Ruth Bryan Owen Is Chapel Speaker

Hon. Ruth Bryan Owen, "America's First Woman Diplomat", and a daughter of the late president, William Jennings Bryan, was the speaker at the chapel exercises in the college auditorium this morning.

Mrs. Owen, the first woman to represent the "Old South" in Congress and who was recently appointed Envoy Extraordinary to Denmark, held the students' undivided attention throughout the length of her speech, "This Democracy of Ours."

Having served in so many official posts and being so well acquainted with world conditions, Mrs. Owens' speech meant much to the college students as well as faculty members.

FAMOUS TEAM TO PLAY THE PROFS

An Interesting and Unusual Game Is Promised The Spectators.

The Professors of G. T. C. will be up against stiff opposition here tomorrow night, January 16, when they encounter the nationally known Whiskered Wizards in the gymnasium at 8:30.

The Whiskered Wizards come here rated as one of the better teams of the nation. The men who compose this team wear beards in deference to religious principles. These "bearded marvels" have played all over the United States and old Mexico to sell-out crowds. When the end of March comes they will have played over 150 ball games and covered thousands of miles in doing so.

The Wizards are coached by Bob Rich, 6 foot 1 inch guard who also takes his turn in the line-up. Rich is a former star athlete of Texas A. and I. College of Kingsville, Texas, where he played four years of football and three years of basketball, and was selected on the all-T.I.A.A. conference team his last two years. The rest of the team includes Finley and McCullum, gigantic forwards; Lofland, Sims and Neely, versatile guards, and Hale, who is the six foot four inch center.

Bagley, Hamil, Enloe, Pafford and Paschal will probably be in the starting line-up for the Professors.

They are: Maggie Arnett, Milburne Aycock, Marjorie Bacon, Troy Bacon, Tommie Dana Baldwin, Virginia Blitch, Charlie Blanks, Lútie Brewton, Esther Brunner, Rachel Burnette, Mrs. A. L. Clark, Ralph Cooper, Sarah Will Darsey, Belva Dickson, Etta Juanita Fordham, Irma Garrison, Wudie Gay, Edwin S. Y.W.C.A. SPONSORS A "PENNY WEEK"

The local Y.W.C.A. is planning to sponsor a "Penny Week" for the benefit of the Eastern Student Service Fund. The pennies which will be collected during this week will be sent to China, where they will be used to aid students of the Far East who are struggling to complete their education in the face of the many difficulties caused by the war.

To give you just one example of how badly help is needed we cite you to the case in Cheng-Kiang where there are 2,000 students, half destitute.

BIBLE VERSE.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life.—John 3:16.

LET'S APPLY OURSELVES.

What do you know of the world about you? This is a question simple in sound, but one that would be evaded by the greater number of you if asked it directly. Over two billion people inhabit this earth, yet we become intimately acquainted with but a few, moderately acquainted with a few dozen, and remotely acquainted with perhaps a few hundred. An earthquake visits far away Turkey and leaves hundreds of persons dead; a Japanese bomb strikes a building in distant China and scared Chinks scurry to shelter from the intimate danger. These happenings are frequently spoken of as remote, but the distance is often over-emphasized. To us they should be of more interest; they should provoke more thought.

The opportunities afforded us for becoming acquainted with the news of the world are almost unlimited. The efficient newspaper organizations and the vast radio hook-ups have become powerful telescopes for knowledge concerning all parts of the globe. The shelves of libraries are filled with books dusty from un-use, full of information needed by all of us. Yet we seek the path of least resistance, and rely on superficial knowledge rather than attempt to delve down deeper with the assistance of those who have had more experience.

The solution is not a simple one. Coercion can not create an interest in reading. The interest must to a greater extent be self-motivated. The advantages of broad and sound knowledge must first be realized. To argue intelligently and authoritatively on the problems facing the world today one must have sufficient foundation of the questions involved. Only through incessant reading can this be accomplished.

Diggings

Well, Christmas with all its joys, thrills, chills, happiness, parties, partings, unhappiness, heartaches, headaches (the morning after), etc., has gone and now we're back at dear "ole" T. C. slinging up "dirt."

Dr. Pittman requested in his chapel speech of last week (you shouldn't have slept through this one) that we "polish up" during the New Year. So the Diggings Column written by Mr. P. D. Q. Anonymous has resolved to "polish up" and print Frances Hughes' name only once in each edition.

There's one certain rotund chap on the campus though who ain't been getting enough attention in this column. Excuse us, Eddie, for overlooking you (how could we ever do this?). Since your recent interest in Miss Breen (the older) however, we just want to tip our hat to you, and hope you have success in proportion to your . . . (no, we better not say that).

William Waters, the Geechee with the "gangster" eyes amazes me with his inconsistency with women. He just can't seem to make up his mind; reminds me of the poem, "Arthur, The Rat."

Oh yes, Maggie Arnette, the Sylvania flash of Bob Bell fame, is back in the city limits of Collegeboro. He address is "somewhere in East Hall." Miss Mamie Veazy, of "the boys are what the girls make them" fame is the well loved house-mother of this dormitory. Humph! (no charge for the publicity, Miss Veazy).

This Turner-Rountree romance is strictly un-understandable. Maybe you had better contact Alma Mount, Turner, and (a) Mount up to something.

You've probably heard about curiosity killing the cat, but who ever heard of it making a girl transfer from Shorter to T. C.?

Can you imagine: Tommy Gray with her mouth shut; Marie Pearson showing "common" sense; Dr. Pittman putting a nickel in the juke organ; B. L. Douglas without his gold sweater and blue pants; Bubber Aldred without Miriam Girardeau, and Miss Veazy jitterbugging.

Introducing that Casanova of modern times, Mon-sewer Chesley Whitley, who at the present time is in close "touch" with only four other fellows' girls. The boys looking for him are Hugh Maxwell, Tom Jenkins, Bartow Miller—the other fellow died trying.

Sorry, Mary, but I. W. is color blind; he can't see a thing but Brown.

"Little" Breezy is going to be a sailor 'cause he told us he was going around the Horn. Cape it quiet.

Gainey's a widow. They sent him up to Georgia but they didn't say what fer.

Warning to girls: Maxann Foy's old flame is back on the campus. Girls should avoid dark places.

Jimmy DeLoach knows something real interesting about grandmas, grandpas, etc., at the World's Fair last summer.

Have you heard "Hairy" Babbitt and Gin-nie Sims sing "chatter-box" (Mary Graham) yet? You will, and I now end this enlightening column (or is it)—So long.

Friday night, January 19, finds the T. C. Profs meeting the Wolverines of Middle Georgia College here in the gymnasium. M. G. C. has a good ball club and is expected to "shoot the works" against the Teachers. The Teachers, however, will be cocked and primed to upset Middle Georgia, and get something of revenge for the 13-6 defeat suffered in football last fall.

BUZZY BAG BITES

By BAGLEY

Well, "we" basketball boys opened the season in a very inglorious manner by losing to South Georgia College. We don't have any alibis to make but would like to say that we really believe we are going to show up much better in the rest of the games.

The game between our team and the Jewish Alliance in Savannah Wednesday night should be a thriller as usual. Playing on those "cheese box" courts which they have down there put us at a decided disadvantage but if our "shooting" eyes are O. K. that night those Jews will be in for a real battle.

Basketball fans of this college as well as all the fans throughout this section of Georgia are in for two great nights of basketball entertainment. The Whiskered Wizards who will appear here tomorrow night and the world champion Celtics who will drop by for a game on the twenty-fifth, can furnish good enough basketball for anybody. Don't sell the Teachers short in these games, either, because there may be an upset. One never knows, does one?

A check on the girls' volleyball tournament revealed that Lorraine Heidt's team was in top position, having won four games and lost only one; "Froggie" Breen's, B. Groover's and Mary McCarty's teams followed in that order. Some of those "gals" can play volleyball just as good as the next person.

The new set-up under which the intra-mural basketball is going to be run this season should be much more interesting, as well as giving the players an opportunity to appear in more games. Having a regular season prior to the tournament gives the intra-murals an atmosphere of "big time" ball. The Iota Pi Nus, Delta Sigmas, N. Y. A. and Bugger Daggers have already put in their warning to other teams. Oh yes, Ed Allen's "Eatin' Eight" football team, and Pate Warren's "Warriors" have formed a combine for the basketball season and will be known as the "Eatin' Warriors."

Here's wishing good luck to the boxing squad in their brawl with the C. Y. P. A. in Savannah tomorrow night.

CELTICS PLAY HERE NEXT WEEK

World Champs Reported To Be Better Than Ever.

Dutch Dehnert, Davey Banks, Nat Hickey, and all the other world champion Celtics will appear here this year. These champion basketballers will play the T. C. Profs in the gymnasium Thursday night, January twenty-fifth.

The Celtics are quite familiar to all basketball fans. Headed by Coach Dutch Dehnert, this team has been traveling across the United States for the past decade playing as many as one hundred and fifty games a season and winning practically every one of them. They are rightly called the champions of the world, and the way they handle a basketball is mystifying to see.

Davey Banks, who is generally regarded as the greatest showman in the outfit, will again be present along with Paul Birch, regular guard of two years ago, who has rejoined the team. There are two all-American new-comers on the Celtic squad who will make their initial appearance here on the twenty-fifth.

According to Dehnert, this year's edition of the Celtics is the best he has ever coached, and basketball fans of this section will be in for a real treat when the Teachers and Celtics lock horns.

TEACHERS LOSE TO THE S. G. C. TIGERS

The Profs were defeated in the opening game of the season 42-29 by a strong team from South Georgia College.

The game opened slowly with Douglas taking the lead. The Teachers were erring in their aim at the meshed hoops and their passing was erratic. The fact that the Teachers were playing their first game of the season probably accounted for some of the inefficiency.

Hendry Bagley was high point man for the Teachers with 8 points. Whitley of the visiting Tigers led his teammates with 10 points.

He—The report says the man was shot by his wife at close range.

She—Then there must have been powder marks on him.

He—Yes. That's why she shot him.

T. C.'s boxing squad opens the season tomorrow night in Savannah against the Catholic Young People Association team of that city.

The boys on the team have been training for several weeks and now seem to be ready for competition. Seven bouts have been scheduled for tomorrow night. Kenneth Scott, Roy Sumner, "Tiger" Whaley, Bob Bidgood, J. R. Turner and Frank Horne will "sling the leather" for T. C.

T. C. WHIPS ARMSTRONG

With Hendry Bagley pacing the offensive attack, the Profs defeated Armstrong Friday night in Savannah by a score of 34-24. Bagley "sacked" seventeen points in the game which was marked for its smoothness and fastness.

All of the T. C. boys showed up well in chalking up this victory. Pafford scored eight points to be "runner-up" in the individual scoring.

BUGGER-DAGGER

Bugger Dagger officers for this term were elected last week. Charlie Stanfield, Glennville, was chosen president; Clifford Wells, Climax, vice-president; Milton Findley, Lyons, secretary-treasurer; Chesley Whitley, Ozierfield, adjutant-general; Tom Patat, Cuthbert, sergeant-at-arms, and Tom Jenkins, Edison, chaplain.

Intra-Mural Basketball
Will Start Soon

Intra-mural basketball on T. C.'s campus will be worked under a new system this year if tentative plans go through.

According to Jim Wrinkle, physical education instructor, there will be a regular league formed consisting of eight or ten basketball teams. These teams will play a complete schedule prior to the tournament. Games will be played in the gymnasium at night with the schedule arranged whereby there will be five or six games played per week. Wrinkle went on to say that although the tournament will determine the champions as usual, the four teams finishing highest at the close of the season will be given the favorite spots in the tourney.

Monday night, January 22, has been set as the tentative date for the season to open.

Wrinkle urged all boys, whether they were good basketball players or not, to get on some team and join in the program.

Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach, Professor of Sociology, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night. Dr. DeLoach used as his theme, "Nature and Deity." It was a splendid lesson and one that proved to be very instructional to all those who heard it.

The devotional was led by David Bowman and Inman Davis. Oliver Thomas and John Roberts gave a vocal duet.

At this, the first meeting for the winter quarter, ten men expressed a desire to become members of the association. They will be received at the next meeting.
