STUDENTS PLAN TALMADGE DEFEAT

College of University System Begin Drive End Talmadgism And Restore Former Position

The Student Council of Georgia Teachers College by an unanimous vote joined with the Students Political League, a newly formed organization to "fight Talmadgism and restore the University System of Georgia to its proper ranks."

The league is a state-wide student organization with offices in Athens at the University of Georgia. It claims no affiliation with any college administration or political group.

Eight college campuses have already pledged support to the movement through campus officers or organizations. Other campuses are expected to pledge their support by the end of this week.

Leaders at other schools are William Clearman, Georgia Tech; Roy Sanders and Frances Linfors, University of Georgia; Virginia Montgomery at Agnes Scott; Henley Sturgess, Emory; Araminta Harper, Wesleyan; Bob Willets, Mercer, and Turner Farmer at Middle Georgia College.

"The Technique," school paper of Georgia Tech, carries in its current issue the report of an interview Students Clearman and Joe Hornstein had with the governor. They quoted him as willing to admit "no mistake" in the purge of the University System.

The students reported, the Technique continued, that Governor Talmadge contends the Southern Association

COUNCIL ELECTION SLATED MAY 14TH

President of Student Body And Council Officers To Take Place in Major Election

At the regular meeting of the Student Council, Tuesday, April 21, plans were made for the forthcoming Student Council election. The election will be held Thursday, May 14, in the college gym, beginning at 10:30 a. m. and ending at 5:00 p. m. Nominations for officers and members of the Student Council will begin Monday morning, May 4, and close Tuesday evening, May 12, at 7:00 o'clock. Names of the nominees are to be turned in to Eula Beth Jones or John Dunn during this time.

Officers of the Student Council who are to be elected are as follows: President, vice-president and secretary. Members of the Student Council to be elected from the various classes are as follows: President of the senior class and three representatives from the senior class, to be elected from the present junior class; president of the junior class and two representatives from the junior class, to be elected from the present sophomore class; president of the sophomore class and one representative from the sophomore class, to be elected from the present freshman class. Other class officers will be elected on the same date. The entire student body is eligible to vote for the officers of the council, but only members of the respective

1942 Edition of May Court . . . Reigning Over Today's Festivities

ANNUAL EVENT IS PRESENTED TODAY

"America The Beautiful," Is Theme Being Stressed In Dancing and Music

Georgia Teachers College will present its annual May Day program today in the college amphitheatre, with the theme of the celebrations for the year being "America The Beautiful."

Billie Turner, senior, from Millen, will be crowned Queen of the May. Miss Turner has for her maid of honor Eula Beth Jones, of Marshallville.

The May Day program is presented yearly by the department of physical education and is assisted this year by the Women's Athletic Association council. Miss Edith Guill, head of the women's physical education department, is in charge of the program and costumes for the festivities.

The program will include dances by both college and laboratory school students. European dances that have influenced American dances, and native American dances such as the Barn Dance and the Virginia Reel will be featured on the program. The costumes for the occasion range from the aboriginal native dance costume to the modern day fashions.

The setting of the May celebrations is in the outdoor amphitheatre next to Lake Wells, and it is in this sylvan setting that the Teachers Queens are annually crowned.

Following the dances will be the traditional winding of the May Pole followed by the recessional of the queen and her court. The college string quartet will furnish music for both processional and recessional of the May Court. A dance will be held in the college gymnasium following the festivities.

BOSWELL ELECTED ALUMNI PRESIDENT

Oliver Is Elected Vice-President, and Edenfield Will Be New Secretary

Sidney Boswell, principal of Glynn Academy in Brunswick, was elected president of the Georgia Teachers College Alumni in Savannah last Friday. He succeeds Miss Evelyn Baggett, of Monroe.

Other officers elected at the meeting, held in Hotel Savannah's Charlton room were: Hemans Oliver, Savannah, vice-president, and Miss Elizabeth Edenfield, Savannah, secretary.

Miss Baggett delivered the main address of the meeting in which she stated, "We have done everything that we could for our college so far and it has done very little good. Its position in reference to being discredited is the same as it was last December. From now on it is an individual fight to do all in our power to make our college what it should be."

Mr. Boswell's acceptance address followed the election of officers. In his speech he stated, "I feel very close to Georgia Teachers College. I even poured part of the cement that went into the swimming pool. Everything that is possible must be done."

The Charlton room was overcrowded for the luncheon, making it necessary for several alumni to eat elsewhere before attending the business session.

May Queen and Her Court

The 1942 May Queen and Court at the Georgia Teachers College selected for the annual festival which will be held Friday, May 1: Center (oval), Miss Billie Turner, of Millen, Queen; under the Queen, Miss Eula Beth Jones, of Marshallville, Maid of honor. Top row, left to right, Miss Ruth Cone of Brooklet, Miss Ella Sue Traynham of Broxton and Miss Jane Mathis of Ashburn, representing the senior class; Miss Mary Thomas Perry of Dover, Miss Abbie Mann of Thomasville, Miss Julie Odum of Girard, representing the junior class; Miss Sara Alice Bradley of Statesboro, Miss Leila Wyatt of Cedartown, and Miss Nell Brannen of Millen, representing the sophomore class; Miss Doris Wood of Richland, Miss Joyce Smith of Statesboro, and Miss Dot Remington of Statesboro, representing the freshman class.

May Day, Georgia Teachers College, Presented by Physical Education Department, College Campus, May 1st, 1942, 5:30 P. M.

Artist Reviews Local Exhibits

LEON P. SMITH

Two young artists, embarked upon entirely different courses, are represented by a very interesting exhibition of oil paintings in the college library until May 15th. These paintings have just been shown in New York, where they were received with great enthusiasm by artists, laymen and critics. Both artists are American and their art represents some of the very wholesome and definite trends in American art today.

Walter Quirts' work is fantastic, surrealist, cubistic, and abstract, all combined with such sincerity and conviction that the poets seem realistic. His poetic use of color line is superbly beautiful. Each tiny area is carefully designed and meticulously painted. All of Quirts' compositions are of people with the digreity and dramatic quality of Shakespearean characters—and the gestures are not omitted.

His perogative titles are fascinating also. "Your Fun Is Not My Fun," "I'm Going Far Away, Never To Return, Goodbye," "The Light Side of the Dark," and ten others equally as interesting.

Max Schrietzler's work is of a very different sort and perhaps more difficult to talk about. It is completely without subject matter and the layman at once misses that recognizable something to which he can anchor himself—but wait a moment, don't be a sissy and give up so easily—just sit down and look awhile. Did you ever think of the harmony and contrast of such textures as satin, velvet, tweed, a straw mat, plaster, concrete, and glass as being interesting and pleasing to the eye, especially when combined with the vibrant, pulsating, yet soft colors of Schnitzler—an area of harmony here, a rhythmic line or area of contrast there a warm advancing color, a cool receding color of depth and space.

No, you still don't understand it? Of course not. Neither do you understand music, a sunset, nor the song of a bird. But if you will relax and look with an open mind you can ap-

BOOK REVIEW

"THE SUN IS MY UNDOING"

(By Marguerite Steen)

Reviewed by Marjorie Polk Brown
Marguerite Steen, English author of three plays and some nine novels, including "They That Go Down In Ships," has brought forth as her latest contribution to the reading world the much-discussed "The Sun Is My Undoing." Being born in Liverpool and coming into the world, as she strikingly put it, "with brine in my nostrils," it is only natural that her latest book, as have many of her others, should be concerned with the sea and those whose lives are so closely associated with it.

The theme of "The Sun Is My Undoing" seems generally to be centered about the evils of the slave trade and the work of English abolitionists. More specifically, however, it deals with the life of young Mathew Flood, member of a prominent British family, who turns slave trader and who on that account loses his ardent abolitionist fiancée. Thus separated from the girl he loves, Flood embarks on a life which may truly be called adventurous. Miss Steen describes vividly his trips to Africa's forsaken coasts; the famed Barbary Coasts; the contrasting grandeur of the palaces of Seville and Madrid; and the combination of underhandedness and abandoned gayety that is Cuba.

Not only does the author carry you vicariously through scenes and surroundings, but she succeeds admirably in attempting and attaining her object of a grandstand play on human emotions. Certainly few things could be more forceful than her relation of row the young hero, driven circumstantially from the arms of the girl he loves, succumbs to the maddening inducement of human passion and finds solace in a negro mistress, a slave girl endowed with physical attributes exceptional in the black race.

preciate with a great lot of satisfaction and pleasure.

As a whole, the exhibit surprises, stimulates the imagination, and shocks—thereby clearing the mind for thought, and helping the individual liberate himself. It is a democratic and moral force that makes the person who looks at it a better and more tolerant individual.

Spring Cleaning

Quite a few comments will probably be made about such a ridiculous head as this editorial possesses. Quite a few comments will be made about such a ridiculous editorial also, we hope. Spring is progressing nicely into summer and if cleaning was needed it should have been done.

Spring cleaning, however, is somewhat similar to Thanksgiving. It is designated for a particular time of the year but is to be in practice at any time. Unlike Hallowe'en they can be in season in July or September.

Our cleaning at this time has to do with ourselves and our belongings. Too many of us are prone to "dress up" on the outside and forget all else. As an example of this let us take our dormitory rooms. This quarter every room on the campus is being graded periodically. These grades, it is rumored, are to be included in the report sent home.

That grading of rooms, we feel, was necessary. We don't know how much good it will do. We do know that too many persons do not show proper respect for the places in which they are staying. We wonder if your friend from the first floor lived down the block from you in Albany or Fitzgerald, you'd invite him or her in your open door. We rather wonder if you wouldn't be ashamed at times for your own folks to walk into your room and see some of the pictures that adorn the walls.

The worst part of this spring cleaning is that we feel as guilty as some of you in the neglect of our "homes." Let's get behind the proverbial broom and push where needed. It will do no harm.

Gathering It Up

By "CHOLLY"

Flash! T.C. has changed from the educating business to the shipping business.

We have heard that ANGLIN and FOY were saving money recently. Wonder if BRUNER will inherit that, too?

While sitting on the campus the other day found out that ED MIXON has been holding out on us here at T.C. He has a flame at Wadley, Ga. If you don't believe this ask "HARD ROCK."

Question of this issue: Who is this "JOHNNIE MOE?" PETE knows!

HATTIE, a picnic is a fine thing to go on, but have you ever seen a picnic without food? I hope that JIMMY SCARBORO don't starve them all. But maybe that's his technique, you know, stall and starve 'em, etc.

They say Mr. BOLLINGER wants to be a long-haired musician. Wonder if he has tried FITCH?

They tell me MRS. WIMBERLY has to call the DEAN every time any one has to.

Wonder how E. B. RUSHING is doing with ELIZABETH MORRISON? They tell me he had a wonderful time on a house party.

ROGER McMILLAN is still running over every pair of pants she sees, but so far she is out of luck.

They tell me GLADINE and ROCK are saving for a war bond. Nice idea. We all should buy more stamps and bonds.

The latest romance of this issue is DAISY MAE and BILLY BYERS.

What is it about the reference room that is of so much interest to FAYE JONES and JACK AVERITT?

What is it about the name THEONE that a particular boy responds to so "HUNNI-FUL"?

How about this new (?) hobby a girl from East has started? Kissing each new boy she meets.

What is it under the beds and in the closets that seems so interesting to MRS. "CALL DOWN" WIMBERLY?

Why is it that when romance is mentioned we immediately think of BLALOCK and SARA (not to mention the BRANNON-BLALOCK campaign from Brooklet to Swainsboro).

Correction from last issue: I would like to change the word "tulip" to "turnip" and commend Joe Allen Jones for his pioneer spirit.

"Swainsboro is the place for me," says ROOKS and BRANNON. Why?

LOUISE KICKLIGHTER has lost her way with JESSE HAMBY.

So long folks.

Scriptural Searchlights

By OLIVER THOMAS

Text: "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."—Matt. 7:6.

Prayer moves the hand that moves the world. It is a force as real as terrestrial gravity. It is the only power in all the world that can overcome the laws of nature. The one purpose of prayer is to link the finite with the infinite source of power; thus, in a sense, man is at the controls of the universe. Can this have anything to do with the present world insanity?

God has promised us answer to every prayer as long as it is free of selfishness. One may as well talk to a stump as to try to make God hear a selfish prayer. "If you ask anything IN MY NAME, I will do it," Jesus says—ANYTHING. "Commit thy way unto the Lord, and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart." Virtually, a prayer is already answered when it reaches God's ear, if our faith is strong enough to believe and wait for it. Many pray sincerely, but lack of the faith and patience. True prayer has in it a strong element of expectancy. Who does not expect an answer does not pray; he merely wishes.

"You ask and receive not because you ask amiss." It is not, therefore, to be held to God's account if our prayer is unanswered. It is not conquering God's reluctance, but taking hold upon His willingness. It is not his ability, but our insincerity.

If God will give us peace, let us pray for it. If all men are God's children, let us pray for a world brotherhood. If God has unlimited resources, let us not live longer in spiritual poverty and moral bankruptcy. If prayer moves the controlling force of the universe, let us batter the gates of heaven with storms of prayer.

Prayer: "Infinite Father, so willing and anxious to give, help us to see our needs. Teach us to pray, to believe, and to expect our lives to be re-enforced from on high. May we recapture this vital power indispensable to our fullest development. Amen."

Victory

OLIVER B. THOMAS

Let not your heart be troubled,
Take my yoke and learn of me;
You bear your cross in vain, my child,

I bore it for you at Calvary.
Do the pleasures and charms of life's short day

Eternity's hope obscure?
For the Pearl of Great Price, can you watch and pray

And the trials of life endure?
To the soul who on Jesus is leaning

Is the promise all needs to supply;
And us from earth's powers He is weaning,

To feast on the Manna from on High.

Thus we see that our burdens of anxiety and grief

Are borne needlessly by the day and hour;

We fall at His feet to pray—how weak;

We rise—how full of power.
The burden is gone; in its place a song

Is ringing in the heart;
We'll trust and believe, not doubt or grieve,

But his praises to others impart.

Bonds, No Blonds

"Twas on a merry day in spring;
All the people were gathered to play,

And she received her wedding ring.
It all happened in the merry month of May;

But he forgot the wedding ring to bring,
And now he sings, "Any BLONDS today?"

No BLONDS—but BONDS—buy U.S. War Bonds

And keep our country free.
Put all your jewels in pawn

To save our "Liberty Tree,"
Because no fairies may wave their wands.

For BONDS; no BLONDS," said he.

Our World Today

By Harry Robertson

The fixing of prices was the biggest news of the week as far as I could see. Prices are to be pegged at March sales, which will keep the profits at a minimum and allow the pocketbook of the average person to detour inflation for the present, at least.

I hope that it is no military secret when I tell you a bit of news I heard this week in Jacksonville. Jax Beach, St. Augustine, Daytona Beach and Miami are blacked out for the duration, due to their lights being plainly visible off shore. This may or may not be true, but it is a good idea with the sighting of ships that has been reported off our coast.

The present student uprising to remove Talmadge from any public office in Georgia connected with schools will do a great deal towards defeating him in the fall election. We feel certain of that. It will also help towards reinstating our schools on probation, if nothing else. The fact that Talmadge committed a great wrong in the unlawful methods that he used to remove Georgia educators cannot be overlooked. The methods of the Student Political League certainly are political, but only to the extent of proving there are GOOD as well as BAD politics.

Today is May Day on the Georgia Teachers College campus, and the theme of "America the Beautiful" is most appropriate. Commendations are due Miss Guill, of the Physical Education department, and her capable staff. When you witness the complete program you will realize that what has been done was achieved through plenty of hard work and thought.

classes may vote for their class officers.

The following are qualifications which must be met by candidates for president, vice-president, or secretary of the Student Council. The above named officers must be of sophomore standing or above at the time of election; must have attended Georgia Teachers College for at least one year; have a scholastic standing of "C" or above, and be good leaders of students. All candidates for class officers and representatives of the Student Council must have at least a "C" average and must have attended Georgia Teachers College for at least one year. Leadership ability should be understood as a qualification for a candidate for any office.

All officers and members of the Student Council shall be elected by a majority of those students voting for the respective office. In case there is no majority, the Student Council shall set a date for, and provide for a run-over between the two highest candidates. Voting will be by secret ballot and three Student Council members will be present at the polls during voting hours. Students who have not been in residence at Georgia Teachers College for at least six weeks are not eligible to vote. Rules governing the election and nominations for the particular offices will be posted on the bulletin board.

Lead By Half Game Over YMCA

"Shorty" Brannon

The Bugger Daggers took the lead over the YMCA by a half game when they defeated the Faculty Wednesday, April 22, by a score of 18 to 0. This write-up goes through the game of April 22.

The Bugger Daggers were defeated by the Delta Sigmas by a score of 6 to 5 for their first defeat. A last inning rally was the final pay-off. Two pitchers rate this column this week with their performances. Charlie Johnson with his two straight victories over the Pi Nus and Bugger Daggers, and Tiny Henderson with his second hit performance against the faculty, not letting but one Faculty getting past second base.

The most thrilling game so far this year was the "track meet" between the Pi Nus and the "Y". The score, when the dust was cleared, was 11 to 10 in favor of the "Y". Charles Wireman hit a home run off his brother in the sixth inning with the bases loaded to provide the margin of victory. The Bugger Daggers made a season record of scoring runs when they defeated the Faculty 18 to 0. Jumping on the Faculty's pitcher, Smith, in the first inning with 6 runs and then kept on to win the game with 18 to 0.

The Bugger Daggers took the lead when they defeated the "Y" 4 to 2 in a pitching duel. Both teams made 7 hits, but the Bugger Daggers bunched their hits in the fourth inning to win the game.

The scores so far in the season are: Bugger Daggers, 8, Delta S. 4; Pi Nu 1, YMCA 2; Faculty 3, Bugger Daggers 10; YMCA 10, DS 0; Faculty 2, Pi Nu 6; Bugger Daggers 8, Pi Nu 4; Faculty 3, YMCA 4; Pi Nu 9, DS 14; Bugger Daggers 4, YMCA 2; Bugger Daggers 5, DS 6; YMCA 11, Pi Nu 10; Faculty 0, Bugger Daggers 18.

I. R. C. Elects New Officers

The International Relations Club met in room 30 Tuesday, April 14th. The meeting was presided over by Dorothy Garner, the president, who welcomed several new members to the club.

Three new officers were elected to take the place of some old ones. Those elected were Barbara Jory, secretary; Charles McAllister, treasurer, and Richard Starr, reporter.

After all new and old business was discussed, Pilcher Kemp gave a talk on India. In this talk he pointed out the problems of India's large population, caste system, varied religions, political subjection, illiteracy, etc., in relation to the war today. He also discussed the boundaries of India and their relation to the other countries near her. The question of India's fight for independence was also brought up and the latest happenings were reviewed.

The topic for review at the next meeting was chosen and another warring nation (Russia) was selected.

ciation removed the Georgia schools from the accredited list in an effort to oppose him politically.

The interview further quoted the governor as planning "to have the next legislature pass laws making it impossible for graduates from states that do not recognize our degrees to practice their professions in Georgia."

The governor admitted, according to Clearman and Horstein's statement to the school paper, "that the action of the students had caused him some concern about his chances for re-election. He now believes, however, that the war situation has so obscured the students' argument that they will cause him no further trouble."

JOBS

College students with architectural training are needed by the government in "junior architect" jobs paying $2,000. Seniors may apply. No written test is given. The civil service blank to ask for is "Architect, $2,000 to $3,200 a year."

WAR

More than 3,000,000 workers have been trained by at nation's schools in special technical lines to serve the armed forces and war industries.

Since the report two weeks ago that 9,500 of Norway's 10,500 teachers had resigned in protest against Nazification of the Norse schools, 2,000 Norwegian schoolmasters have been arrested by the Nazis. Almost all Norwegian schools are closed.

Student self-help under NYA may become a war casualty unless it can prove itself a war-time necessity.

When the President asks congress soon for funds to operate NYA and CCC during the coming fiscal year, he will probably suggest that the war functions of the two agencies be merged, and that their peace-time functions be scrapped.

NYA Director Aubrey Williams, as well as several educators, has done a good job of defending NYA before members of the machine tools in NYA training shops were obtained before priorities went into effect, and (b) that a month before the general newspaper attack against NYA started the agency had begun inventory of its shops for machine tools that might be turned over to war industries.

Graduates of military academies and similar schools are urged by the army to continue their studies until they have reached induction age under selective service. By attending special army schools such graduates may earn commissions as second lieutenants.

According to an OCD survey of 400 college newspapers, more than half are sending the school paper free of charge to former students now in military service.

The University of Hawaii was included in the survey, but a letter from Frederick Tom, president of the Hawaii A.S.U., explained that the student newspaper couldn't answer the questionnaire because publication stopped December 7. Enrollment has dropped 65 per cent; almost the entire staff of the paper, Ka Leo O Hawaii, has left school.

All you need to learn is to OBEY!

You know the story of Axis "dictatorship"—the lesson is there for all to read: Schools and colleges closed—or turned into breeding grounds for lies and hate.

Freedom of speech—verboten! Freedom to choose your friends—verboten! "... All you need to learn is to obey!"

Now they would attempt to put the yoke on us—on you. It must not happen here! Whatever the cost, the Axis must be smashed. Your part, as a college student, is clear. You may not be behind a gun today, but you can help today to give our soldiers, sailors, and marines the weapons they need for Victory.

Put your dimes and dollars into fighting uniform now by buying United States Savings Bonds and Stamps. You'll help not only your country, but yourself—because you are not asked to give your money, but to lend it. You can start buying Bonds by buying Savings Stamps for as little as 10 cents. Start buying today—and keep it up!

SHORT TERM BEGIN MONDAY, MAY 4

Two-Hour Classes Are Scheduled Through June 5

Registration for the annual spring short term at Georgia Teachers College will be Monday, May 4. This term will end June 5.

There will be three two-hour periods during this term instead of the usual six one-hour periods.

The courses offered are Education 311 and 403, English 303 and 411, Farm Life 101, Biology 310, History 305, and Industrial Arts 204.

Following the spring short term will be two summer terms. The first will be from June 8 until July 14, the second will be from July 15 to August 21.

There will be no visiting faculty members for the spring short term.

Complete information may be had by asking for a bulletin at the registrar's office.

Sigma Gamma News

The Sigma Gamma sorority met at the home of Mrs. Crouse Wednesday night. Plans for a spring social were discussed. The type has not yet been decided on, but plans are under way.

Pictures and news galore are being placed in the sorority scrapbook and it is beginning to give a rather good picture of the life of the sorority for this year.

Sweatshirts have been ordered but have not yet arrived. Here's hoping they get here before school is out.

Baby layettes are being made for the Red Cross.

Sunshine Joy

Quaking I stood in trembling fright;
What was the trouble I did not know.

Nothing I did was right.
So I think I go to the picture show,

Where everything is sunny and bright,
And maybe I'll catch a beau.

A bush on a bird's worth two in the sand,
And the sand on the sea's as numberless as can be;

But to be down by the sea would certainly be grand,
And how I do love bedbugs and fleas!

And these mosquitoes flying around in bands,
The question is to see or not to see.

Former Student In Big Named Band

W. D. McDougald, better known to his friends here as "Little Mac," was heard over CBS, playing with Sunny Dunham, one of the nation's leading dance bands. "Mac" also received a write-up in "Down-Beat," one of the nation's leading music magazines. While at TC he became well known for his tenor sax playing. He played with the Professors Dance Orchestra here, and was a pledge of Delta Sigma fraternity.

Iota Pi Nu News

Marcellus Gaughf was pledged at the last meeting of the Iota Pi Nu, held Monday night in the scout hut.

Plans are still being discussed for the spring formal which will be held this quarter on May 23rd.

The softball team has been catching it pretty hard for the last few games. What's all this talk about winning the pot every time there is a game? It seems to be helping out with the hitting.

Observe National Music Week Here

Mu Sigma national honorary music fraternity, the library and the music faculty of the college will present a series of musical programs in the audio-visual room of the library from Monday through Friday evening in honor of National Music Week.

A definite program has been planned for each evening and after each program request records will be played.

Jones Elected G. C. P. A. Officer

Jimmy Jones, managing editor of the George-Anne, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Georgia Collegiate Press Association at the annual convention held in Milledgeville last Friday and Saturday.

C. P. Scruggs, news editor of the Red and Black, University of Georgia student newspaper, was elected president of the G.C.P.A., and William (Billy) Kreuser, Mercer student, was elected vice-president.

Harold Pearman attended the meeting with Jones.

Delegates heard Dean Drewry, of the University of Georgia School of Journalism, and Mrs. Bernice Brown McCullar, a columnist, speak at a banquet Friday night, Rutherford Poats, of Emory, led a round-table discussion Saturday morning. The subject for the round-table was "The Place of the College Newspaper in the War Effort."

Science Seminar To Elect Officers

The Science Seminar will elect its officers for next year at the regular meeting of the club on May 6.

At the last meeting of the Science Seminar Mr. Pigg gave a talk on photography. Demonstration were used throughout the program, an x-ray picture being made and developed and also several negatives of the regular snapshots. To be sure that those present understood the process, Mr. Pigg let each individual who wished to do so, develop a negative.
