Miss Me.....But let me go
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low, remember the love that we once shared
Miss me..... But let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to friends we know
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
Miss Me.... But let me go.

Obituary

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven"
Ecclesiastes 3:1

A Time To Be Born:

Deacon Elliott "Lamb" Ellerbe Jr. entered God's beautiful world on December 25, 1925 in Cash, S.C. to the parents of the late Elliott Ellerbe, Sr. and Willie Ann Johnson.

A Time To Grow:

He graduated from the Colther Academy, Cherow, S.C. After graduation, he joined the U.S. Army and served as Sgt. First Class. Upon discharge from the Army he journeyed to Brooklyn N.Y. where he joined the New Mt. Zion Baptist Church and was ordained as a deacon. He served faithfully in the deacon ministry for several years.

A Time To Love:

Deacon Ellerbe was joined in holy matrimony to Llowyan McKinnon. To this union, two beautiful and blessed children were born. He was a compassionate husband and a loving father.

A Time To Live

Deacon Ellerbe was an energetic, spirited, gentle natured, God-given jewel. His dedication to God, man, and his country was evident throughout his life. Elliott had a beautiful, wholesome life with his family and his friends. His spirit of dedication was demonstrated in his service for 32 years as a fireman for the N.Y. Housing Authority. Upon his second retirement, he relocated to Claxton, Ga where he joined the Hagan Chapel Baptist Church. He served faithfully as the Asst. Chairman of the deacons' ministry until his health failed.

A Time To Mourn:

The meek, mild-mannered, caring spirit of Deacon Elliott "Lamb" Ellerbe is one that will be cherished always by all who loved and knew him. He loved his God, He adored his family, and he respected and loved his community.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Llowyan M. Ellerbe; children, Juliann McKinnon of Brooklyn, N.Y. Mervin, Jason and Chrystal Ellerbe all of Claxton Ga.; one brother-in law, Perry (Deloris) McKinnon of Long Island, N.Y.; a favorite aunt, Gladys Yates of Chicago, Ill.; ten grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many special friends.

A Message To The Family

"Trust in the Lord, with all thine heart and lean not to thy own understanding, in all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy path. Proverbs 3:5, 6
