Masquers Production Set For April 24-26
"Cast of the Glass Menagerie" rehearse for opening of the play April 24-26 at 8:15 p.m. in McCroan Auditorium by the Masquers. Members of the cast are Ginger Pyron, Roslyn Perkins, Carlton Humphrey and Alan Milton.

Verplanck To Deliver Final Pittman Lecture

Dr. William Samuel Verplanck will speak in McCroan at 10:30 a.m., April 9.

Verplanck, American Psychological Association Visiting Lecturer, is the last speaker in the Marvin S. Pittman Lecture Series. The lecturer is an authority on concept formation, behavior theory and human operant conditioning.

Verplanck, currently head of the psychology department at the University of Tennessee, has served previously on the faculties of Indiana University, Harvard, Stanford University, Hunter College and University of Maryland.

Verplanck received B.S. and M.A. degrees from the University of Virginia and the Ph.D. from Brown University.

Verplanck is a fellow of the American Psychological Association and was one of the founders of the Psychonomic Society. A certified psychologist, Verplanck has written numerous articles for professional psychological journals. Publications include: "The Operant Conditioning of Human Motor Behavior," "An Hypothesis on Imprinting," "Interpolated Stimuli and the Sequential Effect" and "Unaware of Where's Awareness: Some Verbal Operants."

The Marvin S. Pittman Lecture Series, sponsored by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, previously presented Robert G. Cleveland, specialist in Southeast Asian affairs; John J. Scarisbrick, Tudor history specialist; and Donald Reeve Buttress, architect.

Bloodmobile Set For April 25

Student Congress is sponsoring a bloodmobile April 25 from 2-7 p.m. in Room 114 of the Williams Center.

All persons under 21 who give blood must complete and present a parent's permission card. The card will be obtained from the Student Congress office.

Miss GSC To Be Named In Annual Beauty Contest

The annual Miss GSC Pageant, sponsored by Student Congress, is scheduled for Fri., April 19, at 8 p.m. in the Hanner Gym and will serve as the local, official contest in conjunction with the Miss Georgia Pageant for 1968.

A scholarship will be presented to the winner of the contest, and she will be entered in the Miss Georgia Pageant with expenses for a Columbus Contest paid. The first runner-up will also receive a scholarship.

Campus organizations sponsoring contestants must submit names of candidates to the Student Congress office by Monday, April 8.

In the preliminary judging, Wed., April 10, judges will select 12 finalists from the contestants appearing in one piece, one color bathing suits and heels. The panel of judges will consist of individuals experienced in fashion and beauty contests, according to Sandra Hartness, communications co-ordinator of Student Congress. The criteria for the judging will follow the standards set up by the Miss Georgia and Miss America pageants. The preliminary will be closed to the public.

The Columbus Jaycees are working with Student Congress to provide well-qualified judges for the final contest. The 12 finalists will be judged off-stage in personal interviews, enabling judges to meet the entrants and at close range, judge each according to personality, voice, diction and general deportment. On stage judging will include evening gown, swim suit, and talent competitions. The talent contest consists of a three minute performance from each contestant.

Three official Miss America trophies will be presented to the winning contestant and the first and second runners-up. A fourth trophy will be presented to the winner of the Miss Congeniality title. The 12 finalists will receive individual gifts. Miss GSC will begin her reign the following night, April 20, at the Old South Ball.

Admission to the final contest will be $1 for students and $2 for non-students. Patron tickets can be purchased for $10.00, and holders of these tickets will have reserve seats. The ticket money will be placed in the scholarship fund.

Student Congress has arranged to have official Miss America programs featuring pictures, history, and background information concerning each of the contestants.

Honor Dinner Tickets On Sale

Tickets are now on sale for the Dr. Zach S. Henderson-Dean Paul F. Carroll Appreciation Dinner to be held May 22, 8 p.m. in the Landrum Center.

A limited number of these tickets will be available at $3.00 per student. Tickets may be purchased in the Office of Student Personnel.

Advisory Council Is Authorized By Board of Regents

The Georgia Board of Regents has authorized the establishment of the Student Advisory Council for the University System of Georgia. Membership in this council will be composed of the student bodies of the various colleges in the system.

Kent Dykes, Student Congress president, will represent this college at the first meeting of the council, April 17, in Atlanta. Dykes will obtain suggestions from Congress members and administrators and will present them for discussion at the meeting.

Present plans are that the council will meet twice a year with the Chancellor in Atlanta to discuss various matters of interest to the students and others in the University system.

It is also planned that at one of the two annual meetings, either the entire student council or representatives of the Council will meet with the Board of Regents.

MIKE CIELINSKI
State Chairman of SUSGA

SUSGA Convention Elects Cielinski as State Chairman

Mike Cielinski, junior political science major from Columbus, has been elected State Chairman of Georgia for the Southern Universities Student Government Association at the SUSGA Conference March 30 in Biloxi, Mississippi.

Cielinski originally intended to seek the post of Vice-chairman of the entire SUSGA organization but decided to withdraw his name from the ballot. "I realized that my opponent knows a great majority of college deans personally and I felt that it was important to SUSGA that these working relationships be continued," said Cielinski.

Duties of the State Chairman are to co-ordinate all Georgia Colleges and to keep lines of communication open among all the schools.

Cielinski will hold his post for one year.

Spring Speaks From GSC's Lake

Signs of animation—splashes, laughter and crickets' songs—echoing from Georgia Southern's lake speak more reliably of spring's arrival than the groundhog and his shadow. This lake has known joy, happiness, excitement and loneliness of hundreds of GSC students.

Carol Moore discovered excitement (?) at the lake Tuesday afternoon! "I feel like a fool," exclaimed the brunette, physical education major as her head bobbed up from the water. Five girls stood on the bank enjoying the fun of having tossed the lively coed into the lake. The water was cold Tuesday, but Carol experienced one of the traditions at Georgia Southern. She even seemed to enjoy swimming around among the ducks a few minutes before stepping out and braving the cold wind.

The usual custom of throwing a male student into the lake in honor of his giving a woman student an engagement ring, his fraternity pin, or just for the fun of it has created much activity at the lake. Eddie Bateman, a regular customer at this "pool" has been in six times already, and he thinks he "will probably go in several more times."

The scene of the tug-of-war contest during Spring Swing Week, the lake is a cool, wet penalty for the losing team. Laughingly the lake could recall the last tug-of-war, the day Curry Gayle modeled his red and white striped swimming attire, complete with suspenders.

The friendly, waddling ducks capture quite a bit of attention year round. They are well cared for by students who enjoy spending a few minutes feeding the ducks crackers and bread. After the meal, off go the ducks across the water like tiny motor boats and students look fascinated at the pleasant life the ducks seem to lead. The ducks' privacy is invaded only by certain students, and of course, the turtles.

Joy at the lake is feeling the tug on a fishing line and pulling a fish from the water. Not only do students like to try their luck at outsmarting the fish, but Mandy and Claire Powell, daughters of Roy F. Powell, assistant professor of English, seem to have mastered the technique, Imagine the excitement of two little girls who pulled 17 fish from the lake. Often the cane fishing poles catch five or six unsuspecting brim in a single afternoon.

Many couples find the romantic atmosphere around the lake pleasurable. Dates can walk slowly around the lake, feed the ducks, or sit and enjoy being alone. A road is now open and cars can be driven around to the far side of the lake. Blankets have been brought out and sun bathing has begun.

Few students are aware that GSC's lake, shaped like the state of Georgia, has two names-

Lake Wells and Lake Ruby. The lake is named after one of the former presidents of Georgia Southern and his wife.

Whether one is alone, with his date, or in a group, the lake can be a fascinating place—a quiet and peaceful place to sit and think or maybe study; a place to become familiar with nature; or a place filled with sunshine, laughter and happiness.

Indeed, the lake is a place of many moods, and so are the students that visit its banks. Perhaps that's why it is the center of life and activity and spring time on campus.

On warm or cold days, the age old tradition of throwing people in the G.S.C. Lake still persists.

On warm spring days, the lake is surrounded by students seeking to forget the pains of obtaining an education.

The lake also serves as a place for quiet contemplation and reflection.

Easter Seal Drive Set For April 9-12

"Buck a cup — Brace a Child" and the "Miss Easter Seal Contest" are fund-raising drives planned for the Easter Seal campaign, April 9-12.

"Miss Easter Seal" contestants will collect money in the Williams and Landrum centers, April 9-11. The winner will be presented a trophy by Edgar Chandler, University of Georgia football player.

Sororities and fraternities will canvas business and residential areas in a separate contest. Vince Dooley, chairman of the Georgia Easter Seal campaign, will present trophies to the winners.

Donations for "Buck a cup — Brace a child" will be collected by Panhellenic and IFC members, April 9-12. A dollar contribution entitles one to an Easter Seal button exchangeable for free coffee in any Statesboro restaurant on Good Friday, April 12.

Dykes Reveals May 2, Date For Congress Election

Student Congress elections for executive officers and divisional representatives are scheduled for May 2, according to Kent Dykes, Student Congress president.

The executive offices consist of president, first vice president, second vice president, secretary, treasurer, communications coordinator and advisory chairman. Two candidates from each division will be chosen as divisional representatives.

The senior members of Student Congress will nominate two students as candidates for each executive office. Nominations will be accepted from the floor at a student body meeting April 22.

Qualifications for an executive office are the student must: (1) possess a 2.0 or above grade point average; (2) be in good standing with the school; (3) be enrolled in school; (4) be at least a third quarter freshman in the quarter of elections; and (5) be at least a sophomore the quarter after elections. A presidential candidate must be a third quarter junior the quarter of elections and a senior the following quarter.

Divisional representative candidates are nominated at respective divisional meetings upon approval of division chairmen.

Trip Wingfield, New Student Congress Treasurer

Wingfield Appointed Treas. Of Student Congress, Mar. 28

Trip Wingfield, freshman business administration major from Macon, has been chosen treasurer of Student Congress. Wingfield assumed duties March 28, following the resignation of Jimmy Kirkland, senior physical education major from Glenville.

According to the constitution of this college, one must first be nominated by the executive officers and then approved by a two-thirds majority of the members of Student Congress. Official approval of Wingfield came March 28 at the meeting of Student Congress.

He will be in charge of the entire Congress treasury and will be working with the comptroller in handling all financial matters concerning Congress.

Wingfield will serve in this capacity until the election of new officers near the middle of this quarter.

Kirkland submitted his resignation at the last meeting of Congress winter quarter when he received a student teaching assignment.

THE DEFINITION OF A LIFE Insurance Policy

A life insurance policy is just a tinny - yellowed piece of paper, with columns of figures and legal phrases, until it is captized with a window's tears. Then it is a modern miracle, Aladdin's Lamp. It is food, clothing, shelter, education, piece of mind. It is the sincerest love letter ever written.

It quiets the crying of a hungry baby at night. It eases the heart of a bereaved widow. It is a comforting whisper in the dark silent hours of the night. It is new hope, in the dark silent hours of the night. It is new hope, fresh courage and strength for the widow to pick up the broken threads of life and carry on. It is an education for the sons and daughters. A chance for a career, instead of the need for a job. It is a father's parental blessing to his children on their wedding day.

It is the function of a father's hopes and dreams for his family's future. through life insurance he lives on. There is no death. life insurance exalts life and defeats death. It is the premium we pay for the privilege of living after death.

"CHOICE 68"

"Choice 68" will be held at this college in a few weeks. It is a mock presidential election sponsored by the Time Magazine in which students are given the opportunity to vote on the various presidential candidates.

This is a major national undertaking and should not be taken lightly on our campus. Opinion can be voiced on this date to obtain an overall outlook for the national election in November. Although "Choice 68" is not a poll, it will reveal campus apathy.

"No matter how you vote, just get out and vote." This is a worn out election cry, but once again it is the main objective. Don't wait for others to do the work. Volunteer to aid in the election and then vote. "Choice 68" will mean something if all will participate. Vote, wait for the results, and witness just how other campuses react.

NO TESTS?

Spring Swing Week has become a campus tradition which students anticipate as the social highlight of spring quarter. The idea began as a week of social activities designed to relieve the pressures of studying before the tensions of finals hit. In the past many professors have regarded Spring Swing as "just another week." The organization of activities has been met with faculty opposition in the form of tests.

On March 29 Kent Dykes, Student Congress president, formally requested that professors arrange test schedules to avoid the week of May 13-17. This request was sent to Paul F. Carroll, academic dean. Dean Carroll, in cooperation with this request, sent notices to all division chairmen asking that major tests not be given during Spring Swing Week. In instances where tests cannot be avoided, Carroll asked that professors inform him of the classes involved and of the reasons why tests could not be rescheduled.

Student Congress, sophomore class officers and several campus organizations have planned an exceptional week of activities for May 13-17. Other ideas are being planned daily to make this the best Spring Swing in the history of the tradition. "The Lettermen" will appear in concert May 13. Arrangements are being made to secure well known talent for a concert May 17 and for a dance May 18.

Students will support the many activities if tests do not interfere. It is hoped that faculty members will respect the Spring Swing tradition and comply with the test scheduling request. This would achieve the real purpose of Spring Swing.

SUGGESTIONS

It has been said by many students that their pleas for change and reform more than often fall on deaf ears; that requests to administrators are ignored and Student Congress members are "just too busy to talk." These accusations are ludicrous.

One merely has to work through the right channels to make his complaints and suggestions known. The most effective and least utilized method of voicing ones opinion about how the college should be changed is the suggestion box in the lobby of the Williams Center.

Student Congress placed the box there for the sole purpose of trying to determine the feelings of students toward certain college policies. Two responses have been received since the box was placed in the center. One suggestion was for more salt shakers in the cafeteria and one was to sell candied apples in the snack bar.

If these are the only issues concerning students at this college why not substitute lecturers such as James Mosely for Captain Kangaroo or presentations such as "Phaedra" with Officer Don's Popeye Club?

"Man, This Spring Quarter Is Really Rough!" Revamping Of Student Congress Could Be Effected By SUSGA

By ROBERT SESSIONS
Editor

Georgia Southern College is presently in its sixtieth year of existence. This college has seen great expansion in the area of construction, curriculum and enrollment. Social fraternities and sororities have been established and many other progressive measures have been adopted as part of the progress of the college.

It is difficult to understand why, with progress being made in many areas, improvement is not being made in the system of student government.

If Student Congress has been revamped at all, it has not been at any time in the past seven years. Since that time, the enrollment at this college has increased four times.

This writer does not mean to imply that the present Student Congress is incompetent or prejudicial in any way. The essential need of Student Congress is re-organization. There are some committees which are not functioning in any capacity. Some of these committees are essential to the needs of students here. Many members of Congress are the most competent students on campus but their effectiveness is hampered by lack of organization. If students with this ability were placed in a student government network which was specifically designed to meet the needs of present day Georgia Southern College, it is a certainty that their effectiveness would be paramount.

This college has just recently been accepted into SUSGA, the Southern Universities Student Government Association. This organization has a team of qualified men who form a Student Government Re-evaluation Committee. This committee was specifically formed to help newly-formed student governments as well as the reorganization or re-evaluation of a present system.

The committee is available to all member schools. Nothing would be lost by having the team review our student government. Something might even be gained.

Student Power Achieved With Student Leaders

By SARA FOUNTAIN
News Editor

Student power is an often discussed topic on campuses across the country. Student power should be more than a radical or militant innovation on the part of the students for a power "grab."

It is the reflection of the student's response to the administration by utilizing and proving their capability as mature adults.

Students have been granted liberties in past situations when responsible leadership was shown.

With the formation of Women's Government Association and Men's Governing Council, the college is experiencing a transition period where students are allowed to make more decisions concerning governing policies than during past times. Students have shown leadership in many areas of student government, yet not in all areas. There are many improvements which should be made by the students.

Now that the college is a member of SUSGA (Southern Universities Student Government Association), we will be able to learn from the member schools of the 12 southern states, thus involving capable students in situations requiring mature leadership.

SUSGA is not a supervisory organization, but it provides a means for cooperation among the various colleges and universities for the mutual benefit of each. Member colleges will be allowed to receive suggestions from other colleges through an information exchange which involves various aspects of student government ranging from block booking (student discounts) to entertainment to fair representation of independents in elections to problems involved during rush.

SUSGA publishes a directory of member schools containing statistical information of each school's operation, organization, and administration of student government. The directory is printed annually and is sent to each member school during the first month of fall term.

SUSGA sponsors an Entertainment Bureau in cooperation with ten national agencies, to insure the best entertainment possible for member schools. An Entertainment Advisor serves on the Executive Council to help member schools.

The Annual Conference is one of the most important activities of SUSGA. This Conference serves as a common meeting point for student leaders from schools throughout the South. It is conducted as a workshop for student government. Outstanding speakers and panelists stimulate discussions among student leaders from various areas of student activities.

The State Conference provides a medium for effective communication and discussion regarding special problems. The college is fortunate in that one of its student leaders is the state chairman.

Now that the college is represented on the executive council of SUSGA, other southern colleges will be looking to us for leadership and participation.

Dear Editor,

"Students who fail to attend 75 percent of the class meetings in a course will receive a grade of F and must repeat the course for credit no matter what the reasons are for the absences. This regulation is applied without exception."

This is the policy as stated in the Eagle Eye and it is a Board of Regents policy. The fine point is how professors use the area within the 25 percent allowable absences. This varies with each teacher.

Personally, I believe that in time a system of no compulsory class attendance will be adopted by the Regents and by Georgia Southern College. I don't think the students of GSC are quite ready for this system yet. This system requires a lot of student responsibility that the student body as a whole is unready for at this time. But the system will come and I believe as the academic involvement increases, the student body will be ready to accept the responsibility.

I believe the professors should encourage the students to accept responsibilities by giving them a few rights and privileges. Professors should not treat students as if they were in high school and lay down a certain amount of days they can miss before their letter grade gets cut. If a student can handle the course without coming a mandatory number of days set down by a professor then more power to the student. He should be congratulated and not penalized.

I feel that for the time being the Regents endorsement of 75 percent class attendance is good enough for the student body. I feel that students should be given the right to attend or not attend classes at their discretion up to that limit. When a student passes the limit by sheer neglect and apathy, then that student will receive an F in the course. I believe special exception should be given only in the event of serious illness that would prevent the student from attending class for the mandatory 75 percent.

Sincerely,

Kent E. Dykes
President, Student Congress

"Lettermen"

Any student attending the concert by "The Lettermen" May 13 will be allowed to show his ID card and gain entrance for both himself and his date.

Carroll Plans For Uniformity In Cut System

Questionnaires concerning student absences are being sent to each faculty member inquiring about his policy.

The present policy enforced and the policy that some teachers are using are completely different, stated Dean Paul F. Carroll.

There is no present "cut" policy, except for the ruling stating that a student who misses 75 percent of his class meetings will receive a grade of "F" and must repeat the course.

Dean Carroll hopes with the return of these questionnaires a uniform policy of cuts will be established.

ROTARY STUDENT

Robert Sessions, sophomore English major from Milledgeville, has been chosen Rotary Student for this week. Sessions is editor of The George-Anne and an ex-officio member of Student Congress.

'Newsweek' Poll Shows Students Less Rebellious

A new survey of American college student opinion on major issues shows them to be far less in rebellion and much closer to adult views than is commonly believed. The poll was conducted by Newsweek magazine and represents a cross-section of 8,700 students from 150 colleges.

The poll was conducted by reply-card questionnaire last fall as a part of the magazine's College News Letter. The 8,700 respondents voted by January 1.

DRAFT

On the draft, the survey showed that 44 per cent of the students disapprove of someone who rejects his military obligation, while 37 per cent accept his position if he is "sincere." Sixteen per cent refused to pass judgement saying it is a personal decision, and the remaining 3 per cent passed over the question.

Only 5 per cent of the respondents say they favor a lottery approach to the draft, while a surprising 17 per cent support Universal Military Training. Thirty-seven per cent prefer a volunteer army and 32 per cent favor the present draft setup as is. Seven per cent offered their various individual alternatives, and 2 per cent skipped the question.

MOST RESPECTED

Votes for the "person in the world you most respect," were widely scattered after the 19 per cent choice of a parent or relative. John F. Kennedy was second with a 3.4 per cent, Pope Paul with 1.7 per cent, Martin Luther King and Barry Goldwater, each with 1.4 per cent, and "a teacher" with 1.5 per cent. "Myself" received 2 per cent of the total.

BMOC

In selecting today's "Big Man on the Campus" 39 per cent said they preferred the "good student or intellectual," while 17 per cent selected the "involved, aware" student. No other grouping drew more than 9 per cent and athletes didn't even figure in the returns.

COLLEGE

Most students — some 73 per cent — are content with their choice of college, and say they would attend the same school given the chance to begin again. Sixty-three per cent say they want to get an advanced degree.

DEMONSTRATION

Twenty-eight per cent of the students say they have taken part in a demonstration or march, 27 per cent have sent a protest letter, and 66 per cent say they have signed a petition.

The issue of Vietnam, they say, has figured very little in these expressions, accounting for a little more than a quarter of demonstration activity and 16 per cent of letter-writing or petitioning. The bulk of all protest activity has been on other world problems or campus issues.

Teacher's Exam Scheduled For Apr. 6, July 6

National Teacher's Examination is to be given April 6 and July 6 in McCroan, according to the Office of Student Personnel.

These tests may be taken by anyone desiring scores for graduate school or teacher certification. Applications must be filed no later than three weeks before the examination, and forms are available at the Student Personnel Office.

Persons taking the exam are to report to McCroan at 8:30 a.m. on the testing dates.

Costs are $9.00 for the Common Exam and $11.00 for the Common Exam plus an Area Exam.

Inquiring Reporter

What are your opinions concerning the President's statement of withdrawing from the November elections?

Tom Hampton, Toccoa, Ga.- "I think it was a smart and easy way for him to get out, since he wouldn't have won in the '68 elections."

Ira Goldsmith, Warner Robins, Ga.- "I think he did it not because he thought he couldn't win, but because he thought it was best for the country and the people weren't behind his policies."

Paula Langford, Waycross, Ga.- "I think he was forced to by the party, and I think he will support Bobby Kennedy."

Jeenie Ennis, Macon, Ga.- "I think he did it because he knew he couldn't win the '68 elections."

Chuck Hopper, Sandy Springs, Ga.- "I say he will take the nomination if he brings about peace in Vietnam."

Frank Franklin, Metter, Ga.- "I think it was a good idea since he would not have won anyhow."

Diane Bowen, Tifton, Ga.- "I think it was the best thing he ever did for himself as a person, because it raised him up in the eyes of the people."

Leigh Maund, Augusta, Ga.- "I don't think he really means it."

John Ford, Mount Vernon, Ga.- "I think somebody in the democratic party has gotten some information about the President and pressured him to withdraw."

Clyde Goodrich, Savannah, Ga.- "If the reasons he stated for not running are sincere, then he is the man of the century."

Judy Ward, West Point, Ga.- "With the present political situation, I think it's a wise move, but I don't think he will go through with it."

Emily Elkins, Macon, Ga.- "I think he has some hidden motive, that he wants the peoples' sentiments and will possibly be drafted for the nomination."

Don Jones, Atlanta, Ga.- "I feel that he is really sincere about it, although I haven't been a supporter of his."

Nancy Anderson, Douglas, Ga.- "I think that he is trying to help his party, because he thinks he hasn't been doing a good job and wants to give somebody else a chance."

Marguerite Van Sickler, Fitzgerald, Ga.- "I think that maybe he thinks that Humphrey would have a better chance than he would, and give his support to Humphrey."

Fred Payne, Instructor in Geography - "I think that he is making an attempt to prove that he is a statesman and not just a politician in a final effort to bring peace to Southeast Asia and I feel that in resigning he will play a dominant role in selecting the Democratic nominee and in determining whether a "dove" or a "hawk" will be elected in November."

Roy Powell, Assistant Professor of English - "I think it was a noble and expedient thing for him to do. How many of us are lucky enough to be able to withdraw in the face of such overwhelming odds."

Mary Hurst, Waycross, Ga.- "I think this statement may win him more votes than any amount of campaigning he could do in the primaries."

Grady Allen, Stapleton, Ga.- "I think it shows that he is placing the value of the U. S. above and beyond any personal goals or ambitions and that he is truly a democratic and American citizen."

Ray Beckett, Warner Robins, Ga.- "I think he is a shrewd politician and if his announced tentative withdrawal can possibly better his political ambitions, than this is the reason for his statement."

Choice '68 Begins At GSC April 24

April 24, students may cast ballots in Choice 68, a national presidential primary for college students. Choice 68, sponsored by "Time Magazine, will be run in approximately one thousand colleges.

The ballot will include names of announced candidates and others who are not actively seeking the office. Included are Fred Halstead, backed by Socialists, Senator Mark Hatfield, Senator Robert Kennedy, Martin Luther King Jr., Mayor John Lindsey, Senator Eugene McCarthy, Richard Nixon, Senator Charles Percy, Governor Ronald Reagan, Governor Nelson Rockefeller, Harold Stassen and George Wallace.

The above have been asked for campaign material and speaking engagements. Plans include debates, speeches, and round table discussions.

Set up by a bi-partisan campus steering committee, members include Claire Halpern, coordinator; Marilyn Rosenberg secretary; Jarrell Smith; Walter Huhn; Randy Clark and Richard Pfund, publicity chairman. Advisor is Dr. Dorothy Rudoni, assistant professor of political science.

The steering committee will meet Monday April 8, at 7 p.m. in Hollis 119. Anyone interested is invited to attend, according to Richard Pfund.

Sandra Hartness is the newly appointed editor for the 1968-69 edition of "The Eagle Eye."

The staff members of the handbook include Bjorn Kjerve, Joan Jordan, Karol Hoyt, Leslie Linscheid, and Shelton Evans, advisor.

The new handbook will feature special sections such as "Who to see for what" which will list names, offices and phones of faculty members and administrative personnel for the student's convenience.

The organizations section divides organizations into types such as social, departmental, religious and interest with descriptions of each.

One section includes a brief description by each division chairman describing features of his academic division.

The governmental structure thorough description of each branch.

Other sections will include traditions of the college, how to compute grade point average, student activities, a yearly calendar and a map of the college with names of each building. Sections will also be devoted to student publications and to athletics.

Interest Good For "Miscellany"

The first meeting of students interested in "Miscellany," the literary magazine, is slated for 7 p.m. Wednesday, April 10, in Williams Center 111.

"A number of manuscripts have been turned in, but we still need some critical writing, descriptive, and personal essays, according to Roy F. Powell, faculty advisor.

"I have talked with a number of students and I am pleased with the response," said Powell. "I think perhaps this will be the best issue yet."

"I don't write much, cause I only write when I'm sad and I like people so well and there are so many of them here, I'm hardly ever sad so I don't write much." This observation was made by Janet Henley, a freshman sociology major from Buford, Georgia. "I love to travel and to walk. I'd like to go to Austria cause that's where the 'Sound of Music' was filmed and I loved it! The mountains over there are fabulous."

U. S. Provides for 500 Fellowships

The U. S. Office of Education will provide approximately 500 fellowship during the 1968-69 academic year for graduate training of personnel needed by the Nation's libraries and information centers.

The Office today announced awards to 51 colleges and universities in 27 States and the District of Columbia that will select and train the Fellows in library and information sciences.

Fellowships for students seeking a master's degree are $2,200 each and at the post-master and doctoral levels, $5,000 each. Post-master's and doctoral fellowships are renewable. However, they may not be awarded for more than three years. If summer study is required, an additional stipend of $75 per week, not to exceed a total of $450, is provided at the master's level. At the post-master's and doctoral levels the stipend for summer study is at the rate of $170 per week, not to exceed a total of $1,020. In addition, $600 is allowable for each dependent for the academic year and $120 for the summer, plus travel expenses to and from the institution for the Fellow only.

Georgia institutions receiving aid under this program are: Atlanta University, Emory University and Georgia Institute of Technology.

Students seeking fellowships should apply directly to the participating institutions, which will have sole responsibility for selecting recipients.

Rose Of Kappa Alpha

Dawne Shaw, sophomore business education major from Birmingham, Alabama, has been named the first Rose of Delta Theta chapter of Kappa Alpha order. She is vice president of Phi Mu sorority.

Home Ec Club Slates Election

The Home Economics Club will meet Tuesday, April 23, 7:30 p.m. in Herty 115 to elect officers.

All applications for the Georgia Home Economics Association convention in Athens May 17-18 should be turned in at this meeting. Applications can be obtained from the division office.

Applicants for the $100.00 scholarship, given each spring quarter, should also turn their applications in at this time. Scholarship applications are also available in the division office.

Science Fiction Club Organized

A newly formed Science Fiction Club will hold its first meeting Monday, April 7 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 112 of the Hollis Building.

In charge of the formation of the organization is Dr. Patrick Spurgeon, professor of English and Mrs. Ann Wilson.

The purpose of the club is for those students interested in science fiction to get together and discuss current books and articles in this field.

LaGrone Tours, Speaks At AFB

Dr. Paul G. LaGrone, chairman of the division of business, was the guest speaker at the April meeting of the Federal Government Accountant's Association (FGAA). His speech was "New Techniques in Accounting Education and The Role of the School of Business."

Dr. LaGrone toured Warner Robins Air Material Area and the Comptroller's Accounting and Finance Division, the organization that employs co-op students.

Through Dr. LaGrone, last winter quarter three students—Lawrence Collier, Roger Herndon and Frank Shipes—became the first to enter the Warner Robins work-study program.

Associated Students Seek Grade Review

Long Beach, Calif. — (I.P.)—A measure recently proposed to the Academic Senate at California State College at Long Beach would establish a faculty subcommittee to investigate setting up a faculty commission to review student grievances about semester grades.

"Some students occasionally feel that their course grade is affected by professor's personal bias when their grades on papers and tests during the semester are consistently higher than the course grades they receive. The students feel that their personal rights are being infringed upon if they have no effective means of appeal," according to Dennis Murray, Associated Students president.

At present, students must carry their appeals to the dean of students. The proposed commission would have no means to enforce grade changes except through intrafaculty pressure.

"Currently, the Associated Students is seeking information from other colleges concerning their methods for reviewing grades," said Murray. "The main concern of those who feel the need for such a commission is to give the students a feeling of efficacy in this computerized campus of ours," he added.

"The Associated Students is also interested in asking that an 'ad hoc' committee of faculty members be set up to discuss the flunk-out rate of freshmen, currently about 50 per cent. The emphasis seems to be on weeding out those who haven't adapted to college academic needs rather than trying to help them, if the present rate of failing is any indication. The abilities of students aren't necessarily in a direct correlation to their freshman year GPAs," according to Murray.

Pass-Fail System Found Workable At U. of Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich., (IP)—If you're an "A" student, you find it hard to change your study habits to earn only a "C" grade — even when that's all that is necessary and all you want to achieve.

This seems to be the result of an experimental "pass-fail" option adopted by the University of Michigan College of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

Beginning last winter, seniors were permitted to take one course outside their major field of study on a pass-fail basis, with the credits to count toward graduation but not toward their final grade-point average. This year the faculty has extended the privilege to junior students as well. In general, students have welcomed the innovation as giving them a chance for academic exploration.

But compilation of grades achieved by 178 of the 203 students who took advantage of the option in its first year indicates that the "good students" did their usual level of work in the pass-fail course. The pass-fail students were in the same classes as students taking the course under the traditional grading and credit system.

The level of performance of the pass-fail students in the courses was similar to their general grade point average for all work taken in the University. In other words, A students continued to make A's.

GSC Gents, Belles Plan Old South Ball

The ante-bellum South once again will become a reality Sat., April 20, at 8 p.m. as Confederate gentlemen and Southern belles attend the Old South Ball, sponsored by Student Congress. The music will not be provided by the characteristic string quartet, but by another group from the Deep South — the Singing, Swinging Counts of Alabama.

In preparation for the event, women are searching through trunks and attics for dresses with yards of material trimmed in lace, flounces, and ruffles, and looking for antique jewelry such as brooches and cameos to enhance the costumes and recapture the mood of "Gone With the Wind." Perhaps women will wear apple-green, Scarlett O'Hara's favorite color. The men, meanwhile, are growing beards and trying to find gray uniforms complete with swords and Confederate insignia.

The National Guard Armory will be transformed into a plantation, a second Tara, with an atmosphere of Southern charm and gracious living strongly reminiscent of the ante-bellum South.

BSU Sponsors 3 Bible Groups

B.S.U. is sponsoring three Bible Discussion Groups at their Student Center, April 8-10. Monday, at 7:30 p.m., a group will study the Gospel of John. Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., the discussion will center on the book of Job, and Wednesday, 3:30 p.m. John will again be the topic.

The groups will seek to open the Bible, and apply its message to today's needs and conditions.

All students are invited, Rev. Nathan Byrd, BSU director, stated.

KMA Offers Math Training

Math tutoring by upper-class math majors of Kappa Mu Alpha is being given each Tuesday and Thursday night from 7:00 - 9:00, according to Mr. J. Walter Lynch, faculty advisor.

Tutoring will take place in room 3 of the C. R. Building throughout the quarter and the cost is 75 cents an hour. This will include courses up through analytic geometry.

Anyone desiring help with math may attend these tutoring sessions.

Theriault Speaks To French Club

The French Club meeting will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Dr. Robert F. Brand, 109 N. Edgewood Drive in Statesboro.

Dr. Brand, professor of French, stated professor Aurelien Theriault is slated to be the guest speaker and will lecture in French. All persons interested in the French language are invited to attend.

Triple Play Ends Game

By GIL WERMUTH
G-A Sportswriter

Jimmy Dobson's nifty four hit 10-0 shutout over Carson-Newman College highlighted this week's baseball action.

It was Dobson's fourth win against one defeat. Dobson received the only run that he needed to win when Terry Childers doubled to center and was knocked in by Jimmy Fields' single to right in the fifth inning. Georgia Southern added two runs in the seventh frame and exploded for seven more in the eighth. The game's highlight, however, occurred in the ninth, when with runners on first and second, a hard hit ball was smashed at Tom Brown who fielded the ball, stepped on third, threw to second, and on to first to complete Southern's first triple play of the season. The victory left Southern with a 10-9 overall record; only the second time this season that Southern has had a record over .500.

GSC-FURMAN

Saturday, March 3, Southern ventured to Greenville, S. C. and lost both ends of a twinbill, 5-4 and 7-5 to Furman University.

In the first contest Dobson lost his first game of the season with the help of two unearned runs. In the second game Richard Billingham lost his third game without a victory. The only bright spot of the day was Tom Brown's four for eight batting performance. In both games Southern shot out in front early but was unable to hold on to its lead.

GSC-ERSKINE

On Monday, April 1, Southern returned to cozy Eagle Field to play Erskine. Tim O'Leary pitched his third straight victory with a 13-2 triumph. The hitting stars were Jimmy Fields and Roddy Michele each went four for six at the plate with 4 RPI's. After Southern scored three runs in the sixth on a two run double by Fields and run-producing single by Michele, O'Leary coasted from there on.

Tuesday, April 2, the Eagles posted a 8-4 victory over Erskine behind the pitching of Jim Goodwin. It was his first victory of the season compared to two losses. The game's high-point was the breaking of a long hitting slump by first-baseman Ralph Lynch. Lynch collected two hits and batted in three runs.

Intramurals

The Men's Intramural Softball League began Monday afternoon with four games being played. In the first match, Delta Sigma Pi and Tau Kappa Epsilon battled to a 10-10 tie before the time curfew forced them to discontinue. Chi Sigma was beaten by Pi Kappa Phi 10-6 in the second game and Nu Sigma squeaked by Kappa Tau 7-6. In the final game of the afternoon, Phi Epsilon Kappa defeated Tau Epsilon Pi 9-6.

The Independent League Tuesday afternoon saw Knight Hall defeat Del Chi 9-4. The Hobos beat the Draft Dodgers 5-3, the Unknowns continued to win in intramurals with a 10-2 decision over the Sinners and the Unexpected defeated the Sows 6-1.

Next week's schedule runs from Monday through Thursday. In the Independent League, Monday sees the Unexpected and the Draft Dodgers compete in one game followed by the Sinners-Del Chi contest. Tuesday Knight Hall battles the Unknowns and the Sows play the Hobos. Wednesday's action finds the Sinners vs. the Unexpected and the Unknowns playing against the Draft Dodgers. Thursday's games find the Sows playing against Del Chi and the Hobos vs. Knight Hall.

In the fraternity division, Delta Tau Delta hosts Delta Sigma Pi on Monday. Kappa Alpha and Chi Sigma participate also. Tuesday, Alpha Tau Omega and Tau Epsilon Pi play one another as do Kappa Sigma and Kappa Theta. Wednesday, Delta Tau Delta and Phi Epsilon Kappa compete as do Kappa Alpha and Nu Sigma. Thursday's games see Alpha Tau Omega and Tau Kappa Epsilon vying for a win. In the latter game, Kappa Sigma and Pi Kappa Phi round out the afternoon's competition.

IRISH

By TIM O'LEARY
Assistant Sports Editor

Well, it's another week and the Georgia Southern Eagles have lived up to the expectations of not themselves, but to many who claim to support them. We played at Furman in Greenville, S. C. last Saturday and some of us still can't decide whether we went to play ball or to enjoy ourselves at the Downtowner in the heart of Greenville. People have begun to lose faith in the Eagles because they aren't the flashy ball club they are supposed to be. They win three games and then overwhelm themselves in their generosity by handing back two to a team who could easily qualify for relief if baseball were so concerned about club prestige. I guess there is too much stress in a "likely" comparison of last year's club with this year's group of individuals. We are playing a little better than .500 ball because "we" aren't that good. This is the only thing I can think of us because we've got some of the best individual ball players in this area of Statesboro. It's a wonder some students haven't died laughing about our performances. This is quite a remorseful thought—it's almost as pitiful as our spirit. Yes, people around here do expect a mediocre season from the GSC baseball team. And it looks as though we may oblige them, at the moment.

It seems that everytime the team needs a lift, it's because we've lost a few and it's because a "pushover" has come to town. I guess they have to be labeled pushovers because if we can beat them, anyone can. Let's take a few examples to make a point. Davidson came in last week after we had lost an easy doubleheader the previous Saturday. Before the first game, we were given a pep talk to have us demonstrate spirit or a reasonable facsimile. As a result, we beat Davidson in two ball games, after beating Guilford and we proceeded to lose three, two of which were to a ball club who had only two ball players.

Erskine came to Statesboro Monday for a two-game series. Before the first game, Coaches J. I. Clements and Bill Spieth gave some reasons why we had better start winning some ball games. We beat Erskine both times. During that meeting of the minds, the two coaches brought out a very veritable point. They said that they had not given up on us, but rather if anyone was to hang up all of our own support, the blame would have to remain with ourselves. From the beginning of the season, some people have said that if we continue to lose it is the fault of the coaching staff. Well, boys, forget that, because it's our ball game, our uniforms, (although some appear baggy on the road), our attitudes and our desire. No one takes this away from us; we are the ones who are hurting ourselves.

Oh yes, I'd like to congratulate that big righthander from Miami on his initial victory of the season as a GSC pitcher. I always said that was what he needed most was a Good-win to get him started.

Golfers Begin At Orangeburg

By KEN PURCELL
Sports Editor

The Eagle golf team opened the 1968 season last weekend in Orangeburg, South Carolina, placing 13th in the classy Palmetto Intercollegiate Golf Tournament.

The tournament, played over the massive 6850 yard Orangeburg Country Club, included such universities and colleges as North Carolina, South Carolina, Clemson, Georgia and Wake Forest, MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) was the northernmost team in the tourney, Georgia Southern the southernmost.

The University of Georgia ended the 54 hole tournament in first place, followed by Wake Forest and the University of Maryland. The Eagle linksters, suffering from opening match jitters, could muster only a 13th place finish.

Each day of the three day affair, six players from each team circuted the par 72 course, counting only the top four scores in the team division of the tournament.

Eddie Register, a sophomore letterman who hails from Adel, Ga., paced the Eagle golfers with a three round score of 229. Ricky Jordan, a Sylvania, Ga. freshman was second for Coach Paul Carr's Birds with 232 for the three days. Jordan's 74 on the final day of the tourney was the lowest 18-hole score by any Southern golfer.

The tournament provided some much-needed experience for the Eagle duffers. The competition in the Palmetto Intercollegiate was probably as good as any the Eagles will see this season, since the majority of teams entered in the tourney were from large universities that give full scholarships to their golfers.

Southern's next outing is scheduled for Monday, April 8, when the Eagles are to meet the Citadel in a dual match at Statesboro's Forest Heights Country Club.

Palmetto scores:

Eddie Register	77	75	77—229
Ricky Jordan	78	80	74—232
Jack Hartness	79	77	80—236
Dennis Raith	76	79	81—236
Frank Saxon	83	81	76—240
Eli Scott	87	85	85—257

Cager Signed By Eagles

Head Basketball Coach Frank Radovich has signed Southern's first new basketball player to a grant-in-aid, informed sources said Wednesday.

Steve Melton, a 6 foot 3 inch forward from Mary Parsons High School in Forsyth, Ga., signed the pact in the presence of Radovich, to be his new coach, and Johnny Waters, his coach during his high school career.

Radovich was impressed with the talented Melton's playing ability but was mainly interested in his progress in the past few years. "We think Steve is a real fine college prospect and we are real lucky to have him come to Southern. He does everything well on the court and we think he will make us a fine player," commented the Eagle coach.

J. E. Rowe, Radovich's assistant last basketball season, was even more impressed with the new player's progress: "Steve played ball for four years at a Mary Parsons and did real well. He averaged 17 points a game and averaged about 15 rebounds. And that's not bad for a 6-3 high school boy. We think he is a real 'comer' because of the progress he made last season. He averaged something like 13 points per game and 10 rebounds per game as a junior and you can see his progress in his statistics."

Melton will be placed on the freshman squad next season but may be moved up to the varsity if the coaching staff thinks he is ready. Southern had a very successful frosh team this past season, from which much talent will be considered for the varsity. The 1967-68 varsity lost only one senior through graduation, thus it has an abundance of talent returning next year.

New players, a new coach and hopes of a successful season highlight the opening of the 1968 Eagle golf season.

With only three returning lettermen but a host of new linksters, the Eagles will be out to better last season's overall mark of 6 wins and 9 losses.

Dennis Raith, Eddie Register and Mike Joesbury, all returning lettermen, will test their skill against at least seven neophyte, but promising duffers to determine which six players will represent Southern in Monday's dual match with the Citadel.

Coach Paul Carr has taken over the reins of the Eagle team, replacing Mickey Guthrie. Guthrie piloted the team last season while working on his masters degree. He is now teaching in Claxton, Ga.

Carr's major concern with this season's golf team is its apparent lack of balance. "Eddie Register is capable of shooting 75 consistently, according to scores turned in so far during practice, but we need several boys in this category since we don't have anyone who shoots real low. I won't know much about what to expect this season until we get a little further into the schedule," stated Carr.
