To align with guidance put in place by Georgia's Governor Brian Kemp, and following the NCAA, Sun Belt Conference, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Georgia Department of Public Health, and University System of Georgia' social distancing standards due to concerns around the COVID-19 pandemic, Georgia Southern will begin the season with a limited capacity at J.I. Clements Stadium.

Pod-style seating will be in place at Clements Stadium for the 2021 season. You will be placed in seats after you purchase and your tickets may be split up depending on the number of tickets you have. Seating locations will be determined based on priority points. Also for the 2021 season, all seating at J.I. Clements Stadium will be reserved seating.

Season ticket sales for the 2021 season will begin today, Friday, Jan. 15 at noon at GSEagles.com/Tickets. Only season ticket packages will be available for purchase at this time. If any tickets are left available for single-game purchase, those will be released at a later date closer to the first game.

PLEASE NOTE: No seats will be allocated at the time of purchase. Seat assignments will begin Monday, Feb. 1st and will be assigned based on availability. 2020 season ticket holders will have first priority for their seats to be allocated.

Student seating will be available in sections 107, 108 and 109 and will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Students will enter at the first base line gate.

In order to allow for contactless entry to Clements Stadium, all 2021 Georgia Southern baseball tickets will be delivered electronically to the ticket holder's mobile device. Tickets will not be available by mail. Contactless tickets are similar to traditional event tickets but easier to use and more secure.

Cashless transactions will be in place for all concession stands, and as a best safety practice, water fountains will be unavailable this season.
