The Rose Beyond The Wall
A rose once grew where all could see,
Sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall...
One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide---
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond to the other side---
Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted the rose blooms there--
Its beauty even greater now,
nurtured by God's own loving care.

AFRAID?

Why should I be afraid?

It is not death to die.

'Tis but a step to glory

And a mansion in the sky.

How can I be Afraid?

The Lord is with me still,

And loves me as He did that day

He died upon the hill.

Afraid? Of what? No night's so dark

It can His glory dim!

Afraid? Oh, no! Though Jordan roar

I cross -- dry shod ---with him.
