SUPERINTENDENTS VISIT COLLEGE

"Visiting Days" Inaugurated by Pittman. Plan Should Bring Schools in Closer Contact With The College.

Dr. Pittman has inaugurated "visiting day" for superintendents of schools throughout this section of Georgia.

Invitations are sent by Dr. Pittman to the superintendents to come and visit the college. Special days are set for certain superintendents. While on the campus these men and women inspect and observe any phase of the college and its work that they care about seeing. After a day's visit to the college and laboratory school the superintendents usually have a conference with Mr. W. L. Downs, director of T. C. laboratory school, with whom they talk over what they have seen and heard during the day.

These visiting days were created with the idea of bringing the high schools of this area into closer contact with Georgia Teachers College. The superintendents after visiting the college can be influential in getting students to attend school here, and also the possibility of a G. T. C. See SUPERINTENDENTS, page 2

Y.W.C.A. SPONSORS CAROL SINGING

Sunday morning, December 17, the Y. W. C. A. members met at 5:30 for the purpose of singing Christmas carols. Riding in the college bus, the girls made a thorough tour of Statesboro.

Mrs. Marjorie Guardia was the guest speaker at the Y. W. C. A. meeting Thursday night, December 7. Her subject was, "Christmas Spirit." Points of interest in Mrs. Guardia's talk were: Christmas should not be commercialized; happiness is found in little things; traditional customs build security and unity. Mrs. Guardia stated that to her the most appropriate summary of the true Christmas spirit is in the quotation, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace and good will toward men."

I. R. C. HOLDS MEET.

The effects of the British blockade on world trade were discussed at the last Fall quarter meeting of the International Relations Club in the lobby of East Hall Monday night. Twenty-two members were present.

The I. R. C. discussion, which was of the informal question and answer type, placed special interest on the effect of the blockade on the trade

Christmas

By
Marvin S. Pittman

Christmas—What is it? What is it to you? A historical event? Yes, no other date in all history means so much. An occasion for receiving greetings and gifts? No other occasion is so fruitful with evidence of loving remembrance. A time when we feast on delicacies which the culinary art has conceived, and concocted? No feast day is so full of gastronomic delights. A family reunion? More families reunite then than on any other day of the year—what a conserving and constructive custom! Parties? The holidays will be filled with social events—day and night.

Christmas? Yes, it means all of those—but more. All of these are the product and evidence of love—born of the best in human nature, nurtured by the ideals of christianity. May we celebrate Christmas this year, conscious of what we owe to the land in which we live, the homes from which we sprang, and the christian faith and the customs which we have had the good fortune to share.

Mrs. Anita Burnham, Noted Author, Speaks Here January Fifth

Mrs. Anita Willets Burnham, of Chicago, noted author and lecturer, will be presented here the evening of January fifth (Friday) as the second number of the 1939-40 lyceum series.

Mrs. Burnham will lecture here on various phases of her trips around the world. She is the author of a number of books among which is "Around the World on a Penny". This book is in the college library.

The artist, originally from old New England stock, married into the Burnham family of Chicago, noted architects.

Mrs. Burnham has given talks throughout the United States, but this will be her first trip South. The lecture here will be included in a speaking tour of the Southern States. As an artist, Mrs. Burnham has exhibited in every art center in the United States, as well as Paris.

JEROME DAVIS GIVES LECTURE

Says U. S. Should Stay Out Of European War.

The second in the series of Savannah Community Forum lectures was delivered by Mr. Jerome Davis in the auditorium of Armstrong Junior College on Monday, December 11. The subject that Mr. Davis discussed was "The Effect of the Soviet-Nazi Pact on Europe". Mr. Davis gave three reasons why the United States should stay out of the European war. These were, (1) in order to preserve her strength and resources for reconstruction after the war is over; (2) to effect a more just peace; (3) preserve American institutions in this country.

Two T. C. Clubs Have Been Organized In Past Several Weeks

A Teachers College Club is well under way at Kite, Ga., with Mrs. Henry J. McCormack as its director. The first bit of constructive work by this club will be the presentation of a book to the social science department at the college.

The members of this newly organized club are: Mrs. McCormack, Miss Sara Attaway, Miss Kathleen Ferguson, Miss Virginia Edenfield, Miss Nona Kennedy, Mr. Wendell Moore, Mr. Wyatt Bonner, and Mr. Tom Swift, all former T. C. students.

An Emanuel county club was organized recently with the aid of this club at Kite. Members of this club are: Mrs. J. A. Mize, Emanuel County Institute; Mr. Edward Carroll, Georgia Power Company of Swainsboro; Mr. Douglas Strickland, Emanuel County Institute; Misses Janet Willets, Louise Murray, Ruth Pound,

"MESSIAH" IS SUNG IN FINE STYLE

Large Crowd Attends the Magnificent Program.

With the auditorium and balcony filled to its capacity, the Georgia Teachers Glee Club and guest vocalists sang Handel's "Messiah" in magnificent fashion, last Tuesday night.

The College Glee Club was quite fortunate as well as honored in securing such guest artists as Minna Hecker, soprano; Stuart West, bass, and Marie Wood, alto. Dwight Bruce was the visiting organist. With these noted luminaries singing the individual parts, and the Glee Club, composed of sixty people, singing the choruses, there was never a more beautiful and inspiring rendition of "The Messiah."

NATIONAL MUSIC CLUB ORGANIZED

T. C. Music Club Is Only Organization on Campus Affiliated With a National Headquarters.

A chapter of the national honorary music fraternity has been organized at Georgia Teachers College. This chapter, the Mu Sigma, is the only club on the campus affiliated with a national headquarters.

The national organization has been in existence for ten years. Throughout the middle western states there are college which have chapters that are members of this national association.

The officers of the Mu Sigma are: Ted Booker, president; Elliott Boswell, vice-president; Frances Hughes, secretary; Frances Harrison, treasurer.

Meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

The Mu Sigma members have as their purpose the furthering of a general musical knowledge and appreciation of the higher types of music. It is hoped that this purpose will not only be achieved on the campus

FOOTBALL SQUAD GIVES PROGRAM

With Dr. Pittman acting as master of ceremonies, the chapel program of Wednesday, December 18, was presented by the football squad.

Each member of the team was called upon by Dr. Pittman to tell some incident or happening which developed on the trip to Cuba. "Stink" Hall's story of he and Pafford going to see his aunt in Miami seemed to "cap" the list. How old is your aunt, "Stinky?"

The program was given as a recognition to the football boys for such a successful season on the gridiron, and to give the student body an idea of the Cuban trip made by the team.

LOY SCOTT IS SPEAKER

Loy Scott, Methodist minister and student here, was the speaker at the meeting of the Y.M.C.A. last Wednesday night, December 13.

Mr. Scott spoke on "The High Cost of Low Living." He gave many illustrations from the Bible that proved that low, dishonest, and corrupt living costs a man the highest of prices.

Floyd Turk read the scripture, followed by a prayer by Carl Hutchins.

The attendance at the Y.M.C.A. continues to be large which is a manifestation of interest in this religious organization.

BIBLE VERSE.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.—Luke 2:14.

All you guys and gals be careful not to have so "big" a holiday season that you forget to return on January 2.

The singing of "The Messiah" by the glee club and guest vocalists last week was a most enjoyable attraction, and one that should have been appreciated by every student. Mr. Neil deserves praise for the fine work he has done in T. C.'s music department.

We were mighty glad to see all of our football seniors return safe and sound from Cuba. From all accounts this trip was a most enjoyable one, and players, coaches, and even Presidents are looking forward to again going to this beautiful island. Maybe it's those dark "eyes" that coach has talked so much about since his return.

"FINIS"

Someone has said, "All good things must come to an end." Let's add a bit more to this and say, "All things, good or bad, must come to an end. The fall term of the school year 1939-40 has reached the end of its trail. Whether this quarter has been good or bad for you depends entirely on the results you have achieved during the term. If you have been successful in making a good scholastic record; if you have been a PARTICIPANT in SEVERAL extra-curricula activities; if you have made new friends and acquaintances; and if your presence at Georgia Teachers College has made it a better institution, then this fall term has been "good" for you. On the contrary, however, if you have not achieved these goals, then this term may be described as "bad." Whether good or bad, however, "finis" has been written to this quarter's work, and we must now begin to think of the new term that begins January 2nd. We have a Christmas vacation period to enjoy between now and then. Let's enjoy this holiday season to its fullest and then return to school resolved to spend the winter term in such a way that when its termination approaches we can ALL describe our quarter's work with the word GOOD.

'Tis the Christmas season and all thru this, our University, may be found numerous examples of Christmas cheer—for instance that gallon of rum that Cason didn't (?) bring back from Cuba.

And no one even mentioned Jack Reiser's bottle of Bacardi.

However, due to lack of football talent, Ye Olde Scribe didn't make the trip and can say no more about it.

Looks like this place loves triangles. Wilmer Wallace and Hugh Edenfield are neck and neck with Ruth Murphy. May the best neck win.

Joyce Jones seen with G. C. Coleman. (Did anyone mention Shorter?)

Who pushed Nancy Salley down the Chemistry lab steps? SHE claims she fell.

FLASH!! HEALTH COTTAGE enters social calendar. Has week-end party with fourteen prominent students—and Wesley Sherman.

Question of the week—What prominent (?) DS spends most of his time making himself a nuisance to the other fellow's girls? Answer in next year's annual.

Why do so many of these "old faithful" couples break up so regularly around Dec. 10 or 12? Could Christmas presents have anything to do with it?

Better be careful Cecil—guess why Bidgood is on the boxing team?

You might ask "tackler" Patat how he gets the girls to fall for him.

People must have been being good for Christmas, because news is as scarce around here as a bull session in the president's office. But Ye Olde News Hound is still on the job.

FLASH!!! Freshman makes money. Floyd Turk, after betting four boys a quarter apiece, calmly went to supper in his pajama pants—on Sunday night.

'Pears to me Carolyn Morris is getting excited over a little bit of Rumph.

Warning to visitors at the Infirmary—Miss Michael lives across the road.

Twenty-five cents reward for the gal who's been spreading all these colds on the campus—we'd like to meet a personality like that.

It looks like that Freshman dance idea just Flu away.

Anyway WE were going to the GONE WITH THE WIND ball (who is a liar?).

And some little girl told me to tell Freshman Robertson to keep his nose out of her business.

Glad to report that poker on THIS campus is something you stir a fire with.

It was heard that Willie Waters had himself a wrestling match in the dark of the moon.

Also overheard was SOMEBODY asking about Christmas rates from Dalton to Bainbridge. We wonder who?

ON EXAMINATIONS

Now, more than ever I regret

The custom of this school,

To send the folks a wretched card

It is a lousy rule.

If I could only halt its course,

Keep THEM from ever knowing

I made a D in that darn stuff

I'd do some happy crowing.

Final thought—If anyone is planning on getting drunk over the holidays, you can forget about it, 'cause it AIN'T NICE.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

THINGS SPIRITUAL

LOY SCOTT

"And the door was shut." (Matt. 25:10.)

There are four things which cannot be called back: A spent dollar, a wasted moment, a spoken word, and a day that has passed.

Most people have spent dollars which they would like to call back. And these same people knew that a "rainy day" was coming.

"A wilful waste makes a woeful want."

My! the wasted moments in a man's life. I shudder when I think of the number which I have wasted. Don't you? There is a door being shut on us almost every moment of our lives.

I hear words spoken on the campus that mean nothing; that hurt the speaker and the one spoken to. We may cry, pray, beg forgiveness, fall on our knees, etc., but we have already said it. We can't call the words back to save our lives.

The day that has passed with all of its opportunities is to be given account of. If "we are to give account of every idle word," of how much more importance is a day?

The wise thing to do in life is to spend your dollar wisely, use your moments for constructive purposes, speak beautiful and helpful words, and take advantage of all your worthwhile opportunities as the days come and go.

Don't shut Christ out of your life. Let him in and you will not waste anything. During these Christmas holidays is a good time to accept Him.

May God bless each of you.

BUZZY BAG BITES

By BAGLEY

The touch football season ended with a bang. The Bugger-Daggers fired that shot by going through the season undefeated. They only scored 210 points because two out of seven games were forfeited to them. Second place ended with a three-way tie between the Pi Nu's, Delta Sigs and the Outlaws, each winning five games and losing two. Individual scoring honors for the season go to Homer Blitch with 69 points, Bobby Carroll with 52, Bryon Enlowe with 39, Lawrence Enlowe with 70, and ye old editor with 45. The season ended with three bad injuries. Homer Blitch has a broken collar bone. John King and Jim Wrinkle have painful knee injuries. These men were all honorary selections for the all star team.

From all accounts the Blue Tide boys had a great trip to Cuba. This was the best trip ever provided for a football team at Collegeboro and the greatest recognition possible was shown to the team by Coach Smith. He carried every player who was in condition and that began practice in September. The effects of this was a 27-7 victory on foreign soil against an evenly matched team. T. C. had to play a great game to beat those Cubans by a margin of three touchdowns. Hats off to Theron Anglin who broke into football highlights by playing his best game of the season in Cuba.

From the nose punchers comes news that it isn't what they knew about boxing before; it's what they know now that counts. Ten counts and they are out. This is not the extent of their training—Bidgood, Overman, Bandy, Warren, Brinson, Moss and many others have been whipping into shape for about three weeks and should be ready to fling those mittens after Christmas.

As the football season ends the Profs now take to the hardwood. With only a week of practice the basketball hopes are high for a great season. Coach Smith has usually had a small, fast working team. His present material, however, is big and tall and the dilemma facing the team now is limited practice. Only five old men are expected to be back from last year's team and only time will get the new men acquainted with the new style of play. We hope that the necessary provisions can be made for the team to report a few days earlier after Christmas holidays. One week of practice cannot iron out a smooth ball club, and T. C. certainly wants to be in clicking form when they take on Douglas January 6.

All good things must come to an end, and so must this column. We close then by saying that, all in all, the football team completed a much better record this season than in the past—five victories and five defeats this fall against three wins, six defeats and one tie for last season is concrete evidence of this.

See you next year.

BASKETBALL TEAM IS WORKING HARD

Team To Open Season Against Douglas Here January 6.

With only a weeks practice behind them the Georgia Teachers basketballers are swinging into shape for the official season which will open at Collegeboro on January 6 with South Georgia College of Douglas.

The prospects are bright for a winning ball club this year and addition of new men to the squad makes Coach Smith certain that he will have a clicking ball team. The names of veterans from last year number only five. "Peck" Hamil and Hendry Bagley who started every game last year will have the responsibility of making newcomers feel at home in the lineup. Billy Talbert and Lawrence Enlow who played in every game last year are again expected to hit their stride. Jimmy DeLoach is working to obtain a place in the starting lineup.

T. C. is lucky to have a few fast stepping junior college men this year. Gashouse Parker, former M. G. C. star, is working for a place in the lineup. Pafford, ex-N. G. C. star says that he feels at home on a basketball court and is already making us believe that. Robert Moss is working hard and is expected to see plenty of action. Those who will find college basketball new for them this year but will probably be heard from are Charles Smith, Frank Horn, Hill Paschal, J. A. Gardner, Horace Johnson, and Reese Ellison.

TOUCH FOOTBALL SEASON CLOSES

Bugger-Daggers Win Championship. Many Outstanding Players in League.

The 1939 intramural touch football league has just gone into the pages of history, but while it is still fresh in our minds we shouldn't overlook its outstanding features. Although the league was grossly unbalanced it proved to be one of the most successful ever held here at T. C.

The Bugger-Daggers dominated the scene with the Outlaws, Delta Sigma and Pi Nus waging a bloody struggle for runners up, a feat they all accomplished.

High scoring and spectacular running were the rule rather than the exception. All of the teams showed fine spirit and outstanding players were many.

The Bugger-Daggers and the Outlaws ran a close race for the top scoring team, with the Bugger-Daggers leading with an average of about 40 points a game.

Defensively the Delta Sigma's line and the Bugger-Daggers' backfield were the best. Individually Homer Blitch, G. C. Coleman, Bobby Car-

TEACHERS DEFEAT CUBAN TEAM 27-7

Profs Find Cuban Atmosphere To Their Liking.

By playing an inspired brand of football the Georgia Teachers defeated an evenly rated Havana eleven to the tune of 27-7. This win which was chalked up in Cuba Saturday marked the end of a hard schedule for the Professors.

T. C. scored her initial touchdown in the first period when Rountree passed to Parker, who in turn lateraled to Pafford. Rountree booted the extra point. In the third quarter T. C. scored twice. The first of these two came after the Tide blocked a punt on the Caribes' ten-yard line. The try for the extra point was no good. The next touchdown of this period came as the result of a 20-yard run by Rountree followed in the next play with a 5-yard end run by Ellison.

In the final period the Teachers scored again when Rountree flung a pass to Red Morgan who ran the ball over the goal from the Caribes' 15-yard line. Late in the last quarter the Cuban Freshmen team put on a last minute spurt which gave Havana her only tally.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Christmas holidays commence tomorrow, Tuesday, December 19th. Registration for the winter term will be held Tuesday, January 2. The first meal in the dining hall will be served Monday night, January 1. All classes start Wednesday, January 3.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES

Saturday afternoon, December 9, a party was held in East Hall for the children of the Georgia Teachers College's faculty members. Those attending were: W. S. Hanner, Gene and Mary Henderson, Wayne and Ralph Smiley, Genevieve Guardia, Harold and David Hostetler, Mary Jo Harvill, Fielding and William Russell, Sue, Happy and Sebring Smith, Mary Ruth and Jane Pulliam, William Crouse, Ruth Brooke, Mary Alice London, Bobby Donaldson, Cliff Canon and Paul and McAllister Destler.

Sunday afternoon, December 11, Miss Mamie Veazey, dean of women, entertained all the girls on the campus with a tea. Music was provided by Aline Whiteside and Billie Turner.

Sunday night the East Hall girls had their party. All of the girls wore white and participated in the candle-lighting ceremony. Afterwards, Christmas carols were sung and a Christmas story, "The Gift of the Magi," was told by Thera Dell Rountree. Soloists were Eula Beth Jones and Frances Hughes. A quartet consisting of Ouida Wyatt, Catherine Gainey, Edna Neville and Eula Beth Jones sang, "God Rest You." Catherine Gainey and Billie Turner were accompanists.

ENGLISH CLUB

The English Club held its regular monthly meeting in West Hall on Thursday afternoon. Pat Pagett told the story of "The Other Wise Man", by Henry Van Dyke, and conducted a contest about Shakespearean romances. All students who are English majors or minors are members of the English Club and are urged to be present at the meetings on the second Thursday of each month at five o'clock.

SIGMA GAMMA

The Sigma Gamma Sorority installation services were held Wednesday night in Lewis Hall. The members were dressed in white, and services were carried out in candlelight formation. The chaplain, Doris Toney, read the Love Chapter in the Bible, and Azile Hartley led in a short prayer.

A short business meeting was held immediately following these services. The sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Johnson and Miss Eva Parnell were present. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

DELTA SIGMA

Miss Catherine Gainey, student sponsor, and Mr. E. D. Turner, faculty sponsor, of the Delta Sigma Fraternity, entertained Wednesday evening in East Hall with a Christmas party for the members of the fraternity. After the dinner, presents were opened for all those present.

Friday night the fraternity was entertained by Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach at his lodge, Beechwood, with a mullet supper. Approximately thirty-five attended.

At the mid-winter election held last week the following officers were elected: Leroy Cowart, president; Joe Joyner, vice-president; B. H. Ramsey, secretary; D. R. Barber, treasurer; Haygood Morrison, chaplain; James Thayer, scribe.

Offensively the Outlaws shone but L. Enlowe, Blitch, Thayer, Wells and the Carruths were the individual highlights of the league.

Since this is open season on All-American squads I think an All-T. C. team would be appropriate.

We will not try to select one team, but will give the names of several boys who did such noble work at their respective positions. The choice for the ends go to Blitch, of the Outlaws; Carroll, Bugger-Daggers, and Braswell, Delta Sigma. Guards, Cox, Y.M.C.A.; Ingram, Iota Pi Nu; Bidgood, Delta Sigma. Center, Patat, Bugger-Daggers, and Layton, Iota Pi Nu. In the backfield the "best" of the crop seemed to be Coleman, Delta Sigma; the Enlowe brothers, Outlaws; Perryman of Iota Pi Nu, and Cliff Wells and the Carruth twins of the Bugger-Daggers.
