STUDENTS GO TO I. R. C. ASSEMBLY

Chances of Getting the Conference at This School in 1942 Are Bright

Six members of our local International Relations Club attended the annual Southeastern International Relations Club conference at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, which lasted from March 21st through the 23rd.

All of our newly elected officers of our club, Charles Stanfield, president; Doris Tony, vice-president, and Emily Goff, secretary and treasurer, along with members Carlton and Edward Carruth and Edith Davis, attended the conference.

The theme of this year's convention, which four hundred delegates representing seventy-five southeastern colleges attended, was "The United States in a World War." Our delegation reports that a very interesting program was presented in the form of several round table discussions. The conference activities were brought to a climax Saturday when Henry E. Grady, Assistant Secretary of State of the United States, made a talk in which he stressed the good

Jack Tarver, Lyons, Gives Interesting Synopsis of the Motion Picture

For the benefit of a few of our many, many readers who have not yet got around to seeing the motion picture, "Gone With the Wind," we present the following most excellent synopsis of the picture as written by Jack Tarver and published in the Toombs County Democrat (Lyons).

Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Tarver: "Katherine Scarlett O'Hara was our shero. A winsome winch with a figger like a marble statue and a head as hard. Gerald O'Hara was her pa. By nature he was most animal-like. Proud as a peacock, he roared like a lion and rode like a dog-and-pony show. After Sherman came he was crazy as a bedbug. Anyhow, Scarlett was in love with Ashley Wilkes, who was in love with his cousin, Melanie, who was in love with Ashley, and so they were married. (Ashley and Melanie, in case you're getting confused.) This irritated Scarlett no end, and so, in quick succession, she married for spite and cash, respectively, a couple of fellows whose names we

J. Randolph Anderson To Be Honored Here April Twelfth

Y.M.C.A. TO MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The first Y.M.C.A. meeting of the spring term is to be held Wednesday evening, April 3, in Sanford lounge.

The students who attended the religious conferences at Macon are planning to present the highlights of the occasion to the members of the Y.M.C.A.

Saturday night "Play Nights" are to be started again soon.

At a meeting Thursday of the new officers and the old cabinet the following cabinet was appointed for the ensuing year:

Vespers, D. R. Barber; social chairman, Carl Hutchins; chorister, Oliver Thomas; athletic chairman, Joe Feaster; publicity chairman, T. A. Bacon; membership chairman, Joe Ingram; evening watch chairmen, George Pafford and Carlton Stephens.

ENROLLMENT FIGURES RELEASED BY REGISTRAR

At the end of the first week of the spring term 493 students had registered, according to Miss Viola Perry, college registrar.

This number is a slight decrease from the number enrolled the spring quarter of last year. Miss Perry went on to state, however, that several new students are expected to enroll the early part of this week.

There were 508 students here last quarter.

FORMER MEMBER BOARD TRUSTEES

Was Influential In Getting This School Established.

Special honors will be paid the Hon. J. Randolph Anderson, Savannah attorney, here Friday, April 12th.

Mr. Anderson, who is now 75 years old, was the first chairman of the board of trustees of this school. He was a member of the legislature in 1906 when the bill was proposed to establish ten A. & M. schools over the state. He was influential in getting the bill passed and was selected as chairman of the board of trustees of the school here at Statesboro.

Mr. Anderson and his wife are to be here on the twelfth to be honored for the invaluable service that Mr. Anderson rendered. Other trustees on the board during the early days of this school have also been invited to attend.

Mr. Anderson is going to present the college with a picture of himself which will be hung in Anderson Hall, after whom this building was named.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are to be present at a dinner given in their honor.

"Goodbye, Mom, I'm going out to play."

"Come back here. You can't go out with that dirty neck."

"Whatdayah mean, dirty neck? She's a nice girl!"

BIBLE VERSE.

Prove all things and hold fast to that which is good.
—I Thessalonians 14:13.

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

During a recent chapel speech, this question was asked by Dr. Pittman: "Where are you going?" Because of its special significance to all of us as students beginning a new term, the question deserves reiteration and thorough consideration.

Does each of us know where we are going? Do we have worthy objectives toward which we are striving? Have we dedicated ourselves to attaining these ends?

Obviously, in the varied fields of interest from which we have made and shall make our choice, each of us can seek by his own individual method the fulfillment of his goals. However, in any field there are certain essential qualities which everybody should possess. These qualities may be regarded as implements to develop a personality that will influence the degrees of success achieved. Enthusiasm and courage are the first of these. Today youth is apprehensive about threats of war and possible future economic insecurity, but if the following thought is true as expressed by Frank L. Stanton in this simple passage:

"This world we're living in
Is mighty hard to beat.
You get a thorn with every rose,
But ain't the roses sweet?"

Youth, with its zest for living, and the indomitable spirit, should surely feel that any obstacles the future may bring can be overcome. Also, it is well to remember that ours is a heritage rich in possibilities that have never been equaled in the past. Another characteristic, tolerance, will not only nurture the best part of our nature, but also will help those with whom we come in contact. Then, we most surely need discrimination. All of us realize that there is both a right and high way, and a wrong and base way. Recognition of these and a proper, discreet choice depend upon discriminating judgment and a strong willpower, power.

The development of these qualities when combined together develop personality in its entirety. That personality should become a part, an important part, of a greater whole, namely, our world and the civilization in which we exist. Therefore, in answering the question, "where are we going?," let our efforts prove that we are, unfalteringly, on the upward journey.

Diggings

Well, your old dirt editor is back on the job. Spring is here, and the campus swains are already whispering sweet nothings into the little pink ears of their dearly beloved. As we observed the romances FLOWERING ALONG WITH THE FLOWERS OF SPRING, we jotted down some of the choicest dirt, and here it is.

Why is Dell Rountree taking music? It is the music or Pafford that lured her in? When Mr. Neil asked her if she thought the selection he had just played was pretty, she turned around and looked at Pafford, "He shore is!" Roger is in for some competition.

Some one said Laura Hodges looked sad and dreary last week. Maybe the word they meant to use wasn't dreary but Drury. Anyway her wandering boy is back.

We understand that during the spring holidays, while Jody was taking narcotics, Rachel was taking areonautics.

Well, spring holidays and house parties are over, and Bragg is still single, but Tolbert ? ? ?

We all wonder what Maxwell would have done if Tiny hadn't gone to Cochran. Don't worry Peg, if Ramsey returns, so will Hugh.

Flash ! ! Helen Connor and Tom Jenkins are on speaking terms again.

Jitter, Jitter, little bug,

How we wonder who you are!

Causing such an awful titter,

Making the Blue Tide jar!

Turn around little Jitter Bug—

She did—it's MUG!

It seems Moya is having a hard time deciding which he likes best, a school teacher or a "school teacher-to-be."

The latest romance is D. Chambliss and Rachel Burnette. Don't let it worry you Hartley; maybe you still have a chance.

We noticed at the dance Saturday night that while Blitch was "staggering," Sherman and Olive were "shagging."

Joe Hurst, why don't you help your roommate out a little? He carries two girls to the little store. So come on, Joe, take a lesson from Wallace and Warren and co-operate.

We hear that Elmer Groover took a Hasty trip to Georgetown last week end. It was lucky for two other fellows, too.

Don't worry, girls. "Legs" might be back sometimes. You can never tell about these men who wear their pants in parentheses.

It seems that Joe Ingram and Ouida Wyatt should make the dirt column more often, but their romance is too much on the up and up for such. Another sweet romance is and (to be filled in when spring gets more in evidence).

Wonder if Miss Veazy got off her war path during the spring holidays? It's about time. By the way, Confucius say the telephone directory tells you to put the receiver back on the hook if you hear someone talking, but of course, they don't know nothing about good manners.

Pat's pantin'

Owens' rantin'

King's cussin'

Veazy's fussin'

Lover's cooing—

What 're we doing?

Have no fear,

It's just that spring is here.

Baseball Prospects

(By BOBBY)

If baseball does not start off with a bigger bang than it has at the present time I am afraid that the home plate will have to be moved closer to the windows of the library so that every foul ball will at least potentially cause a crash.

Manager John King states that the prospects look very good—from a distance. In our discussion it was disclosed by the manager that he might not be able to pilot the team for the coming season as he has signed a contract with the New York Yankees. It seems that all he is waiting for now is the signature of the Yankees on said contract.

N. E. (no error) Hamil is expecting to hold down the position of the first cornerstone. Quoting Mr. Hamil, he says, "In looking over the baseball situation I must say that it appears to me as if the position of first base will be the only base that will be played even half way decently." After this very modest quotation from Mr. Hamil we proceed on to the base next in order. Yours sincerely has his eye on that position as he feels that he is potentially one of the best tentative second basemen in the league. Not only does he have a loud shrill voice with which to berate the players, and especially the umpire, but he mystifies the crowds with the baffling things that he does with ground balls that come his way; such things as letting them roll up his arm and between his feet and sometimes giving them a kick out into the outfield where the outfielder may have a chance to join in the fun. I may modestly say that I do not try to hog the ball game or the ball.

Clifford (Pedro) Wells is stationed on a plot of ground that is commonly known as the shortstop position. It would be better for the work of the team if Mr. Wells would not take that word "stationed" too literally and show just a little movement at times, especially when the ball is approaching. However, Mr. Wells' Grecian profile looks well between second and third and as he also possesses a glove I think that he has a permanent place on the team or as long as no one else is out for that position.

On third base, or as it is commonly known as the keystone bag, we encounter the smiling face of Mr. Wayne Culbreth. Mr. Culbreth was given this position as it will be near the sidelines and consequently near the ladies who often sit on the sidelines. He does not have a glove as yet but in case of an emergency he will be expected to field the ball with the water bucket.

The outfield is the scene for great competition. Big Joe Feaster is having serious trouble showing up an empty cotton basket that was left out in left field. So far three balls have fallen into the basket and as yet the only ball that Mr. Feaster was within walking distance of fell sixty feet due north of him.

Mr. Ernest Trowell has been as-

BUZZY BAG BITES By BAGLEY

Confucius say to swing partners one must have rhythm. Buzzy Bag say to swing hickory stick one must have ism.

The hickory stick ism here will be outstanding in intramural softball. As usual the Physical Education Department will sponsor a softball program this spring. The several clubs and fraternities on the campus are already organized in sports and competition has already begun to take shape—even the girls are expected to organize softball teams.

The faculty say they were king of the roost last season, but we think they will get their wings clipped this season as well as get a few tail feathers pulled out.

Due to vascity basketball games and cold weather the Y. M. C. A. discontinued their playnights in the gym last quarter. Now, under the leadership of Colonel Playboy Nap, these Saturday night programs are being planned again.

It is not long 'til we get that picture book, "The Reflector." We want to emphasize the sports section. The boxing team should not be overlooked. To make a big step forward would be to place the winners of the intramural sports on a page.

Come on, ye playmates—come out and play with me. Nobody except ye editor and those that attended the Mexican-Teacher basketball game knows just what an appreciation for music Coach Smith has. In a few days Maestro Smith will begin spring football practice and the harmony will be blended for a 1941 football season.

Charley "Bull" Brown's echo of baseball is coming back under the leadership of John King. This independent team has begun practice already and games are now being scheduled. Last year this team had some good games and the baseball fans of T. C. gave their support.

T. C.'s track field has been improved much since last year. We heard a few complaints last year when the first district track meet was held here because of the condition of the running field. This year if the district meet is held here there should be no such complaints and the college should be ready to show the visiting schools a big day.

Going back to softball, we would like to feebly ask that each game be handled by competent and impartial officials. Decisions by umpires sometimes changes the complexity of things greatly, and good officials should be chosen for the intramural games.

Oh yes, the "sweet little things" can attend softball games; so we will be expecting you down to watch your favorite player (or whatever you call him).

The buzz has went so the bite must wait two more weeks.

SOFTBALL PROSPECTS FOR THIS SEASON ARE REVIEWED

Georgia Federation Of College Women Will Meet In Early April

The Georgia Federation of College Women will have its annual meeting at Shorter College on April 5 and 6. Frances Hughes and Lila NeSmith will represent the Woman's Athletic Association from Georgia Teachers College. They are to present papers and take part in the discussions on "Introduction of the W.A.A. Program To the New Girls Through Entertainment."

Baseball season will open this week, with Azile Hartley in charge of the games. We plan to have a dormitory tournament, counting the town girls as one dormitory, and a sorority tournament. Watch for announcements concerning the games.

signed the position of center field. This is a fine place for Mr. Trowell as it gets him quite a distance from all the rest of the players for at least half of the game.

The Hon. Mr. Moye is the candidate for the honors of right field. He is to the ladies of the right field what Mr. Culbreth is to the ladies of the left side. Mr. Moye has a pair of highly polished baseball shoes which he refuses to wear, however, and a baseball autographed by Babe Ruth on a typewriter. Due to these necessary qualifications of a baseball player Mr. Moye has been selected as the right fielder.

The pitching staff consists of "Professor" Slayden. Mr. Slayden was selected as pitcher as he is the only one who passed the tobacco chewing test. This is a very necessary element to a pitcher as he also furnishes his own tobacco.

Mr. King states that he has acquired enough tape to patch up the bat whenever it is broken and that the cover on the ball is still half on. He is looking forward to a very successful season.

DEFINING THE "ISMS"

Socialism—You have two cows; you give one to your neighbor.

Communism—You have two cows; you give both to the government, and the government gives you the milk.

Fascism—You keep the cows; give the milk to the government, and the government sells it back to you.

Naziism—The government shoots you, and takes the cows.

New Dealism—The government shoots one of the cows, milks the other one, and pours the milk down the sewer.

Capitalism—You sell one cow and buy a bull.

TEN TEAMS ARE IN THE LEAGUE

All The Teams Seem to Be Evenly Matched; Close
Play is Expected

With the shifts and shunts and double bunts and tricks unknown to common softball—quoting from Shakespeare's Lady Lillian—the softball season opened with approximately ten teams taking the field representing fraternities, organizations, clubs, old men's homes, etc.

The league looks to be more uniform without so many strong teams as were on the campus last season. Rowell, who succeeds Jimmie Moore, as manager, has a respective championship aggregation. Hitting power seems to be strong throughout the team. Slugger Martin or Bobbie Bell is slated to be the clean-up man with each well qualified.

All the D. S. seems to have is their star of old—Layfield Robertson, utility man and fence rattler. Brilliant, but sometimes erratic, is their pitching prospect, Leroy Cowart.

The Pi Nu's have Talbert and Hamil of the old murderers' row. New men may bolster them to a contending position.

The Bugger Daggers have the Carruth twins and Bagley from Bomber fame to add to Wells and Co. to form a good club. The Carruths guarantee to hold up the diplomatic end, so we hardly see how they can lose.

The Y.M.C.A. has Feaster and the spirit; may be with more material aid they will improve during the run of the schedule. Bacon has organized his puglists into a team. If Bandy hits a softball like he did the gentleman from Sylvania we are going to stay in the stands and watch.

About all that can come from the faculty is Charley horses, sore arms, and lots of conversation. Ten years ago they would have won in a walk, but now they have our sympathy. The Big Bear may get around and start tearing down the bleachers with the old ball—this will definitely cause trouble. The best all-round player of last year's league—Big Breeze—will confine his activities to master minding this group of veterans of yesteryears, because of that knee he got in football.

The names of the other teams do not come to the mind at present, so with a prayer for every one to hit over three hundred for the year, we will cease this idle nonsense and wait for the results.

In the parlor there were three, The girl, the parlor lamp and he. Two is company, and no doubt, That is why the lamp went out.

TENNIS NEWS

(By "Ace" Morrison)

Although a little late in the season, tennis has finally reached T. C. with a bang. Coach Smith called a meeting of all the players last Monday and asked how many would be interested in varsity tennis. All were in favor, so Coach Smith suggested that we start by having a tournament. About twenty boys signed up for the tournament. They were as follows: Crawford Parker, Lawrence Rowell, Bobby Carroll, Haygood Morrison, Thomas Jenkins, Cecil Olmstead. There are several others who should probably be among the tops, including "Skeets" Kennon, Harry Burney, Dight Olliff and Sid Smith.

Mr. Hanner, our former tennis coach, said he would not have time for it this year, but suggested Mr. Wrinkle for coach.

We have received letters from Armstrong, Stetson, South Georgia, Middle Georgia, and several other colleges wanting matches. After the tournament decides who is the campus champion, a temporary team will be chosen and a ladder formed to determine who will be the "lucky five" to represent G. T. C. in the inter-collegiate matches.

didn't get. But then, neither did Scarlett for long.

"The other major characters were Rhett Butler, Belle Watling and a colored lady exactly like the one on the flapjack box. Rhett, who was somehow strangely reminiscent of Clark Gable, was a cross between Jesse James and Little Boy Blue. If Rhett had joined the Lost Cause in the second reel instead of after intermission, the Confederacy would have won the war . . . And Belle. You'd have loved Belle. Everybody did. During the siege of Atlanta only three things were running—Belle's place, Prissy's nose and the laundry that kept Rhett's white suits snow-white.

"Melanie's baby arrived about the same time Sherman did. Both were equally welcome to Scarlett. It was, so far as our painstaking research has revealed, the first baby ever born in Technicolor.

"Anyway, the South lost the war again in the picture (what could you expect with a lot of Yankee producers?) and Scarlett married Rhett to get even with him. Their married life was just like sitting in hellfire and listening to the heavenly choir. Finally, after Melanie died Scarlett realized she didn't love Ashley, but Rhett. Scarlett was as changeable as a baby's underwear. However, Rhett had had enough of her foolishness . . . and when she told him, he says, 'Frankly, my dear, I don't give a damn.' Neither, by this time, did the audience. They were glad to see the end, their own having become number than sowewhat."

BACHELORS "VARIETY SHOW" TO BE GIVEN THURSDAY EVENING

Show Has Been Enlarged and Improved; Great Presentation is Expected.

The Bachelor's Varieties, which was postponed several weeks ago, will be presented Thursday night, April 4. The show was postponed because of the last minute rush that always prevails at the end of a quarter.

Bill Chambless, director, states that the show has been enlarged and improved. Several new acts and features have been added and the extra time has given the cast ample opportunity to prepare a bigger and better show.

The interlocutor of the 1940 Varieties is Hugh Hodges, who is backed by ten black-faced comedians. They promise to provide the show with enough humor for two shows. The cast of black-faced comedians is: Rufus, Tom Vandiver; Rastus, Charlie Stanfield; Electricity, Joe Ingram; Obediah, Nick Dunbar; Hamfat, Joe Feaster; Ephram, Joe Pat Stanford; Jake, Theron Anglin; Petunia, David Bowman. Two other prize comedians are Herman Wrinkle and D. R. Barber. The specialty numbers also introduce comedy.

The specialty acts are to be presented by Bobby Carroll, Bill Brigham and Gesmon Neville.

Marion Carpenter and his orchestra will accompany Miss Eula Beth Jones when she introduces a new song written by Mr. Carpenter, and the orchestra will give several specialty numbers. The college quartet, composed of John Roberts, Frances Trappnell, Edward and Carlton Carruth, and the trio, consisting of Frances Hughes, Burdelle Harrison and Jeanetta Caldwell, will make their innovation in swing, and rehearsals promise they will be excellent. The voice of Doris Toney will also be an outstanding attraction of the show.

District High School Festival Be Held Here This Week

Thursday, April 4, the district high school festival will be held at Georgia Teachers College. This is the fourth time that an event of this kind has been held here. The program will last from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Superintendent Sherman of Statesboro is chairman of the program. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Leslie Johnson, Mrs. Verdie Hilliard, and Mr. Ronald J. Neil. Judges will be Haskel Joyner of Atlanta, William Verran of Washington, Georgia, and Joseph Maerz of Wesleyan Conservatory, Macon, Georgia. They will judge vocal, instrumental, and piano selections, respectively.

Winner of the district contest will participate in the state meet at Milledgeville, April 15 and 16.

neighbor policy of diplomacy in American foreign policy.

This year's conference marked a sharp change in the policy of this school in sending delegates to the convention. Formerly we have been able to muster but one or two representatives. This year six went and took an active part in the affairs of the meeting.

Especially good was the politicking which our aggregation did in trying to bring the conference to this school next year. Even with this though, the delegation from the Tallahassee Woman's College at Tallahassee, Fla., succeeded in getting next year's event. As these were the only two bids entertained our delegates report that the chances of getting the much coveted convention at this school in 1942 are very bright.

Included among those who will be here are: Tarleton Collier, famous columnist; Harry Vaughn, director of Georgia School of Technology, and Philip Weltner, former chancellor of the University of Georgia system.

I'm just a modest little girl—
I don't smoke or drink,
Or even dare to sit up at night
upon the river's brink.
So my parents think.

I kissed her in the garden,
The moon was shining bright,
She was a marble statue
And I was drunk that night.

Voice on telephone: "Is my wife home?"

Maid: No, who shall I say called?"

COLLEGE HUMOR

Judge (to servant acting as witness): Have you ever seen your master under the influence of intoxicating liquor?

Witness: No, your honor, I can't say that I have, but I have seen him lying on the floor swearing that he'd catch that bed the next time it came around.

Little boy, calling father's office: "Hello, who is this?"

Father (recognizing voice): "The smartest man in the world."

Little boy: "Wrong number."

"I'd ask you for the next dance, Marjory, but all the cars are occupied."

Mother: "Well son, what have you been doing all afternoon?"

Son: "Shooting craps, mother."

Mother: "That must stop. Those little things have just as much right to live as you have."

Freshman: "May I have the last dance with you?"

Footsore: "You've had it."

Architect: "Now here is a room without a flaw."

Prospective buyer: "My gosh, what do you walk on?"

"Lips that touch wine shall never touch mine," declared the fair co-ed. And after she graduated she taught school for years and years and years.

She was only a preacher's daughter but I didn't put anything pastor.

I. R. C. ELECTION

Charles Stanfield was elected president of the International Relations Club at the club's last meeting. Stanfield is very popular on the campus, holding many prominent offices and is a member of the Bugger Dagger Club.

Other officers elected were: Doris Toney, vice-president; Emily Goff, secretary-treasurer, and Edith Davis and Charles Alford, program committee.

The next I. R. C. meeting will be held Tuesday night, April 2, at eight o'clock, in room 20.

FATAL ERROR

We are twins and look alike. When we were at school my brother threw an eraser and hit the teacher. She whipped me. She didn't know the difference, but I did. I was to be married, but my brother arrived at the church and married my girl. She didn't realize it, but I did.

But I got even for all that. I died last week and they buried him.

DAVIS IS ELECTED HEAD OF SCHOOLS

Defeats Two Opponents By A Wide Margin

B. R. B. (Red) Davis, Colquitt, a member of the 1939 graduating class, was elected County School Superintendent of Early county over two opponents week before last.

"Red," as he was known by his friends here on the campus, was a very popular student, and one who was interested in the campus affairs. He was a charter member of the Bugger Dagger Club, and was instrumental in its rapid growth and the great success which it has enjoyed.

After graduating in June of last year "Red" was elected to teach in the Blakely schools in Early county, a position he was holding when he was elected school superintendent. He defeated two opponents, one of whom had held the superintendent's job for many years.

This makes two T. C. graduates who have been elected county school superintendents recently. William Muggridge was chosen as superintendent of Grady county schools in an earlier election.

College is just like a washing machine; you get out of it just what you put in—but you'd never recognize it.

MUSIC FESTIVAL IS HELD HERE

Monday, March 25, Georgia's first Student Musicians' Festival was held at Georgia Teachers College. The season's festival, planned by Ronald J. Neil, assembled young musicians from all points in Georgia, and was sponsored by the local Mu Sigma Music Fraternity.

The program consisted of choral and instrumental solos and ensemble presentations. Each club represented gave a short musicale. The program lasted from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Prominent music leaders who attended the festival were Miss Katherine Kennedy and her guest, Mrs. John B. Guerry, of Atlanta, state president of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs.

"Dear teacher," wrote an indignant mother, "you must not whack Tommy. He is a delicate child, and isn't used to it. We never hit him at home except in self defense."

Diner: "Waiter, this soup is spoiled."

Waiter: "Who told you?"

Diner: "A little swallow."

HODGSON CONCERT GREATLY ENJOYED

Concert Concludes Lyceum Attractions For This Year.

Playing before a packed house, Hugh Hodgson, noted concert pianist from the University of Georgia, presented a most enjoyable concert here last Wednesday evening.

Probably never before has our "Madame Steinway" been played in such a wonderful manner. Probably never before have those "ivories" been "tickled" so fastly. Hodgson held the audience spellbound as he played.
