"The Lettermen" trio consists of Tony Butala, Gary Pike, and Jim Pike. Since their beginning in 1961, they have appeared at more than 1200 colleges throughout the country and are currently on their twentieth cross-country tour.

Their first single recording, for Capitol, "The Way You Look Tonight," sold more than a million copies. Other recordings for which they are famous are "When I Fall in Love," and the medley of "Going Out of My Head" and "I Can't Take My Eyes Off You."

A talent show will be held Tuesday, May 14, in McCroan Auditorium, sponsored by Wesley Foundation. The proceeds from the show will be donated to the Lamar Harris Scholarship Fund.

The GSC Band will present a concert Wednesday, May 15, in Sweetheart Circle. After the concert a bar-b-que will be held in the circle free to students with meal tickets. Following the bar-b-que a street dance in front of the Administration Building is planned by Student Congress.

A scavenger hunt will begin in Sweetheart Circle Thursday, May 16, at 7 p.m., sponsored by the sophomore class.

Friday, May 17 is track and field events day with the events beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Tentative arrangements include a concert for Friday evening's entertainment, according to Wayne Sanders, president of sophomore class.

A slave auction begins at 11 a.m. in front of the Administration Building Saturday, May 18. Men will be sold into bondage to the highest women bidders.

A tug-of-war between all organizations will be held at the lake Saturday afternoon. A $5 entry fee is required for this activity.

Tentative plans include a Panhellenic sponsored activity for Saturday evening.

The religious services for Sunday morning will be sponsored by the Religious Activities Committee.

Who's Who Honor Gets Revisions

The requirements for students receiving the honor of being named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities at Georgia Southern College have been revised by the Who's Who Committee, under advisement from Student Congress.

A student must meet three minimum requirements before his selection can be approved by the Who's Who Committee. The following requirements were compiled by the committee: (1) a student must meet the academic requirements of 3.0 grade point average with a minimum of 50 activity points; a 2.5 grade point average with a minimum of 70 activity points; or a 3.5 or above grade point average with a minimum of 30 activity points; (2) a student must have obtained the minimum activity points required; (3) a student must be approved by a plurality of the present members on the Who's Who Committee.

The committee is composed of a total of 15 members. Dr. T. S. Pennington, professor of biology, serves as chairman. Other members are: Dr. Ralph K. Tyson, dean of students; Mrs. Virginia H. Boger, dean of women; Harold O. Maquire, dean of men; Shelton Evans, director of student activities; Kent Dykes, president of Student Congress; and one member from each academic division as appointed by the respective division chairman.

A transfer student will be considered on the same basis for his record for three quarters here and his record from the school which he previously attended.

The date for the selection of Who's Who candidates has not been released.

Easter Seal Drive To Get Underway

Donations will be collected and "Miss Easter Seal of GSC" will be named as the Easter Seal Campaign gets underway April 8-11, sponsored by Panhellenic and Interfraternity councils.

This national project, which also operates on state and local levels, is a fund raising campaign for the rehabilitation of crippled children and adults.

On Thursday, April 11 the sorority girls will be dressed in bunny suits while collecting donations from local businesses and the fraternities will canvas residential areas. The Bulloch County Bank will remain open that night for deposits of large donations.

Each sorority and fraternity will sponsor a contestant in the "Miss Easter Seal Contest." The winner will be chosen according to the largest amount of money collected. She will be presented a trophy by Vince Doolley, State chairman of the 1968 Easter Seal Campaign, and a free trip to Atlanta where she will have a date with Edgar Chandler, University of Georgia football player.

Mrs. B. W. Knight purchased an eight-foot Easter bunny for the Easter Seal campaign. Tickets will be given away and a drawing for the bunny will be held in the College Gate cafeteria.

The purpose of the Easter Seal campaign is to assist disabled persons and their families in finding and making effective use of resources which will be helpful to them.

Last year Georgians contributed $314,918.78 to the campaign. With the support of all students and Statesboro residents the campaign will be a great success," stated Pat Canady, President of Panhellenic.

Cielinski Campaigns For The SUSGA Vice - Chairmanship

Mibe Cielinski, junior political science major from Columbus, is running for vice-chairman of Southern University Student Government Association. He is opposed by the incumbent Charles O. Reynolds, University of Georgia representative.

Cielinski will be accompanied by Dean Boger, Sally Harvard, chairman of Judicial Council; and Joan Jordan, president of WSGA on his trip to the Southeastern division convention in Biloxi, Mississippi, March 28-30.

"I consider it a great honor to be able to represent the student body at the SUSGA convention," commented Cielinski.

If elected, Cielinski will be in charge of all junior colleges, appoint state chairmen, and be next in line to take over the chairmanship of SUSGA. Each member school will cast one vote Saturday, March 30.

"There is some difference in methods between myself and my opponent, although I'm happy with SUSGA as a whole. I have received encouragement from many areas - no election is an election without opposition," Cielinski stated.

Carroll's Career Reveals Years of Service, Pleasure

By BECKY BOBO
Feature Editor

After having served as academic dean at Georgia Southern College for 20 years (1948-1968), Paul F. Carroll will retire in June 1968. Interested in students and the progress of the college, Dean Carroll has welcomed students into his office through out his career here. Yet, after 20 years, there are quite a number of interesting and amazing facts about GSC's academic dean that students have failed to discover.

EDUCATION
Dean Carroll attended Woford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina. During his college life he not only participated in sports — especially gymnastics—, but he also was a member of Pi Kappa Phi, Phi Delta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Although enthusiastic about English and literature, the versatile college student decided to major in administration and educational programs. Later he attained his M.A. degree from Peabody. Thus he was ready to begin his active career.

As a past president of Norman Junior College and past president of the Rotary, Dean Carroll works not just with administrative duties but also in civics. He always finds time for extra activities as can be seen in the fact that he has served on the educational commission of Georgia Baptist Convention for two terms and was president of the Athletic Association of Georgia Junior Colleges.

LEISURE

Surprisingly enough, Dean Carroll discovers time to be an avid reader! Originally an English major, he enjoys English and American literature, but lately he has been interested primarily in mysteries as an escape from the rigorous activities of being academic dean.

Dean Carroll relaxed in his office for a few minutes Tuesday. He tilted his head backward and gazed up as if recalling many experiences on campus. "All my years at Georgia Southern have been busy but pleasant," he remarked. "There have been years of continual development and expanding programs in higher education."

EXPANSION

When Dean Carroll first came here, there was only one degree offered — a BS in education. Since then, the college has developed a broad curriculum with a variety of degree programs and even a number of graduate courses and degrees. The dean expressed how "fortunate" he felt to have been academic dean here "at a time when the college was 'ripe' and very ready for the development and progress that has taken place."

Although Dean Carroll will retire in June, he will still maintain an interest in GSC. He stated that the college is "fortunate in the selection of new personnel." And furthermore, GSC will hold a special interest for the Carroll family as his granddaughter will enter as a freshman here in the fall.

FAMILY

Dean Carroll takes great pride in discussing his family. His son Bart is a professional dancer, performing presently in Las Vegas. Bart appeared recently on the Ed Sullivan show. Dean Carroll has one daughter who resides here in Statesboro.

RETIREMENT

Paul F. Carroll has served GSC and remains as a link between the old and new programs on this campus. When he leaves in June, he will only be directing his services in a different channel. He plans to reside in Statesboro, relax, and enjoy having time to do all the things that he seldom found time to do while working behind the dean's desk.

Robert Lowell's translation will be presented. The production will be directed by Joseph Gistarak. Gistarak presents the play in the modern manner of movement and interpretation that creates attention.

"Phaedra" is played by Shirley Cox, a tragedienne of great authority. John MacAllan is an impassioned Hippolytus and Robert Blackburn conveys a volcanic anger as Thesus.

"Phaedra" is lavishly costumed with original creations executed by Jack Edwards.

Nationals To Install KAs March 29-30

The Kappa Alpha Order, national social fraternity, will hold installation ceremonies March 29-30. Kappa Alpha, the first national chapter on campus, will be composed of the brothers of Sigma Epsilon Chi, a local fraternity which was formed in February of 1964 and has been active on campus since its installation.

The out-of-town guests representing Kappa Alpha include Giles J. Patterson, Jr., and wife, national president, Jacksonville, Florida; Dr. and Mrs. W. McLeod Frampton, former national president and presently national chaplain, Orangeburg, South Carolina; and D. Elliott Dunwoody, Jr., and wife, former national president, Macon, Georgia. These national officers will participate in the installation of the Delta Theta chapter of Kappa Alpha.

The principal speaker for the Friday night banquet will be Dr. W. McLeod Frampton, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Orangeburg, South Carolina. Dr. Frampton, a native of Charleston, South Carolina, received his B.A. degree from Presbyterian College. He then attended Columbia Theological Seminary where he received his B.D. degree. Presbyterian College, in 1948, conferred upon him the Honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree. After completing his term as national president of Kappa Alpha, he was appointed national chaplain of the order in 1961, and has since written his regular column, "Chaplain's

REGISTRATION

Spring quarter's registration was quicker and easier due to changes in the length of time allowed for registration. There was no long line outside the gym which was formerly one of the many pains of registration.

Students received their cards upon entering the gym and merely had to complete the necessary forms. For those students who had to drop-add courses, all the necessary arrangements could be completed inside the gym. The complicated process of standing in line at the registrar's office and obtaining signatures from instructors and division chairmen was eliminated and made convenient and simple by the new method.

The system of paying fees was equally improved. Fees could be paid at one table and the stage was vacant except for special cases.

The only students whose registration was hindered were those who neglected to pay their traffic fines prior to registration. Those students whose records were not in accord with the business office were not allowed to register until they paid their fines and cleared the business office. Even though they paid their fines on the day of registration several hours before they were to register, their course cards were not available until 4:30 p.m.

Traffic fines are important and should be paid, but is it worthwhile to withhold the students course cards when other measures may be more feasible?

Why not withhold the student's grades at the end of the quarter of which the fines are due? This would provide ample time for him to return and pay his fines prior to the assigned hour of registration.

If a student still neglects to pay his fine after his grades are withheld, then the stricter method of withholding course cards could be employed.

Overall, the registration procedure was a definite improvement and those responsible for the changes should be congratulated.

EXODUS

A number of Georgia Southern students managed to confirm a common faculty and administration opinion of the student body during the March 22 weekend. GSC students, frequently accused of general apathy and immaturity, added weight to the charges with Friday's mass migration from the campus.

After spending two days on campus many student felt compelled to return to their respective homes. The tireless campus excuse of "nothin' to do" could not be used. A variety of activities was available to students. A street dance, sponsored by Student Congress, was poorly attended although the weather cleared. The "Exit" provided folk music, dramatic readings and a chance for conversation. "A Happening", held at the College Gate Cafeteria, offered a picnic meal by candlelight and musical entertainment. Georgia Southern's baseball team played three games. There was something to do this past weekend.

Spring quarter offers many campus planned activities to interest students. Quality free movies are shown on Friday night. These films are expensive to order and the cost comes from the student activity fund. The athletic department has planned a full schedule for the baseball team. Student support is missing when only 250-300 fans attend games at a college of four thousand.

Masquers members are rehearsing for a spring presentation. Art exhibitions and musical performances are scheduled.

Students complain of the quality and quantity of college entertainment, yet fail to support activities that are offered to them. When attitudes change at Georgia Southern, situations will also.

'Spring Swing,' 'Greek Week' — Too Much Of A Good Thing?

By ROBERT SESSIONS
Editor

Spring quarter is upon us. Traditionally, this is a quarter for excursions to the beach, trips to Roy's and an occasional bout with the books. One scheduled event which characterizes spring quarter is "Spring Swing." But now, in addition to "Spring Swing Week" a "Greek Week" is in the planning stages. This week of activities would be sponsored by the Interfraternity Council.

Everyone is familiar with the activities of Spring Swing. It is a week of concerts, dances and other entertainment all geared toward relieving tension on an overworked student body. The proposed "Greek Week" would essentially be the same with one exception, that of choosing an IFC Sweetheart.

It appears that the success of the established tradition of "Spring Swing" would be threatened by the proposed "Greek Week." Two weeks of entertainment, no matter how attractive the idea, is too much of a good thing. College is, contrary to public opinion, first a learning institution which develops one academically and only secondly an institution for developing one socially.

Also, it is inconceivable that an organization which has in the past had a great deal of trouble in getting organized would undertake such a paramount task. The Interfraternity Council is presently on social probation, a condition which has prevented any detailed planning which such a complicated week of entertainment would require.

Spring Swing Week is one of the few surviving college traditions; one of the few which has kept its head above the flood of student apathy. It is one tradition which should not be destroyed, however the two week amusement park atmosphere which Spring Swing and Greek Week would bring to the campus would challenge the purpose of the college.

One solution to the problem would be a "Greek Weekend" when interference with regular school activity would be minimal. The best solution however would be for the Greeks to wait until fall quarter when hopefully they would be better organized and prepared to coordinate an effective Greek Week.

Emphasis Idea A Challenge To Student Apathy

By SANDRA DYCHES
Managing Editor

Imagine a stage with Bobby Kennedy, George Wallace and Paul Harvey on the same program. Sound impossible? These speakers are made available to students at the Universities of Alabama, Vanderbilt, and Auburn. This past week the University of Alabama students participated in their annual "Emphasis Week '68" with a notable speaker, Robert F. Kennedy.

The "Emphasis" idea consists of an entire week during one school year devoted to well known contemporary speakers. This program allots time during the day to small group interviews with the speakers. Lectures by different speakers are scheduled each evening of the week. The final night of the week is devoted to a forum composed of several speakers, and a question and answer period for the students.

One might wonder what this has to do with Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, Georgia. GSC Students are accused of apathy and utter lack of intelligence and sophistication each quarter when they fail to attend forums and lectures. Georgia Southern has its share of lectures and programs by quality speakers, but these lecturers are not drawing cards. Experts in a variety of fields have spoken to small, unresponsive audiences. These authorities were excellent but failed to attract students.

The present situation at Georgia Southern provides a forum series sponsored by student Congress in cooperation with the director of student activities; a lecture series assembled by a lecture series committee; and Campus Life Enrichment Series coordinated by the Campus Life Enrichment Committee. The lecture series is a recently organized program planned within a set budget.

In the future the appropriations for the lecture series will come from the student activity fund as the CLES budget does now. Students will be paying for lectures they will not attend. These funds could be used to finance an emphasis week with top name speakers at Georgia Southern.

The individual departments would not be deprived of speakers in their respective fields by an emphasis week if they planned programs similar to the Marvin Pittman Lecture Series of the social science division. The funds for this series is allotted to the division by a local bank. Grants to other divisions would provide appropriations to finance lectures each quarter within different fields. Division chairmen should investigate the possibilities of such grants.

The CLES provides social and cultural entertainment effectively within its present program. The forum series is efficient for local or state lecture presentations. The lecture series committee, composed of faculty and student members, has received little faculty support or student attendance. The funds currently used to finance this series would provide a moderate scale to start an emphasis week. It's time Georgia Southern thought big, and left the ladies league speakers field to the garden clubs.

Wallace Predicts Win

The GEORGE-ANNE March 29, 1968 Page 5

By SARA FOUNTAIN
News Editor
And LINDA LANE
Assistant News Editor

Former Alabama Governor George Wallace stopped at the Savannah airport Tuesday for a press conference as part of a tour of several southern states. The Presidential candidate on the Third Party ticket responded to a wide range of questions.

Will Marvin Griffin remain as your permanent running mate?

"Mr. Griffin was kind enough to stand in on the ballots in states that required a running mate — New Mexico, California, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Kentucky, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Nebraska . . . I will probably select someone from outside the South for that job, although Griffin has said that he would not mind the position. I am not at liberty to disclose who my actual running mate will be."

Would you consider a woman for a running mate?

"As far as women are concerned, we don't discriminate in our state. You know the Governor of Alabama is a woman, and every woman seeking a post in the last election defeated the man she was running against."

Would you accept the Democratic nomination?

"I am completely divorced from the Democratic party and I expect no support at the convention. I don't have a chance of getting the nomination. I could care less, for if I were nominated I would not run on any platform they would adopt."

Do you feel that Lester Maddox's support or non-support would help or hinder you?

"Well, I would like to have his support, but I don't think it would hurt me if he didn't support me. Even if my wife came out in support for another candidate, I don't think it would hurt."

What do you think about Kennedy's decision to seek the Democratic Presidential nomination?

"It points out the differences of opinions existing in the country and the in-fighting that is going on in the Democratic party. Mr. Kennedy has a right to run for President. Everything we tried in the last ten years, Kennedy has advocated. Mr. Kennedy, along with Mr. Warren, Mr. Javits, and others, have advocated everything that has helped bring about the devaluation of the dollar, breakdown of law and order, and inflation."

As the press conference ended, Wallace inferred the split in the Democratic party would help him "win the Presidency." When asked if he would consider running again for Governor of Alabama, Wallace said "Why should I run for Governor? I'm gonna win the Presidency."

FORMER ALABAMA GOV. WALLACE

Delivers an informal press conference in Savannah, Ga.

Inquiring Reporter

How do you think this quarter's registration compared to last quarter's registration?

Rick McCormack, Augusta, Ga.- "It was much easier this quarter for me, because last quarter I had so many traffic tickets that I couldn't even register."

Helen Bauer, St. Marys, Ga.- "It was a lot better, especially the drop-add procedure."

Trip Wingfield, Macon, Ga.- "I thought it took a lot less time, but paying fees could be simplified."

Elizabeth Bowers, Macon, Ga.- "I think it was a lot easier, because they had the cards arranged alphabetically."

Mike Joesbury, Thomson, Ga.- "I don't know, since I didn't do it right."

Mike Daniel, LaGrange, Ga.- "Last quarter it took me an hour and a half to register and pay my fees and this quarter it took me thirty minutes to pay fees and all - so I feel that registration has improved one hundred percent."

Jill Grier, Swainsboro, Ga.- "I think it was faster and everyone seemed to know what they were doing."

Susan Bush, Dublin, Ga.- "I thought it was real efficient and smooth-running and only took a matter of minutes for each detail."

Francis Barclay, Monroe, Ga.- "Everything went much smoother on registration day, but drop-add seems a little more difficult and confusing."

Judson Hendry, Savannah, Ga.- "Things went overall smoother."

Roger Hux, Warner Robins, Ga.- "I think it was better organized. There was less confusion, and the lines were shorter."

Bill Haley, Athens, Ga.- "I think it was the best one they have had yet."

Sandra Dunlap, Ashburn, Ga.- "I think it was much better, because it was much shorter, and was much smoother."

I hear the Lettermen are coming to Statesboro. Any predictions as to how they will be accepted or how popular they will be at Southern?

Skiparope

Dear Skippie,

If you attended the last concert you were sure to observe the "redneck" qualities of the audience. But if student interest lives up to its reputation, no one will be there anyway!

Garf

Dear Mr. Funkel,

Who are you going to support for the Presidency? What is your outlook on the present situation?

Bobby A Go Go

Dear Bobby,

LBJ is in the saddle where he usually is instead of at the White House. Nixon is so so but not a Go Go and I wouldn't give Wallace a girdle for support. I would support only one candidate for the presidency - me.

Mr. President

Dear Garf,

Have you eaten in the new dining hall this year? If so, what was your impression?

Curious

Dear Curious,

Outside of a sore hip, a case of severe dizziness resulting from attempting to catch a salad, and the same old food, I'm in great shape. Oh I can't help but compliment the delicious tea that is served - it would be better with sugar I think.

Dear Garf,

Where have you been lately? I really missed you.

Dear Sing,

I used to spend my time out near the county line, but now I go to the Metter Courthouse a lot.

JAMES MOSELEY

Authority on UFO's delivers lecture to students.

J. Moseley, UFO Expert, Believes in Saucer Craze

James W. Moseley, American authority on unidentified flying objects, lectured in McCroan Auditorium March 26. In a brief summary, Moseley stated that there have been unconfirmed reports of UFO's throughout history. The modern flying saucer craze began during World War II, Moseley revealed, when small speeding objects were sighted flying near the wings of airplanes. The objects were believed to be the secret weapon of the opposition by either side until the conclusion of the war. Consultation among countries revealed the objects to be unidentified.

Moseley said the origin of the term flying saucer began in 1947 when businessman Kenneth Arnold was flying his plane near Washington's Mt. Rainier. Arnold sighted large, incredibly fast objects which he reported to be "saucer" shaped. The name became the popular term for UFOs.

Other witnesses have reported cigar or egg shaped objects moving at tremendous speeds, according to Moseley. The objects occur in frequent waves called flaps. The saucers have been reported to have electromagnetic fields which interfere with power lines and car operations. Saucers are described as being 12 to 15 feet in diameter.

Moseley showed a two minute film of a 1965 United States' sighting. The reel was taken by an amateur photographer when a saucer followed his car.

The speaker discussed the most recent observations of UFOs including the much publicized case of the Michigan Marsh Gases in 1966. Moseley said the U. S. Air Force experts uncovered facts that they were not publishing about this case.

Reports of fantastic flying objects and, in some cases intelligent un-earthly creatures, are constantly being made by witnesses whose training and veracity cannot be questioned Moseley related.

In a question and answer period following the lecture, Moseley stated that he was convinced of the existence of intelligently controlled objects operated by humoid creatures. He said that these creatures could possibly be from unexplored jungles on earth or from nearby Mars. The lecturer laughed at "little green men" theories. The creatures are humoid in appearance, from three to five feet in height and have flesh-toned skin Moseley stated.

Moseley founded the Saucer and Unexplained Celestial Events Research Society (S.A.U.C.E. R. S.) in 1954 to examine the entire flying saucer mystery. The society publishes a magazine, "Saucer News," recognized as the most authoritative source of information about UFOs.

The speaker has appeared on countless radio and television programs. He is a frequent contributor to "Argosy" and "Fate" magazines.

Geology Club To Show Film

The geology club will hold its first meeting for spring quarter April 3, in Herty 105 at 7:30 p.m.

A film entitled "The Eruption of Kilauea" will be shown. Kilauea is an active volcano on the island of Hawaii.

The film contains shots of fountaining lava that reached heights of 2,000 feet, the highest ever recorded, as well as closeup shots of other volcanic phenomena.

The meeting is open to the public.

Undecided Majors To Meet April 1

A meeting of all undecided majors will be held Monday, April 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the A.V. Room of the Rosenwald Library for those who desire assistance in deciding upon their academic goals.

"GLASS MENAGERIE" CAST

Hazel Hall Announces Cast For Spring Quarter Production

Masquers spring production, Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie," is scheduled to play Wednesday - Friday, April 24-26, at 8:15 p.m. in McCroan Auditorium.

In the play featuring the life of a St. Louis family, Ginger Pyron plays the part of a crippled, shy daughter who lives in a world of little glass animals. Roselyn Perkins plays the role of mother, who lives in the past when she was a popular southern belle. Thinking the daughter should be married, mother encourages the son - portrayed by Carlton Humphrey - to invite a friend to visit. The encounter with the gentleman caller, the part of Alan Milton, results in fiasco.

"The realistic, poetic play staged in 1930's demands special sound and light effects from a willing cast," according to Miss Hazel Hall, director.

Students who wish to work on the spring production in the capacity of set designers, set construction, and costumes should make application to Miss Hall.

Old South Ball Plans Revealed

By SHELLEY DOUGLAS
Staff Writer

With the arrival of spring and warm days, students are looking forward to the activities which have become tradition to the college. One of the most unique and oldest of these is the Old South Ball. Started in 1943 by an Old South history class taught by Dr. Jack Averitt, it was a weekend affair. Costumes were rented from Atlanta and beads were started, as they are today, weeks in advance. Girls looked for antebellum style dresses in attics and forgotten trunks, and accessories such as fans made of feathers, lace shawls, and heirloom jewelry were obtained from grandmothers. A tea was given at an antebellum home in Statesboro, and then the group moved to Birdville Plantation for the gala ball.

On April 20 at 8 p.m., the National Guard will become an antebellum home as Confederate soldiers, bearded Southern gentlemen and beautifully adorned ladies carry on the tradition to its twenty-fifth year. Replacing the string quartet will be a group from Alabama, The Singing Swinging Counts. Student Congress will sponsor the dance free, and a trophy will be presented to the gentleman with the best beard.

Delta Sigma Pi Elects Officers

Delta Sigma Pi has elected new officers for spring and summer quarters. They are as follows: Pres., Robley Rigdon; Sr. V.P., Jerry Whitton; Vice President Carroll Anderson; Secretary John Baxter; Treas. Ron Lundstrom; Chancellor Bob Lovein; Historian Chuck Hopper. Mr. William Bolen is the faculty advisor.

New brothers included Horace Adams, Larry Blocker, Rod Harrell, and Benjie Hodges.

The brothers have a professional trip scheduled for Friday March 29 which will include a tour of Rich's and Carling Brewery of Atlanta.

Students enjoy food and entertainment at the newly opened "Happening" in the College Gate Cafeteria.

New 'Happening' Opens To Students

Psychedelic tablecloths, Joe Lawrence and the Five Steps of Rhythm, a standard meal, and candlelight — that's what's happening at "A Happening" in the back room at the College Gate Cafeteria.

The orderly back room of the cafeteria, with the addition of bright colors, soft lights, and music, became transformed to a psychedelic unusual atmosphere. The newly decorated room was the scene for the initial "happening" Friday, March 22, from 4:30-8:30 p.m. during the regular serving hours for the dinner meal.

Polka dot, daisy, and striped tablecloths decked tables lighted with candles, and waiters served picnic suppers of fried chicken, sandwiches, potato salad, cake and tea. The band played while students either danced or just sat back and enjoyed the action. Streamers and colored lights added to the psychedelic effects.

"A Happening" will be held at regular intervals, according to Mrs. B. W. Knight who is planning the activity. She stressed that further developments depend on students response to the happenings. Either a band or the newly installed juke box will furnish music for the events. Standard meals will be served for the regular admission price of $1.25.

Students pursuing A.B. degrees will have the opportunity to take either of the two new courses, Russian or Italian, in fulfillment of language requirements.

Spring walked in the door of the George-Anne office. A cheerful orange dress; long, light-brown hair; sparkling blueish green eyes, the girl flashed a smile: "I'm Donna Brown. You wanted to take some pictures."

The slender sophomore is still a teenager, but not for long. Wednesday is her 20th birthday.

Donna is majoring in home economics and now has her home in Gainesville, but "I have spent all of my life in Decatur." Another one of those broad smiles. "I love water skiing," she said and continued to praise Southern in the same breath.

Spring quarter has begun. To Donna it means becoming 20, but a lot of other things too . . . sun, hot weather, swimming, a time of happiness, of cheerfulness.

Quarterly Average Easy To Determine

"A person's Grade Point Average (GPA) really doesn't tell him what he needs to know about his academic position," according to Jack Lewis of the Registrar's Office.

The GPA merely reveals a student's present academic average; it does not tell him what grades he must make to achieve the 2.0 necessary for graduation. In fact, many students are unaware of the method used to compute their GPA, added Lewis.

The grading system used is based on one (1) hour courses; the value of each grade is A plus 4.5, A 4.0, B plus 3.5, B 3.0, C plus 2.5, C 2.0, D plus 1.5, D 1.0, F, 0. To compute his GPA, a student must multiply the value of the grades earned by the hour values of the course which he carried, this number should then be divided by all hours attempted and earned. The result is his Grade Point Average. For example: A C plus in a 5 hour course, a B plus in a 3 hour course and a B in a 5 hour course would equal 2.5 times 5, plus 3.5 times 3, plus 3 times 5 or 38.0 divided by 13 hours. the GPA is 2.9.

Students with GPAs of less than 2.0 can use this system to determine what grades must be made to achieve the 2.0 necessary for graduation. A student with a "D" average at the end of his first quarter has a deficit of 15 grade points; to attain a "C" average for his overall work at the end of the next quarter, he must earn 30 grade points. Unless these points are earned within the quarter, additional points must be earned in the following quarters.

A Grade Point deficit is much easier to offset during one's freshman and sophomore years, according to Lewis. Each successive quarter of low grades increases the difficulty of raising the GPA if it is low.

Free Movie Set

For April 5, 8 p.m.

"Goodbye Charlie," starring Debbie Reynolds, Tony Curtis, Pat Boone, and Walter Matthau, is the free movie to be shown Friday, April 5 at 8 p.m. in McCroan Auditorium. It is a sophisticated comedy which presents a different point of view of reincarnation.

Playboy screenwriter Charlie Sorrel, after being shot by a jealous husband, falls to a watery grave and is reincarnated as a beautiful girl (Debbie Reynolds). He appears at his Malibu beach house, much to the surprise of his friend Tony Curtis who is trying to straighten Charlie's debt-ridden estate.

The mental changes Charlie has to make from a carefree bachelor before his death to a beautiful girl in his reincarnation, often makes "Goodbye Charlie" very broad, both in situation and innuendo.

Gymnasts Place Seventh in NAIA

1967-68 GYMNASTICS TEAM

Jimmy Kirkland Second In Vault

By KEN PURCELL

Jimmy Kirkland placed second in the long horse vaulting competition to lead Georgia Southern's gymnastics team to a seventh place finish in the NAIA National Championship, March 22-23 at Ft. Hayes, Kansas.

Kirkland, a senior, placed second in a field of more than 50 vaulters. Kirkland led the field at the end of preliminary vaults but slipped to second place in the finals.

Tony Blasko, Bill Godwin and Gary Barnett, the remaining three Southern gymnasts to make the trip to Kansas, all reached the finals in at least one event.

Blasko reached the finals in three events. The talented freshman placed tenth in the high bar competition, tenth in vault-in and eleventh in free exercise. Blasko ranked seventh in the all-round competition which includes all events except the trampoline.

Bill Godwin, also a freshman placed sixth in free exercise and Gary Barnett, a sophomore, finished tenth in that event.

The Eagle foursome racked up 21 points in the meet for seventh place honors, four places higher than last season's team that tallied only three points. Northwest Louisiana, sporting a balanced slate of talent, won the national meet this year with 102 points. Northeast Louisiana came in second, paced by a Japanese import who captured an amazing five first places. The outstanding performer placed first ahead of Southern's Jimmy Kirkland in the long horse vault.

The team was accompanied by head gymnastics coach Ron Oertley and assistant coach Hutch Dvorak. Both were pleased with the team's performance. According to Dvorak, "All the boys did a real fine job. I heard many compliments on our team from coaches and judges at the meet."

Oertley and Dvorak recently flew to Chicago for the Illinois state high school gymnastics Championship to recruit for next year's team. Dvorak was optimistic about getting some fine gymnasts from that meet.

With or without a new crop of talented freshmen, it appears that Southern will have another outstanding season in store for next year. Only three seniors were on this year's squad which posted a successful 7-2 record in dual competition.

IRISH

By TIM O'LEARY
Assistant Sports Editor

O'LEARY

"C'mon boys, let's get our support up, number 10 is back in the coaches box." Coach Bill Spieth walked confidently and determinedly among his ballplayers as they looked dejectedly at one another. They had just been beaten by Springfield College from the Gateway to the North and by the Wake Forest Demons who threw a little leaguer at them. Times were getting a bit rough for the mediocre Eagles.

"You boys are just a bunch of rinky-dinks. You looked terrible out there." Coach J. I. Clements stood before his players as they gathered sullenly around him. His words hit hard and this was the intention. The opposition had made the Eagles look as though they were only good enough to play in the pre-lim fostered by Pony Leaguers in a game against the city comedians. In other words, last Saturday, did anyone put a tent on that circus at Eagle Field?

Then things started to happen. The Davidson Red Sox, loaded with their usual amount of talent supported by their equally ambitious coach, rolled in to town in their double decker Trailways. The big bats exploded, Captain Jimmy Dobson continued to be selfish by not giving up a run, again, and after the smoke had cleared, the Davidson Dandies had another loss. Really wonder if they came to play ball or just to take in-field practice!

After another impressive victory over Davidson the following day, there were still a few skeptical fans concerning whether we were able to win against the better teams.

Nationally-ranked Guilford, unbeaten, came to Statesboro Wednesday. They were 9-0 record-wise, impressive but still unbeaten in this area. We hit well and our pitching was clutch, if I do say so myself. The Eagles won 4-1 and we could now prove that we were capable of beating the best, or those that use to be.

Coaches J. I. Clements and Bill Spieth are both responsible for this. They are there to win and to keep the Eagles going. We are going to continue to win from now on because we are tired of looking 'bush.'

Oh, by the way, wonder if it would be possible if we pitchers could take a little bit more batting practice before game-time. And could you please get us some more baseballs, especially before I pitch. Might lose at least one everytime I start a game. Do you believe anyone could really Go-pher that?

Gym Trip Unique

The Southern gymnastics team's recent journey to the NAIA nationals was more than just an ordinary trip—it was a unique experience.

Coach Ron Oertley and Assistant Coach Hutch Dvorak accompanied gymnasts Gary Barnett, Bill Godwin, Tony Blasko and Jimmy Kirkland on the trip that took in both the northern and western parts of the United States. Before going to Ft. Hayes, Kansas, where the national meet was held, the team went to Illinois to work out with the Southern Illinois University gymnastics team.

The GSC team was impressed with the abilities of the SIU gym team. Barnett described them like this: "They are the best in the nation. They even have three men trying out for the Olympic team."

The national meet was something new to Godwin and Blasko, both freshmen, but to Kirkland and Barnett it was not.

Kirkland and Barnett went to the nationals last season. In 1967 Barnett finished ninth in vaulting. This year he was tenth in free exercise. Kirkland moved up from eleventh to second in vaulting.

Jimmy Kirkland demonstrates form in long horse vault. Kirkland placed second in that event at the NAIA Nationals last weekend.

Eagles Dump Guilford 4-1

Set Season Mark at 7-6

By KEN PURCELL

Wednesday's 4-1 Eagle victory over Guilford improved Southern's baseball record to 7-6 marking the first time since the first game of the season that the Eagles had been over .500.

Tim O'Leary scattered 10 hits in posting his second victory without a loss for the Eagles. Guilford's only run came in the seventh inning when the Quakers' catcher smashed a home run. All other Quaker hits were singles.

Jimmy Fields continued to pace the Eagle attack for the season by collecting a triple and a single in four trips to the plate.

EAGLES START RIGHT THEN SLIP

Coach J. I. Clements' diamond men started the season right with an opening game victory over South Carolina, 7-3, but failed to gain another win in their next five starts.

In the second half a doubleheader on March 16 Allan Simmons gave up three earned runs in the first inning and went on to lose a 4-1 decision to East Tennessee.

Simmons settled down after that disastrous initial inning and pitched six scoreless frames before being relieved by Tim O'Leary in the eighth.

On March 18 Jim Goodwin, a transfer from the University of Miami (Florida), had his opening debut on the mound for Southern spoiled by a 3-1 loss to Virginia Tech.

In the second game of the doubleheader on March 18, Tim O'Leary and Herbie Hutson held Kentucky in a 2-2 tie until the game had to be called after 11 innings on account of darkness.

Southern lost a pair of 5-4 encounters on March 19, one to Virginia Tech and one to Kentucky. Richard Billingham was tagged with the first loss. Ronnie McLemore took the blame for the second of the day.

Jimmy Dobson returned to the mound on March 20 to set the eagles straight again by chalking up his and the Eagles' second victory of 1968 with a convincing 12-0 bombardment of Virginia Tech. Dobson gave up only two singles in the seven inning affair, while striking out seven VPI batters.

DOBSON

In the second game of that twin-bill Allen Simmons kept the Eagles rolling with a three hit 5-0 shutout over Kentucky. Since beginning that game Simmons has pitched 16 innings without giving up an earned run.

Clements' charges collected their third straight victory on March 22 with a 9-4 upheaval of Wake Forest. Tim O'Leary took credit for that win, going the distance for Southern.

The following day Wake Forest regained its composure by defeating the Eagles 5-3. Jim Goodwin gave up only one earned run but a mass of miscues gave him his second loss of the year.

A 7-1 beating by Springfield College in the second game March 23 set the Eagle record at 4-6 but a 7-0 win over Davidson on March 25 and an 8-1 victory over the same team on the following day evened Southern's mark at 6-6. Jimmy Dobson made it his third victory in as many starts in winning the first game with Davidson and Allen Simmons raised his record to 2-1 with a six-hit pitching performance in the second game.

FULL SLATE NEXT WEEK

A full slate of baseball action is planned for the coming week with a game every day except Sunday, April 7.

The Eagles end this week's play by traveling to Greenville, South Carolina, to challenge Furman University on Saturday, then they return to Statesboro for a game with Erskine on Monday. The Eagles again play Erskine on Tuesday followed by games with Carson-Newman on Wednesday and Thursday.

On Friday and Saturday the Southern nine will play single games with Pembroke State plus a second game with Furman on Saturday.

Eagle Baseball Action

Eagle Terry Webb is thrown out white attempting to steal second base in game with Davidson. Eagles won 7-0 for their fifth victory of the season.

Netters Down Emory Record Now At 1-2

The Eagle tennis team opened its season with a surprising 6-3 victory over Emory University March 22 but was unable to score against either Virginia Tech on March 23 or Appalachian State on March 25, losing 9-0 on both occasions.

The Eagles netters were in fine form for the Emory match, collecting three points in singles and three in doubles.

Tom King, Sonny Harmon and Ken Purcell all won their singles matches. King, playing in the number three spot for Southern, downed Dave Branyon, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2, for an Eagle victory, while Harmon outlasted Jack Giles, 7-5, 2-6, 6-2, in the number four match. Purcell defeated Chris Rodie, 6-1, 6-2, while playing number six for Southern.

All three Eagle doubles duos chalked up wins in the Emory match. Björn Kjerfve and Eddie Russell led the way by downing Emory's Tim Askew and Bruce Davis, 4-6, 6-2, 6-0, in the number one match.

King and Jerry Poppell took another three-setter from Giles and John Sheffield, 2-6, 8-6, 6-2, and Harmon and Harm Brandt defeated Branyon and Dave Littlefield, 6-2, 6-3, to complete the Eagles' domination in doubles.

Coach Frank Ramsey's netters were outclassed by both Virginia Tech and Appalachian State. The Eagles failed to win a point in either of the two matches.

Björn Kjerfve gets ready to return shot in match with Appalachian State. Kjerfve was playing doubles with partner Eddie Russell.

THE COLLEGE SHIELD

THE DEFINITION OF A LIFE Insurance Policy

A life insurance policy is just a tinne - yellowed piece of paper, with columns of figures and legal phrases, until it is captized with a window's tears. Then it is a modern miracle, Aladdin's Lamp. It is food, clothing, shelter, education, piece of mind. It is the sincerest love letter ever written.

It quiets the crying of h hungry babyy at night. It eases the heart of a bereaved widow. It is a comforting whisper in the dark silent hours of the night. It is new hope, in the dark silent hours of the night. It is new hope, fresh courage and strength for the widow to pick up the broken threads of life and carry on. It is an education for the sons and daughters. A chance for a career, instead of the need for a job. It is a father's parental blessing to his children on their wedding day.

It is the function of a father's hopes and dreams for his family's future. through life insurance he lives on. There is no death. life insurance exalts life and defeats. It is the premium we pay for the privilege of living after death.
