Everything In Readiness For The Georgia Progress Program

T. C. BAND LEAVES TOMORROW FOR A THREE DAY TOUR

NEW SELECTIONS ADDED PROGRAM

Organization To Visit Twenty Schools in Southwest Georgia.

Mr. Ernest Harris, director of Georgia Teachers College Band, has announced that the annual spring band tour will be made April 16, 17 and 18.

The tour will be an extensive one, including performances in twenty southwest Georgia towns and high schools. The schedule for April 16 provides for appearances in Milan, Rhine, Abbeville, Rochelle, East Crisp, Cordele, Arabia, and Sycamore.

A concert will be presented Tuesday night at Sycamore High School.

Wednesday, April 17, the band will play at both the Tifton High School and the college, Abraham Baldwin. Other performances will be those given at Adel, Moultrie, Pelham and Cairo. That night a concert will be presented at Climax.

The band will give its first performance at Climax.

SUMMER SCHOOL PLANS ARE MADE

Prominent Educators To Be Here As Visiting Teachers.

Room reservations are already being made; students are talking about and planning their courses; the weather is getting hot—so everything points to a fine session of summer school.

Registration for the first term of summer school is scheduled for June 12. Examinations for this term will be held July 19. The annual "Men's Dinner," which is held at Dr. DeLoach's "Beechwood" takes place July 10.

July 22 is the date set for registration for the second term of the summer quarter, which ends August 23.

Many competent visiting teachers have been contracted for the summer session. Included among these will be: In the Division of Education, Julia Coleman, superintendent of Plains, Ga., schools; Bertha Freeman; S. F. Maughon, superintendent Commerce, Ga., schools; P. B. Motes, superintendent Warrenton, Ga., schools; C. L. Purcell, superintendent of schools.

Nautical Play Day Is Arranged

The Physical Education department of this college is to present a Nautical Play Day here Saturday, May 11.

The high school students of all of the First district high schools, as well as the high school students of Albany, Thomasville and forty-three other large schools, have been invited to attend. The day has been named "A Sailor's Holiday" aboard the S. S. Georgia Teachers College.

Registration begins at 10 a. m. at the pier, which is the college gymnasium. From registration time until noon the visiting groups are to be entertained with folk dances, games and other forms of recreation. A picnic lunch is to be served down by Lake Wells at one o'clock.

After lunch a program has been arranged which will take place in the college auditorium. Included in this program is a one-act play by the students of the college Laboratory School; singing by the college glee club under the direction of R. J. Neil, and band music furnished by Ernest Harris and the T. C. band.

THIRTY LEADING GEORGIANS TO PARTICIPATE IN OCCASION

American Scenes May Day Theme

May Day will be celebrated at Georgia Teachers College this year May 3, with the festivities beginning at 5 o'clock p. m. The theme for this year's program will be "American Scenes."

The program will be made up of types of dancing since 1796. The dance in honor of Washington's Birthday in 1796 will begin the program which will be concluded by those of the twentieth century. Among the different periods of development of the country covered will be the post-Revolutionary War, Expansion Movement, slavery scenes, post-Civil War, Gay Nineties, emerging twentieth century with a portion showing the highlights of the World War and then several present day dancers, jitterbug steps—and as the concluding number, the "Big Apple."

The May Day celebration this year is being conducted by the Woman's Physical Education Department, assisted by the Woman's Athletic Association.

DR. DESTLER HEADS PROGRAM GROUP

First Session of Affair Commences at 10 A. M. Friday

"Planning a Better Georgia" will be the theme of the sixth annual Georgia Progress program to be held here Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20. The discussion will be based on the report of the Citizens Fact Finding Movement of Georgia. Thirty leading Georgians will participate in the program.

Dr. C. M. Destler, chairman of the 1940 Georgia Progress program, announced the complete program here today.

Friday there will be three general sessions. Beginning at 10 a. m., the subject will be "Improving Our Wealth," with Dr. Harry Vaughn of the Georgia School of Technology as leader. At 2 p. m. the discussion will be "Improving Our Human Resources," with Tarleton Collier, Atlanta columnist, as the leader, and at 7 p. m. the subject will be "Improving Our Government."

J. C. GOLDEN IS HIGHLY PRAISED

Graduate of 1938 Class is Making Good at Pelham, Ga.

The following article was taken from the Pelham Journal concerning J. C. Golden, graduate of this college:

"J. C. Golden has full charge of teaching of physics, math, general science, and biology in the high school. He completed his college course at Georgia Teachers College in Statesboro and received a B. S. degree in education. He came to Pelham two years ago, and after a short time was welcomed enthusiastically by the student body as the result of his winning personality and friendly disposition. One of his first major duties was to coach the football team. In a forceful, yet patient way he gave his time and effort to this sport and started from the very lowest point, turned out the greatest team in Pelham's history. He was also basketball coach and again raised the team's record above the average."

"In addition to his congratulatory letter, he has written a very interesting article on the progress of the team." See GOLDEN, page 3

Vesper Choir Makes Special Appeal For New Members

There Is Especial Need For Male Voices.

The Vesper Choir is making a special appeal this quarter for new members. Preparations are being made to buy new vestments and new curtains for the choir. At present the choir has about thirty active members but it would be much better if at least fifty people would sing in the choir each Sunday night. There are enough vestments for this many people. There is an especial need for male voices.

Practice is held only once a week, from 2 until 3 on Sunday afternoon. There is no try-out; all that a person needs to do is to come to the practice Sunday afternoon and he is eligible to sing on Sunday evening. You will receive a very cordial welcome, and the choir needs you.

Y.W.C.A. SPONSORS "STEP SINGING"

Tuesday evening, April 16, the Y. W. C. A. will sponsor the first step-singing of the quarter. Immediately after supper, each boy and girl is urged to meet at East Hall steps.

The step-singing will be a weekly occurrence, scheduled for every Tuesday night.

At the Y. W. C. A. meeting in Lewis Hall, April 3, the theme was "Christian Life On the Campus." Speakers were Meg Gunter and Elizabeth Horn. Margaret Ann Johnston gave a reading.

Wednesday night, April 10, the Y. W. C. A. held its meeting in the college auditorium. Donna Thigpen sang a vocal solo, and Miriam Brinson read an article suggesting significant activities for college students.

GEORGIA PROGRESS DAY

Is the South the nation's number one economic problem? If so how much is Georgia contributing to the problem? Students at this college have been placed face to face with the facts time and again. They have seen the appalling figures that our state offers as compared with the rest of the South and the rest of the nation. True, these facts do "rub against the grain," so to speak, but they are here and though not immutable they are embarrassingly salient. Regardless of the conclusion that we have reached we do have to admit that Georgia's position is nothing to boast about.

It would be a mistake to think that Georgians have not begun to do something about these conditions. There is a slow but definite trend now in the state to right these evils amongst us. Just such a trend will be manifest at the Georgia Progress Convention to be held at this school this week end. Leaders from all over the state will discuss in open panel form the data which has been gathered by the Citizens Fact Finding Movement, plus other information that has been gathered from time to time in other studies of the problems of our state. No student at this college should miss this opportunity to become acquainted with the existing conditions. Certainly it should interest future school teachers to find out why the pay of school teachers in this state is one-half the national average, for example. Just such pertinent problems will be dealt with at this meeting.

For a great number of years Georgia has been called the "Empire State of the South." And Georgia does possess many of the attributes which would put her under this heading. Now what we must do is to accept our good qualities, but at the same time put emphasis on creating more good. Let's help our state to warrant the title of "Empire State" as an indisputable fact. Let's go forward with Georgia with this years Georgia Progress program.

Here it is, ladies and gentlemen. Yes, here's your "dirty" dirt column and also the news of the latest RACE. Yes, you've often heard of races, haven't you? Well, you should hear of the race that Eunice Erwin and Hershel Foster staged in the balcony at the show last week. Neither won—it was a neck and neck affair at the finish line, though.

Well, Well, the powerhouse from Sylvania has succeeded at last. Who're we talking about? Mr. Jaw-urge Boddiford of course. It appears he is getting more and more shy—er, we mean COY.

Listen kids: As a Barnard was seen MAN-EUVERING over the campus the other day—in an airplane.

The "good ole" Hendrix Club is functioning again. Robert Moyer is the first charter member this time. Poor Jean, the boys just don't do right by her. Jean's name brings to mind Chesley Whitley's name, and his name reminds us of Mug Mathews (oh boy, Ches and Mug—'nough said). Tough luck, ole boy; how is it John? Also Mary T. and Dabber are on "outs" at the present. Leave it to Dabber though, he'll soon get her back in the "Groove."

I understand there is trouble brewing—what I mean is—Moyer, Jenkins, and Conner. Careful Tom.

ATTENTION! Lend me your ears, you "spring struck" students. This cute Louise Williams and Sam Wiggins seem to be doing all right—ESPECIALLY down by the lake side. Nice going, Sam—I'm for you. There's a fellow named Noel, though, you'd better watch out for.

Abie Green, (Froggie's ice man) comes around every day. I guess he likes to be just "The Man That Comes Around."

This is a SCREWY world—Colbert Purvis has got a girl and seems to be in earnest about it; "Peck" Hamil can't make up his mind. Thera Dell is without a regular fellow; and "ye ole correspondent" and Miss Veazy are the BEST of friends. (Who's a liar?)

Herman Hartley wasn't losing any time with "Demp" while Anglin was in Milledgeville, was he "Demp?"

That Tom, Hot-Cha-Cha Vandiver seems to be getting rather corny about a certain COBB. Tom is better known as "Katy."

Joe Joyner seems to need a "NEW DEAL."

Carolyn Morris is still crazy about a little bit of Rumph.

"The Little GIRL That Wasn't There"—Betty Wynn.

We know one thing about Ed Allen. He won't be late for math class any more. Will he, Mr. Moyer?

We wonder where Wilmer Parker has been parking lately? We bet a girl named Sarah knows.

Will be seeing you next issue—until then—"here's mud in your eyes." SPRING IS HERE.

Bobbles--By Bobby

A thundering war of static came from the loud speaker and suddenly this question blared out over the crowd, "What is the penalty for two wives?" and just as blaring—the answer, "Two mother-in-laws!" Thusly was inaugurated the baseball game with Tattnell University.

First to face the T. C. batters from the mound was a pitcher who carried with him a brand new glove, a very, very fast ball and a week-old reprieve from the electric chair. This was slightly disconcerting to the Teachers but nevertheless Cliff Wells hit the first ball for a single. Followed by two strike outs the side retired to the field.

Clever pitching by "Prof" Slayden kept the inmates from scoring. Next for the Teachers, Hamil socked out a triple much to the surprise of all concerned. Joe Feaster followed with a single which scored Hamil. This was also a great surprise. From then on the Teachers, due to the eclipse no doubt, had great difficulty in seeing the ball thrown by the pitchers.

"Powerhouse" Smith, favorite Babe Ruth of the prison, slapped one way out to right field for a home run. Mr. Smith tore around the bases so fast that one would think the prison blood hounds were after him—but as for the necessity there was none—he was at the plate before the fast Mr. Trowell had tracked the ball down. Mr. Smith swings a very wicked bat indeed.

King, going from catching to pitching, held the prisoners down very nicely from the seventh inning on. Carroll going in as a pinch hitter in the ninth—well, er, Carroll certainly did want to hit that ball—he at least tried. He tried so hard I think he even saw the first ball pitched.

Seeing the prison was a great experience. Friendly fellows the prisoners, black and white. Going to the field late I walked down a long, long corridor entirely surrounded by negro prisoners, about a thousand years worth of crime, without hearing one word that was not printable for the general public.

Talking with the prisoners during the game I found they were just ordinary fellows, getting the most out of their lives as they live them. One fellow was jubilant over the fact that he had only nine more months in the year for beating his wife. How can our nation go wrong with such optimism found even in our prisons? Viva Karl Marx!! Long live the proletariat!!

Very discerning fellows, too, I must say. When a few of the prisoners asked me if I were going to teach—and I said yes—they laughed out loud. (Superintendents, please do not note.)

Every one should see the prison and meet the inmates. When asking one of them for his name he gave me a long number, telling me that was just his pen name. It was one place that was really kept as clean as a pen.

With all in all of it, though, there

BUZZY BAG BITES

By BAGLEY

Intramural softball is well under way now. The gay faculty hasn't had a feather pulled out yet. Coach Smith, who is pitching for the Faculty, offered ten dollars to the first team defeating him. Now, Coach, you must take this statement as a joke because it is certain that everyone else will.

The hitting has been an outstanding feature in the games played so far. Later in the season, as the fielding improves, the hitting will slow down. Most of the teams are well balanced.

T. C. tennis team played its initial match with Savannah High last week. The enthusiasm for tennis is somewhat lacking because enough matches cannot be scheduled. There is not as much competitive spirit for tennis as there once was. The track teams at T. C. have also suffered because of this same reason.

The independent Teachers College baseball team lost to the Reidsville prison boys 10-1, but it must be remembered that the prison team is really a fast outfit. Manager King, of the Teachers, is arranging some good games for his team and the T. C. students should attend all games played in Statesboro.

Whether it is the lack of material or time, the spring football practice has gotten underway rather slowly. We're still expecting a good team next fall, however.

Among the boys there is a little gossip of how important recreation is to an individual. Their talk goes like this: "Young people usually like sports, while the middle aged and older groups turn to music for recreations." If sports don't keep pace with music a few years will be sufficient to turn this institution into an old woman's home.

Ye editor has heard many comments this year concerning the value of sports. Whether inter-scholastic or intramural the value of sports is unequalled by any rival. There is no better place where young people learn to be good competitors than in sports.

Going back to softball—when softball season rolls around each year we can't help but think about "Stuffy" Stewart and the days when he played shortstop here. His shortstopping ability was distinctly the best that T. C. students have ever seen.

SECOND WEEK OF SOFTBALL SEASON COMES TO AN END AND COMPETITION IS VERY KEEN

SPRING FOOTBALL DRILLS BEGIN

Spring football practice is under way. Coach Smith has only a few boys out for this practice but these boys should form a backbone for the 1940 team. Next year T. C. should step out in front in football and all it will take to do this is to get those young players back that we had this year.

The value of spring football practice is explained by Coach Smith as being a workout for the boys who would otherwise get completely out of training in a year's time. Boys who play football and get the best results are those that train the whole year. Any period of time that physical training is ceased tends to tear down the co-ordination needed in skill. It should be recognized that boys do not have to suffer the effects of September training. If they remain in shape they train with ease when the season begins.

The prospects for next year are bright. It should be remembered that this year's team was a success. The team was large but young. If the same group of boys report next year they should have a very strong club. In the next edition of the George-Anne we will tell the 1939 players who are expected to be on the 1940 team.

Professor (to student): "Is that your cigarette butt on the floor?"

Student: "Oh, that's okay. Take it. You saw it first."

feats for coaching, he is also an outstanding member of the faculty. He is well liked both in and out of school. The townspeople think of him as an interesting and enjoyable person and gladly welcome him in their circles. The faculty knows him for what he represents—a true friend and a conscientious teacher. His pupils admire his manner of teaching, and there is much interest aroused in his daily classes.

"Mr. Golden is massively built and has black wavy hair and gray eyes. He likes all good foods but enjoys desserts best. He likes all sports and naturally knows the rules governing each one. As the result of being the only single man teacher on the faculty, he is extremely popular and is never lacking for social contacts.

"Mr. Golden's ambition is to be a doctor, and although the school wishes him luck in fulfilling his ambitions, they hope he will delay it long enough to instruct other students in their studies and to continue the clean sportsmanship of the school's sports as he started."

KEEPING UP WITH THE TENNIS BOYS

By Ace Morrison

Before a crowd of about one hundred cheering spectators, T. C.'s inexperienced tennis team lost to a strong team from Savannah High 4 to 2. This was the Teacher's first match and all of our players put up a good match.

Results were as follows: Bobby Carroll (T. C.), lost to Long, 6-0, 6-3. "Evolution" Rowell (T. C.), lost to Knudson, 6-3, 6-0. "Alley Cat" Parker (T. C.), was downed by Winn, 6-1, 6-4. "Ace" Morrison (T. C.), beat Falk, 6-3, 7-6 and 6-1.

In the doubles: Carroll and Parker (T. C.), lost to Long and Falk, 6-3, 6-3. Rowell and Morrison (T. C.), defeated Knudson and Winn, 4-6, 8-6 and 9-7.

This may seem like a bad defeat for the Teachers but after considering the small amount of practice we have had I think we did well.

In the next few weeks we are going to play Armstrong, Brewton-Parker, possibly Middle Georgia and a return match with Savannah High. We have some very good players in the school and I believe with proper backing we can put out a winning team.

A parrot was sitting in the salon of a luxurious liner watching a magician do tricks. The magician served notice that he was now going to do a trick never before accomplished. He pulled up his sleeves and then proceeded to make a few fancy motions. Just at that moment the ship's boilers blew up, demolishing the ship. About five minutes later, as the parrot came to, floating about the ocean on a piece of driftwood, he muttered:

"Damned clever, damned clever."

One of the WPA men spoke: "I dug a hole where I was told to and began to put the dirt back in like I was supposed to. But all the dirt won't go back in. What'll I do?"

For a long time the WPA supervisor pondered the problem. Then, "I have it. There's only one thing to do. You'll have to dig the hole deeper."

Professor: "I will not begin today's lecture until the room settles down."

Voice from the rear: "Have you tried tomato juice, old man?"

In the days of Queen Elizabeth, 'tis said, some of the ladies of the court like to curl up with a good book, while others preferred simply to curl up with one of the pages.

FOUR TEAMS ARE TIED FOR FIRST

Each Team In League Has Been Defeated at Least Once.

At the close of the second week of the softball season four teams are tied for first place. The Bugger Daggers, Iota Pi Nus, Delta Sigmas, and the Faculty have each won two and lost one.

The Bugger Daggers had to forfeit a game to Ed Allen because of a rule which says a team cannot be allowed to win a game if less than eight men are playing on the team. The Bugger Daggers played Allen with only seven men and defeated his team 18-4. Yet the game was chalked up as a loss for the Bugger Daggers.

The Iota Pi Nus were defeated 8-6 by the Bugger Daggers for their only loss so far.

The Y. M. C. A. team is going strong, having defeated the Faculty and the boxers. Only the Pi Nu fraternity has defeated them, and that on the opening day of the season.

The Faculty which boasts of the Smith-Martin combination is rated highly, although they were edged out 14-11 by the Y. M. C. A. last week. As yet the Faculty has not played the Bugger Daggers, Pi Nus or the Delta Sigmas.

All ten teams have had an opportunity to test their playing ability, and all the teams played a good brand of softball. It is early yet to think of an all-star team, but there are several players who are beginning to "shine."

Following is a synopsis of the games, won and lost:

	Won	Lost
Bugger Daggers	2	1
Y. M. C. A.	2	1
Iota Pi Nu	2	1
Faculty	2	1

formance Thursday at Bainbridge. Other appearances will be at Donaldsonville, Colquitt, Newton, and the Americus High School, as well as Georgia Southwestern College.

The band members will be entertained Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Sycamore and Climax, respectively.

Several new selections have been added to the usual concert program, and the band expects to surpass the excellent quality of its previous performances.

ORNITHOLOGISTS HOLD MEETING

R. J. H. DeLoach Is President Of The Association.

April 6 and 7 the Georgia Ornithological Association held a meeting in Statesboro. Dr. John H. DeLoach, president of the association, and Miss Malvina Trussell were host and hostess.

Saturday afternoon the members of the association registered, and were afterwards entertained at a tea at the Statesboro Club House. There were forty-seven persons present.

The association's theme for this year is "Backyard Sanctuaries for Birds." At the dinner, Dr. Hall, of Milledgeville, gave an interesting talk on this subject. Other speakers on the program and their subjects were: Mr. Carter told of his water fowl preserve in Augusta; Mr. Thompson spoke of soil conservation in the Piedmont region; wild-life refuges in Jones and Wilkinson counties were discussed by Mr. Fleetwood. Former students Lucy Bunce and Thera McElveen, talked of what they were doing in the classroom to further the program.

Sunday morning the ornithologists made field trips to Beechwood and Fields' Park. A luncheon was prepared and served to the members of the association at Beechwood.

Among the distinguished ornithologists present were Miss Rogers of G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, and Dr. and Mrs. Harris of Emory University, Atlanta.

J. T. Ecker, professor of Social Science at Middle Georgia College, and Samuel Schiller, graduate student at Virginia University will be here as visiting teachers of Social Science.

IN A CLASSROOM

All the time I am talking, I am talking to you.
Trying to make it true.
I am trying to say, Be sure.
Endure. It will be the way you want it.

I am remembering when I was wild, too;
Secret; rich; unknown
Except to one friend; even then alone.
I am asking you what you want to be,
Asking you what you want of me,
Telling you there is no one, nothing,
Ever to fear.

And wondering if you hear.

7:30 in the evening Dr. Hoy Taylor, dean of G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, will lead a discussion on "Constructing An Adequate Government."

For one hour following these general meetings there will be group meetings with 50 students, faculty members and citizens in each group, discussing questions raised at the general meetings.

The discussion group leaders will be: Dr. John T. Wheeler, of the University of Georgia; Philip Weltner, of Atlanta; R. M. Stiles, of Cartersville, president of the United Georgia Farmers; Chas. D. Russell, of Savannah; I. W. Rountree, lawyer, of Swainsboro; Supt. Paul Munro, of Columbus; T. T. Molner, of Cuthbert; M. D. McRae, wild life ranger, of Macon; Dr. C. M. Coalson, of Statesboro; Mrs. W. W. Edge, of Statesboro; Dean Geo. P. Donaldson, of Abraham Baldwin College; Miss Mary Gray, state president of the American Association of College Women; W. C. Henson, of Cartersville; Harry A. Aiken, of Statesboro; Mrs. Virginia Heard, of Savannah; Mrs. J. W. Daniels, of Claxton, and Mrs. Troy Rucker, president of the State Home Demonstration Council.

The program Saturday morning will be a panel discussion with the theme "Planning a Better Georgia." Dr. O. C. Aderhold of the University of Georgia, will act a chairman and the following have accepted places on the panel: W. T. Anderson, of the Macon Telegraph; Dean Paul Chapman, of the State College of Agriculture, Athens; former Chancellor Philip Weltner; Miss Emily Woodward, director of the Georgia Public Forums; Jack Williams, editor of the Waycross Journal-Herald; Porter Carswell, of Waynesboro; Paul Munro, of Columbus; Miss Ola Weyeth, librarian of the Savannah Public Library; J. These debates are the finals of the First district B and C class schools.

Y. M. C. A. HAS GOOD SERVICE

Installation services for the new officers of the Y. M. C. A. were held Wednesday, April 3.

Bob Bidgood made an interesting report on the series of meetings recently held at Macon and attended by five G. T. C. students.

The next "Y" meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, April 17, in Sanford Lounge.

and Dr. C. M. Destler, of the Teachers College. The audience will be invited to participate in the discussion.

At noon the college will serve a complimentary lunch for the guests and the students.

The program April 19 and 20 will be the sixth annual progress program sponsored by the college here. Last year the program featured Dr. W. H. Kilpatrick and Dr. Paul Misner, with the theme "Progressive Education."

is an odd feeling when one considers prison. I notice in the prisoners an unconscious or subconscious attitude as if they were trying to convince themselves that prison does not matter after all—that really they are just the same as they always were. Maybe they're right—maybe prison doesn't matter. Maybe we'd get a lot further if prison didn't matter; adopt the optimistic attitude instead of the defeatist attitude.

After all, we create the prisons and the laws that fill the prisons. Perhaps the money spent on the building and upkeep of prisons could better be spent on our court systems and educational foundation processes. A lot of our high court justices have been only corporation lawyers. Perhaps we should expect less crime rather than prepare for more of it. There is a fallacy there somewhere when that condition exists that we prepare for crime; the corrective period is before the crime happens.

Oh, baseball? The score? 10 to 1—favor the prisoners.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB BEGINS A NEWLY ADOPTED PROJECT

The local I. R. C. has formulated plans to begin the new project which the club has adopted.

The project is to submit recommendations for an organization of Peace in a contest sponsored by a national commission to study the problem. The subject has been divided into several topics and a committee to study each one has been selected. The committee chairmen with topics under consideration are as follows: "The International World We Want," chairman, Lorraine Brockett; "Political International Organization," Adolf Drury; "Economic International Organization," Elbert Sanders; "Social and Cultural Organization," Miriam Girdardeau; "War," Earl Byrd, and "The Role of Transition Problems Following the U. S.," Charles Stanfield.

The club met April 12 and held a discussion on the problem with Mr. Ward, Dr. Destler, Dr. DeLoach and Mr. Thompson as guests.

A tiny ant stood looking helplessly and longingly at the carcass of a dead horse, wondering if she could nibble some of it to take home. A truck filled with cases of liquor passed by and a bottle fell out near the ant and broke. The ant took a sip and then another, and pretty soon began to feel revitalized. Grabbing the horse by the tail, it started shouting "Come on, big boy, we're going home."

Private Detective: "I trailed your husband into three night clubs and two bachelor apartments."

Suspicious Lady: "Good grief! What was she doing?"

Detective: "Trailing you."

Director: "Have you ever had any stage experience?"

Applicant: "Well, I had me leg in a cast once".

She: "I wear this gown only to teas."

He: "Whom?"

Students To See Gone With The Wind

At last, at last, the wonder picture of the year, "Gone With The Wind," comes to the Georgia Theatre this week for a four-day engagement commencing Wednesday and continuing through Saturday.

College officials announced last week that no classes would be held Thursday afternoon, so as to afford the students an opportunity to see this great picture without taking any class cuts.

T. C. students have been looking forward to this occasion and it is expected the student body will turn out "en masse" for the picture.

There isn't much difference in freshmen from year to year. You can tell a freshman girl right off because she says, "Stop," and you can tell a freshman boy just as easy because he stops.

They sat on the beach. She leaned against his bare arm and her hair caressed his face. Her head rested on his shoulder—she looked up at him, longingly. Finally she murmured, "Why don't you kiss me?"

"I can't," he said, "I got some sand in my mouth."

"Swallow it, big boy, swallow it. If anybody ever needed sand, you do."

MANY COMMENTS HAVE BEEN HEARD ON THE BACHELORS VARIETY SHOW

Spring Short Term Begins April 29th

The Spring Short Term begins Monday, April 29 and lasts for six weeks, ending June 7. Many teachers whose schools will "be out" before this time are expected to attend this session.

Courses in Education 311 and 413; English 411 and 205; Music 301; Art 201; Biological Science 101; Government 322; Industrial Arts 204, and Speech 201, are to be offered.

FACULTY MEMBERS VISIT MANY COUNTIES

The faculty members of Georgia Teachers College are continuing to visit the high schools of this section of Georgia.

Each faculty member has been assigned a county, or counties, which they are expected to visit. On these visits the relationship of the College and high schools is bound closer together.

Several people made rather interesting comments of the Bachelors Varieties, and since there isn't room in the dirt column we had to make a special article out of this. As Confucius once didn't say, "Quote" Anne Breen. "I never saw so much filth in one place in my life. I went home and brushed my teeth, bathed and washed my hair." Incidentally we hear from a reliable source that Annie B. went home and joined the "girls" in telling them over again.

Mr. Russell—"Romeo and Juliet is a good source for the next year's Varieties."

Mr. Ward—"Haw, Haw, Haw."

Aunt Sophie—"Boys!"

Miss Michael—" " (dead silence).

Miss Parnell—"I don't catch."

Mr. Neil—"You should have seen the part they cut out."

Tom Jenkins—"The best minstrel I've ever seen."

Miss T. C.—"Gosh!"

Mr. T. C.—"Bravo!"

Miss Veazy—" " (censored by the editor).

LAMBDA THETA CHI

Officers for the following year were elected at the regular meeting of the L. T. C. Sorority last Wednesday night. The officers now serving are: President, Jewell Vandiver; vice-president, Dot Cromley; secretary, Frances Harrison; treasurer, Lorraine Brockett, and chaplain, Emolyn Rainey. Those elected to office in the fall are: President, Frances Harrison; vice-president, Betty Mc-Lemore; secretary, Eula Beth Jones; treasurer, Emolyn Rainey, and chaplain, Isabelle Trussell. The hostesses for the evening were Julia Meadows and Virginia Morris.

DUX DOMINA

The regular meeting of the Dux Domina Sorority was held Thursday night. Plans for the quarterly formal on May 11 were discussed. Hostesses at the meeting were Catherine Gaine and Margie Cobb.

BUGGER DAGGER

Bids were extended to three new men last week by the Bugger Daggers. They were Joe Pat Stanford, Cuthbert; Willie Hugh Hinely, Springfield, and Kenneth Scott, Sylvania.

Cliff Wells and John Dunn were selected as co-captains of the softball team which is at present in a tie for first place in the league.

Plans are being formulated for the club's dinner dance which is to be held May 25.

DELTA SIGMA

Members of the Delta Sigma fraternity entertained with a stag supper Wednesday night at Gerald Groover's farm. About thirty boys were present, including several old members and Mr. E. D. Turner, faculty advisor. Plans are being made for the fraternity's quarterly dance to be held May 25. At the last meeting John Smith, of Statesboro, and W. D. McDougald, of Waycross, were pledged to the fraternity.

DELTA LAMBDA DELTA

The circus came to town Saturday night to celebrate the thirteenth anniversary of the first sorority to be established on this campus! The D. L. D.'s gave forth April 13th with an original circus dance, and much to everyone's joy it was strictly informal. The Woman's Club became the main tent housing Marion Carpenter's orchestra, stuffed animals in cages, and "feed" booths. The tent effect was made by strips of red and blue (D. L. D. colors) crepe paper, fastened to the center by a large colored bag of balloons. Over the fireplace behind the orchestra shone the Delta Lambda Delta Shield, and balloons on reeds were arranged on the wall at one end of the tent. The names of the members and their dates were written on the balloons. The air was literally bombarded with confetti and serpentine; for evidence look in a D. L. D.'s hair any time this week! Hugh Hodges, John Blanchard and Kitty Gardner entertained the fun-mad crowd during intermission. At intermission everyone was served hot dogs, pink lemonade, peanuts, popcorn and ice cream cones. There's no doubt about it, it was a grand affair.

The members and their dates were Winona Carpenter, Marion Carpenter; Peggy Hardwick, Jake Zetterower; Helen Hardwick, Edwin Groover; Mary Love Lewis, Everett Loosier; Mary Fries, Charles Warnock; Mary Graham, Bobby Carroll; Kathryn Jones, Harold Waters; Frances Sperry, Robert Brown; Belva Dickson, John Smith; Dell Rountree, Roger Holland; Snookie Dennard, Mr. X. Squire, and Carolyn Foster, Gerald Groover. The invited guests were: Mary Kathrine Thomas, Betty Mc-Lemore, Ann Breen, Marjorie Cobb, Geraldine Keefe and Annette Hendrix. The chaperones were the D. L. D. sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Neil and their honorary sponsor, Miss Edenfield.

On Wednesday night the D. L. D.'s were entertained with a formal dinner at their sponsors' home.

BACHELORS

One of the highlights of the social season comes off next Saturday night. At that time the Bachelors will have their banquet at the Jaekel Hotel and a dance following it in the college gymnasium. Plans are being made for this banquet and dance to be "the last word" in social functions. Marion Carpenter and his orchestra is to play for the dance.

A picnic was held at Beechwood last Saturday afternoon. All the members and their dates were present.

Bids were extended sixteen new men last week. They are: John Dunn, Devereux; T. A. Bacon, Manassas; Cliff Wells, Climax; Willie Hugh Hinely, Springfield; Tom Cox, Atapulugus; Bill Cox, Dawson; David Watson, Fitzgerald; Billy Ingram, Nelson; Carl Hutchins, Sparta; Kenneth Scott, Sylvania; John Roberts, Matthews; Ross Rountree, Graymont-Summit; Eddie Najjar, Cedar-town; Elbert Sanders, Pembroke; Gesmon Neville, Statesboro, and Sam Wiggins, Dublin.

The members of the Bachelor's Club who are on the campus are: Theron Anglin, Bill Chambless, Nicholas Dunbar, Willard Cartee, Roy Rabun, Hendry Bagley, Joe Joyner, Joe Ingram, Hugh Hodges, Charles Stanfield, Herman Wrinkle, Joe Pat Stanford, Jim Wrinkle, Bobby Carroll and David Bowman.

The Bachelors Club is the oldest and one of the most outstanding clubs on the campus.

Sultan: "Bring me a girl."

Servant: "Very good, sir."

Sultan: "Not necessarily."

NAUTICAL, from page 1

The occasion will be brought to an end with folk dances and stunts in the gymnasium.

Play Days have proved successful here and this year is expected to be no exception.

Mrs. Guardia Speaks Before Statesboro Woman's Club

Mrs. J. E. Guardia recently made an interesting talk to the Book Section of the Statesboro Woman's Club. The club met at the home of Mrs. Pittman near the college.

In the talk Mrs. Guardia presented definitions of modern poetry and discussed some of the dominant trends of contemporary verse. She brought to the group discussion material on the verses she presented.

Mrs. Guardia read poems to illustrate different characteristics of modern verse.

Prof: "What color is best for a bride?"

Stude: "I'd prefer a white one."

"Did you keep the date with your girl last night in all that rain?"

"Naw, I waited for her two hours, and she didn't come, so I stood her up."
