Obituary

It is said that there are three words in the English language that are more solemn than all of the others. They are life, death, and eternity. Life is more solemn than death. A Christian's death gives them more abundant life.

Death is a joyful messenger of peace whose kind hands open to the weary pilgrim the gate of immortality and lets the oppressed go free. Free from pain, from suffering.

A busy life came to a close Tuesday, October 19, 2010 when Phillip Sylvan Cone was called to his heavenly home.

He was born in Bulloch County on December 29, 1947 to the late George and Ruby Baldwin Cone. Phillip joined the Hodges Grove Baptist Church at an early age and was a faithful member until he relocated to Atlanta, Ga. He loved to read the Bible, and loved quoting Biblical scriptures. He was a true believer in the Bible. He was a 1964 graduate of Williams James High School where he developed a love for music and songs. With his love for music and songs he became familiar with many artists. Phillip was self employed as a Barber in Atlanta, Ga., receiving his apprenticeship under the late Bobby Donaldson of Donaldson Barbershop of Statesboro, Ga.

In January 1968, Phillip Cone and Jacquelyn Elizabeth Mincey; who preceded him in death; were united in marriage. To this union one child was born Phyllis Yvonne Cone. He later united with Eva Marks, whom he loved and remained with until his death. Preceded in death by his parents George and Ruby Cone; one sister Jacqueline Cone- Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted companion Eva Marks of Lithonia, Ga.; two daughters Phyllis Yvonne Cone of Atlanta, Ga., and Sharon Williams (Barry E.) of College Park, Ga.; a god-son Louis and a god-daughter Stacey of whom he developed a special parental bond; two brothers Norwood Cone (Shirley) of Abingdon, Maryland, and Gregory Cone (Marsha) of Atlanta, Ga.; three aunts Maggie Mae Baldwin and Vera Mae Baldwin both of Statesboro, Ga., and Myrtice Baldwin of Savannah, Ga.; three nieces Monica, Danielle and Tomekia; four nephews Lamar, Darius, Shannon and Geoffrey; and a host of other relatives and friends.

"If You Knew"

If you knew where I am standing
If you could see the lights I see
If you could hear the angels singing
The songs they sing eternally.

If you knew the One I'm holding
Could see the smile He smiles at me
If you knew where I am resting
You would not cry for me.

I am resting in the arms of Jesus
No other place I would rather be
So if you shed a tear
Please don't shed if for me
For if you knew where I was resting
You would not cry for me.
