MAY DAY FESTIVITIES FRIDAY

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT TO BE ELECTED ON MAY 9THELECTION TO BE IN GYMNASIUM

All Other Officers To Be Elected
On Same Day.

The election of student council and class officers for the 1940-41 school year will be held on Thursday, May 9, in the college gymnasium according to the student council authorities.

The president of the student council, the vice-president, and secretary will be elected at this time along with the class officers.

In order to qualify for any of these offices each candidate must turn in his name and the office for which he wishes to run to Miriam Girardeau, secretary of the present student council, before noon on Saturday, May 4.

All officers must have a scholastic average of a "C" or above at the time of election. Student council officers shall be elected from the sophomore class or above at the time of the election and must have attended the college for at least a year.

All class officers will be elected in the gymnasium this year. The student council feels that more people will get the chance to vote if all ballots are cast at the same poll.

Up to date no candidate has expressed his desire to run, but the politics on the campus will become "heated" very soon.

SMITH SPEAKS
AT Y.M.C.A. MEET

Plans are Made for Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. Joint Party.

The Y.M.C.A. met in Sanford lounge April 17, with Coach B. L. Smith as the speaker. Coach Smith spoke on the subject of "Will Power and Its Relation to Living the Right Kind of Life." With the peculiar valuable way the Coach had of being one of the boys while yet an example and instructor at the same time, his talk, related directly to the everyday life of every boy present and impressed and inspired all who heard him. Willie Hugh Hinely and Charles Alford also participated in the program arranged by Vice-President John Ben Ayers on the subject of "A Better Life Through Christian Living." President Charles Stanfield presided at the meeting.

Plans are being formulated for the

The Physical Education department of this college is to present a Nautical Play Day here Saturday, May 11.

The high school students of all of the First district high schools, as well as the high school students of Albany, Thomasville and forty-three other large schools, have been invited to attend. The day has been named "A Sailor's Holiday" aboard the S. S. Georgia Teachers College.

Registration begins at 10 a. m. at the pier, which is the college gymnasium. From registration time until noon the visiting groups are to be entertained with folk dances, games and other forms of recreation. A picnic lunch is to be served down by Lake Wells at one o'clock.

After lunch a program has been arranged which will take place in the college auditorium. Included in this program is a one-act play by the students of the college Laboratory School; singing by the college glee club under the direction of R. J. Neil, and band music furnished by Ernest Harris and the T. C. band.

The occasion will be brought to an end with folk dances and stunts in the gymnasium.

Play days have proved successful here in past years and this year is expected to be no exception.

GEORGIA PROGRESS
A GREAT SUCCESS

Leading Citizens of Georgia Contributed to Occasion.

On April 20th the sixth annual Georgia Progress program with its theme, "Planning a Better Georgia," closed as the most successful yet held by the college.

Dr. Harry Vaughn, director, Engineering Experimental Station at Georgia Tech in Atlanta, opened the discussion Friday morning on "Increasing Our Wealth and Income." He was followed in the afternoon by Tarleton Collier, noted newspaper columnist, who directed discussion on "Improving Our Human Resources." Friday night Dr. Hoy Taylor, dean of the Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville, led a very spirited discussion on "Constructing and Adequate Government."

Between the meetings in the auditorium group discussions were held. Group leaders for these discussions represented practically every field of business in the state from educational leaders to Georgia farmers.

Saturday's program was in the form of a panel discussion with the central theme, "Planning a Better Georgia." Dr. O. C. Aderhold, of the University of Georgia, was discussion chairman. Members of the panel included two Teachers College students, Charles Stanfield and Elbert Sanders, GEORGIA PROGRESS, see page 6

ROSE LOCKHART
QUEEN OF MAY

Mary Edna Gunter Is the Maid
Of Honor.

The annual May Day pageant will be presented at this college Friday afternoon, May 3rd, in the amphitheatre behind the gymnasium, according to Miss Sue Hammack. At that time Rose Lockhart, May Queen, will be crowned by her maid of honor, Mary Edna Gunter.

The program will be made up of types of dancing since 1793. A demonstration of the type of dance which was used in honor of Washington's birthday in 1796 will begin the program which will be concluded by those of the twentieth century. The complete program follows: Episode I, colonial scene, birthday ball honoring the Father of our country, 1796; Episode II, pioneer scene, after a log-rolling in the wilds of Ohio, 1803-1880; Episode III, slavery scene, 1830-1855, in a cotton patch back of MAY DAY, see page 4

Many Interesting Programs.

Y.W.C.A. officers for the new 1940-41 term were elected Wednesday night, April 24. Emolyn Rainey, of Columbus, was unanimously chosen to serve as president of the organization. During her three years at Georgia Teachers College, she has proved by her active participation in the Y.W.C.A. that she will make a capable and inspiring leader. Other officers elected were: Burdelle Harrison, vice-president; Frances Hughes, secretary, and Katherine Gainey, treasurer.

At the Y.W.C.A. meeting Wednesday night, April 17, Mrs. Owen, of Bessie Tift College, Forsyth, was the guest speaker. Her subject was "Prayer."

BIBLE VERSE.

"The race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong."
Eccles. 9:11.

Boys and girls, this spring weather is just the thing, isn't it? Bobby Carroll, our assistant sports editor, got to feeling "in the mood" last week, and as a result we have a real dissertation on spring for our paper this week. This "ranting" by Carroll is found elsewhere on this page.

Friday marks an annual occasion of great importance at this school. May Day, with its queen, maid of honor, and gala dress has become a definite and necessary part of our school program. There is no affair that expresses the gaiety of Spring and the beauty of life any more than does "May Day." This year's occasion promises to surpass all others at this college.

Speaking of feeling "in the mood," Ross Rountree and Billy Cox, two of our best football players, got rather optimistic last week and predicted great things for next fall's football team. We asked them to put this optimistic prediction on paper, which they obligingly did; so you can turn to the sports page and see just what they think the football prospects for next fall are. Manager John King also dedicated an article for the paper concerning his up-and-coming baseball team which features Cliff Wells at shortstop.

STUDENT ELECTION

May 9, the date of the student election, should be a very important day for the students of the college. On this day each student enrolled in this school has an opportunity to go to the polls and vote his convictions. In a short while practically every student here will be out in life voting in the major elections of the day. There is no better time than the present to learn how to be a good voter, if such a thing is possible.

The approaching student election affords an opportunity for all of us to choose our candidates according to our own reasoning, and to stand by our convictions. To be a good voter one must at least think for himself and stick by his convictions. No doubt there will be many candidates in the field, and it may be hard to select the right one but if everyone will really think carefully about every candidate, pick the one he really thinks is the best for the position, and sticks to him, we will come very near electing the best man for each position.

Diggings

Dirt was rather scarce this week. So again we say if you have any dirt, just hand it in and we will do the rest.

Oh say, Gesmon, can't you make your mind up on which girl you want? If you would, it might give some other fellow a chance.

Bill Tom Reeves has finally caught up on his sleep. Thanks to Georgia Progress, music and art.

It seems as if Mary Thomas didn't think a Dab was enough so she traded it for a King. The devil for a witch, 'er something.

We notice that the Boddiford-Heath romance is progressing right nicely. We wonder why Ogeechee didn't have the same effect on Arland Cooper.

Flash!!! As we go to press we learn that Bob Bidgood has just been elected president of the Annelle Hendrix Club. Congratulations, Bob.

Well, Country (Dell) Rountree is still taking music and is doing right well. Her latest composition is "Nobody's Sweetheart Now."

Sir Isaac Newton proved the law of gravitation. Was it this that made Purvis fall so hard or was it Miriam Morgan?

It seems like the Graymont-Summit boys are really getting serious. How did the folks like the girls, boys? I'm talking about you, Mr. Vandiver of "Oh but—" fame.

It seems as if several of our young boys and girls have taken a sudden interest in the little fishes down in the lake. Any way, we notice that every night after supper Bill Chambliss and Kitty Dubberly, Joe Pat and Toney, etc., really toss the bread. Lucky fish!

After Uncle Sam's careful checking up with the 1940 census on the T. C. campus we find the following list of eligible beaux: Billy Cox, Herman Hartley, Dan Chambliss, John Olmstead, Chesley Whitley, Merrill Nelson, Spud Sperry, T. A. Bacon, Clifford P. Wells, Asa Barnard, Z. L. Strange Jr., and last but by no means least, Ben John Ayers. Any girl that can supply employment to the above unemployed contact box 333, Collegeboro, Ga.

We wonder why Maggie Arnett goes home every week end. Are you losing your power, Joe?

We understand that all the boys on the Georgia History trip visited Congress last Friday night. An enjoyable as well as profitable time was reported by all. They all met the speaker of the house.

Referring to the recent English Club picnic Drury says any allegation that he attended because Laura also did so, is quite, quite untrue. "Absurd," says he, "It was merely an - er - coincidence."

Chesley Whitley is fastly becoming "The Lone Ranger." There's always Annelle, Chesley.

Professors Cartee and Rabun are still "courting," but it's very mild courting on Sunday night. It's bad they can't "barricade" like the other couples. How is it Major and Gainey?

Louise Williams is still doing all right with Sam, or is she? She still loves her Noel, Sam.

Doggone, this is lousy stuff this week. Why dont you do something exciting, kids? Another Foster-Erwin race would help, or another "Little Girl That Wasn't There."

Mary, do you love Lewis or do you love Willie? Silly, ain't it?

CARROLL RANTS ON SPRINGTIME

There was once a noted philosopher who, while lecturing to a class of students, looked out of the window of the room at a profusion of spring flowers growing outside and paused for a long while, finally turning to the class, he said, "I am sorry but I am afraid this lecture will never be completed; I have an appointment with April." So saying he turned and walked out of the room and never returned to finish the lecture. We, too, should make it a point to have an appointment with April. April is not a thing to be taken lightly. April is a powerful moving force. Blood flows freely in April.

I don't know why it is that people get the way that they do in Spring. I get that way, too. The thought of having flowers and green grass and swaying trees and all the other things that go with it gives me the darn funniest feeling. Something that cannot be described exactly. Sorta like butterflies inside of you. Big purple butterflies. I never see the white clouds floating high and not so high without remembering the days and days that I have spent with kites, trying to get those kites up to those clouds. No matter what I hear I still like to believe that they are the same clouds that used to float over when we were younger than we are now. Funny, too, but I begin to look for rings in the grass on Spring mornings where it is said that the elves played the night before. Grand things, elves and dwarfs — they brought most of us through the period known as childhood in fine style. I secretly believe that most of us believe in them even more than we used to in spite of our acquired age. Maybe it is just the Irish. But still the Irish folklore tales are among the most beautiful.

Something else, too, and that is that I know that this is supposed to be the awakening of the years, but to me it's something more than that. It is the time of the year when it seems that something is missing—just what it is I do not know and perhaps I will never know. There comes a sort of nostalgic feeling with spring—a feeling for far places and strange names and faces that we have never seen or heard before. There seems to be a communal spirit inherent in man that wants out. It has been called wanderlust, but mere wandering is not the cure for it—it is rather the search for a place to stop and the odd thing is that there is no place to stop.

But whatever we may think of spring we should enjoy it to the utmost. No spring will ever be quite like this one, so we might as well take it and live it—passionately, wholeheartedly and contentedly. There will be springs long after this generation is long forgotten.

It was George Bernard Shaw who said that it is such a pity that youth is wasted on the young. I wonder if CARROLL RANTS, see page 5

BUZZY BAG BITES

By BAGLEY

The word progress being fixed in the mind, may explain T. C.'s intramural softball league this year. The hard hitting Faculty is the spice of variety—their enthusiasm centers around shortstop where the chirping Prof. Hanner keeps up a tune. It is detrimental to hit a ball to this spot because the shortstop is built so low to the ground that he can't miss. His chunk then can't get over that tower on first base. The safest bet is to hit to left field where Dr. Destler runs so long in one place.

The Y.M.C.A. is a choice team. This is better understood when we think of "Bugger Lou," Slayden, Pafford, Elliott and Trowell, a few members of the team. It is said that no one has found the ball that Slayden hit so far last week; undercover men say that Slayden tipped the ball and the opposing catcher stuck the ball in his pocket.

As the Pi Nus pass in review we see the tallest members of the team, Hamil, King, and Talbert. All throws from Talbert on third, King at short, to Hamil on first are perfect; that is except when the going gets too tough. In this case the throw is not meant for first base, but it goes by there high wide, and handsome. You see they throw words around the infield directing them at pitcher Jenkins, and he, ducking at the proper time, allows perfect throws to reach first base. They sting, don't they, Hamil? You need a catcher's mask on your face.

The team that tries to slide through their games is the Bugger Daggers. They center their plays around "BARNYARD." The opposition gets in deep water, though, when they hit WELLS on third base. Charles stands his field at short and the furrows run to the batter at home plate when he plants that potato in this spot.

Rowell's team came back with a bang after the Faculty game. What has happened to their ball team? or is it Strange? A bird who flew high against the Faculty was Martin. Before the end of the season it is possible that Rowell with the help of Carroll, Enlowe, and Wilkerson, three members of his team, will get the Bells to clapping and the Martins to flapping.

The D. S. fraternity is off to a slow start. They were speedy, though, when they defeated the Warriors 42-2. Such flashes as Cowart, Vandiver, Joyner and Coleman strike with a ball. You can never tell when they will strike out.

Hurst's team is lagging behind in games won but it has a few good players on it. Davis and Williams form its backbone.

Ed Allen and Pate Warren were in cahoots in managing the Warriors. Allen was getting the credit for such a fast team and Warren was getting

SOFTBALL LEAGUE CONTINUES FAST PACE; FACULTY TEAM IS LEADING AT THE PRESENT

Gridders Predict Great Season

By ROSS ROUNTREE and BILLY COX.

Last season Coach "Crook" Smith, with the majority of his team recruits, did an excellent job of rounding it into a winning ball club. With one year's experience behind these players and with the reinforcement that is expected from the junior college grids, it is believed by the writers that T. C. will climb into a number one rating.

We all remember the "jam-up" playing in the line by such players as Pafford, Langley, Robertson, Smith, Mize, Paschal, Parker, Morrison, Anglin, Hamil, Horne, Dunn, Morgan; and in the backfield, Joyner, Ellison, Cason, Barnes, Rountree, Reiser, Cox, and Hall. We lose only Hamil and Joyner by graduation. With the majority of last year's lettermen returning it is evident that T. C. will produce a winning team.

Coach Smith is now working with the backfield, developing kicking and passing technique.

It has been rumored that this famous team-to-be will strut brand new uniforms next year and will also ride in a brand new bus. With these prospects in view, T. C. students should be preparing to do some "real" cheering next fall.

HISTORY CLASS MAKES TRIP

Miss Newton's Georgia history class returned last night from a three-day trip to historic points in Savannah, Brunswick, and St. Simons Island.

The first night of the tour was spent in Savannah, and the second night on St. Simons Island, Sunbury, Fort Frederica, Fort Pulaski, Midway and other historical points were visited. Sixteen students and three faculty members, Misses Newton, Jones and McMahan, made the trip.

the cahoots. It is difficult to say which will probably get along successfully or unsuccessfully as partners. Ed Allen has an Ahl on his team.

The boxers are an organized team; they were hammered together last quarter in the regular boxing season. It is thought that the Charleston boxing team caught them in a group and put their heads together under the influence of force. And talking about organization, they have a real organizer on their team in Feaster. T. A. Bacon, Tillman, and Pete Warren, the deserter, are some of the other members.

Tennis Notes

By "ACE" MORRISON.

Due to the fact that this edition of the George-Anne goes to press before our first match with Armstrong on Friday, April 26, the results of the match cannot be included. Next Friday we play a return match with A. J. C. in Savannah on the Daffin Park Courts and the Teachers' netmen are looking forward to victory over the Geechees in their own backyard.

The two matches with Armstrong introduce a new member of T. C.'s tennis team. None other than Mr. Thomas Jenkins, former district champion, from Edison, who has joined our ranks and yours truly does hereby predict that aforesaid Thomas will soon be in the tennis firmament of Georgia Teachers College.

All the boys have been practicing rather steadily for the last two weeks. The double teams of Parker-Carroll and Rowell-Morrison have had several work-outs and I'm sure we'll be ready to give those Geechees as good as they send, if not better.

BASEBALL TEAM LOSES TO MILEN

A sharp reversal of form by the Teachers independent baseball team came close to winning their last game with Millen, but being a free-hearted group as they are, the boys made Millen a present of it. Leading 5-0 in the fifth frame the boys decided they were playing too hard so they eased up and out of the game.

The knot hole gang in the right field stands must have borne down on Mr. Feaster pretty badly because he was almost fatally injured on several occasions by falling baseballs that he failed to note were in flight. Culbreth, the rookie third baseman that was acquired from Edison in the twilight league, gave a nice hitting demonstration, getting three mighty blows in the clutch—but alas! his fielding—he had poor ole Peck Hamil the first baseman, acting like a contortionist on his low throws. Speaking of hitting—Hamil took the manager's place in the batting order and covered himself with glory, practically benching his own boss.

"Pedro" Wells, the old shortstop, played his usual excellent game of daring, spectacular, reckless, etc., base running to the dismay of the Millen fans. It is rumored that he even went so far as to steal the catcher's pants.

A return game is to be played in the near future and revenge will be sweet, we hope.

The only faculty supporter to step forward is one Mr. "Speedy" Turner,

EVERY TEAM HAS BEEN DEFEATED

(By HENDRY BAGLEY)

Thursday, April 24, saw the intramural softball league being hotly contested. The Faculty, taking the lead with only one defeat against them, are expected to offer stubborn resistance to any team wishing to defeat them. Of course the Y.M.C.A. overcame some of the stubbornness when they defeated them.

It is interesting to note just how fast our softball league is. From questioning several boys who have come from other schools to T. C., it is found that they say our teams are made up of superior players. This may be explained by the fact that intense interest is always carried over by the clubs on the campus. The Faculty and independent teams develop this interest as the season gets under way.

A review of the past week shows some interesting results. Allen runs a schedule of forfeiting. His team has won their single game by a forfeit and this week lost by forfeiting to the Pi Nus. The D. S. went down to the tune of 12-4 at the hands of the Y.M.C.A. Rowell took charge of the Y.M.C.A. 15-3. The B. D.'s defeated Hurst 12-0. The Pi Nus, after getting off to a slow start, came out in front to win from the D. S. 21-7.

The standing below should show who will come out ahead at the end of the season. Although it does not always work out like this, it usually follows the mid-season form for the remainder of the season.

In past seasons the winner of the intramural softball has been selected by the playing of a series by the four top teams. The winner then may or may not be the top team in the standings at the end of the season.

Following is the standing of the clubs:

Team	Won	Lost
Faculty	4	1
Rowell	3	1
Bugger Daggers	3	1
Y.M.C.A.	4	2
Iota Pi Nu	3	2
Delta Sigma	2	3
Boxers	1	3
Hurst	1	4
Allen	1	5

who, besides taking up tickets and seeing that his boys aren't gyped, does an excellent job of rooting. It is a misfortune that enough interest can't be shown to get baseball back as a regular sport because we need it and it could be made a paying proposition if handled in the right way. Maybe we can do something—a little try won't hurt anyone.

The score? We lost 11-9.

THE REAL LOW DOWN ON THE HIGH SPOTS OF BAND TOUR

Veteran of Five Band Tours Exposes All Exposable Facts About Same.

(By GESMON NEVILLE)

The band have sprung another annual spring tour.

Will now without further ado attempt to follar up this amazing and newsful scoop with a glowing account of the same.

Doubtless you have already heard many stories concerning aforesaid tour but let me warn you that knowing the members of the band I can toothfully say that many of them are what li'l Audrey would call idle tails.

To begin with, the powers-that-be had chosen twenty peaceful, inner-cent, corntented towns in South Georgia and we invaded the same with much blaring of horns, beating of drums, and making of speeches much to the amazement and amusement of the populace. The object of the tour was to promote the interest of music, etc.

The members of the band were niftily decked out from head to foot respectively in blue and white. To the new gold braid can be given the blame or credit for Floyd Humphrey's home-town people addressing him as "general." (I2 later found out on questioning a native of Sycamore, that this is a little hangover from Floyd's younger days when he was known as the general NUISANCE—Floyd insists that the name is NOT "Nuisance"—it's NAPOLEON, says he.)

Just ask Casanova Morrison who gyped him outa what in Sycamore!

We escaped from Sycamore with our lives and our hostesses' embroidered guest towels and played the next night in Climax (Hugh Maxwell's town) where Chaster Bable Faircloth, fortunately and unfortunately, made off with the prettiest girl in town. (Note: Fortunately for C. Gable F. and unfortunately for the rest of the handsome members of the band—and the girl.)

Bill Chambliss' bass drum took a lot of punishment on the trip, in fact, it was worked to the bones. Just ask anybody.

Roger Holland got some valuable experience with marimbas, as well as Harold Waters with the tympani. Marol: Stick to your piccolo in spite of the man with the big bass horn, if you follow me.

Be sure to see Sam Wiggins' action foto of Sherman and others! It's terrific.

Baptist Student Union Is Formed

Chesley Whitley was elected to head the Baptist Student Union for the coming year at a meeting held Sunday, April 21. The Baptist Student Union is a newly organized club for Baptist students on the campus.

The other officers elected were: First vice-president, Betty McLemore; second vice-president, Willie Hugh Hinley; secretary, Juanita Caldwell; treasurer, Colbert Purvis; reporter, Wyllis Hallman; B. T. U. president, Winona Carpenter; Sunday school president, Inman Davis; faculty advisor, Dr. C. M. Coalson; pianist, Dorothy Goode; chorister, Joe Pat Stanford.

The Baptist Student Union is an organization that seeks to unite the church in the college town with the Baptist students in the college so as to be of help to both.

Founded in 1920 the B. S. U. has expanded until it now covers seventeen northern states and includes thousands of members in the colleges in those states.

Whitley stated that he wanted to get the 197 Baptist students on this campus to take part in this organization.

Science Teachers Attend Conference

Members of the science department are leaving the campus on May 10 to attend the American Scientific Congress in Washington, D. C. This is the eighth meeting of the congress which is to discuss the advancement in science in all of the Americas. It is very seldom that the congress meets in the United States, and it is a privilege to be a member.

Mr. Paul Thompson, professor of physics; Mr. W. S. Hanner, professor of chemistry and head of the science department; Miss Malvina Trussell, professor of biology, and Mr. R. D. Pulliam, professor of agriculture, will attend the conference.

Many scientific papers will be read and leading lecturers of the day will add a great deal to the meeting. Practically every scientist of note will attend the meeting, and it is indeed an honor to have members of the faculty attend the conference.

The United States government is sponsoring the meeting this year.

GIRLS' INTRAMURAL TOURNAMENT CLOSSES

One of the girls' intramural baseball tournaments was completed last week. West Hall with four victories and one defeat was the victor with Lewis Hall being the runner-up.

Wednesday night, April 24, the program was begun by a piano prelude played by Katherine Gainey. Billie Turner rendered a violin solo, and Ruth Cone played a piano selection. The scripture was read by Carolyn Morris, followed by a talk by Frances Sperry on "Faith."

"Step singing" is sponsored each week by the Y.W.C.A.

Ten College Flyers Are Going Through All Sorts Of Maneuvers.

With C. A. A. exams just a few weeks off the ten flying students of this college are in the middle of their training.

All of the boys are well past the solo stage and are receiving advanced training in spins, stalls and other complicated maneuvers such as figure eights and 180 and 360 degree landing approaches.

Pilot Dobbs has indicated that he is well pleased with the progress the ten have been making and believes that, in spite of such handicaps as classes, obstructions such as beer and other bottles and goats on the airport, bad weather, and split parachutes which have been sent to Atlanta for repacking after some student inadvertently pulls the ripcord (not calling any names, of course), that in spite of all of these handicaps he is going to turn out some real flyers.

With over twenty hours to his credit Kranson Holloway is furthest along in the course. He has received an appointment to the Navy Air Corps and leaves next month for preliminary training in Miami.

Others who are well advanced and will soon begin cross country flights in the advanced stage are Asa Bar-C.A.A. STUDENTS, see page 6

George missed his youth when he was young. If he did I am sorry. Youth does not waste its youth when spending moments and hours taking in the essence of the spring—the black, black shadows under the moon darkened trees when the wind treads its steps of great abandon through their tops.

It must have been Spring that prompted the English conscientious to offer the plan of letting the German troops come into London unhindered and when they were in to give them all a cup of tea. That is the way to do things in April. With a sort of a quaint hysteria.

Of all the time of the year to stop and stare and spend a few moments and hold the world a vast deal closer—now is the time—for at this time each of use has an appointment with April that we should not break.

1941 Georgia Progress Planned By Arts Division

Dr. Pittman Wants to See "Arts Put On Map."

The Arts division of Georgia Teachers College acted as host to a group of the Industrial Arts men of the state Saturday afternoon, April 20. Plans were discussed for the Georgia Progress program in 1941, which is to be sponsored by the Arts division.

Dr. Pittman expressed his desire to see the "Arts put on the map." Tentative plans are to have several noted Art leaders of the country to lead the discussions, and to have the high schools of the state, having art in their curriculum, send some students with their projects to have a display showing the type of work being done in their school.

Many former graduates who majored in Industrial Arts were present for the meeting, and seemed very enthusiastic about the plans to sponsor Georgia Progress Day.
