Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path that God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, or to work.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of the day.
I wish you all the sunshine of tomorrow.
Lift up your heart and share me.
God wanted me now.
He set me free.

We Love You, Momma

Reflections

A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.
Ecclesiastes 7:1

Mrs. Alice Daughtry age 84, passed into eternal rest on December 4, 2007 at Evans County Hospital in Claxton, GA after a long illness. She was born May 15, 1920 in Jenkins County.

She attended public schools and later joined Smith Grove Baptist Church.

Preceded her in death was her mother Anna B. Roberson; father, Lee Joiner; son, Eugene Joiner; two sisters, Vera Peoples and Agnes Scott.

She is survived by three daughters, one being the caregiver, Cora Lee (Jesse) Roberson, of Glennville, GA, Dorothy Pearl Joiner (Brantley), of Brooklet, GA, and Eula Bell Smith, of Chelsea, Mass.; two sons, Allen (Janice) Daughtry, Boston, Mass, and Walstien (Willie Mae) Daughtry, of Melbourne, Florida; a daughter-in-law, Minnie Lee Joiner, of Statesboro, GA; two special godsons (great-grandson), Dazon L. Mills and Corey Roberson; twenty grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
