Touching Our Hearts

The children of William (Bill) Eason would like to simply say "thank you". This thank you is not only for the expressions of kindness at the his passing, but for years of caring about Mr. Bill. Daddy will always be in our hearts, but it means a lot knowing that he will also be with others. Take with you his attitude, "I can do it myself"

Obituary

On April 10, 2008, God called William (Bill) Eason home to join the departed wife of over fifty years, Sis. Ernestine. Bill is the son of the late Ben and Rebecca Eason. He is also preceded in death by three children; Diann, Ricky and LaTawn; and four siblings, Pearlie Mae, Dean, Rosie Bell and Elean.

Bill reared his family in Cobbtown, Georgia, where he provided their needs by doing what he loved, farming. Hard work was no stranger to Bill even after he retired due to health reasons. He often stated "I wish I was able to work". It took some convincing by his wife, Ernestine, that fishing would be his only job.

He leaves cherishing thoughts with his children, Judy B. Wilson, Pooler, GA, Lynnell Durden (Steve), Cobbtown, GA, Opal E. Shavers, Bonaire, GA, Ben Eason, Cobbtown, GA, Rose Maria Byrd (Darrell), Ft. Walton Beach, FL and a grandson, Donald T. Edenfield, Cobbtown, GA, who was raised as a son. He was a loving granddaddy to twelve grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. His strong family love extended to his sisters and brothers, Leola Johnson, Silverstreet, SC, Pennie Kennedy, Ben Eason (Exie B), all of Cobbtown, GA, Carrie Edwards (Arthur), Irene Edenfield (Ernest), Metter, GA, Wilbert Eason (Catherine), Van Eason (Betty), all of Woonsocket, RI; brothers and sisters-in-law, Leon Williams, Passaic, NJ, Curly Byrd, Cobbtown, GA. Gary Collins (Debbie), Dublin, GA, Coy Collins, Jr., Woonsocket, RI, Jimmy Collins (Louella), Kathleen, GA and James Allen, Silverstreet, SC. Uncle Bill will be missed by several nieces and nephews
