Psalms 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high shall abide under the shadows of the almighty, I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God in him I will trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Now for the pestilence that walketh in darkness nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side and ten-thousand at thy right hand but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes thou shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou has made the Lord which is my refuge even the most High, thy habitation. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plagues come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee to keep thee in all thy ways, they shall bear thee up in their hands lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder the young lion and the dragon shall thou trample under feet. Because he has set his love upon me therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble I will deliver him and honour him. With long life will I sanctify him and shew him my salvation.

My uncle James was a man that love God, every time. I visited him in the hospital or the nursing home. He always had something nice to say. He will tell you don't quit just trust in God and h will see you through. I will miss my uncle but God's love, loves him best.

Love your niece,
Rose
