Billie Turner Elected May Queen; Eula Beth Jones Is Maid of Honor May 1

Campus Queen

Above is a picture of Billie Turner, of Millen, who was elected to reign as May Queen on May Day, May 1st. On Friday a May Day issue of the George-Anne will be distributed which will carry pictures on the May Queen, her Maid of Honor and the court consisting of Ella Sue Traynham, Ruth Cone, Jane Mathis, seniors; Mary Thomas Perry, Abbie Mann, Julia Odum, juniors; Sara Alice Bradley, Leila Wyatt, Nell Brannen (tied), sophomores; Doris Woods, Dot Remington, freshmen.

Late Campus News

Harris At Columbia

The 1942 regular summer session catalog of Columbia University, New York, carried the name of Ernest E. Harris listed as director of instrumental music at Georgia Teachers College. Mr. Harris will teach classes in band and orchestra conducting, conducting and score reading, class instruction in orchestra, and band instruments at the summer session.

Musical Festival May 1st

The Elementary Music Festival of the First district will be held here on the campus May 1, with from 400 to 600 boys and girls in the district participating.

Two weeks ago the college had as guests the High School Music Festival contestants and 600 attended. The elementary group will spend the entire day on the campus.

Alumni Luncheon At GEA

The alumni of Georgia Teachers College will hold their annual Georgia Education Association luncheon in Savannah Friday, April 24, at the noon hour, in the Charlton room at the Savannah Hotel. Seniors from the college and others interested are invited to join the former students at the luncheon. An attractive program is being arranged by Miss Evelyn Baggett, president of the Alumni Association.

First District Meet

The First District High School literary and athletic meets will be held on the campus Friday, April 17th, with entrants from B, C, and D schools throughout the eighteen counties.

This district meet will bring to the campus hundreds of high school boys and girls from over the district not only the contestants but followers and fans.

Short Term Begins May 4th

The 1942 "Spring Short Term" operated by the college each spring will begin here May 4th and continue throughout the spring term.

Spring short term classes will meet two hours daily and the following schedule has been set up for the term: 8:15 to 10:45, Education 311 (Dr. Carruth), and English 303 (Mr. Donaldson); 11:35 to 1:30, Education 403 (Dr. Moon), English 411 (Mrs. Guardia), and Farm Life 101 (Mr. Pulliam); 2:30 to 4:30, Biology 310 (Miss Trussell), History 305 (Mr. Hendrix), and Industrial Arts 204 (Mr. Livingston).

ROBSON WELCOMES STATE A.A.U.W.

Meet Held in Statesboro; At Sixth Conference Board Meets In Library

The sixteenth annual state conference of the Georgia Division of the American Association of University Women was held in Statesboro April 10-11. Mrs. R. C. Robson, local faculty member, is president of the local chapter.

Eleven branches in Georgia sent delegates to the two-day session. Registration was scheduled for Friday afternoon. Registration was followed by discussion groups and a banquet at the Jaekel Hotel was arranged for Friday evening. Mrs. Arthur Gammon, of Athens, division president, presided and gave the president's annual address. The welcome was given by Mrs. Robson. A musical program was presented by Ronald J. Neil, and the banquet speaker was Miss Lurline Collier, state home demonstration agent, whose subject was "Nutrition and the War."

Saturday, April 11, the executive board met at the library of the Georgia Teachers College and this was followed by a general business session. Later in the morning there was a demonstration on clothing and the consumer by Mrs. Margaret H. Blair, of the University of Georgia, and Miss Ruth Bolton, of the Teachers College. A luncheon brought the conference to a close. At the luncheon Mrs. W. W. Edge, second vice-

'America The Beautiful,' Theme Of Festivities

By ADEL CALLOWAY

Billie Turner, senior from Millen, was elected on Friday, April 4, 1942, by the student body as Georgia Teachers College's May Queen. The queen was elected from the senior class and every senior girl was eligible for election.

REFLECTOR GOES TO PUBLISHER

The 1942 Reflector—when are we going to see what it looks like? Pilcher Kemp, editor, made statement to this effect:

All work on the beloved annual has been completed. The editor and his staff have done all the damage they can and it is now left up to the publishers to do what they can to make it presentable to the student body.

All joking laid aside: the annual is now in the hands of the publisher and the entire staff is holding its breath for fear that something will go wrong. The features are: (1) the eight beauties who were chosen by a nationally known artist; (2) a section on the laboratory school, the work being carried on over there.

The exact date on which the annual will be placed in the hands of the students is uncertain but is thought to be at least a week before school is out.

Much honor goes with this title because it represents the students' idea of the girl who has the beauty, charm and poise to be their queen on May Day. The runner up for May Queen was Eula Beth Jones, who will be maid of honor.

The entire student body voted for the queen, but only the members of each class voted for their class attendants. The senior and junior classes have three attendants each; the freshmen and sophomore classes have two attendants each. The attendants are:

Seniors—Ella Sue Traynham, Ruth Cone and Jane Mathis.

Juniors—Mary Thomas Perry, Abbie Mann and Julia Odum.

Sophomores—Sara Alice Bradley, Leila Wyatt and Nell Brannen (tied).

Freshmen—Doris Woods and Dot Remington.

The theme of the program for May Day is "America the Beautiful." It is hoped that all the students will learn this song so that they can join in singing it on May Day. Mr. Neil and the music department will help with the musical arrangements.

Miss Bolton and the home economics department will help with the costuming, and Mr. Smith and the art department will help with the artistic effects.

The students of the elementary grades and the high school of the Laboratory School and the college students will participate in the May Day program. One part of the elementary program will be a gun drill in the spirit of preparedness.

The May pole dance and a large variety of American dances will be on the program. European dancing has had an important influence on American dancing, so many of the popular European dances will also be danced before the May Queen and her court.

"NINTH INNING" HONORS GEHRIG

To Be Shown Here On April 27; Distributed By American League

"The Ninth Inning," a motion picture dedicated to the memory of Lou Gehrig, will be shown here Monday, April 27, and several other showings will be given after that date.

The film is shown through the courtesy of Hillerich and Bradshy company, manufacturers of Louisville Slugger baseball bats.

The picture is distributed by the American League and will show the fundamentals of play and highlights of the past baseball season, including batting shots of Dimaggio, Williams, Travis, Heath, McCosky and Siebert; hitting, pitching and fielding by star players of the American League, complete sequence on decision plays for fans to decide; Thornton Lee and Lefty Grove in fundamentals on pitching; comedy shots; the All-Star game of 1941; the world series of 1941, and other interesting features. The cast in the picture will include Connie Mack, Joe McCarthy, Joe Cronin, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Lou Gehrig, Jimmy Foxx, Red Ruffing, Lefty Gomez, George Dickey, Bob Feller, Dimaggio, Cecil Travis, Bill Dickey, Dutch Leonard, Lefty Grove and many others.

PIGG SPEAKS TO SCIENCE SEMINAR

McLendon Speaks on "Professional Relationship Of Teachers" To Club

April 8, 1942, the Science Seminar began the spring quarter in good style. Alvin McLendon, science instructor in the Laboratory School, gave a very interesting talk on "Professional Relationships of Teachers." The possibilities of a picnic were discussed and it was decided to wait until the next meeting to make plans.

E. G. Pigg will have charge the program at the meeting April 22. His topic is to be photography and as a demonstration he is going to develop some negatives. Let's have a big crowd on April 22.

In his article Mr. Barber points out that in the South, long regarded as an agricultural region, manufacturing now exceeds the value of all agriculture by more than 200 per cent.

Take It Away

Over Sanford Hall way we are becoming acutely aware of definite signs. These signs are sensible and point toward correction for any clear-eyed individual. Possibly with the coming of summer in the offing we will think more seriously. Flies and mosquitoes breed rapidly in ideal locations.

The signs from Sanford come from the trash pile and are large in number. The odor, to say the least, is becoming resentful. The buckets and pails and boxes and cartons are fine breeding homes for insects. The worst is the fire hazard it presents to the nearby woods and Sanford.

We are living on a beautiful campus. We cannot stress that too much. However, the sight of a burning trash pile practically at the gates of the campus is no definite asset.

The location of the pile was decided upon, we understand, because of a large hole that needed filling that WAS there. It isn't any more . . . so how about moving it to another hole a little further away? It stinks.

Mah Fellow Citizens

We are faced with a problem. Before long an election will come up for campus officers for next year. Who will run for these offices and who will be here to fill them? Some students have expressed the opinion that they would run simply to be elected to the office. When September came the office would be found woefully lacking.

What then are we to do? Are we to have an election for purely political reasons, or should we consider the candidates carefully and judge on their ability to hold their positions next fall? More girls should run for campus offices because their capabilities are as much in demand as any boy's. These are things to consider.

Above all in the coming election let the Student Council wake itself up enough to make enough concrete rules so that the voting and counting can arouse no suspicion. We would recommend the following: Secret numbered ballot; faculty member (impartial) present, voting announced a week before election.

Campus Camera ...

Gathering It Up

By "CHOLLY"

Boy! Oh Boy! Does this sun give us spring fever, and along with the fever comes that old feeling of romance. Now is the time when gay, young hearts experience the multanimous pangs of love. But along comes Mrs. Wimberly to say that we may court, but we must not "pet." I wonder if she courted when she was young without petting? I wonder if she courted. PERIOD.

Have you heard! Durward Brannen is on the ELIGIBLE list where Brooklet girls are concerned. We wonder why?

Daisy Mae has Pilcher's heart strings all a-flutter but he won't admit it. How about that little girl in Kentucky, Pilcher?

There are two "crooks" on the campus; "Crook" Smith and a certain little girl I know. Is it YOU?

Do you know what the height of sarcasm could be? Bollinger, the music-loving MAESTRO.

Miss Poole, "The Tulip Girl," has never been kissed—she says. Does anyone have the ole pioneer spirit?

Jo Biggers, who has been looking for a "special" man all her life, now says that any man will do—but he must be a MAN.

Arthur Tyson has scored a "triple play" with Knowles, Mathis and Perry.

Richard Starr and Kathryn Drake are now in the throes of ecstasy with this spring romancing.

What happened to the Hamby-Kicklighter affair? Maybe Miss Parks could tell us.

After repeated warnings about petting, made to the girls, Dean Henderson and his wife were seen doing the same while passing through the campus in their car.

Sara Alice had Joe Feaster up a tree with his mouth taped up—lucky girl! But where is Bowman, Sara?

The two Laniers, Marie and Denver, are hitting it off just fine—careful, Marie, he is a crook.

Frances Hill and Bill Brown are the latest couples seen at the Little Store these nights.

LOST! The lower limbs from a certain cedar tree on the campus. The dastardly deed was done under the cover of night. Sabotage!!!

Who has Ben Tillman been going to see at Lewis? I hear she's bashful, but Ben will make up for that.

Oliver Thomas and Jesse Hamby have turned out to be two-timers. Oliver carried Myra Newton to the Little Store and Jesse carried Winona Downs. I bet Margaret and Louise are jealous.

We wonder who Pruella's next victim will be now that she has failed with James and Marcus.

Who was that fellow with Daphne Kirkland Sunday?

Jack Pierce was seen lolly-popping around with Tina Gresham. Wonder why his fire for Miss Smith burned out?

It looks as though Ramon has stepped in where Fain left off.

Mrs. Wimberly says, "A little courting is alright, but no petting in my parlors."

We can't understand why Charles Wireman was kicked out of West Hall Saturday night. He was only sitting on a piano stool and hugging Dorothea Jeremias after visiting hours.

I wonder if Marion Jones is getting his lines mixed up?

Zeke and Judge are still starring as suckers in this double feature.

Have you noticed the bombardment on George Mullins? Lots of people want him to go with a certain girl, but we believe he's old enough to make up his own mind.

Did everybody know Tiny wrote an old DLD and asked her to carry him to her dance? That's one way to get around.

The couple of the week is Dot and Wayne.

Pearman and Z. L. seem to be getting their lines mixed. "My Buddy" has his trouble, too.

Charlie and Joe have as their latest theme song, "Let's Get Away From It All."

Oh, For You!

To adore,
And more,
To want

You?
Yes, it's true,
I do want
You

To be to me
A friend.
You—

Everywhere,
In the green,
In the blue,
It's always
You.

It isn't spring
That makes me
Feel the way
I do about
You.

Spring has been Here before—
Still I adore
You.

Scriptural Searchlights

By OLIVER THOMAS

Text: "He came unto His own, and His own received Him not."—John 1:11.

Jesus left all the glory of His Father's throne and came to earth to build the kingdom of God among men. He was rich; yet, for our sake He became poor that we through His poverty might become rich. He became the son of man that we might become the sons of God. He wore a crown of thorns that we might wear a crown of everlasting life. He suffered and died in agony of soul and body that we might live in constant fellowship with the God of Love. He endured the tortures of hell that we might enjoy the glories of Heaven. He came unto His own, but His own received Him not.

The Messiah, their redeemer for whom they had been longing for centuries past, had arrived. He was clothed in perfect humility, meekness, righteousness, and love. There was nothing spectacular about his appearance. He had grown up a carpenter by trade in the midst of the people. The principles upon which He was to build His kingdom were inconceivable to them. He taught that to save one's life was to lose it; and to lose one's life was to save it. He taught them that only through Him could a man find God, and be born into the kingdom of God.

This teaching did in no way appeal to the proud, worldly-minded pharisees, scribes, and the other materialistic adherents. Jesus found no welcome among them. "He was despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrow and acquainted with grief." He came to save His own people but they would not accept Him.

Human nature has not changed in all these centuries. Men today are still rejecting Christ who came to save them, because they are unwilling to loose themselves from the ties of the world and take up the cross of Christ. To reject Him is to throw away one's hope of heaven. What else is there to live for?

Prayer: "Our father, forbid that one should turn the Christ away, who is mighty to save and to keep. May every soul crown Him the Messiah, his Lord. Amen."

When the first bell rings it is very hard

The thoughts of sleep to disregard;
You find it hard to get dressed with ease—

On cold winter morns you nearly freeze.

You think of your friends at home in bed—

You think of the good time and how they're fed—

You wonder if they really care at all;

At least they could make a telephone call.

They're sending you to school, they say,

To go out and teach and earn your own pay;

But you can ask the teachers that have taught—

They know that the salary is almost naught.

But I like college in a way—

I like the students and what they say—

I like the manner in which things run—

To me college is almost fun.

Bugger Daggers and YMCA Lead Soft Ball League

The booming bats and the superb fielding of the Bugger Daggers and the great pitching and fielding of the "Y" has been the outstanding feats of the past week in the intra-mural league. Both of these teams have not lost a game and have won two. They play each other on Thursday of this week.

Zeke Daughtry with his 8 to 4 and 10 to 3 victories this week showed the public a great performance, while Raymond McKinnon of the "Y" pitched himself in the Hall of Fame with a no-run, no-hit performance against the D.S. The Faculty needs some power at the plate and so do the Delta Sigma boys. The Faculty has 8 hits in two games and the D.S. has only 5 hits in two games. The Pi Nu needs a starting pitcher, but Frank Wireman pitched a good game against the Faculty allowing only 4 hits. The battle this early in the season has been good, with Charlie Johnson of the D.S., and John Dunn of the Bugger Daggers getting circuit clouts. Good luck to each team this week.

Bugger Daggers Select Theme Song

The Bugger Dagger club held its regular meeting last Wednesday night in Sanford lobby.

W. P. Thompson was welcomed as a pledge.

A club theme song, to the tune of "The End of a Perfect Day," and a club flower, the azalea, were selected. It was decided to have the first picnic of the quarter at Booth's pond on April 18.

The Bugger Dagger's softball team is showing up better in the intra-mural league than the basketball and football teams of the two previous quarters. Hope was expressed that the club be able to continue its winning streak.

Choir Makes Tour

The Georgia Teachers College Philharmonic choir is going to make a trip to Southwest Georgia Monday and Tuesday, May 3rd and 4th. They plan to go to Lyons the first day; spend the night in Cordele; to Hawkinsville the next day and return to the campus. The chorus will feature the patriotic "Ballad for Americans" as a specialty while on the tour.

On Defense . . .

Edited By RICHARD STARR

Ensign Harry M. McAllister, U. S. Naval Reserve, assistant recruiting officer, Navy recruiting station, Macon, announced today that the present V-7 program will be terminated about May 1, 1942. After then the only method by which applicants will be taken into class V-7 will be via the class V-1 accredited college program. College graduates, seniors and juniors who have attained junior status by April 15th, 1942, are, until the termination of the program, eligible for enlistment in class V-7, leading to a commission in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

The student completing at least the sophomore year is assured possible transfer to class V-5 for aviation training, or to class V-7. In the latter case, the student will be allowed to graduate before being sent to the Reserve Midshipmen's School.

A TRIVIAL MATTER—CLOTHING

Oscar A. Bergman writes us the following concerning clothing in the defense effort. Bergman is a New York stylist:

This is the thing that has caused all the hullabaloo, and when you study the following rules set forth by the WPB, you'll be ashamed of yourself for getting all het up by the many nasty rumors making the rounds. None of the changes are drastic or ridiculous. They are all for the best. In fact, most of them should have been made long ago. And as long as the changes are easy, gradual and natural, and the wool savings are tremendous so that our fighting forces can have more, you'll be happy about them and will feel much better wearing them.

SUITS . . . No cuffs . . . (They're insanitary anyway, and they make short men look shorter) . . . No two-matching pants suits . . . (If you'll buy the extra pair in a different color, pattern and fabric, and mix 'em up, it will appear as if you have a much larger wardrobe) . . . No vests with double breasted suits . . . (I have never seen a vest that fit, nor a suit that fit well with a vest . . . and you'll be a lot more comfortable without one anyway) . . . No vents, no fancy backs and the jackets are to be one-fourth inch shorter . . . You'll never miss any of them . . . Pants are one inch smaller at the knee; one half inch smaller at the bottom; no pleats, or patch pockets . . . (After the second time you have these new pants on you'll never notice the difference.)

It is estimated by experts that all of this will insure a saving of cloth enough to produce 26 per cent more suits and 10 per cent more topcoats, and between 40 and 50 million pounds of raw wool will be saved . . . Now ain't you proud?

Requirements Of A Successful Teacher

A teacher, to measure up to all demands, must have the learning of a college president, the consecration of a clergyman, the executive talents of a financier, the humility of a deacon, and the craftiness of a Tammany politician. Must be an angel for temper, a demon for discipline, a chameleon for adaption, a diplomat for tact, an optimist for hope, and a hero for courage; must have the wisdom of a serpent and the gentleness of a dove; the grace of God, patience of Job, and the perseverance of the devil—Statesboro Hi-Owl.

Despite the fact we are now on war time we are informed the lightning bugs will light up on the same old schedule this summer.

Remember the old fashioned man who bought new tires every season because he didn't want to be bothered by possible blowouts or punctures?

CAPITAL to CAMPUS

ACP's Jay Richter Reports from Washington

By JAY RICHTER, ACP Washington Correspondent

Washington, (ACP)—Each day adds to the likelihood of all-out registration of women-power (ages 18 to 65). Secretary of Labor Perkins predicts that of 15,000,000 workers employed in war industries by January, 1943, 5,000,000 will be women.

The swing is most dramatic in war industries. Less startling—but of more practical value to college women—is the fact that the swing is taking place in almost every field.

The federal government is leading the way. Not to mention those hired "in the field," 600 women are arriving in Washington each week to enter federal service. Many of them are hired for administrative, professional and sub-professional jobs—as economists, public relations experts, ammunition inspectors, dieticians, medical technicians and ordnance inspectors.

Uncle Sam is using them, too, in skilled and semi-skilled fields—as gas mask inspectors and assemblers, arsenal apprentices, mechanical time fuse workers, examiners of knitted and woven articles, power sewing machine operators, etc.

Right now civil service is looking for women mathematicians to make computations in ballistic testing for war agencies. Requirements call for two years of college with three semesters of mathematics. Formal title of the job is "Assistant Technical and Scientific Aid," starting pay, $1,620 annually.

For those with just one year of college, the job to apply for is that of "Junior Technical and Scientific Aid." Emphasis on college physics and chemistry is required. The pay is $1,440.

There are also vacancies right now for women "Junior Physicists" (especially those trained in radio and sound) at $2,000 a year. Requirements are four years of college—24 hours of physics. Seniors who qualify will be hired pending successful graduation. If your major is chemistry instead of physics, apply under the "Junior Chemist" classification.

You can get blanks for any of the jobs mentioned at the postoffice or local civil service commission office.

Incidentally, there's no intention of shouldering college men out of this job picture. However, current vacancies are for women. The obvious inference is that men will be needed elsewhere—and government officials have hardened themselves to the fact. Men can apply for the jobs mentioned above. They aren't as likely to get them at present, that's all.

WAR

Alumni of 651 American educational institutions are represented at the "University of the Air," the Naval Air Corps training base at Corpus Christi, Texas. Included are one college of osteopathy, two schools of divinity. California, with 453 students from 61 schools, has more cadets than any other state—20 per cent of the Corpus Christi student body.

The U. S. Office of Education here reports that world war has brought students from seventy foreign countries to American colleges and universities during the last year.

The Norwegian legation in Washington points out that students have joined their teachers in resisting Nazi domination; a case in point, the "Stavanger incident." When Stavanger students heard their school was to be taken over by Nazi troops they sneaked into the school building, stripped it of fixtures before the Nazi arrived. Some 9,500 of Norway's 10,500 teachers have resigned against a Quisling order to join the Nazi teachers' organization.

Pan-Hellenic Dance Opens Spring Formals

The first dance of the season was the Pan-Hellenic card dance Saturday evening. It was held at the college gym from 8:30 'til 12:00. The gym was made quite attractive by using flags arranged in different ways.

The sororities were represented by their shields which were lighted and hung on the wall. Pine trees and colored lights completed the scene. Each girl and her date were given dance cards in the form of pink and blue rabbits. Punch was served throughout the dance. After intermission the traditional lead-out was held with eight couples participating.

Intermission was held in East Hall. All girls and dates were invited to attend. The Easter motif was carried out by miniature rabbits and eggs which were placed on the plate. Cakes of assorted colors were served with tea and sandwiches.

The following girls and dates were present: Mary Thomas Perry and John King, Maxann Foy and Theron Anglin, Mary Frances Groover and E. T. Youngblood, Helen Elder and G. C. Coleman, Betty Ann Morgan and Harry Robertson, Leila Wyatt and HuSmith Marsh; D.L.D.'s, Judy Odum and Edwin Groover, Pruella Cromartie and Jack Averitt; Sigma Gamma, Roger McMillan and George Mulling, Lillian Warren and Charles Johnson, Jackie Smith and E. B. Rushing, Beth Smith and Ed Mixon, Vivian Waters and Marian Jones, Venice Clifton and Harold Pearman; L.T.C.'s, Eula Beth Jones and Jimmie Scarboro, Ella Sue Traynham and Hargaret Raulerson, Betty McLeMore and Tom Vandiver, Martha Coble and Harold Herrington, Ulma Wynn Zittrouer and Pete Wolff; Episcureans, Billie Turner and Tiny Ramsey, Dot Remington, Wayne Culbreth, Sue Breen and Robert Morris, Esther Lee Barnes and Bill Aldred, Sara Alice Bradley and Bob Darby, Joyce Smith and Dub Lovett.

Robertson and Jones Attend Press Meet

The annual convention of the Georgia Collegiate Press Association will be held Friday and Saturday, April 24 and 25, at the Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville. Harry Robertson and Jimmy Jones will represent the George-Anne at the sessions.

Representatives from most of the college newspapers in the state will be present at the meeting, where round table discussions helpful to college students and future newspapermen will be held. The program will also include talks by outstanding newsmen in the state. Entertainment features will include a banquet and luncheon.

The Cobb County Times Trophy for the best editorial service will be awarded at the meeting and officers for next year will be elected. Miss Lucia Rooney, editor of the GSCW Colonnade, is president of the association this year.

Bachelors Will Be Heard From

The Bachelor's Club was heard from very little during the winter quarter. Like Greta Garbo, the Bachelors wish at times to remain exclusive. Now that spring is here when "a young man's fancy turns"—the Bachelors are making steps to show that women have no place in a real man's life! The Bachelors' motto is "Beware of Women" and it becomes necessary at times to defend that motto and show that it is right. The Bachelors feel as Milton when he wrote . . .

So shall he least confusion draw
On his whole life, not swayed
By female usurpation or dismayed.

They are planning a show to be put on sometime this quarter, and it is not to be forgotten that they will be heard from before very long.

Iota Pi Nu Initiates Three

It was voted to have a picnic Saturday at the last meeting of the Iota Pi Nu fraternity. The picnic will be held at Lott's creek.

The club has changed its meeting place from the Ad building to the scout hut.

Joe Feaster, Merrill Nelson and Charlie Kneede are being initiated this week.

Plans are being discussed for our spring formal which is scheduled for May 25. It is to be the biggest and the best dance that the Iota Pi Nu has ever seen.

The softball team has been organized under the leadership of Joe Feaster, and although the first game was lost we are looking forward to and hoping for a championship team this year like we had last year.

Oh, I almost forgot—let it be known that Harold Waters has the mumps, and let's hope that they do not do him too bad.

'Little Dutch Mill' Is Saturday Night Motif

The Delta Lambda Deltas held the spotlight Saturday night, April 11th, with a formal dance. The Statesboro Woman's Club was the scene of the gala affair. Music for the occasion was furnished by Harold Waters' Professors.

The club room was transformed into a bit of old Holland for the night. At one end was a large windmill. Grouped about the windmill were tiny Dutch figures bearing the names of the members and their dates. The names of the invited guests from other sororities could be found on Dutch shoes between the windows. The decorations on the mantel further carried out the Dutch motif. Standing in the center were a little Dutch boy and girl. On each end was placed a real Dutch wooden shoe. Tulips were used profusely in the decorations and each window was framed with dogwood and evergreens.

Geraldine Keefe, president of the D.L.D.'s, and her date led the lead-out. The members came through an archway entwined with spring flowers.

The sorority had their intermission party on the back lawn of Pruella Cromartie's home on South Main street. Punch, sandwiches, and cakes frosted with D.L.D. Greek letters were served.

The merrymaking after the intermission was increased midst the clouds of confetti and serpentine.

The dance drew to a close with the singing of the sorority's theme song, "Always."

Members and their dates were: Geraldine Keefe and Jack Averitt, Pruella Cromartie and A. B. Anderson, Judy Odum and G. C. Coleman Jr., Jeanette Walker and Charles Wireman, Kathryn Ellison and O'Neal Cave, Carolyn Daniel and Marcus Bruner, Dorothea Jeremias and Worth Green, Irene Tos and Dan McNally.

Old members and their dates were: Carolyn Foster and Tiny Ramsey, Mary Drenon and Theron Anglin.

Invited guests were: Eppie, Dot Remington and Wayne Culbreth; Dux, Katherine Rowse and Dudley Gatewood; L.T.C., Martha Coble and Harold Herrington; Sigma Gamma, Ruth Johnson and Wallace Winters; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Neil, sponsors; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Winburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Esten G. Cromartie.

English Club Hears "Sandburg"

The English Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Mamie Jones. Plans were made for an entertainment to be given by the club to which sophomores who plan to major or minor in English, will be invited. A committee was appointed to make definite arrangements as to time and place.

An interesting program was presented by Geraldine Keefe, who gave a brief sketch of the life of Sandburg. After an introduction to his book, "The People, Yes," Sandburg's own recordings of selections taken from this work were played.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the eighteen members present.

The next meeting of the club will be held the second Wednesday in May. Membership in the club is open to all who plan to major or minor in English.

Lambda Theta Chi

The Lambda Theta Chi sorority had its regular meeting on Thursday night. Plans were begun for their coming spring dance scheduled for May 30. The L.T.C.'s were happy to have Mrs. Robert Lundgren, an old member, with them. Delicious refreshments were served by Eula Beth Jones, carrying out the Easter theme.

Dux Domina Has Easter Party

Even college girls aren't too grown up to want Easter bunnies and eggs. The Dux had an Easter party at their regular meeting Thursday night before Easter and exchanged gifts.

Ham and pimiento-cheese sandwiches, potato chips and lemonade were served by Katherine Rowse and Margaret Helen Tillman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanner, their sponsors, attended the meeting Thursday night. Maxann Foy and Margaret Helen Tillman were in charge of the program. Helen Rowse and Rosemary Wynn were hostesses. HELEN ELDER.

Our World Today

How many expeditionary forces do we have in foreign waters? That question is not easily answered except in official Washington circles. (Propaganda agents probably do know also; a definite reason for following the example of the three monkeys.)

MacArthur is rapidly replacing the first person "I" as the most used word in the English language.

Those afternoon calisthenics given by Coach are really his pride and joy. It seems a pity that the fellows that take them couldn't feel the same way. He has one that could be called the kangaroo jump, and Jack Ballinger is his star pupil. James Dunn and Dan McNally are tops when it comes to lifting alternating hands and feet.

Fighting continues strong around Corregidor Island with the troops which were on Bataan evacuated to that point. Many thousands of American lives still hang in the balance on Bataan as uncertainty continues as to what the Japanese are doing or will do to troops which were taken with the fall of Bataan.

We don't know what to expect of our forces on Corregidor but from their action on Bataan we have our own personal ideas. General Wainwright reported Corregidor as being held Saturday; yet with Japanese guns being set up on Bataan but a few miles (comparatively) away we know it won't be long till the battle turns to Australia where the fighting must really begin.
