose Bowl.

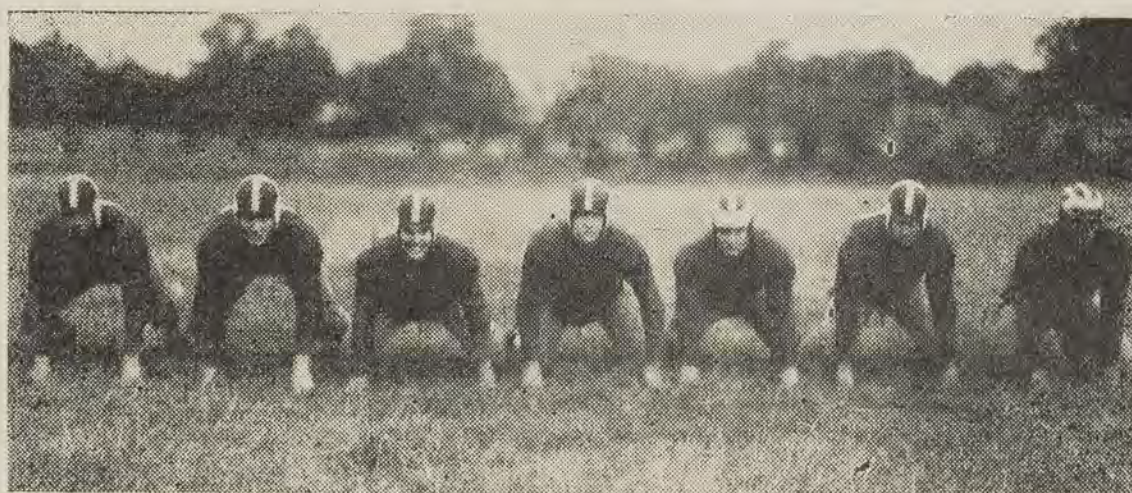

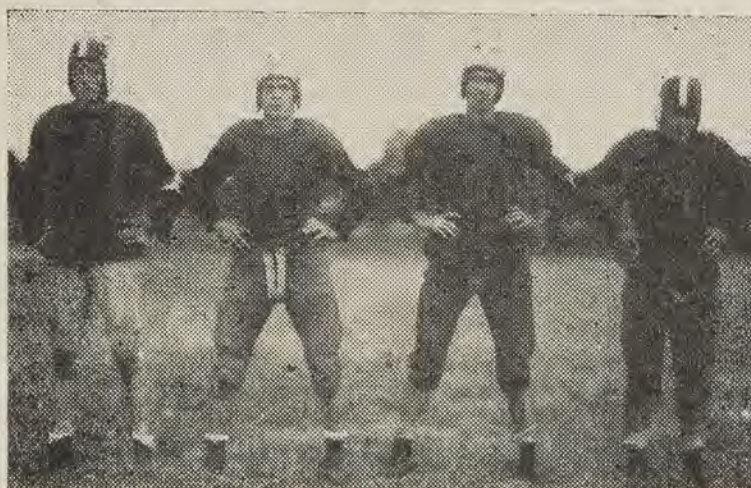

Taking in consideration the lengthy practices since Sept. 4, there has been

Teachers Defeated 19-0 By Stetson

The Blue Tide inaugurated their 1939 football season by losing a hard fought game to the strong Stetson Hatters, although the score was 19-0. This is not an indicator of the fight that the Tide displayed.

In the opening minutes of the game the Teachers drove deep into Stetson's territory. Puny Moss began the attack with a spectacular run over center. A series of plays carried the ball to the Hatters' eight-yard line, but Stetson held on downs.

Stetson turned on the offensive in the last of the first quarter and scored on an aerial attack. But the Teachers blocked the kick for the extra point. The Hatters scored again in the second and third quarters, the Professors being able to block one of the kicks.

In the fourth quarter T. C. regained her first quarter effectiveness and outplayed the Floridians, holding them scoreless. Once during this quar-

ELECTION RESULTS

At a special meeting of the Senior class held last week Edward Carruth was elected student council representative. He is to replace Clyde Anderson, who did not return to school. Edward is a very popular student on the campus here, and is an active member of several organizations.

Cheer Leaders Selected

Cheer leaders for the coming year were selected by trial Wednesday afternoon. Out of the many contestants, Marguerite Mathews, Maxann Foy, Mary Graham, Julia Meadows, Isabel Farmer, Roger MacMillan and Charlie Leighton were selected. The cheer leaders from last year are Froggie Breene and Hugh Hodges.

INTRA-MURALS TO START SOON

Intra-mural sports at T. C. are almost under way with the schedule being made and the teams being recruited from the new students.

Intra-mural sports constitute the most inclusive activity of the campus. Every student should make a great effort to compete in these sports.

In touch football this fall, there will be several teams competing. The Y. M. C. A., the Bugger Daggers, the two fraternities, and several other organizations are working hard. What the faculty will do with the changing of players is still unknown. Possibly they are using the strategy of the dark horse to affect the resemblance of lame ducks that they furnished after their second game last year.

The value of intra-murals cannot be over-estimated. Besides providing greatly need exercise to most of the students, with the consequent relaxation that is necessary to healthful living, it provides the opportunity for team work that is such an important asset in the education of an individual.

The most important feature of this activity, however, is the example of good sportsmanship that it provided in every game by some team or some individual.

This writer suggests that the winner of this year's touch football championship be rewarded with a chicken supper.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR A GOOD BAND

The prospects for a good marching band this fall are very bright, as shown by the rehearsal last week and the showing at the game last Saturday. An interesting feature of the band was the two majorettes, Margaret Brown and Catherine Joyner, who were coached by Azalie Hartley. Several boys are out for drum major, but a selection has not been made for the position yet. Mr. Harris is planning to use many new formations on the field, and the band has about twenty new pieces to be played during the football games.

lina, comes to the Teachers College from Fitzgerald where he has been teaching.

Of special interest to the older students and graduates of the Teachers College is the appearance of R. H. London as instructor in industrial arts. Mr. London is the brother of Dr. H. H. London, who organized the first industrial arts department at the Teachers College, and is now instructor at Mississippi State.

Other new faculty members are: Mrs. James Reid Robson, home economics instructor who received her B. S. and M. A. degree from Columbia University; Miss Julia McMahan, M. A., from Peabody, who replaces Miss Sanford in the laboratory school; Miss Miss Cleora Weaver, who received a B. S. degree from Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, has charge of commercial subjects in the laboratory school. Miss Eva Parnell, who has a B. S. degree from Peabody, is the college nurse; Mrs. Cynthia Davis, dietitian, who has an A. B. degree from Georgia University and a B. S. in home economics, which was also received at Georgia; and Mrs. R. H. Crouse, secretary of the library staff.

DELTA SIGMA

The Delta Sigma fraternity entertained Tuesday night with a supper for about 60 freshmen and new upper-classmen at Booth's fish pond.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Anyone interested in dramatics should by all means get in touch with Miss Mamie Jo Jones and find out all about the plans for this term. You may be just the person to put T. C. on the map in a dramatic way.

BUGGER DAGGERS

The Bugger Dagggers held their first meeting of the year last Wednesday night. Jack Reiser was elected vice-president to replace Clyde Anderson, who did not return to school this fall. Several new men were pledged to the club. They are: Edward Carruth, Carlton Carruth, Hendry Bagley, Tom Patat, Adolph Drury, and Charles Stanfield.

LAMDA THETA CHI

The Lamda Theta Chis held their first formal meeting of the year Thursday night, September 28, at the home of their sponsor, Miss Malvina Trussell. The new officers elected were: Jewell Vandiver, president; Dorothy Cromley, vice-president. Other members attending were: Frances Harrison, Emolyn Rainey, Eula Beth Jones, Isabel Trussell, and Bettie McLeomore.

THE EPICUREAN SORORITY

The Epicurean Sorority held its first meeting of the year in the little parlor of East Hall Tuesday, October 3. Serving as hostesses were: Misses Margaret Ann Johnston, Tommie Gray, and Frances Hughes. After a brief business session, refreshments were served.

The Epicureans and Dux Domina Sororities entertained with a joint tea dance Saturday afternoon, September 30. The Statesboro High School orchestra furnished music.

Twenty-eight girls were invited as stags in addition to the members and their dates.

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club held its first meeting last Tuesday night in the auditorium.

The officers of the club for the year 1939-40 are: Ted Booker, president; Elliot Boswell, vice-president; Frances Hughes, secretary; Wenona Carpenter, program chairman.

It was decided the club would meet every second and fourth Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock. Future programs will center around the study of operas.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Destler Wednesday night, October 4, with thirty members present.

Edward Carruth, resident president of the club, introduced J. C. Ward, guest speaker of the evening, who gave a brief resume of the history of Poland and led a heated discussion on the question "Is Poland Worth Fighting For?"

IOTA PI NU

The Iota Pi Nu fraternity entertained its members, pledges and several invited guests with a chicken supper Tuesday evening at the Woman's Club. Among the guests present were Sam Rumph, Leon Culpepper, Tom Jenkins, Wayne Culbreth, Bobby Carroll, Harry Robinson, J. D. Langley, Ross Rountree, Norman Sperry, Reese Ellison, George Pafford, Hill Paschal, Joe Stanford, G. C. Coleman, Cecil Olmstead, Charles Smith, Billy Martin, Billy Ingram, Robert Chrsolm. Old members and pledges present were Billy Talbert, Frank Hook, Herman Wrinkle, Peck Hamil, Hugh Maxwell, Hugh Hodges, Ted Booker, James Aldred, Marion Carpenter, Roy Rabun, Jim Wrinkle, Willard Clanton, Willard Cartee, John King, Horace Johnson, David Bowman, Robert Moye, J. W. Bragg, Willie Barfield, Clifford Wells, Punky Perriman, and Joe Ingram.

VESPER CHOIR

Janetta Caldwell, president of the choir, and Mrs. Henderson, director, urge all singers to take an active part in the Vesper Choir.

We, the choir, feels that God can be a blessing to others by singing praises unto Him. Come, give us your talent and co-operation, and we shall have a glorious time together.

Practice is held at 2 p. m. each Sunday afternoon. We're expecting you!
