

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

The George-Anne

Student Media

5-13-1960

The George-Anne

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne>

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "The George-Anne" (1960). The George-Anne. 2409.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne/2409>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Media at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in The George-Anne by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Collins, Weatherly Tie For Council Presidency; Run-off Held Monday

13 Special Awards Presented Monday

Thirteen students received special awards and 50 were honored for excellent scholarship and leadership service at Honors Day assembly Monday.

The special awards and the recipients are as follows: Carolyn Watson Bridges, Moultrie; James Allen Bunce Award; Emory Giles, Sandersville; Alpha Psi Omega Award; Gayle Veldink, Gainesville, Fla.; Home Economics Award; Rose Franklin, Statesboro; "Miss Home Economics" title; and James Eli Hodges, Statesboro, Kappa Phi Kappa Award for the freshman boy with the highest scholastic average.

Other award winners were: Roberta Halpern, Statesboro, Bulloch Herald Journalism Award; Johnny Hathcock, Atlanta Statesboro Music Club Award; Betty Sue Mashburn, Pineview; Thelma Mallard, Statesboro; and Mary Ann Harrell, Macon, Sigma Alpha Iota Award; Edith Sherian Brown, Statesboro; and Stacy Wells, Hinesville, Alpha Rho Tau Award; and Sandra Taylor, Arlington, Marvin Pittman Scholarship Award.

Gospel Concert To Be Presented At GSC May 25

A Gospel Concert featuring The Statesmen Quartet with Hovie Lister and the Blackwood Brothers Quartet will be held at Georgia Southern gym Wednesday evening, May 25, at 8:15 p.m.

In less than a decade the Statesmen, "Georgia's Official Ambassadors of Good Will," have achieved nationwide recognition as the most versatile singers of spiritual and gospel songs in America.

They have won a place in the hearts of gospel-music lovers everywhere with their songs of hope, faith and inspiration that reflect the beliefs of sincere young Christians. Whether it be a negro spiritual, an old hymn of the church, one of the all-day singing convention type songs or barber-shop harmony, the Statesmen are unexcelled. It is easy to understand why

continued on page 3

Special award recipients are pictured as they received their awards at the Honors Day Assembly Monday. Shown at the top of the page in the first row are Dr. Jack N. Averitt, left, as he presents the James Allen Bunce Award to Carolyn Watson Bridges; and Emory E. Giles, extreme right, receives the Alpha Psi Omega Award from Dr. Fielding D. Russell.

In the second row, Miss Betty Lane, far left, presents the Home Economics Award to Gayle Veldink; and Rose Franklin, extreme right, accepts the "Miss Home Economics" trophy from Judy Eure.

Stacy Wells, shown at left, presents the Kappa Phi Kappa Award to James Eli Hodges; and Roberta Halpern receives the Bulloch Herald Journalism Award from Editor Leodei Coleman, at right, in the third row.

In the fourth row, Dr. Averitt presents the Statesboro Music Club Award to Johnny Hathcock; and Betty Sue Mashburn, at extreme right, receives the Sigma Alpha Iota Award from Mrs. E. L. Barnes of Statesboro.

Recipients of the SAI Award are also pictured in the fifth row. In the left picture, Thelma Mallard accepts the award; and in the photo to the right, Mary Ann Harrell is shown receiving the award.

The two Alpha Rho Tau Award winners are shown, in the sixth row, accepting their awards. Sherian Brown is pictured in the left photo, and Stacy Wells (extreme right) receives his award from Gabriel McNair.

In the seventh row, Horace Z. Smith, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Company of Statesboro, is shown presenting the Marvin Pittman Scholarship Award to Sandra Taylor. In the picture to the right, Dr. Arthur M. Gignilliat, administrative assistant to the Chancellor of the University System of Georgia and guest speaker for the Honors Day Assembly, is shown as he addresses the audience.

The South Shall 'Rise' Again On Saturday Night

By JACK SMOOT

The evening moonlight, fun and festivities are close at hand as this year's Old South Ball is being prepared to take its place as the biggest dance of the quarter tomorrow night.

Some fifty tables will fill the Alumni Building for the patrons holding reserved table tickets while the galleries will be open for all general admissions.

The College Combo will bring music and enjoyment to all while a floor show will top off the evening. Master of Ceremonies James "Shaky" Chivers will be on hand to introduce the show. The show will follow the theme of "A Summer Night In The Old South" with music from "A Summer Place."

The great demand and response to the sale of tickets should prove the ball to be this year's biggest dance.

For those who were unable to obtain tickets Alpha Phi Omega will sell general admission tickets at the door Saturday evening.

The music, fun and gaiety will begin at 8:30 tomorrow night and last until midnight. At this time this year's Old South Ball will officially become a part of the traditional past of Georgia Southern College.

NEA Members Visit Statesboro and GSC Today

Statesboro and Georgia Southern College is one of the last stops for some 150 members of the National Editorial Association as they complete a week-long tour of the Cracker State.

They will be met at the city limits of Statesboro by special police and escorted to the Frank I. Williams Center on the GSC campus where they will served coffee during their brief visit here.

After visiting Franklin D. Roosevelt's Little White House on their first stop Sunday, the group visited the Warm Springs Foundation.

Next stop was Ida Cason Callaway Gardens at Pine Mountain where lunch was served. The group motored on to Columbus in four chartered buses.

The tour has included visits to Ft. Benning, Andersonville Cemetery, Dawson, Albany, Radium Springs, Tifton, Okefenokee Swamp, Jekyll Island State Park, Midway Church and Museum, Savannah, Milledgeville, Athens, Gainesville, Lake Lanier, the restored Vann House near Chatsworth and Castle in the Clouds on Lookout Mountain near Chattanooga.

The party will wind up its tour in Atlanta Sunday.

Herty Building Completed; To House Three Divisions

The Herty Building was officially accepted on Thursday by the University System Building Authority, and will be ready for use by three Georgia Southern College divisions—business, home economics, and science—at the first summer session.

Approximate cost of the building including equipment and furniture is $679,000. It contains 39,000 square feet. In the structure is 16 offices, 12 classrooms and conference rooms, and 18 laboratories.

Delta Construction Company of Waycross built the structure, and the architect was Logan and Williams of Atlanta.

The building is named for the late Dr. Charles F. Herty, prominent Southern scientist and inventor in the fields of paper

Brannen, Osburn, Callaway Ginn Win S.C. Officer Posts

The results of yesterday's election of Student Council officers for the coming year have been released by Dickie Baker, president of this year's Student Council.

Masquers Give Spring Quarter Play May 19-20

"Ten Nights in a Barroom," the Masquers' spring quarter production, will be presented on Thursday and Friday, May 19 and 20, in McCroan Auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

According to Mr. Robert Overstreet, assistant professor of speech, the play is an old fashioned "Meller-Drama," replete with heroes, heroines, villains, and the town drunk. Mr. Overstreet states the play was written around the turn of the century as a serious temperance drama, but it cannot be taken seriously today because of its sentimentality, its dated ideas and the style of acting it requires. Mr. Overstreet also stated that the play is not recommended for serious students of literary style but rather for anyone who enjoys farcical situations exploited for laughs.

The cast includes: Mr. Romaine, Ralph Bowden Sample Swicheil, Earl Carr; Joe Morgan, Claude Astin; Harvey Green, Carlton Hendrix; William Hammond, Jack Smoot; Simon Slade, Bob Corley; Frank Slade, Wayne Bland; Mrs. Slade, Rhonda Battley; Mrs. Morgan, Jane Dotson; Mary Morgan, Samille Jones; Mehitabel, Joanna Hill; Chorus girl, Alva Edenfield. Admission prices are 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

On Thursday, May 26, three-one act plays will be presented. These plays are directed by students. The admission for these plays will be 25c.

APPLICATIONS MUST BE FILED

All present or former students of Georgia Southern who plan to return next fall must file an application within the next three weeks according to Miss Viola Perry, registrar.

"This application will signify the student's intention to return next fall," stated Miss Perry.

"There is no fee attached and the registration forms will be on the counter in my office. Please take the few minutes necessary and come by," she added.

"These registration forms will help us particularly when we begin filling out the classification cards."

Just as in the past two years, this year's presidential contest was a three way race because no candidate received a majority of the votes. A run-off election will be held Monday between the top two men, Jerry Collins who polled 273 votes and Guy Weatherly who received 234 votes. Albert Burke, an official write-in candidate, received 112 votes for the office.

Dianne Brannen with 315 votes defeated Dick Russell, who received 302 votes, for the office of first vice president. Rick Osburn's 349 tallies over Howard Holton's 236 votes places him in the second vice president's chair.

Patsy Ginn with 315 votes was victorious over Henri Etta Walea who had 298 votes and took the office of secretary. Milton Callaway jumped to a lead of 386 votes over Ralph Bowden's 227 to win the office of Council treasurer.

Sophomore representatives to the Student Council are Judy Aldridge and Karl Peace with 133 and 94 votes respectively. Their opponents, Janice Pearce and Tommy Martin polled 27 and 69 votes respectively.

Sandra Cox's 73 tallies enabled her to down Gayle Veldink with 58 votes for the office of junior class women representative. Embrace Anderson with 91 votes topped Raybon Cannon with 39 votes for the position of junior class male representative.

Betty Jean Bryant and Charles Ragsdale with 110 and 100 votes respectively defeated Jeanne Walsh and Jerry Aldridge with 69 and 77 votes respectively for the offices of senior class representative.

Election returns reveal that approximately 619 members of the student body went to the polls and voted.

Jackson To Join GSC Business Division In Fall

Mr. James Howard Jackson will join the Georgia Southern College business division faculty in September, according to Dr. S. Lloyd Toumey, chairman of the division.

Jackson, a native of Bluefield, Virginia, will be an assistant professor of business at Georgia Southern. He received his B. S. degree from the University of

JAMES H. JACKSON

Tennessee last year and earned his M. S. degree from the same institution this year.

Graduating from McLains Business College in 1947, he became a member of the faculty of this school the same year and remained in this position until 1951 when he entered the army.

While in the service he was

continued on page 2

Editorials

We Add Our Congratulations

Although it is only one of many, we the GEORGE-ANNE staff, would like to add our congratulations and best wishes to the recipients of the special awards, and to the students who were recognized for high scholastic honor and leadership-service at Honors Day assembly Monday.

Sixty-three members of our student body worked very hard and were repaid in a small degree by the entire school. Of course, the satisfaction, we know, that these students must have gained in doing their deeds has greatly outweighed any material reward that they were presented. Nevertheless, at least they know that their accomplishments have not gone unnoticed.

Thirteen students were presented with either medals, cups, or awards which they earned for participation in college activities during the years in college.

These recipients and their awards are as follows: Carolyn Watson Bridges, Moultrie, the James Allen Bunce Award; Emory E. Giles, Sandersville, the Alpha Psi Omega Award; Gayle VelDink, Gainesville, Fla., and Rose Franklin, Statesboro, the Home Economics Award; James Hodges, Statesboro, the Kappa Phi Kappa Award; and Roberta Halpern, Statesboro, the Bulloch Herald Journalism Award.

Also Johnny Hathcock, Atlanta, the Statesboro Music Club Award; Betty Sue Mashburn, Pineview, Thelma Mallard, Statesboro, and Mary Ann Harrell Macon, the Sigma Alpha Iota Award; Sherian Brown, Statesboro, and Stacy Wells, Hinesville, the Alpha Rho Tau Award; and Sandra Taylor, Arlington, the Marvin Pittman Award.

Thirty-five students merited scholarship honors for having made an average quality point ratio of 3.5 for five consecutive quarters at college. Fifteen seniors who have rendered unselfish service in an outstanding manner during their years in college were honored at this assembly.

To these people we wish to call attention. For they are the future leaders of our state and nation.

Complaints We'd Like To Have

When those of us here at Georgia Southern cannot seem to be able to come up with money to hire ANY name band, it's hard to conjure-up sympathy for the situation described in the following letter printed recently in the Central Michigan University (Mt. Pleasant) school newspaper:

To the Editor:

Why must CMU have second-rate bands for their formals? It seems we can never have a really good band; why I don't know. It surely can't be because of lack of funds; Stan Kenton, Les Brown, Les Elgart, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, and others. It can't be that we can't afford them. If Ferris Institute can get Stan Kenton, we surely ought to be able to.

Get Your Miscellany Monday Afternoon

For nearly two months the George-Anne has been carrying articles and editorials concerning the new publication on campus, Miscellany. During this time the editorial board, the faculty editor, and the industrial arts department have been busy at work preparing the magazine.

At last the work is finished; Miscellany is almost ready for distribution. Copies will be on sale beginning at 3:30 Monday afternoon, May 16 in the Student Center. Members of the editorial board and other representatives will have copies at various other places on campus.

The Miscellany staff urges every student to buy a copy of this magazine for several reasons. One reason is that its success and further growth depends largely upon your acceptance of the first issue. Secondly, and by no means less important, the editorial staff firmly believes that there is a great deal of pleasure awaiting your attention between the covers of Miscellany. The board has made every effort to include a variety of entertaining selections from the many contributions which it received. The majority of these selections were written by students on this campus; this should provide to the readers. Naturally interest to the readers. Naturally every student at Georgia Southern will be anxious to read the poetry and fiction written by his classmates.

Miscellany will not only be entertaining reading but will round out the Georgia Southern College publications. It will add a new breadth to our college program. From henceforth Georgia Southern will have a regular publication in addition to the weekly and annual publications, George-Anne and The Reflector. Miscellany will complement these publications in that it offers the opportunity for creative and critical literary work.

This new literary review has received a great deal of encouragement from people outside the college faculty and administration. Contributions were received from several people who are not connected with Georgia Southern College.

It is hoped that in the future many people other than our own students and faculty will contribute to Miscellany. This will increase the circulation in addition to adding variety to the magazine.

Plan now to buy your copy of Miscellany. Treat yourself to the short stories and poetry which it contains, and in so doing, you will be contributing to further success of this project and hence to the betterment of Georgia Southern College.

MR. CARLISLE TART, left, a representative of the American Art Clay Company, visited the Georgia Southern College campus and gave demonstrations in ceramics and enameling on copper in the art department. Shown above are Miss Roxie Remley, associate professor of fine arts, and Sherian Brown, a sophomore art major from Statesboro, as they inspect a completed dish which had just been removed from the oven.

Irma's Inklings

By IRMA ROACH

Chances are you've never spent an enormous amount of time meditating — oh, maybe fifty minutes or so while a professor is lecturing about the virtues (or lack of) of Louis XV or something else you know absolutely nil—but have you ever taken three or four hours of that spare time that's lying around wasting, just to go somewhere and think about things?

It staggers the imagination just to think about all the things it's possible to think about. I've spent a great deal of time during my life meditating. It's supposed not only to make one appear wise (when one sees another meditating, though he doesn't say of what he's thinking, one assumes that he possesses wisdom, it's also supposed to release those pent-up emotions caused by daily frustrations.

I remember once I suddenly decided to go meditate in peaceful surroundings. This would have been a superb idea except that it proved to be one of my, shall we say, dumber decisions. Mainly, this decision came about one o'clock one night when I was suffering from insomnia.

So I silently padded about — I guess "sneaked" would be better terminology — into my brother's room and borrowed his car keys. He and I later disagreed on that term "borrowed" — he made some rather base insinuations as to my method of operation.

Anyhow, off I zoomed into the black and murky depths of the weird, moonless, starless, coldness, skyless night. And I drove. And drove and drove and drove and drove. Meanwhile, I had decided to drop in and see if Columbia was still in South Carolina, and meditate there, so I turned in that direction from Savannah. Finally, when I was sure I was in the very outskirts of Columbia, I saw a sign. I saw a sign which read, "Clyo, 9 miles." This is a small town not far from home. This was frustrating.

As the dawn broke, I rolled into Columbia, asked a public servant in blue (cop) how to get to Arbor Drive, where an old friend lived. I carefully followed his directions and landed smack in the middle of the Army post.

So I left Columbia behind and started my homeward journey. I had spent the whole night meditating, and had come up with one solid conclusion; I was sleepy.

When I got home about eleven that morning, I expected a warm, loving welcome, but such was not my fate. I met with wrath such as none other than my brother can muster, and I feared for my very life during our calm and sane discussion of the situation. It appeared the big — my brother wasn't really pleased with the episode.

But, forgetting the consequences (would that I could!), the main fact remained: I was frustrated. I went away by myself and meditated, and I can tell you — Don't meditate! Get busy, break a few things, kill a cat, go maim somebody, do anything destructive, but don't meditate!

I suffered from the malady of wanting to think to solve my own problems, but I have been "extrinsically motivated" to get back in line. I have been cured. I am once again a happy normal Georgia Southern senior whose philosophy is, as a great man once said, "It's better to lurk than to work, to need than to read, to spite than to write, and to meditate than to meditate."

Jackson...

continued from page 1

the recipient of the Meritorious Bronze Star and the Division Commendation Ribbon.

Jackson holds membership in Phi Kappa Phi and Beta Gamma Sigma. He is the past president of the Beta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi and president of Eta Sigma Phi at the University of Tennessee.

He is the author of a manual used as a text for the office machine courses taught at the University of Tennessee.

The George-Anne

Roberta Halpern, Editor

The opinions expressed herein are those of the student writers, and not necessarily those of the college administration and faculty.

EDITORIAL BOARD: Midge Lasky and Ronald Nesbitt
Managing Editor Midge Lasky
Business Manager Albert Burke
Assistant Business Manager Pete Goodloe
News Editor Jim Pollak
Copy Editor Dale Summerlin
Feature Writers Patsy Ginn, Mary Charlie Ewing, and Sandra Cox

Typists Patsy Wagner and Claudette Atkins
NEWS STAFF: David Cowart, Sandra Cox, Mary Charlie Ewing, Peggy Parks, Janet Sikes, Judy Aldridge, Geraldine Shelley, Faye Tiner, Carole Jean Collins, and Julie Tyson, and the spring quarter Journalism Class.

COLUMNISTS: Irma Roach, Jerry Collins, Jack Smoot, and Velinda Purcell.

FACULTY ADVISOR: Joseph A. Axelson

Friday, May 13, 1960

Published weekly, October to June except during holidays for Georgia Southern College students.

(Entered as second class matter at Post Office at Collegeboro, Georgia under temporary permit.)

Historians See Pictures Come To Life On Tour

By JIM USRY

Last Friday afternoon the Georgia History class together with Dr. and Mrs. Jack N. Averitt left for a tour of Savannah and the coast to see some of the settings from Georgia's history.

Arriving in Savannah, we toured the Telfair family mansion, built by William Jay in 1819 for Telfair, three times governor of Georgia. Much of the original furnishing is still intact. The drawing room is a marvel of curves and niches characteristic of this famed architect, who had recently come from England. The Telfair Academy of Arts and Sciences is also housed here, with a rotunda filled with such a collection of paintings, and with a room dominated by a show of classic statues reproduced in plaster, that would well merit the attention of a connoisseur.

Visits Low Home
Leaving this house we came to the Juliette Gordon Low home, another of William Jay's, built in 1825. The spiral stair, chandeliers, and eight bedrooms, make this three-story house a "must" for all enthusiasts of fine old homes.

The next house we saw was the Owens-Thomas, also built by William Jay. It was begun in 1816 and completed in 1819. Filled with furnishings of no later than 1830, this structure is a tour de force of Regency detail. Of especial significance is the drawing room which, with its pine-board floor, (the boards being painted alternately black and blonde) has been adjudged one of the 100 loveliest rooms in America.

We spent the night at the Solms Hotel on Tybee beach, and on Saturday morning we visited Fort Pulaski on Cockspur Island, where we were faced by 25,000,000 bricks laid between 1829 and 1847. It was here that Robert E. Lee, as an engineer, had his first appointment after graduating from West Point.

Group Sees Wormsloe
Leaving Fort Pulaski we drove to Wormsloe Plantation on the Isle of Hope, which has been in the same family since the middle of the eighteenth century. Here we were graciously shown the well appointed interiors of the four-story house by our hostess, Mrs. Elfrida De Renne Barrow. On the magnificent grounds are the ruins of Fort Wimberly, which successfully defended the early settlers from the French and Indians.

Our itinerary carried us next through a nightmare of vines and trees to Fort McAllister, an all earth fort built in 1861-62, which was delivered to General Hazen of the Union forces in 1864, only after a brave fight by Major Anderson.

Stops At Folly Farm
Back from the Fort, we stopped by Folly Farm, the meeks Plantation on the old Hardwick Road, where we were entertained by this delightful couple in a manner reminiscent of a century ago, when it was built in 1850. Lovely Chippendale pieces and a priceless china collection graced the dining room in this fabulous residence with a classical facade.

We visited the Ford Plantation house next. This is a restoration of the old Hermitage Plantation which Henry Ford moved in 1936 from what is now the area of Union Bag, to its present setting in a ponderously

Continued on page 3

Roberta Halpern

At The

Editor's Desk

A frequent visitor to the George-Anne office on Tuesday and Wednesday nights is Mrs. Mary C. Farr, evening hostess at the Frank I. Williams Center.

Mrs. Farr claims that her life is not an interesting one, but the facts prove otherwise.

Residing at the present time in Statesboro, she has lived in nine different locations since her marriage in 1920. "My husband was a traveling salesman and we had to move quite often," she stated, "at first moving was fun, but we soon realized what a tremendous job it was. I've already bought four sets of furniture since it all began," she added.

Mrs. Farr is a native of Hinesville and graduated from Bradwell Institute in 1919. In 1920 she and her husband moved to Savannah and soon after they moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee. In the years that followed they were residents of Anniston in Alabama, Sylvania, Chicago, New York, Atlanta, Augusta, and currently Statesboro.

"I didn't care for New York at all," she explained. "They would tease me about my Southern brogue, but I loved Chicago because the atmosphere was much friendlier."

When living in New York Mrs. Farr was a saleswoman at Bloomingdale's, a large department store. "Entertainers would come into the store often," Mrs. Farr stated, "I had the pleasure of serving Nancy Kelly, Gloria Swanson, and Kate Smith many times."

Mrs. Farr's favorite hobbies are sewing, playing bridge, and reading novels when she finds time. George-Anne staff members also know how much she enjoys working crossword puzzles. "I don't like to solve puzzles from a book," she stated, "I find it more fun to work the puzzles from the daily papers and wait a day before seeing the answers." Once in a while on Tuesday nights when the George-Anne staff is working on its latest edition, Mrs. Farr will quietly step in to borrow our dictionary.

Mrs. Farr has one son, Frank, who is a public accountant in Statesboro. She has three grandchildren ranging in ages from four to eleven.

"I believe the most hectic experience that I have ever had happened in an Atlanta office building when an elevator I was riding in stopped between floors. It took almost 30 minutes before the electricity was restored and we could get out."

Mrs. Farr has served at the evening hostess at the Williams Center since November of this school year, "I really love it here at Georgia Southern," she told me, "the students and family are very friendly and I truly feel that the reputation that GSC has as a friendly campus is most appropriate."

Six Visit GSC From Four Foreign Lands

By MIDGE LASKY

Georgia Southern College could gain a reputation as having a "continental campus" if this influx of visitors from other countries continues. Just during the past two weeks four different countries have had representatives on this campus.

Mrs. Songsi Jutivongse of Bangkok, Thailand, visited Georgia Southern on May 8-9 to observe how we teach elementary science. She is presently doing graduate work at the University of Georgia on an international scholarship.

Visits Classes

She visited several of our education classes, talked with members of the GSC science department and teachers at Marvin Pittman School about science teacher training programs. She observed science classes, went on a field trip with Dr. Tully Pennington's ornithology class, and was guest speaker at the science club meeting. The World Religions class also enjoyed hearing her speak about her religion Buddhism.

Very tiny in stature, always smiling, she hurried from place to place the entire time she was here on campus. When asked why she was in such a hurry, she answered that she felt she could not waste a minute of the time she was here in the United States because there was so much to do and to learn.

Humble and Obliging

Eager to please everyone, she answered question after question asked her by the students wherever she went. Unusual among Americans, she was very humble and appreciated anything that was done for her.

She remarked that one of the things that impressed her most was that the people over here in America, especially in the southern states, actually lay in the sun for hours and hours. She explained that in Thailand, the coldest time of the year is in December when the temperature goes as low as 75 degrees. The people in Thailand always walk about carrying umbrellas over their heads to protect themselves.

Britishers See Southern

Very noticeable on this campus Tuesday were two new young ladies. Why so noticeable, you ask? Because everywhere they went, there were a crowd of boys following them!

Miss Auriel Kemplay and Miss Pat Greenaway, both from London, England, had no intention of making Statesboro and Georgia Southern College one of their stops when they left New York City about a week ago.

But as luck or destiny would have it, their car broke down outside one of the Statesboro motels Monday night and to their dismay, they were told the car would not be ready until Tuesday afternoon.

Girls Receive Help
At this same motel one of our male students at GSC works and since he is not the shy type he took Pat and Auriel under his wing and showed them campus life at this Southern college.

Embrere Bolton, Albany, brought the two girls to his Education 205 class and they were immediately besieged with questions.

While on the Georgia Southern campus they talked with many students, ate in the dining hall, and even attended a "mat" dance. They were confused but impressed with the "bop" step.

Meet Faculty Members

They met and discussed with Dr. Jack N. Averitt, chairman of the social science division, mutual London experiences and brought back to his mind many of the scenes he saw last summer in London.

Dr. Georgia Watson, professor of education, also enjoyed talking to them. They stayed over and extra night and spent this second night as guests in Dr. Watson's home.

They thought everyone was extremely nice here. Both girls agreed that they liked the "southern drawl", but the feeling was mutual because all of their listeners were delighted by their British accents.

Sievert Tours GSC

Herr Gerhard Sievert of Hamburg, Germany, had been over to America previously on business trips—but he had never visited one of the American college campuses.

Now in Statesboro representing one of Rockwell's subsidiary plants in West Germany, Herr Sievert stopped by GSC and asked to be taken on a tour of its campus.

Obligingly, Carol Kingard, Dublin, and I volunteered to act as Herr Sievert's guides.

Guides Ask Questions

Whether he learned much about Georgia Southern and American customs is unknown because the guides asked more questions about Germany than the tourist asked about America.

The thing which impressed him most were the great number of new cars on campus which belonged to the students. He remarked that unless German parents were very rich and could spend their money on nothing else, then they would buy a car for the son or daughter in college.

He seemed to enjoy very much the political rally being held Tuesday evening for Student Council candidates. It was not until recently in Germany that election campaigns could be held, he added.

Mr. Ghanem Haddad and Mr. Zuhair Subai from Syria were on campus last week to study our teacher training methods. They have been in America for a year and a half and are in charge of teaching training institutions in Syria.

Southern's Hopes Rise For Berth In Tourney

Georgia Southern has three reasons for wanting a win over Mercer University here on Friday.

1. The Eagles want to pad their seven-game winning streak.
2. A win over the Bears is always welcome to a Georgia Southern athletic team.
3. Mercer defeated Georgia Tech on Tuesday, and a victory over the Macon institution would strengthen GSC's hopes for a berth in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) national tournament at Sioux City, Iowa on June 6-11.

63 In Area Seven
Area Seven of the NAIA sends one team each year to the national tournament at Sioux City. This area includes Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, and West Virginia and a total of 56 four-year colleges and universities. Last year Rollins College of Winter Park, Fla. represented the area and finished third in the eight-team event behind Southern University of Baton Rouge, La., and Omaha University.

The Mercer game, last scheduled game of the season, has been designated Senior Day. Awards will be given to co-captains Ray Mims of Augusta and Bill Mallard of Sallis, and to Tom Moody, Dixie Wayne Smith, Lyons, and Dan Stipe. Boxley, GSC returns the other 12 squad members for next season.

Newberry Defeated
On Monday, Southern handed Newberry College its fourth loss in 14 games, 7-4. The two teams were rained-out Tuesday and the game has been cancelled. The win gives GSC a 2-1 series win with the Indians, the Little Three champion in South Carolina for the past two years. GSC is now 14-3.

Relief star Clyde Miller picked-up the win, his sixth against one loss, and tatted in the tying and winning runs with a double. Moody iced it with an inside-the-park homer with one aboard.

Bill Griffin, GSC's great freshman shortstop from Augusta, set a new school record with a double in the fourth inning. It marked the 17th straight game in which he has at least one hit, and breaks the record set by outfielder Howard (Bo) Warren of Ludowici in 1955. Griffin added a single in the sixth and raised his average .358, second on the team.

Finley Breaks Record
Warren has seen another of his school records broken recently. Left fielder Miller Finley has played in 41 straight games without making an error, surpassing Warren's 37. Over that span Finley has 58 putouts and eight assists.

Moody continued his fantastic hitting in the Newberry game with a single and a home run. He has now hit safely in 13 straight games, has at least two hits in 12 of them. Moody leads the team with .392. Center fielder J. E. Rowe doubled in the seventh to run his batting streak to 11. It was his eighth double of the year, two more than Moody, John McMillan and Finley.

Record Leads Told
Finley leads with six homers and 20 runs-batted-in. Dan Stipe paces in triples with two. Griffin leads in walks with 15, and Moody, Rowe, McMillan, and Stipe share the stolen bases lead with four apiece.

Miller has allowed one earned run in his last 32 innings and has an earned run average for the season of 1.45. For his two victory years, the Stillson sophomore is permitting runs at a stingy 1.73 pace.

During the winning streak, Southern is batting .313 for the seven games, and fielding .940. Both are high figures for college baseball teams.

Sports Quiz

By Larry Thomas

1. Mickey Mantle became the first American Leaguer to win baseball's Triple Crown since Ted Williams did it in 1947. When was the last time a National League ballplayer won it and who did it?

2. There have been only three baseball commissioners since the post was established in 1920. Name the two who preceded the present commissioner Ford Frick.

3. Where is the largest college owned football stadium in U. S.?

(A) Ann Arbor
(B) Los Angeles
(C) Palo Alto

4. The winner of the 1960 Kentucky Derby was:

(A) Bally Ache
(B) Venetian Way
(C) Tompon

5. Who is the shortest ever to win one of baseball's Rookie of the Year awards? When did he win the award and what team does he play for?

6. Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox holds the American League record for hitting the most grand-slam home runs in a lifetime. Who holds the record in the National League?

7. Warren Spahn, star left-hander for the Milwaukee Braves, started this season with 47 shutouts, but he is far from the career record. Name the National League shutout king.

8. Every time a heavyweight champion fights, it is considered a title defense. This isn't so for the other seven divisions. True or false?

9. The 135-pound division is for:

(A) featherweights
(B) lightweights
(C) welterweights

10. When a hockey team with a man in the penalty box is scored on (A) he must continue to serve out his penalty, (B) his penalty ends, (C) he is replaced by another man.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN'S great keystone combination is seen as senior second baseman Tom Moody (right) flips the ball to freshman shortstop Bill Griffin as he comes across the bag. Moody leads the Eagles with a .392 batting average and Griffin is next at .358. The Eagles end their season today at 3 p.m. as they host Mercer University.

Intramural Roundup

By VELINDA PURCELL and JERRY COLLINS

Girls Intramurals
Last Thursday afternoon the Toppers and Eagles won a very exciting softball game from the Bluebirds and Rebels. The Toppers and Eagles came from behind, scoring 8 runs in the fifth inning to finally go ahead. The final score was 13 to 11. For the Bluebirds and Rebels, Robinson, Crosby, and Lindsey led the team at the plate. Crosby collected 3 hits, Robinson batted out two doubles and a single. Lindsey got a double and single.

For the winners Alberson and Purcell got three hits each with Eskew and McClure close behind with two hits each. Cowan collected a triple and single.

On Monday afternoon of this week the Eagles and Toppers overpowered the Cardinals and Falcons 21 to 7. The winners banged out 17 hits while limiting the Cardinals and Falcons to 7 hits. Norma Rushing pitched a fine game and also batted out a home run. Also collecting homers for the Eagles and Toppers were Collins, Eskew, Purcell and English. Rahn and LeHardy collected 2 hits each. Betty Hardage powered a home run and Wylen Fendley got 2 hits in a losing cause.

The game scheduled for Tuesday afternoon between the Yellow Jackets and Hawks and Rebels and Blue Birds was rained out.

Wednesday afternoon the Cardinals and Falcons took a close game from the Bluebirds and Rebels, finally pulling it out 17 to 10. To do this they limited the losers to one hit and no runs in the last two innings. Faye Hodges pitched a very fine game as well as leading the Cardinals and Falcons at the plate with 3 singles and a double. Dell Summerlin collected a triple and two singles. Mariellen

Williams and Mary Nell Henderson contributed 2 hits each. For the losers Gail Bennett, Jo Ann Black and Laverne Rehberg batted out 2 hits each.

The standings among the teams now look like this:

Team	W	L	T
Eagles and Toppers	8	1
Cardinals & Falcons	6	4
Jackets & Hawks	1	6	1
Rebels & Bluebirds	1	7	1

Boys' Intramurals

The Wildcats beat the Bears 4-1. Higginbotham pitched six innings without giving up a hit, but late in the ballgame the Bears received two hits to score their only run.

The Tigers beat the Bobcats 20-3. Hendrix, for the Tigers, and Rye, for the Bobcats, hit two singles each.

The Cougars beat the Panthers 10-8. Akin led the Cougars with two hits. Robert Smith led the Panthers' hitting.

The Tigers beat the Bears 8-5. Hendrix won his own game with three hits. McCallar hit a home run and a single.

The Panthers beat the Wildcats 10-7. Williams got three hits for the Wildcats. "Yogi" Reeves, who coaches the Panthers, got three hits.

The Lions 13 and the Bobcats 9. David Patton got three hits. Marshall hit a double.

The Leopards beat the Cougars 19 to 4. Ronnie Patton got three hits. Jim Curry for the Cougars got two hits.

The Bears beat the Panthers 14-7. Ragsdale got three hits. Vickers, for the Panthers, got two hits. Royce "Stud" Conner got three for four.

The Lions beat the Tigers 15-12. Chester Curry got three hits for the Lions. Larry Athon who turned in a brilliant performance got three hits, a home run and two doubles.

Sports Quiz Answers

10. (B) His penalty ends.
9. Lightweights.
8. True.
7. Grover Alexander (90).
6. Gil Hodges (14).
5. Albie Pearson 1958, Baltimore.
4. Venetian Way.
3. Ann Arbor; capacity: 97,000.
2. K. K. M. Landis and A. B. Chandler.
1. Joe Medwick, in 1937.

—CLIFTON PRESENTS— Samille Jones

as STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Samille Jones, a junior English major from Washington, Georgia, is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, a national dramatic honorary fraternity on campus. She will play a part in both the Masquers spring quarter production of "Ten Nights In A Barroom" and a student directed one-act play to be presented soon.

CLIFTON PHOTO SERVICE

E. Main St.

Statesboro, Ga.

Georgia Theatre

Thur-Fri, May 12-13

Sat., May 14

Starts 2:00-5:20-9:00

Starts at 3:30-7:00-10:40

CARTOONS AT 4:40 and 8:15

Beginning Sunday through Friday night May 15-16-17-18-19-20

Starts Sunday at 2:00-4:20-8:45

Weekdays at 3:30-6:15-8:50

No children tickets Sold for this show

Wed, May 18

MERCHANTS TICKETS ARE GOOD THIS SHOW

Starts at 3:30-5:20-7:15-9:00

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wallace

Students Tour Georgia Coast...

continued from page 2
beautifully grove of moss-hung oaks.

Midway Church Seen
Stopping by historic Midway Church, built in 1792, which still has its slave gallery, we were enroute to St. Simon's Island where we spent the night at Epworth by the Sea, and visited Fort Frederica, built by Oglethorpe in 1736 as an outpost against the Spaniards in Florida. Here we saw intimations and excavations of the town of Frederica and the burying grounds of the first settlers.

On Sea Island we saw remnants of the old slave hospital at Sea Island Golf Course, which is the site of Retreat Plantation where Sea Island Cotton was introduced.

Think Of Home
At "Georgia's Playgrounds" on Jekyll Island we sunned ourselves and the thought of returning home, we found both attractive and dismaying.

We boarded the bus at 3:50 p.m., Sunday, May 8, and mo-ord home a wiser group of historians.

Gospel Concert...

continued from page 1

they are called "The Sensational Statesmen" - not only do they sound great but their sincerity and friendly personalities makes them many friends and fans every place they appear.

The Statesmen have traveled over a million miles, taking them into 38 states, but regardless of long trips and loss of sleep, they arrive smiling and in good voice, ready to spread sunshine with their songs of faith. They spend many hours in rehearsal preparing for their TV films and radio programs which can be seen and heard on 35 stations throughout the South and Midwest.

The Blackwood Bros. Quartet was organized in 1934 and have been singing ever since, having traveled from coast to coast and from Canada to Mexico. James Blackwood, versatile emcee and lead singer of the group has without a doubt traveled more miles than any other man in the gospel quartet field.

Family Drive-In

Fri-Sat, May 13-14

and

Sun-Mon, May 15-16

Tues-Wed-Thurs, May 17-18-19

Starts at 3:30-5:20-7:15-9:00

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wallace

JIM'S

Hair Stylist

Member National

Hairdressers Assn.

409 S. Main—PO 4-2122

Statesboro, Ga.

Varied Sports Activities Are Included in IM Program

A record breaking number of 102 entrants are vying for the horseshoe pitching crown. This tournament got underway May 9. The deadline for the second round is Friday, May 13. Games not played by the designated deadline will be forfeited.

The annual IM golf tournament for men and women begins Saturday, May 14, at 8 a.m. at the Forest Heights Country Club. This will be a 36 hole tournament with the second round being played on May 21 at 8 a.m. A green fee of 75 cents will be charged.

Men's and women's tennis singles tournaments are approaching the finals. Some of the players in contention for the women's championship are Nan Jernigan, Glenda Eskew, and Deloris Collins. James Slade, James "Shaky" Chivers, Bobby Moultrie, and David King appear to be the men to beat for the men's championship.

A new schedule in the playing of the co-recreational tennis is being initiated this year. Mr. Jess R. White, director of intramurals, announced that due to the overcrowded intramural activity schedule the co-recreational tennis will be held on Friday afternoon, May 20, and Saturday afternoon, May 21. It is planned that the entire tournament will be completed in these two afternoons. Those wishing to enter must register on or before Wednesday, May 18.

Girls interested in entering an archery tournament should sign up at the IM office May 16. The tournament will begin May 18 at 3:45 and will be held in back of the Hanner Building.

Men's handball doubles will be held Tuesday, May 17, at 7 p.m. Participants must be present to enter.

marina
del mar
california swimsuits

The elasticized swimwear with strategic shirring that promises to fit you... LIKE MAGIC! Length adjusts for flawless fit, with secret strategy to show the nicest shaping...yours! Sizes 10 to 18, 14.95.

Salem's special High Porosity paper "Air-Softens" every puff

Invisible porous openings blend fresh air with each puff for a milder, cooler, more refreshing smoke.

Salem research creates a revolutionary new cigarette paper that makes Salem taste more Springtime-fresh than ever! Richer, too. Smoke refreshed...smoke Salem.

Created by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

• menthol fresh • rich tobacco taste • modern filter, too

NOW MORE
THAN EVER Salem refreshes your taste

GEORGIA SOUTHERN COLLEGE BASEBALL CONTEST

Name _____

Address (Dormitory of Student) _____

City and State _____

PICK THE WINNERS Win $10.00 CASH

Support the Sponsors of This Contest by Visiting Them When You Buy!

Pick all winners and receive $10.00 cash. If no one gets all the winners, the person naming the most winners will receive $5.00 in cash from The George-Anne. In case contestants tie, the prize is equally divided.

1. In each ad on this page you will find two college teams scheduled to play football this week. Check the teams you think will win. Tie games count against unless you make them ties.

2. Mail or bring your entry to The George-Anne Office located in the Frank I. Williams Student Center not later than 5 p.m., Friday. Letters postmarked before this time will be accepted.

3. Members of the George-Anne staff are not eligible to win.

THE COLLEGE PHARMACY

"Where The Crowds Go"
DRUGS—SODAS—COSMETICS
—PO 4-5421—

() Michigan—() Northwestern

BUGGY & WAGON CO.

✓ General Line Hardware
✓ Gift Items
✓ Sporting Goods

Phone PO 4-3214

Statesboro

() Michigan State—() Wisconsin

BULLOCH COUNTY BANK

"Service With A Smile"

Member
Federal Insurance Deposit Corporation

() Southern Cal.—() Stanford

FRANKLIN CHEVROLET CO.

—Sales and Service—

60 East Main Street

() Pittsburgh—() Penn State

Franklin Radio & TV Service

—ZENITH—

TV—Radios—Record Players
Complete Selection of Records

48 E. Main St.

Statesboro, Ga.

() Lafayette—() Penn. State

STUDENTS!

For the Best In Foods Its

FRANKLIN'S RESTAURANT

"Never Closes"

At Intersection Highways 301-80-25

() St. John's () Seton Hall

MERLE NORMAN COSMETIC STUDIO

Invites you to come by and get your FREE personalized demonstration of Merle Norman Cosmetics.

450 S. Main St.

Statesboro

() Buffalo—() Ithaca

() Iowa—() Purdue

STUDENTS!

Shop the Modern and Convenient Way

BEN FRANKLIN STORE

—Your Most Convenient Store—

East Main St.

Statesboro, Ga.

() Adams State—() Colorado State

HOWARD JOHNSON'S

and

STATESBORO MOTOR LODGE

109 N. Main St.—Statesboro, Ga.

"Landmark for Hungry Americans"

() West Virginia () VMI

CITY DAIRY CO.

—Grade "A" Dairy Products—

PASTEURIZED—HOMOGENIZED
VITAMIN D MILK

Phone PO 4-2212

Statesboro, Ga.

() Colorado—() Missouri

Jake's Amoco Service

Amoco Products—Firestone Tires

Washing—Lubrication—Road Service

—U-HAUL TRAILERS—

(Six Blocks North of College Front aGte)

() Minnesota—() Illinois

Patronize Your Friendly

SEA ISLAND BANK

For

SAFETY—COURTESY—SERVICE

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

() Indiana—() Ohio State

MACK'S SERVICE STATION

Free Pick Up and Delivery

—STUDENTS ONLY—

Wash $1.25—Lub. $1.00 (With ID Card)

Phone 4-3321 for Prompt Service

() UCLA—() El Camino

Boole Selected As Participant In Genetics Meeting

By BETTY JEAN BRYANT

Dr. J. A. Boole, Jr., chairman of the division of science and mathematics, has been selected as a participant in the Conference for College Teachers of Genetics sponsored by the National Science Foundation, to be held at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado on August 8-26, 1960.

According to Donald R. Wood, director of the summer conference, a large number of excellent applications were received from professors in colleges and universities all over the United States, and 20 participants were selected.

"I hope to deal principally with modern genetic research methods and the techniques of presenting modern genetics to better enable me to teach genetics," said Dr. Boole.

The objectives of the conference are to present and discuss concepts of classical and current genetic experiments, with particular attention directed toward those applicable to the first course in genetics; to develop, by group participation, laboratory exercises designed to demonstrate clearly genetics concepts; and to familiarize each participant with a variety of biological organisms, including bacteria and fungi, that could be used successfully in genetics teaching laboratories.

GO-CART RACES TO BE HELD

Go-cart racing will make its appearance in Statesboro at 2 p.m. Sunday at the new Go-Cart Raceway located outside the city limits on U. S. 301 South across from the Skater Bowl.

The new raceway, complete with grandstands, will be the scene of races under the supervision of the Savannah Go-Cart Club this week. Mayor W. A. Bowen of Statesboro and the Honorable Prince H. Preston, first district representative, are scheduled to open the track by driving the first race.

KDE Pledges 16

Women; Elects

Officers Recently

Sixteen women have been invited to join Kappa Delta Epsilon, a national women's educational sorority on campus, and new officers were elected for the coming year at a recent meeting.

These pledges are: Barbara Fields, Kingsland; Sandra Cox, Lenox; Mary Nell Dunn, Augusta; Gail Wright, White Oak; Patricia Vickers, Douglas; Maribon Mikell, Statesboro; and Mary Francis Brandon, Statesboro.

Also Carol Kinard, Dublin; Sandra Mobley, Augusta; Patricia McLendon, Donaldsonville; Jeanette Hatcher, Arlington; Midge Lasky, Savannah; Wendy Reagin, Hazlehurst; Evelyn Kimbrough, Fairburn; Dianne Brannen, Statesboro; and Elizabeth Kent, Savannah.

The newly elected officers are as follows: Mary Rivenbark, Metter, president; Jeanne Walsh, Savannah Beach, vice-president; Glenda Rentz, St. Marys, secretary; and Cherry Kea, Swainsboro, treasurer.

An initiation pledge ceremony will be held on Tuesday evening, May 17, in the music building.

Econ-O-Wash

(Next to Paragon)

—Open 24 Hours—

Coin Machines
Wash 25c—Dry 10c

Night Drop-off
Service

SHIRT LAUNDRY
FLUFF-DRY
DRY CLEANING

The PARAGON

—OPEN 24 HOURS—

College Students and Families Always Welcome

—LUNCHEONS—DINNERS—

Complete Food Service—Short Orders
Sandwiches of All Kinds—Pizza Pies

() Nebraska—() Oklahoma

PICTURED ABOVE are the Georgia Jaycees Teen-Age Road-E-O winners. They are from left to right: third place, David Hanson, Palmetto; State Junior Chamber of Commerce President John Lassiter, Savannah; first place, Jim Steed, North Decatur; E. L. Howson, manager of insurance and claims, Southeastern Division, Pure Oil Company; second place, Nancy Logan, Atlanta; and Mr. B. H. McKinnon, executive director of the Georgia Consumer's Finance Association. Steed was the recipient of a $500 scholarship awarded by the Pure Oil Company and Miss Logan received a $500 scholarship from the Georgia Consumer's Finance Association. Seventy-five drivers competed in the Road-E-O held on the Georgia Southern College campus last Saturday, May 7. The Pure Oil Corporation sponsored the state awards banquet held in the Frank I. Williams Center Saturday evening.

FBLA Chapter on Campus Changes Name Recently

The Georgia Southern Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America has changed its name to Phi Beta Lambda according to Mr. Edwin B. Davidson, adviser to the organization.

The national Future Business Leaders of America organization has approved the use of the Greek letters for our campus chapter. The Georgia Southern College FBLA submitted an application for the change on April 27 and received final approval on May 2.

In a letter to the club from Hollis Guy, executive director of Future Business Leaders of America, he stated that "The College Division of Future Business Leaders of America, incorporating both Phi Beta Lambda and the chapters in those colleges which don't use Greek letters, will be given prominence in their promotion during the current year."

The national convention which was held in Washington in June, 1959, featured the activities of Future Business Leaders of America at the college level.

The George-Anne — Page 4 Collegeboro, Georgia, Friday, May 13, 1960

For a care free summer, you'll be better dressed
when you shop

"For Your Shopping Pleasure"

SHAKES!

5c to 25c

Pick a number and pay what is under the tab

Snack Bar

AT

Student Center

BRAND NEW! STARTS SUNDAY!

GO CART RACES

Thrills! Fun! Prizes!—Plenty Seats for All

at the

Go Cart Raceway

IN STATESBORO, GA.

S. Main St. Ext. (U.S. 301—Across from Skate 'r Bowl

First Race—2:00 p.m., Sunday, May 14

RACES FOR ALL CLASSES—Kids, Ladies, Men

Go Cart Races

ADULTS 75c
CHILDREN 35c

Go Cart Races

BRING THE WHOLE FAMILY—THEY'LL LIKE IT

STUBBS TIRE CORP.

—U.S. ROYAL TIRES—

New—Used—Recapped

See Gordon Franklin, Alumnus of GSC

For A Good Deal

30 South Main Street — Statesboro Ga.

() Arizona—() Luke Air Force