Football Banquet

The climax to the football season came as one of the most beautiful social affairs--being the banquet given in the Anderson Dining Hall, Dec. 11.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with holly and narcissus.

During the evening the girls were introduced by their respective escorts.

Kathleen Harmon was lovely in green georgette and lace; Martha Martin presented a charming picture in rose taffeta with corresponding shawl thrown smartly around her shoulders; two of the most attractive were Florence Brinson in green satin, side effect of tulle and rosebuds and Huldah Cail in black tulle and lace, also with rosebuds; Virginia Lewis, Tina Lee Alderman, Peggy Ruth Gibson, and Mildred Jones were beautifully gowned in pink; other elaborate evening apparels were worn by Hazel Deal, Reta Lee, Gincy Cowart, Emma Blount, Grace Hutchinson, Annie Ruth Moore, and Marie Stanley.

Coach Smith presided in his most pleasing and original manner.

The following program added much to the enjoyment of the occasion:

Blessing---J. E. McCroon.

Song---T. C.'s Colors.

Music.

Delicious course dinner.

Welcome Address---Mr. Wells.

Special Song---Miss Cooper.

Speeches:

Why Good Football Players
Come to S. G. T. C.

--Lester Newton.

Some Funny Experiences on Our Trips

--Harry Wrens.

--Paul Thompson.

The Value of Beef to a Team

--Hubert Dewberry.

Other Speakers:

Mr. Henderson.

Mr. McCroon.

Mrs. Wells.

Mr. Singley.

Coach Smith.

Selection of Captain.

What There is in a Name

You have all heard of Little Miss Alva Caroline Singley, a new character for the school.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvan A. Singley could not have picked out a better name for her.

As we all know her initials are A. C. S., which stands for Abstract, Concrete, and Specific.

If she will live up to our expectations, she will be a perfect example of her father's pet illustrations.

Soccer Tournament

Much interest is aroused by the soccer tournament, beginning Friday p. m., at 4:15 o'clock, when the Freshmen play the High School. Other games scheduled are:

Monday--Sophomores-High School.

Tuesday--Sophomores-Freshmen.

All classes have nine teams and it will be possible for all to witness some of the best and fairest playing anywhere.

We wish to apologize for omitting two issues of the George-Anne, Nov. 27 and Dec. 4. Due to examinations and other interference we were unable to publish these issues. In the future we will try to be more regular in our publications.

--The Editor.

Miss Clay: (In English class)
For tomorrow, take the life of Burke.

Ruth: How?

S. G. T. C. Has Finished Good Grid Season

S. G. T. C. has finished the 1929 football season in glory, winning 5 games, losing 2, and tying 2.

The Tide began the season somewhat handicapped with only five regulars returning. Coach Smith, however, took hold of those left with a few additions and moulded a team that within three weeks was working very smoothly.

The first game of the season was played against Brewton Parker with the Teachers winning 62-0. The second game ended with a tie with Cochran 7 - 7. Doped to lose the third game, T. C. defeated Tifton 12-6. The fourth game played in rain and mud at Demorest with Piedmont College, went into a 0-0 tie. In the fifth game of the season Blue Tide was defeated by A. R. C. with a score of 19-13. The next game with the Swainsboro Athletic Association was won 12-0, but proved very disastrous to Coach Smith's boys. After this game five of the regulars were out, four for the rest of the season.

The next game with Norman Park found the Tide in a crippled condition. They put up a game fight, but lost to Norman Park 31-19. The next game also found Blue Tide crippled, but they were able to defeat Douglas 12-0, after two quarters of scoreless football.

The Tide played their final game with B. P. E. and won 7-0.

The Tide, with a record of 5 wins, 2 ties, and 2 defeats, will put in a claim for the South Georgia Championship, and the cup donated by the conference.

Marguerite: What does K. K. K. stand for?
Peggy Ruth: Kan't Kut Klass.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, has been selected for the first of a series of Society debates. The subject is, Resolved: That Capital Punishment Should be Abolished in the U. S. A. Those representing the affirmative will be Bonnie Lou Aycock and Waldo Pafford, of the Stephens Literary Society. The speakers of the negative side are Lillian Rucker and Willie Rude Usher--Willie Rude substituting for F. H. Sills.

Much interest centers around this debate. Competition is keener due to the fact that last year brought the introduction of this event and left the Oglethorpes victorious.

Campus News

Miss Lillian Rucker went to Savannah Wednesday.

Sunday Night Vespers

The vesper program committee is working on a Christmas pageant to be presented Sunday evening. The story of the birth of Christ is told in a most effective manner, being greatly aided by an invisible choir.

Everyone is invited to come and worship at this hour.

Stephens Meeting

The Stephens Literary Society held its regular meeting on Thursday night, Dec. 5. At 7:00 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the new president. Dick Howard was elected songleader for the term; Huldah Cail appointed cheerleader for debate. The various committees were read by the secretary.

Four new members were welcomed into the society: Seaborn Newton Dick Howard, Henry Watson, and Bessie Utherlhart.

Hubert Dewberry, as chaplain, requested the society to repeat the 23rd Psalm in unison. After prayer a radio program was enjoyed.

Oglethorpe Meeting

On Thursday evening, Dec. 5 the Oglethorpes met and had a most interesting program, which was as follows:

Song---Society

Devotional

"What the Oglethorpe Society Should Mean to Me"---

W. R. Usher.

Musical selection---

Daniel Young.

"What the Oglethorpe Society Needs to Make it Better"

Emily Moye.

Reading---Elizabeth Orr.

"Society Pop"---Florence Brinson

Scripture---Vennie Clark.

"A Word on Reverence--

Miss Simpson.

Song---Take My Life and Let It Be.

Theme--Test of Our School Life

1. Why I Go to College

--Addie B. Parker

2. Am I Living Abundantly

--Euclid Compton

3. Am I Living Honestly

--Dora King.

4. Am I Learning to Understand

--Dora Smith.

5. Dull Rounded Education

--Mary Swain.

Song---Christmas Carol.

Benediction.

Ailments of the School

Miss Katherine Brett, Evalyn Simmons, Joyce Gardner, Rosalyn Walsh, and Vivian Donaldson have the sympathy of all the school.

Miss Brett, on Monday afternoon, accidentally sprained her ankle as she was descending the steps of East Dormitory.

Miss Simmons does not know when she got hurt; neither does she know when she will get well, but she really is badly injured. She broke her collar bone playing basketball.

Miss Gardner, although you would never know it, has been suffering untold agonies with her ear.

Miss Walsh, Kicked the ball through the goal one too many times. The last time she gave the ball a kick she injured her Biggest Toe on her left foot.

Miss Donaldson was in too big of a hurry yesterday after. As a result she fell up the steps. We do not know what may develop from the present symptoms.

The entire student body wishes that each of the above will soon be entirely well and able to get around.

Chapel Program

The Music and Expression Departments presented a very interesting program in chapel on Wednesday, Dec. 11.

The program was as follows:

Devotional--Virginia Lewis.

Prayer--Rev. New, from Guyton.

Piano Solo--Ruby Dell Rushing

Reading Joyce Gardner.

Piano Solo--Kathleen Harmon.

Reading--Pearl Offiff.

Vocal Solo--Lucille Futrelle,

accompanied by Miss Cooper.

Piano Solo--Marie Hendrix.

Student Volunteers Meet

Sunday night after vespers the Student Volunteer Movement held its regular meeting in Room 9. The following program was rendered:

Devotional--Joyce Gardner/
Song.

History of Movement

--Miss Simpson.

In the Land of Beginning Again

--Margaret Duncan.

And other interesting numbers.

Jokes

Sills: (After Sunday night dates) Where did you get that dog hair on your coat?
Lamar: (Nervously) Puppy love, perhaps.

Blanche: Did you pass your History Exam?

Elmo: Heck no! She asked me questions about things that happened before I was even born.

Miss Michael (Coming in late)
Who's under that bed?

Voice: Nobody but us shoes.
Miss Michael: Another disappointment.

Mrs. Fullilove: Don't reach across the table like that.
Haven't you any tongue?

Fritz: Yes'm, but my arm's longer.

Mr. Singley: How did you like the play last night?

Mr. Phagan: I forgot to ask my wife what we thought about it.

Walton: Adios, folks, I'll write home every week.

Mr. Usher: Oh, my goodness, son, try and make your money last longer than that.

Eoster: Will you marry me when I graduate, dear?

Lillian: Yes, gladly, if I can find some one to support me.

Mrs. Fullilove: Walton Usher, please return Thanks.

Walton: (nervously) All right. Thanks.

Paggy: I just got a letter from the sweetest man in town, but he had two X's at the close. What does that mean?

Jimmy: He's double-crossing you.

Mr. Phagan: What is a slide rule?

Fritz: Never slide with your new pants on.

Lucille: Gee, I'm in an awful hole.

Blanche: What's the matter?

Lucille: I've spelled professor with two f's and don't know which one to cross out.

Mildred A.: I suppose you are on the foot ball team.

Leonard: (proudly) Well, yes; I do the aerial work.

Mildred: What's that?

Leonard: I blow up the footballs.

Inman: I'm just crazy about you.

Mary S.: Well, run along, this is no insane asylum.

Mr and Mrs. Alvan A. Singley announce the birth of a daughter on Dec. 3, 1929. She will be called Alva Caroline

D. L. D. Club

To let a good thing die would never do,
So with work of ex-members and new ones, too,
We'll open your eyes as to Who's Who.

Since we're fully organized
And a sponsor of the best
We'll give you our initials
Then you think out the rest.

D. L. D.

The Y. W. C. A. is planning on having a Christmas Bazaar. All the girls on the campus are requested to contribute something in behalf of this.

With hearty cooperation from all, we can put it over with great success.
