Tribute

Yours was a useful life,
You wrought well while here
You were generous with your life,
Many lives you did touch,

Always doing your part gladly to serve,
When called upon with a meek and humble heart
Your heart was dedicated to things noble and true,
It was no task for you to do the work that you wanted to do

You'll never be forgotten,
Though you passed away,
The deeds you've left behind,
Will live on each day

We didn't want to give you up,
Sleep on, take your rest
This act of God we dare not question
For He alone, knows best.

Acknowledgement

Our family wishes to acknowledge all expressions of love and sympathy. Your kind thoughts and deeds have aided us tremendously in bearing our hour of sadness.

OBITUARY

Otis was born in Statesboro, Georgia on September 15, 1926. He began his early education there and enlisted into the United States Navy at age eighteen, where he served his country with honor for four years.

After serving his country, he came home to Statesboro where he then met his future wife, who became his lifelong partner, Mrs. Eloise Davis. From their union, two sons, Otis, Jr. and Larry were born. From his sons, Otis was blessed with four grandchildren: Earl, Kelli, Curtis and Christina and two great grandchildren: Sean and Aaron. He also leaves to mourn a daughter, Gwendolyn Mitchell, who blessed him with another granddaughter, Janara, who blessed him with three additional great grandchildren: Tyree, Idesha, and Jamir. Also, there is mention of his special daughter, Pearl Davis, a loving friend and family confidant.

Otis and Eloise moved to Philadelphia and made roots in Southwest Philadelphia and remained there for over fifty-three years. He worked diligently at PMC for over 40 years and then retired to settle into the community that he had so grown to love.
