ALUMNI TO RETURN THURSDAY

ARMSTRONG GEECHEES WILL BE FOE OF PROFS THANKSGIVING

KICK-OFF IS SET FOR TWO-THIRTY

Hamil and Joyner Will Sing the Swan Song for Teachers
Here Thursday.

The Armstrong Geechees, of Savannah, will be foes of the Blue Tide Thanksgiving Day on the local field. The game is scheduled to get underway at two-thirty p. m.

The annual game which pits these traditional rivals against one another promises to be a thriller. The two previous engagements between these teams have resulted in a win for each. Thursday's game will likely decide who will go ahead in the running.

On paper Armstrong is not so formidable this year. The team at the beginning of the season was inexperienced. However, with the experience gained by the five games they have already played they can be depended upon to furnish their usual tough opposition.

The Profs bearing a few bruises sustained in the Appalachian-Teachers game, are in good shape. Their running attack and blocking has been much better than usual in practice the past week. Langley, Hamil, See TEACHERS, page 3

MASQUERS DEBUT A HUGE SUCCESS

Members of the Cast Do Excellent Work in Their Parts

The Masquers, under the direction of Miss Mamie Josephine Jones, scored a hit in their production of "The Three Cornered Moon," a comedy in three acts by Gertrude Tonk-nogoy.

The play was held in the college auditorium on Thursday evening, November 16. The cast included: Jelks Taylor, B. L. Douglas, Marie Pearson, Hilda Ward, James Moore, Sybil Strickland, Bill Brigham, Homer Blitch, and Rose Lockhart.

Much credit is due to the splendid direction of Miss Jones, who was capably assisted by Eddie Najjar, assistant director; Wesley Sherman, stage manager; Frank Aguirre, lights manager; Margaret Johnston, property manager; Sara Godbee, make-up manager; and Essie Langford, publicity manager.

The dramatic club has been greatly revived by the addition of Miss Jones See MASQUERS, page 3

PRESENTS PROGRAM

PALMER PRESENTS LYCEUM NUMBER

Noted Artist to Appear Here Next Monday

The first lyceum number of the 1939-40 series will be presented in the college auditorium Monday evening, November 27, at eight o'clock. At that time Dr. Carlton Palmer, noted artist, will present his widely acclaimed art talk, "The Joy of Pictures."

Dr. Palmer has charmed millions of people with this excellent talk.

Rolling over the country with a motor car full of beautiful pictures which he has collected all over the world, Palmer takes his gallery of pictures to the remotest parts, and brings to thousands, for the first time, the beauty of art.

William F. Russell, dean of Teachers College at Columbia University, said the following concerning Dr. Palmer and his talks: "I have been to many Teachers Associations and have heard many addresses, but I have never heard one that was more pleasing to me personally and that meant more to me than that given at Bridgeport by Carlton Palmer. I commend it in highest terms."

Everyone who is interested in the finer things of life should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear Dr. Palmer.

HOSTETLER VISITS

Mr. Ivan Hostetler, of the Industrial Arts Department, visited Fitzgerald and Ben Hill county Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. While there he spoke to the Rotary Club and made an inspection of Fitzgerald's new Industrial Arts department.

PLANS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR AN ELABORATE HOME-COMING

DEPUTATION TEAM RENDERS PROGRAM

The first program of the Deputation Team away from the college campus was given at the Methodist Church in Statesboro, Sunday night, November 12. The program presented was practically the same as that presented at an earlier date in Vespers.

The Y. M. C. A. is gratified with the results of the team's work thus far. Other appearances of the team are to be made in the near future at Metter, Guyton, and other nearby towns. The enthusiasm of this phase of work is growing continuously and another team is in the process of See DEPUTATION, page 9

CLUBS TO STAGE FLOAT PARADE

Ideas Conceived in Student Council and Accepted By Clubs

A new tradition was started last year on Home-coming day when the student council sponsored a parade of floats representing the various organizations on the campus. The parade of last year was a great success, and this year it is planned to be still better. The student council offers a loving cup to the winner of the best decorated float in the opinion of the judges.

This year, several organizations have already entered floats, and many of the other clubs and groups are expected to enter. According to D. R. Barber, parade chairman, there will be two bands in the parade. The Teachers College band under the direction of Mr. Ernest Harris will follow the official car. Further back in the parade will be the Statesboro High School band under the direction of Marion Carpenter, a senior of T. C.

The parade was instigated to create school spirit and as a means of entertainment for the returning alumni. The flag rush that was formerly held on Thanksgiving morning was moved to November 4 in order to give the parade more time to parade the streets of Statesboro.

All entries will meet at the railroad between the college and town at ten-thirty Thursday morning. The parade will proceed from there to town and back again.

elaborate home-coming program when they return to the campus Thursday. Excellent work has been done and new plans have been made to make home-coming a great success.

Invitations have been sent out to hundreds of the alumni by the Student Council. Plans have been made for the acceptance of most of these invitations. The parade of the floats through town and the Teachers - Armstrong football game are two of the main events on the day's program. The senior class will be hosts to the alumni at a luncheon to be held in the dining hall. The banquet in the dining hall at 6:30 p. m. and the dance in the gym, beginning at 8 o'clock, will close the day's festivities.

BIDGOOD ELECTED FROSH PRESIDENT

Rumph, Olmstead, Watson and Salley Also Receive Offices.

Robert Bidgood, Dublin, was elected president of the freshmen class in a special election of officers by the freshmen which was held last Tuesday. There were two other men in the race, but Bidgood received a majority in the first count. George Preston, Statesboro, and J. D. Langley, Cedartown, were the other men in the race.

Sam Rumph, Marshallville, was elected vice-president over his opponents, Mary Thomas Perry, Sylvania; J. W. Brinson, Wrightsville, and Carlton Stephens, Sycamore.

No candidate for secretary received a majority in the first election for that office. A run-over was held with David Watson, Fitzgerald, emerging the victor. Others in this race were Carl Hutchins, Sparta, and Joyce Jones, Louisville.

Nancy Salley, Cedartown, defeated Thera Dell Rountree, Canoochee, in a run-over election for treasurer. Grace See BIDGOOD, page 3

BIBLE VERSE.

"I have broken the bands of your yoke."—Lev. 26:13.

Congratulations to the winners in the Freshmen election.

It is gratifying to see the increased interest that is being displayed in the religious organizations on the campus.

The new lighting system on the campus has certainly helped the looks of the campus at night. "It" looks like a real city all lit up.

No student can afford to miss the opportunity of hearing Dr. Carlton Palmer give his Art Lecture next Monday night. He is a noted artist and has been widely received throughout the nation.

The first production of the dramatic club this year proved to be a great success. That cast and others who helped put the play over could easily make a success on Broadway. Keep up the good work, Miss Jones and Dramatic club.

WELCOME ALUMNI

There seems to be few traditions on our campus that have any real significance or firm hold on us. There is, however, one iron-clad tradition to which we have conformed here at Georgia Teachers College, and that tradition is: Thanksgiving is Home-coming!

Each and every year the Alumni of this school come back to renew old acquaintances, make new friendships, observe the growth of the college, and have a good time in general.

The first year that home-coming was staged here, it may not have seemed so important to students or alumni to make this day a success. But with the splendid growth of the school and student body, and the increasing number of Alumni, home-coming has become the most important day of the year.

This year our program for home-coming has been worked on unsparingly by students and faculty, and we hope that the Alumni will have a most enjoyable day here with us. We all join in one tumultuous "Welcome Alumni."

Diggings

Well, here it is "Blue Monday", and time for some "red hot" dirt. I hope I'm not going to have to stretch the truth too far to get enough scandal to fill this page.

Did somebody say something about lights? Miss Veazy, you might as well "light up" this column, since you always make light of it.

Can anybody tell why Elmer Groover is coming to the library so regular at night?

Hilda Ward has a tale to tell about the concert in Savannah. We wonder what a glove has to do with it.

Doris Toni is a most versatile girl, and a certain Michigan lad found it out. He sends telegrams on Sunday.

Why are Joe Ingram and Ben Ayers so glad that we have changed tables? Is it that they like cherry pie?

Ask Virginia if she likes coffee (Maxwell). She says it's good to the last drop.

It's not Kitty's fault that Bill Chambliss' table starves for butter.

Azile is having a time dressing dignified. The critics told her to dress less childish.

Here is to Marjorie Brewer, West Hall's Cooking Queen. She likes bookkeeping, too.

David Bowman, don't get conceited over your rush. I've heard all kinds of complaints since certain ones found out that you are only seventeen. Hurry and grow up; they will wait.

Miriam Girardeau, Miss Veazy congratulates you on your courting ability; she doesn't believe it when she sees you holding Bubby's hand.

J. D. and George seem to be doing all right. We do wish, though, that Rachael was taller, since some juniors lack energy after ball games.

John Roberts has written a unit on air, and he nearly chose the right topic. I judge him by the "hot air" he blows off about the confounded thing.

Behold! Pat Padgett has run into difficulty with her romance.

The six weeks test in Bushology was very easy. The following grades were made: Marjorie Forehand and Jimmy Thayer, A; B. H. and Catherine, A; Bagley and Miller, A-; Cobb and Hamil, B; Hugh and Peggy, B; Carolyn Foster and Bobby Bidgood, B-; Sybil and Billy, C; Anne Breen and B. L. Douglas, C-; D. R. and Tommie, D-; Mr. Cartee, F.

If it's not Frances Deal, it's Frances Sperry. These Franceses are making it hot for you, eh Mug?

Kids, I think Ren Turner has it bad. What do you think? He seems to be hanging round (th) tree pretty regularly.

William Waters was in pretty hot water when a certain co-ed wrote and asked him to take her to the dance.

Frances Hughes has to keep a "date" book to see who she is to walk around with (and what else) every day after meals.

THINGS SPIRITUAL

By LOY SCOTT

"Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever." (Rev. 7:12).

I am of the opinion that we do not thank God for what He is to all people. That is, we thank something for what we have, and are, etc., without giving God proper credit, and many times we fail to realize the perfectness and completeness of God and His relationship with man in his progress.

An unknown writer in "Moody's Monthly" shows what Christ is to man in his many walks of life. The following disclose this fact:

"To the architect He is the Chief Corner Stone; to the artist He is the One Altogether Lovely; to the baker He is the Living Bread; to the banker He is the Hidden Treasure; to the biologist He is the Life; to the builder He is the Sure Foundation; to the doctor He is the Great Physician; to the educator He is the Great Teacher; to the farmer He is the Lord of the Harvest; to the florist He is the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley; to the geologist He is the Rock of Ages; to the jurist He is the Righteous Judge; to the jeweler He is the Great Price; to the horticulturist He is the True Vine; to the newspaper man He is the Good Tidings of Great Joy; to the student He is the Incarnate Truth; to the toiler He is the Giver of Rest; to the sinner He is the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world."

Please let me ask you to be grateful for what He is to you. And I beseech you to permit Him to have His way with you. Christ is all that any person needs.

Dean Henderson Welcomes Alumni

The students and teachers at Georgia Teachers College have been thinking of home-coming on Thanksgiving Day for some time. The new teachers and students want to meet the former students and graduates. They already know some of the Alumni because of the things the upperclassmen have said about them. They want to see you and verify the information they have about you. The students and faculty members who have been here for one or more years want to have the opportunity of renewing friendships and exchanging experiences. May another day spent on the campus make Georgia Teachers College dearer to you.

Z. S. HENDERSON.

Let's have the "pep" at that game Thursday. We want those "Geechees."

If it isn't funny enough to tell, it's been told; if it hasn't been told, it's too clean; and if it's dirty enough to interest a frosh, the editor gets kicked out of school.

Dr. Pittman Extends Welcome To Alumni

Dear Alumni,

Do you remember when you were a very small child and your big brother or sister came home from college? He, she had been away for long-long time—three months, perhaps. For days there had been excitement around the old place. Something was in the air. Enticing orders were coming from the kitchen. The yard was swept clean. Flowers decorated the table. Dad stepped more lively and Mother's face was radiant with joy. The children were counting off the days on their fingers until "Brother, Sister comes home."

That's the way we feel at the college about you. The upper classmen remember you as the "big shots" when they were freshmen. The lower classmen have seen your large footprints here on the campus sand and the faculty love you and long for you as all good parents long for their children—good and bad—and long to have you come home.

We hope you will have a good time today. We have planned it that way. It will make us all happy if we see you wearing smiles of joy as you greet old friends, showing surprise as you see youngsters taking your places and filling them better than you did, and having a sense of pride that you are a member of the Alumni of a college whose mission is second to none—that of creating well equipped, inspired and inspiring leaders for Georgia's public schools. We welcome you back home today.

MARVIN S. PITTMAN.

Davis and Smith have shown up good. Parker is in his usual stride.

The Armstrong team is in possibly the best condition of the season. They present a heavy and alert line. Pinckney and Ray, guards, and Miller, right tackle, are stalwarts in the line. Hart at half back and McCall at fullback have been gaining ground consistently all season.

The probable line-ups:

Armstrong	Teachers
McLaughlin E	Parker
Bentley E	Paschal
Ihley T	Smith
Glass T	Pafford
Pinckney G	Horne
Miller G	Robertson
Gordon C	Langley
DeLoach QB	Rountree
Hart HB	Cason
Finney HB	Cox
McCall FB	Barnes

Dotson was also in this race for treasurer.

No candidate for Student Council representative received a majority in the first election for that office. A run-over between Harry Robertson, Waycross, and Cecil Olmstead, Hinesville, was necessary, with Olmstead being victorious. Marie Pearson, Savannah, and Robert Chisolm, Brunson, S. C., also ran.

Visitor to Freshman: "Son, what is your greatest ambition?"

Freshman: "To be an upperclassman."

Following is the tentative schedule of the Forward Georgia program each Thursday afternoon, 5 o'clock, sponsored by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia, and broadcast over Radio Station W.S.B.

November—

23. Montgomery Knight, Georgia Tech, "Flying for Everybody."

30. Frederick W. Bennett, the University of Georgia, "Dairying in Georgia."

December—

7. F. F. Cowart and M. M. Murphy, Georgia Experiment Station, Experiment, "A Comparison of Grapes and Peaches."

14. J. W. Fannig and Kenneth Treanor, Extension Service, "Land Use and Program Planning."

21. Glenn W. Burton, Georgia Coastal Plain Experiment Station, Tifton, "Pasture Development in Georgia."

28. R. S. Howell, director Evening School of Applied Sciences, Georgia Tech, on his department.

Science Seminar Holds Meeting Once A Month

The Science Seminar decided to hold its regular meeting on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p. m. B. H. Ramsey is chairman of the program committee and Kitty Dubberly is secretary. The groups chose topics which will be discussed at the programs throughout the year. The following were appointed chairmen for the programs.

December, "Consumer's Science," Margaret Bennett;

January, "Review of 1939 in Science," Hugh Hodges;

February, "Did You Know?" J. R. Turner;

March, "Nobel Prizes," Jewell Vandiver;

April, "Research," Bill Chambliss;

May, "Photography," Kitty Dubberly and Robert Brown.

All students and faculty members who are interested in science are invited to join the club.

as their director, and if their first production is a fair sample of what is to come, then we can all expect great things from the Masquers, in the future.

Dedication Exercises Held Last Monday

The dedication exercises for the new lighting system on the campus were held in front of the administration building immediately after supper Monday, November 13th.

After a period of group singing led by Mr. Ronald J. Neil, Dr. Pittman introduced the president of each class except the Freshmen, who at that time had not elected their president, but who consented for Joe Farmer to represent them. These three presidents, Billy Talbert, Seniors; D. R. Barber, Juniors, and Joe Ingram, Sophomores, each made a few remarks. Dr. Pittman then introduced "Aunt" Sophie Johnson, dean of men, Miss Mamie Veasy, dean of women, Miss Malvina Trussell, Biology professor, Mr. W. R. Bennett, campus engineer, and "Dean" Nations, custodian, each of whom in turn made a short talk. Dr. Pittman then made a few remarks concerning the new system. The lights were turned on by Mr. Bennett, and the ceremonies were completed by everyone singing the Alma Mater.

Students Are Urged To Attend Sunday School

All students are cordially invited to attend Baptist Sunday School and drive their favorite automobile to its destination. Last Sunday the Dodge, which is the favorite car, came out in the lead.

This trip is not all together a contest, however, for the Baptist Sunday School. Its main purpose is to serve as an inspiration to get more college boys and girls to attend a religious service on Sunday morning.

In order to make a quick trip, we have abolished many traffic laws such as: Speeding, driver's license, and over three in the front seat. So all are eligible to drive fast and crowd the cars each Sunday morning at 10:15.

The blindest people in the world are those who believe everything they see.

A prof. who comes two minutes early to class is very rare—in fact, he's in a class by himself.

The Morning Watch programs are presented for your benefit. Join in and get something out of them.

Hope the football boys don't fall for any of those Senoritas in Havana. And you be careful, too, Coach.

HENDERSON HEADS COMMERCE GROUP

Mr. Henderson Has Been a Most Useful Member of This Organization

Dean Z. S. Henderson was elected president of the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Tuesday, November 7. Mr. Henderson succeeds Dr. A. J. Mooney as president of the organization.

The new president has been a most useful and energetic member of the Chamber of Commerce since coming to Statesboro as dean of this college, some twelve years ago. Some of the most important programs ever rendered by this dynamic organization were formulated by Dean Henderson. His capacity to render services in other lines has also been most useful.

Dean, as he is most commonly known on the campus, is regarded by the students and faculty as one of the best men anywhere, and his election to this responsible position shows that his very fine reputation is not limited to the college campus.

Dr. Daniel Speaks To The Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Bird Daniel, of Statesboro, was the principal speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting in Sanford Lounge Wednesday night. He used as his subject, "Living by the Laws of Nature." Through the course of his talk he outlined the causes and effects of social diseases. The talk was well received by the entire membership.

At this time, the second deputation team of the Y. M. C. A. is being organized. The first team had charge of the program at the Methodist church last Sunday night, and is planning to take charge of the morning service at the Presbyterian church Sunday, Nov. 26. Other probable towns on the list include Metter, Sylvania, and Guyton for this quarter. Ted Booker and Mr. Paul Thompson are in charge of the deputation teams.

Buzzy Bag Bites

By BAGLEY

Well, finally Teachers College made headlines in a Savannah paper. It takes big prestige to do this. The words as we read constitute the biggest joke possible. We would like to say that twenty-two T. C. boys got $46 apiece for nine months' work, equal to $5.10 per month in return for mowing lawns, cutting underbrush, sweeping buildings, etc., as well as building up the general treasury of this college by doing the hardest job at Collegeboro for two and one-half months—playing football. Where goes the mention of the frog skins the "Blue Boy" brought back when T. C. played those Florida teams last year? Too, how does a junior college coach call up a player trying out at a senior college and persuade him to come to his school? Maybe this was a star and T. C. offered him only a small job, the same that every other man was offered.

Still T. C. hasn't lost a home game on their field this year. The Armstrong clash should be of interest from this standpoint. In the Snead game we saw Coach Smith use two entirely different teams. Every man who reported to practice on September 4 and is still on the squad saw action that day. Mutt and Jeff, the Delaware boys, have no experience, and did not play that day, but these boys show good spirit in practice.

Whether it was the spirit or spirits that moved the T. C. student body, they gave the football team a good send-off to Cochran. T. C. lost, but played without her "middle back"—the band. Why? The president of Cochran simply wouldn't play host to our band.

Those who follow the intra-mural competition have seen some good games. The teams are unbalanced and the season has been marked with the leading teams winning over the cellar dwellers by one sided scores. The Pi Nu Fraternity and the Bugger-Daggers are holding top positions with the D. S. Fraternity and the Outlaws pushing hard. The Pi Nus have a total score of 66-7 against their opponents while the B. D.s have a total of 191-7. Present predictions are that the game between these two teams will determine who will get the unheard of "biddie supper."

A visit to the Gym revealed a honey of a class, in fact "Honeys" class. The girls were learning to be contortionists, and over on the tennis courts, the girls tennis tournament is still going on—Miss Bye hasn't won a game yet. Lottie Miller's speedball team took first honors in the Freshman speedball league, but along came the Sophomores and defeated the Freshmen 16-2. Hartley, Bowen and Snead lead the attack. Hostilities broke out when Hartley kicked a freshman girl in the bread basket because a few minutes later she got a nasty punch in the eye. Now who says that girls aren't good sports; they tolerate a class where they are required to play with bean bags.

Nosing around the boxers corner we hear that T. C. will again take to the gloves. We hope to see Bragg in the ring again. The prospects are good, being made up mostly of newcomers. "Smelling Salts" Bacon, brother of Pineapple, is expected to spar for his brother's old position as manager.

As a thump of a basketball is heard down in the Gym, we go down to look over the possibilities for this year. We find it too early to see any Varsity cagers at work. A few freshmen are already working out. Concentration on varsity positions is not expected until after December 5, but Freshmen practice may begin immediately.

Dots and dashes (. . .)—Freshman Griner still proud of the satin he pulled down November 4—Reiser a cog in the Varsity football—Barnes did a great piece of running in the Snead game—Morgan, Mize, Ellison, Anglin and Sperry playing approximately thirty-minutes of each game—Jenkins leads Physical Education tournament—Tumbling boys doing "didos" in Gym—Too few faculty members come to playnights in Gym—Horse shoe game at Sanford still popular—No faculty member has yet challenged Mr. Smiley to a bicycle race—Miss Veazy decides not to run Dean Nations on Sadie Hawkins day, her excuse was afraid he would outrun her anyway—Profs Look Forward to Armstrong Game.

BUGGER-DAGGERS ARE LEADING THE TOUCH FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Boxing Aspirants Begin Training

With Coach Fielding Russell back, boxing will be renewed this year. Last season the Profs had no leather punching team due to the absence of Coach Russell. This year everything is being adjusted to give Collegeboro some good fights.

Training has begun already with light gymnastics and road work being given. The outlook is bright for a successful team if the twenty-three boys who reported will stick with the gloves. A few football boys will pick up the leather when football season is over.

The season will not begin until after Christmas and as yet no bouts have been scheduled. There is high hopes of having the freshmen from the University of Florida, as well as one of the Geechee teams from Savannah, on the schedule.

Basketball Practice To Start At Early Date

According to Coach "Crook" Smith, basketball practice will begin immediately after Thanksgiving. Although Smith cannot be present until after the T. C.-Havana football game, an assistant will be present to carry on the practices.

Basketball material is plentiful this year. It is hoped that the number reporting for practice will be even greater than forty, the number that reported last year.

The varsity schedule is being worked out at present, but will not be completed for about three weeks.

The official season will begin after Christmas, and no post-season games will be scheduled because of the prolongation of the football season.

Teachers Beaten 13-6 By Wolverines

The M. G. C. Wolverines defeated the Georgia Teachers at Cochran Friday night, November 10, 13-6. The game was played before a large homecoming crowd.

The Wolverines scored their touchdowns in the second quarter. The first came after a Teacher fumble on the T. C. 35 yard line. The Wolverines drove from there to a touchdown. The second was scored on a pass interception by Ross Abney.

The lone Teacher tally came early in the fourth quarter on a pass from Hall to Parker. "Gas House" made a beautiful catch in the end zone to score the touchdown.

The outstanding feature of the game was the punting done by both teams. Rountree and Langley of the Teachers and Gay of Middle Georgia got off some excellent kicks.

The Bugger-Daggers lead the intra-mural football league with a perfect record and with only one touchdown scored against them to date. This touchdown was scored by a hard fighting Delta Sigma team that hardly knew when to stop.

The touch football games have been unusually good this year with a strong spirit of rivalry shown in every game. Several of them have been won and lost in the last few minutes of play, as was the case in the Iota Pi Nu-Delta Sigma game when the Iota Pi Nu team pulled a pass out of their sleeves in the last few seconds to win the game.

Of the games that were played in the last two weeks the winners and losers were: Winners—Enlow, Iota Pi Nu, Bugger-Daggers, Delta Sigma, Enlow, Y. M. C. A., Iota Pi Nu, Bugger-Daggers. Losers—Y. M. C. A., Eating Eights, N. Y. A., Warren, Eating Eights, N. Y. A., Warren, Delta Sigma.

Bugger-Daggers	1000
Iota Pi Nu	1000
Enlow	667
Delta Sigma	667
Y. M. C. A.	500
N. Y. A.	333
Eating Eight	000
Warren	000

The list of the leading scorers to date is as follows: Carroll, Bugger-Daggers, 52; Blitch, Enlow, 38; Bagley, Bugger-Daggers, 39; Stanfield, Bugger-Daggers, 38; Braswell, Delta Sigma, 36.

Sophomore Cardinals Victorious Over Frosh

The Sophomore Cardinals defeated the Freshmen Hot Shots with a score of 13-2 in a peppy game of speed ball Monday afternoon. Mildred Bowen scored 9 of the 13 points. Azile Hartley was never at a loss when it came to stopping balls (ask her how it feels to get one in the face). The forward line on the Hot Shots team did outstanding work in speed and team work.

Games will be played Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Everybody come out.

I walked into a barber shop,
The sign was very queer:
"During alterations
We'll shave you in the rear."

A professor, coming to one of his classes a little late, found a most uncomplimentary caricature of himself drawn on the board. Turning to the student nearest to him, he angrily inquired: "Do you know who is responsible for that atrocity?"

"No, sir, I don't" replied the student, "but I strongly suspect his parents."

Fighting Profs Defeat Snead

The Professors playing under the spirit of home atmosphere outclassed Snead College to win 13-6 on November 4. By winning this game, the Teachers remain undefeated on the local football field.

Not until after the third quarter did T. C. gain sufficient lead to permit the home fans to breathe normally. The first quarter was marked by an exchange of punts. Within one minute of the half, the Profs carried the ball to Snead's 40 yard line by passing. Barnes and Hall ran the ball to the 10 yard line. A high pass from Hall to Parker netted a score. The try for point was no good. In the third quarter, a pass, plus four consecutive laterals, placed T. C. on Snead's two yard line. On the second down a pass from Hall to Parker was again good for a touchdown. Rountree kicked the extra point.

Late in the last quarter Snead scored on a last minute drive but failed to make the extra point.

Coach Smith used two different teams against Snead, each playing one half the game. Every man who reported to practice on September 4, and who is still on the team, saw action in this game.

Grid Prospects For 1940 Season Are Very Bright

With only two of this year's football squad graduating, hopes are running high for a good year of football in 1940. This year, T. C. has played some good ball games, losing three of the four games lost by only one touchdown.

With this year's experience, T. C.'s line will be set for another season. The Freshmen linemen, Mize, Paschal, Langley, Davis and Horne, will have three more years of college football. Sophomores, Smith, Morgan, Dunn, Anglin, and Morrison, needed this year's experience in the line. Parker, Pafford, and Robertson have been mainstays in the line this season and will see action again next year.

In the backfield Rountree and Barnes, both freshmen this year, are just beginning to match each others paces. Sophomores Reiser and Sperry have displayed speed which will be turned into a drive. Hall, Cox, Ellison, and Cason are Juniors, but are playing their first season with the Tide, and will be available next year.

Experience of players is always needed but experience of the team as a whole means more to a winning ball team. We have at present a young ball team which can go places if kept together for another year.

Frosh: I was out with a nurse last night.

Co-ed: Well, cheer up. Maybe your mother will let you go out without one pretty soon.

SING SWAN SONG THURSDAY

HERSHEL HAMIL

Hershel Hamil and Joe Joyner will wind up their football careers this year and will play in their last home game when Teachers meet Armstrong here Thanksgiving Day.

Hamil, a veteran of three years, has been a mainstay in the line. He has shown much power in getting down the field on punts.

JOE JOYNER

Joyner, a veteran of two years, has developed into a nice back. His first year saw him in the center position, and he is remembered for fifty minutes of football against Mercer in 1937.

VESPER SERVICES HAVE IMPROVED

The Vesper services held each Sunday evening at 7:15 in the college auditorium are attracting the majority of the college students.

Interesting and helpful programs based upon a Christian theme are presented. The increasingly large attendance is a direct response to the splendid programs. These programs, alternately planned by Ted Booker and Kitty Dubberly, have attained a higher standard than previously. They are succeeding in uniting members of the student body in closer spiritual fellowship.

Recent programs are those given by the Deputation Team, W. S. Haner, and Mrs. Albert Deal. Their respective themes were: "Happiness", Religion in Science", "Youth and Religion".

The Vesper Choir continues to be an important feature of the program.

116 STUDENTS HAVE UNSATISFACTORY CARDS

There were 116 students who did unsatisfactory work for the first six weeks of school, according to Dean Z. S. Henderson. Of the 116 who were doing unsatisfactory work, 62 of them were freshmen, 28 were sophomores, 18 juniors and 8 seniors. When worked out on a percentage basis it was shown that 30 per cent of the freshmen received unsatisfactory reports, 19 per cent of the sophomores, 21 per cent of the juniors and 13 per cent of the seniors. Since there are 508 students enrolled in school, the per cent doing unsatisfactory work was 22.

Flapper: I would like to try on that dress in the window.

Saleslady: Sorry, but you'll have to use the dressing room.

T. C. Plans To Join National Celebration

Georgia Teachers College plans to join the nation-wide celebration of a Century of Public Teacher Education.

A pageant will be presented on the evening of December 1. The pageant will contrast the difference in the new and old type of public teacher education in every department, including games, arts, etc. The high lights of the pageant will be when one of the laboratory classes is shown being taught in the regular manner.

This centennial celebration is being carried on over the entire nation by the 191 teachers colleges in the U. S. A.

Dr. Pittman was selected as committeeman from the southeastern states, which include Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina.

The program for the pageant is not yet complete. A committee of 16 with Miss Hester Newton as chairman is working on the program.

Girls Urged To Enter Athletic Activities

The Womens Athletic council meets every month for the purpose of planning activities for the girls on our campus. They plan a varied program so that each girl should be able to find at least one team sport and one individual sport in which she is interested. Everyone should take part in some wholesome, active exercise every day. Yet we find it almost impossible to get the girls of the Junior and Senior class out.

Boys should not have the corner on "play", or team loyalty. Let's rally round, girls, and show that we can be good sports, too.

BOBBLES---By Bobby

Having observed that the assistant editor is regarded somewhat as a vice-president—the only difference is that my name is not Throttlebottom—I intend to do something about it at once.

If at no other time during the year I shall avail myself of this opportunity to rise and assert myself.

There is a little matter of nomenclature that has been worrying me to a great extent for the past few weeks. As quoted from one of the persons in the know of a certain famous battlefield, back in the heyday of the now extinct Napoleon, we garner the information that the battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of the Top-Hatters of Eton, by gad. Since this is an established fact in all of the best history books, I think that the name of Coach is somewhat of a misnomer for the grand old man of football here at T. C. Perhaps a uniform would help restore him to the position he rightfully deserves along with a title or two to the extent of something like Captain, General, or any good regimental name. For after all, if the battle of Waterloo was won on the fields of Deah Ol' Eton then perhaps the battle of Democracy will be won on the gridiron of Teachers College.

If anybody is interested I will argue just as vehemently on the other side of the question.

Now for a brief commentary of the football as played in the intramural leagues. Naturally, having a personal interest in the playing of the Bugger-Daggers, nee Penthouse, I will take up most of this space in telling of the tricks and surprising plays that they have up their sleeves.

It is generally conceded that we have a distinct advantage in the possession of the Carruth twins. They serve to confuse the other players to such an extent that once after a sneaker play with one of them throwing the ball and the other one catching it, the other team went home with a complete case of delirium tremens. I must admit that it is quite confusing to see one of the fellows suddenly reach up and catch his own 60 yard pass.

Our chief strategist is a lad by the name of Wells. It is he who thought of the strategem of running an end run while he detracts the attention of the entire line by asking for change for a five dollar bill. This play has been used quite successfully in a number of cases; however, this play is not recommended by any but a capitalistic organization.

There is one play invented by Bagley that no one on the team ever knows just exactly where it is going. A most baffling play to stop.

Then there is one touchdown play that is used most exclusively against the frats—it is done by the use of a nickelodian which at the crucial moment plays the theme song of the fraternity that happens to be our opponents. Naturally, all of the lads stand at attention to show their allegiance to the Greek philologists, while the home team, what don't know no Greek, no way, merrily pursues its

WHY GEORGE-ANNE?

(From George-Anne of 1932).

Possibly some of you wonder why this paper has such an unusual name. Therefore we shall try to explain the reason.

In the dim and distant past a movement was started on the campus to publish a school paper. There was much discussion, pro and con, about a suitable title for the publication. Finally someone had an "idea." It was suggested that, due to the co-educational nature of the school, the paper should have a name representing both sexes on the campus. It was also suggested that, as the school was in Georgia, and most of the students Georgians, the paper should have a name pertaining to Georgia. It was found that the word Georgian could be divided into two names—George-Anne. Hence, the paper was named George for the men and Anne for the women—George-Anne.

way down the field, unaccompanied, to another six points. Following this psychology it has been a source of wonderment to me as to why the German army leaders, at the crucial moment, have not brought forward one of their extremely good symphony orchestras and played "God Save the King" in their best Wagnerian style. This should certainly serve to sufficiently disconcert the English soldiers enough to give the opposing army a distinct advantage. As for a song for the English to play I am torn between the selections, "The Hesitation Waltz" and "I'll Be Glad When You're Dead." These are song hits of recent years but both might have been revived this season by mad Englishmen.

More, much more, could be said, but the work of pioneering is hard and pioneers are not like the brooks, only the words of the teachers flow forever. Yet, the impossible has been achieved—an assistant editor has ACTUALLY written a piece for the paper—but the strain is great. I do not advise this course to another hopeful of the fourth estate. There is startlingness about seeing one's own words in print. What once looked so good before the editor glanced at it has been transformed to a half line of the most mediocre caliber.

Let this be a lesson to us, assistant editors, and chalk me up as a martyr to our cause—that rumbling sound heard in the distance is not the sound of the linotypes but Throtheadbottom and Horace Greeley turning over in their graves.

His wife, determined to cure him of his evil ways, with the aid of a sheet and an electric torch, transformed herself into a fair semblance of a ghost. She went in and shook the drunkard.

"Wash that?" murmured the toper.

"This is the Devil," came the answer in sepulchral tones.

"Shake hands, old horsh. I married your sister."

Classes In Education
And Student-Teaching

By W. L. DOWNS.

The program of the Division of Education in Georgia Teachers College has been organized this quarter in such a way that there is a very definite relationship between theory and practice. The point of view of instructors in college classes and that of supervising teachers in laboratory schools is based upon the same fundamental principles. College students who are earnestly seeking an understanding of a curriculum that meets the needs of the children and youth of today have a chance to clarify in their own thinking many psychological principles relating to the program of the modern public school.

Student-teachers devote one entire quarter to teaching, building courses of study units applicable to needs of children they teach, and studying methods of good teaching. This plan makes it possible for the student-teacher to concentrate upon one phase of teacher education over a period of a quarter. Although this program has been in effect a short while, student-teachers express most favorable comments concerning the satisfaction they get from this procedure.

Students who are to work in the laboratory schools in the winter quarter are now getting their assignments. They begin immediately to develop a curriculum unit which will be taught in the winter quarter. This unit will grow out of the recognition of the needs of the children who will be involved. The supervising teachers in the laboratory school, the director of laboratory school, the instructor in curriculum construction and the student-teacher are planning and developing these units. This does not mean that these units are taught just as they are worked out in the curriculum laboratory. Content is organized, procedures are considered, activities are anticipated, and goals set up. The student is then ready to begin working with children using that which will help children to meet their needs and interests. Very often the unit is reworked after it is taken to the classroom. Every unit has many things added and subtracted as teachers and pupils proceed to engage in those activities that become meaningful and purposeful to pupils.

HOG KILLING TIME
AT COLLEGEBO

Last week was hog killing time at Collegeboro — ten fine hogs were butchered at that time, to be consumed by students in the dining hall.

The hogs killed were only ten months old and had an average weight of two hundred forty-six pounds. This amount will furnish delicious meat for quite awhile, and when "it" gives out there will still be eighty more hogs of the same caliber to be butchered.

Mr. Pulliam deserves a word of praise for his efficiency as a hog raiser, to say nothing of him as a provider for the dining hall.

Argue as you will and most girls have sense enough to appear dumber than they really are.

Y. W. C. A. Organizes
New Departments

Every member of the Y. W. C. A. has been assigned to the department in which she is most interested. These departments consist of publicity, program, vesper, music, morning watch, and recreation committee.

Wednesday night, November 8, the Y. W. C. A. held its weekly meeting. The guest speaker, Mrs. F. W. Hughes, spoke on "What the Y. W. C. A. Should Mean in a College Girl's life."

Miss McElveen was the speaker at the meeting Wednesday night, November 15. The theme of her talk was "Living an Abundant Life Through Books."

The usual weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will not be held Wednesday night, November 22. Instead, a joint Thanksgiving service will be held in the college auditorium immediately after breakfast, Thursday, November 23. Everyone is urged to attend.

Sadie Hawkins Dance
Held In Gymnasium

Thursday, November 9, a Sadie Hawkins dance was given by the student council.

This was a most important event. Contrary to the usual custom, the girls gathered sufficient courage to ask their favorite boy friends for dates. Breaking all conventions, they sauntered over to Sanford Hall to escort the boys to the gym. On arriving, the boys nonchalantly stepped in, while girls reached deep into their pockets to find that nickel for admission.

The dancing proceeded at a rapid pace, interrupted only by the ladies breaking on the gentlemen. Daisy Mae (alias Robert Moss) attracted much attention. Sarah Howell and Joe Farmer adequately masqueraded as "Ma" and "Pa" Yokum.

Bobby Carroll, president of the student body, states that if the girls continue their requests, another Sadie Hawkins dance will be held at an early date.

Dr. Pittman Gives Enlightening Talk

Dr. Pittman gave a most enlightening and highly enjoyable speech to the teachers of Tift county last Saturday in Tifton. Dr. Pittman was asked to talk on "Education For Democracy," a subject which is well worth the attention of everyone.

Dr. Pittman was also a visitor at the G. E. A. meeting held in Warrenton on Friday.

Y. M. C. A. Active On T. C. Campus

By JOHN BEN AYERS

In the last issue of this paper there was carried an article on the works of the Y. M. C. A. here on the campus. This week we wish to continue this line of thought by telling, for the benefit of the students and alumni, the progress of the Y. M. C. A. in the past few months.

At the close of the winter quarter last year the interest of the Y. M. C. A. was dying fast and it seemed that the organization was going to be disorganized; but some of the boys who were interested in seeing such work carried on set about to bring new life to this Christian organization. The first task was to select a president on which we could depend, and would at all times be ready to help the cause for which the organization stands. To this position was elected D. R. Barber. Too much praise cannot be given him for his ever ready and untiring services.

The president is assisted by an efficient cabinet to which much of the Y. M. C. A.'s success must be attributed. The cabinet consists of Bill Chambless, John Roberts, Bob Carroll, Ted Booker, David Bowman, Joe Feaster, Herman Wrinkle, Hugh Hodges, Chesley Whitley, Tom Jenkins, Wilmer Wallace and Leon Culpepper. Each cabinet member is the chairman of a committee that has done a great deal towards the work of the Y. M. C. A.

The organization is also fortunate in having Mr. Paul Thompson, an alumni and professor, as the faculty sponsor. He has been an inspiration to the cabinet and the organization as a whole.

One of the first tasks undertaken by the Y. M. C. A. was to inaugurate the popular play night each Saturday night in the Gym (unless prevented by social). At these play nights ping pong, shuffle board, horse shoes, volley ball, and many other games are played. These playnights provide wholesome entertainment for those who otherwise would have nothing to do.

The deputation teams have been reorganized. Several years ago these teams were active here in this immediate section, but due to the lack of interest and the proper momentum they had died out.

Several weeks ago the Y. M. C. A. decided that they would follow the example set by the Y. W. C. A. and sponsor a few minutes Morning Watch each weekday morning. This watch is under the leadership of Hugh Hodges, Chesley Whitley and others. At the present time interest is lagging in this watch. We are hoping that in the near future the Sanford boys will realize that this work is just as important as their regular academic work and join the "faithful few," and come and join us in the Morning Watch services.

Membership drives are being made at each meeting and the response has been good. So with the greatly increased membership we are looking forward for the best year the Y. M. C. A. has ever had.

RESULTS OF POLL ARE MADE KNOWN

The results of a poll recently conducted by Thomas Cox on the question, "What in Your Opinion is the Most Urgent Need of the College Today?" were not especially surprising, but interesting. A group of representative students were polled.

The majority opinion given by the sixteen students polled was: "The necessity for a change in the social set-up on the campus." Of course these opinions were critical of varied phases of our social life, but the primary note sounded was an earnest desire for more democratic spirit among the students—for less exclusiveness and greater friendliness—for a co-operative effort on the part of all students to aid in attaining a real democratic society. Some desire a greater emphasis on the spiritual welfare of students; others (all boys) decried the restriction on girls; but by and large, it all adds up to the sum—Social Change.

The minority opinion concerned the dining hall. Two thought a cafeteria most urgent; two were most interested in seeing a new dining hall grace the campus, while one vehemently insisted on more and different foods.

Other scattered opinions were varied. A bigger and better athletic program as an advertisement and inducement to prospective students was mentioned. The completion of streets and addition of sidewalks was suggested. Another voice wanted more interest in current events. Still another craved more volumes in the library for adequate research. One thought a course in etiquette (especially in the dining hall) would be most timely. One student could exist on one chapel period a week, and use the time for work advantageously.

Now there is little we (the students) can do about the dining hall, unless we each contribute one brick (gold), but something can be done to remedy the social life.

What is to be done? Do you believe anything should be done? What suggestions do you offer? More later from the George-Anne.

formation. Its personnel and program will be announced as soon as plans are completed. Any invitations to nearby churches will be welcomed. The small college bus has been placed at the team's disposal to furnish transportation.

What Price Glory!

By CLINTON OLIVER

There's the signal! The maddened throng of freshmen dash imminent forward and intermingle in the massive group of struggling sophomores, and pandemonium reigns supreme! One minute drags by—Two! Three! Four!—Four and ½! Four minutes and forty-seven seconds elapse with no favorable results. Thirteen seconds to go—and what was that? One freshman had rallied heroically and managed to clamber atop the crowning tuft of the knotted billow of struggling humanity and with clutching fingers desperately reached out and gallantly procured the coveted symbol of liberty and freedom!

What that noble act meant to the freshmen is beyond the scope of human vocabulary! — Liberty! Freedom! — No more RAT COURTS! — No more inflicting concussions to be delivered upon the posterial extremity of the burdened freshman's sensitive consistency!—No more shall the freshmen be compelled to penetrate the icy, frigid waters of the murky lake.

Before the battle was half over everyone was almost fatigued, while every bursted and bleeding lip issued vile oaths and unhallowed, blasphemous, profanity. Again history was made.—What Price Glory!

A man committed suicide because of a melancholy conviction that he was his own grandfather, and here is his letter he left behind him—no wonder he killed himself: "I married a widow with a grown-up daughter. My father visited our house very often, fell in love with my stepdaughter and married her, so my father became my son-in-law, and my stepdaughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. After my wife had a son—he was my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he was the brother of my stepmother. My father's wife, i. e., my stepdaughter, also had a son—he was, of course, my brother, and in the meantime my grandchild, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time. And as the husband of one's grandmother is his grandfather, I was my own grandfather."—Exchange.

Name The Bookstore And Win Five Bucks

The College Bookstore is sponsoring a contest to select a suitable name for itself. It should have an official name in order to transact its business without conflict. The student who submits the most appropriate name will be awarded a cash prize of five dollars.

Those wishing to enter the contest must have their entry in by one o'clock Wednesday Nov. 22. Five faculty members will act as judges. A majority vote for any one name will win the prize. Put your entry in the box at the Bookstore.

SUNRISE SERENADE

By FRANCIS GROOVER

Woe is me, oh agony,
Another day of toil,
I often think how nice 'twould be,
If I were never born at oil.
If I were never born at oil
How different things would be;
No drivers' license I'd possess,
For there would be no me.
But I am me, and as I face
Shame, and tears, and great disgrace,
One thought comes clearly through the muck,
I don't have Georgia Problems up.

Husband and wife recently opposed each other for mayor of Nashville. The fairer sex was victorious as usual.

We'd all be successful if we would follow the advice we give the other fellow.

BANQUET AND DANCE IN HONOR OF ALUMNI TO BE GALA OCCASION

The Student Council, in collaboration with the Dining Hall Committee, is planning an elaborate banquet to be held in the College Dining Hall at 6:30 on the evening of Thanksgiving Day.

Bobby Carroll, president of the Student Council, and Emolyn Rainey, chairman of the Dining Hall Committee, are in charge of the plans for the occasion. The Thanksgiving motif will be carried out in the decorations. A tentative program includes the following: Grace and remarks by Dr. Pittman; Welcome to the alumni by Bobby Carroll, president of the Student Council; Response by Mrs. Iris Roberts McCormack, president of the Alumni Association; Recognition of the football team and senior members of the team by Coach B. L. Smith; and a short talk by Dean Z. S. Henderson. The dining hall will be arranged so as to take care of quite a number of guests.

Beginning at 8:00 in the Alumni Building the Thanksgiving dance will be held with Marion Carpenter and his orchestra furnishing the music. Bill Chambliss, chairman of the decoration committee of the Student Council, states that the building will be properly decorated for the occasion. Refreshments will be served. Tickets for the dance will go on sale today and may be purchased from any member of the Student Council for fifty cents. The price of fifty cents admits one couple or one stag.

This should be the best banquet and dance held in the past several years, judging from the amount of interest already being shown, and Student Body and Alumni are urged to join in and make it the best ever.

Bugger-Bagger

The Bugger-Baggers have set December 9 as the date for their fall quarter social. The club's touch football team which is leading the league with four wins and no defeats will try to "make it" five straight wins when they battle the Pi Nus tomorrow. Officers for next quarter will be elected soon, according to Nick Dunbar, retiring president.

Lambda Theta Chi

The Lambda Theta Chi Sorority entertained with its fall dance Saturday night, November 18, at the Woman's Club in Statesboro. The "Hazzappin" theme was carried out. The "imps and devils" led out with Satan Takes a Holiday. The members and their dates were: Jewell Vandiver, Gesmon Neville; Dot Cromley; Fran Harrison, Frank Olliff; Lorraine Brockett, Jim Wrinkle; Emolyn Rainey, Roger Holland; Isabel Trussell, Sam Rumph; Bettie McLemore, Gene L. Hodges; and Eula Beth Jones, I. W. Bragg.
