

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

The George-Anne

Student Media

1-17-1930

The George-Anne

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne>

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "The George-Anne" (1930). The George-Anne. 2683.

<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne/2683>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Media at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in The George-Anne by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

GEORGE AND ANNE

Published weekly by the Freshman Class of S. G. T. C., Collegeboro.
Vol. IV. No. 7. January 17, 1930.

Who's Who at S. G. T. C.

On Wednesday, January 15, during chapel period the student body elected by secret ballot nominees for Who's Who at S. G. T. C. Voters must pay a poll tax of ten cents to vote. Only those who pay this tax are qualified to vote. The election begins at 11:00 and runs until 5:00. Be sure and cast your vote. We want this to be a democratic election.

The nominees are as follows:

Miss S. G. T. C.
Kathleen Harmon, Lillian Rucker
Mr. S. G. T. C.
Elmo Mallard, Walton Usher
Prettiest Girl
Kathleen Harmon, Gency Covart
Most Attractive Girl
Katherine Brett, Huldah Cail
Most Athletic Girl
Emma Blount, Lucille Sidduth
Most Popular Girl
Huldah Cail, Florence Brinson
Most Athletic Boy
J. D. Fields, Lester Newton
Wittiest Boy
Harry Wrens, Buck Jones
Most Original Girl
Addie B. Parker, Sarah K. Cone
Handsomest Boy
Walton Usher, Ralph Stephens

Walk This Way

On Friday night of last week, the Statesboro Woman's Club sponsored a play which was given in the Auditorium at Teachers College. The play, the name of which was "Walk This Way", was directed by Miss Lucille Latimer from Montezuma, Georgia.

A large number of the town people came to see this performance. Several of the college boys and girls took parts in it.

Y. W. Meeting

The Y. W. C. A. called a special meeting on Tuesday night, Jan. 14. The purpose of this meeting was to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the League of Nations

~~The following interesting program~~

Misses Simmons and Cone Entertain

On Saturday night, January 11, Misses Sarah Katherine Cone and Evelyn Simmons delightfully entertained the members of the T. C. with a social in honor of their attractive visitors, Misses Alla Walden and Mabel Clark.

A very interesting program was rendered after which delicious refreshments were served.

Faculty Entertained

Misses Carrie Clay, Hester Newton and Malvina Trussell entertained the faculty and trustees of the College, with their wives, Tuesday afternoon at a six o'clock tea at the home of Mrs. J. W. Williams on Savannah Avenue.

The following program was rendered at the Y. meeting:

Song--Holy, Holy, Holy.

Scripture Reading

--Kathleen Harmon

Prayer--Miss Simpson

"What the League of Nations Is"

--Vera McElveen

"The League of Nations of the U. S.--Jewell Lurrance

"The League's Power and Ideas"

--Bonnie Low Aycock

"Succeeding Steps toward World Peace"--Eugene Kinney

Reading--"Peace"--L. Rountree.

Mr. Singley next gave a very impressive discussion on Peace. In his speech, he brought out some very interesting instances which happened on his return trips from France during the World War.

After this, the audience was led in singing by Leonard Powell. An appropriate song was sung. "I Aint Gonna Study War No More"

Miss Michael closed the meeting with a prayer.

Mr. Henderson: Do you file your fingernails?

Mr. Wells: No. I just cut them and throw them away.

The Birds Reply to
Robert Burns

Besides the bonie banks O'Doon
Strolls the Poet Robert Burns.
And his lillin' birds and flowers.
Why he sighs and why he yearns.

Ye flowery banks O' bonie Doon
Now can ye chant, ye little birds,
And I so 'fo' O' care?"

"O'ouBbbB, dear, we sing and bloom
To do the best we can
To elevate the drooping heart
Of some dejected man."

"Thou'll break my heart, thou
bonie bird
That sings upon the bough
Thou minds me O' the happy day
When my false lover was true."

When friends proves false whom thou thought true,
And hurtful words are spoken,
Tis then we sing our sweetest
song.

To heal the heart that's broken

"Thou'll break my heart, thou
bonie bird,
That sings besides my mate,
For sae I sat and sae I sin,
And wist na' O' my fate'."

Be bold, be bold, thou distressed man,
And wist not of your fate,
For just as us, Nature has
for you,
A gentle loving mate .

"And have I saved by bonie Doon
To see the woodfin's trine,
And ilka bird song O' its love,
And sae did I O' mine'."

"Now on, and lift your load up to
The beauty of the sky,
And raise your voice and help us
sing,
And keep your spirits high'."

"If lightsome heart I 'd a rose
brae off its thorny tree,
And my fause love stae the rose,
And lift the thorn with me'."

Cheer up, cheer up, thine
mournful man,
Fortune within its blinding hour
Will bring you back a pleasant rose
To hide our painful thorn.
---Leonard Powell

Carl had been taksee pinkie:
When he left, Mrs. Deal asked,
Well Pinkie, What did you and Carl talk about?" Pinkie replied
"O. just about our kith and kin".

Y. W. C. A. Meeting

The Y. W. C. A. held its regular meeting on Tuesday night in Room nine of the administration Building.

The following program was rendered:

Prelude--Marie Hendrix.
Song.
Devotional--Lucille Cox.
Prayer--Stella Vanlandingham
Song.
Minutes.
Vocal Duet--Huldah Cail and Evalyn Simmons.
Reading--Mary Swain
Song.
Benediction.

The organization planned a World
Peace Program and elected Alva
Caroline Singley as its mascot.

Journeys End

A noteworthy drama was shown in Savannah, thursday night, January
16. The picture was entitled "Journeys End". A number of the
S. G. W. A. faculty noticed to Savannah to see this play. Those who went included: President and Mrs. Guy L. Wells, Miss
Clay, Miss Brustoll, Miss Newton,
Miss Brunken, and Mr. and Mrs.
Johnston.

Questions and Answers

Q- How many persons were killed and injured in football during the 1927 and 1928?

A.-According to best available statistics 17 persons were killed and 100 injured in 1927 season,
and 19 killed and 100 seriously injured in the 1928 season.

Q.- Will granite wear longer than limestone?

A.- Granite is the hardest kind of stone and is more durable than limestone, which is one of the beginning* softer stones.

Q.- Is the python and boa constrictor
the same species of snake?

A.- The name boa-constrictor is commonly used to designate any large viper.

Q.- Is there any gas that is lighter than air that will not burn in air?

A.- The only gas which will not burn in air is helium.

Q.- Has a Russian paper ruble any

George - Anne -

The staff

Editor	Ralph Stephens
Asst. Ed.	Dora Smith
News Ed.	S. K. Cone
Alumni Ed.	Blanche Fields
Campus Ed.	Vera McIlveen
Joke Ed.	Florence Brinson
Printers	Eugene Murphy Robert L. Marr
Advisor	Miss Clay
Typist	Parnell Enecks

Lets Back Our Team

There seems to be a lack of interest among the student body toward the Basket-ball team. We realize that the season has not been started long, but it is time for some enthusiasm. The success of the team will depend to a great extent on the support given it. Probably we need a few " pep " meetings to arouse more interest. There should be a large number of the student body at every game to give the team encouragement and help them to win by yelling for them.

S. G. T. C. Has a good team this season and we should help make it a winning team.

Miss Clay Makes Talk

Miss Clay made a very interesting talk in chapel Thursday morning on "Good manners" Her motive was not to make anyone feel that he did not know the rules of etiquette, but to remind him of a few of the essential rules.

Miss Clay stressed the fact that we must be courteous, agreeable, civil, kind, gentlemanly, and womanly at home, and then it will soon become a second nature to be so everywhere.

Emerson said "Good manners are not learned from arbitrary teaching, so much as from acquired habit"

A few

Wise-Sayings

A fool always finds a greater fool to admire him-- Boily.

People love without reason, and without reason they hate.--Raynard

Everyone lives by selling something.--Stevenson.

VESPERS PROGRAM

Miss Clay conducted a very interesting program on "Faith" at Vespers Sunday night at S. G. T. C. The subject was well handled. Saying the least, Miss Clay's talk was inspiring to all who have a desire to amount to something in life. Surely if we have such faith in our God, ourselves and our fellowmen we shall unconsciously absorb the greatest factors of an ideal personality. Knowing Miss Clay as the student body does, we are persuaded to take the truths she presented to mind in more effective manner.

OUTSTANDING BIRTHDAYS OF JANUARY.

January 1, 1733--	Paul Revere
" 3, 107 B. C.--	Cicero
" 6, 1412--	Joan of Arc
" 11, 1757--	Alexander Hamilton
" 13, 1622--	Moliere
" 16, 1876--	Robert V. Service
" 17, 1876--	Benjamin Franklin
" 18, 1782--	Daniel Webster
" 19, 1807--	Robert E. Lee
" 21, 1824--	"Stonewall" Jackson
" 27, 1756--	Mozart
" 31, 1797--	Franz Schubert

STEPHENS LITERARY SOCIETY

The Stephens Literary Society held its regular meeting on Thursday night, January 9, after a very important business discussion, the following program was rendered:

Current Events--Lois Burke
Reading, "The land of Beginning Again",
Margaret Duncan.

Song, "Alma Mater"-- Society

The Society was dismissed by Miss Newton the sponsor.

Remember that all tricks are either knavish or childish.-- Johnson.

What a strange thing is man and what a stranger is woman.-- Burton.

A wise skepticism is the first attribute of a good critic.-- Lowell

Fame some times hath created something for nothing. Fuller.

Against stupidity the very gods themselves contend in vain.
Schiller.

God is not averse to deceit in a holy cause. Aeschylus.

Campus News

Some of the S. G. T. C. students who were off campus for the week end are:- Mary Brown, Rosalyn Walch, Lucile Roundtree, Elizabeth Addison, Katherine Brett, Brunelle Deal, Euclid Compton, Blanche Fields, Vanira Bradham, Mildred Everett, and Lois Burke.

The small previous list needs of course no explanations, since we have enjoyed such a long vacation recently. However perhaps we are aware, too, of the fact that practically the whole student body is back with us again. We also have some new members to begin the New Year with us.

Yet we may wonder why we are back again. We have heard it hinted somewhere that an animal psychologist says that to tame a wild animal feed them abundantly upon things for which they hunger, show them individual respect, and all manner of goodness and they will without doubt come again. Well, you see us back again! As wild animals, but we would probably be so if it were not for such environment as our surroundings, would we not?

The Carruth twins have been elected as mascot for the Junior Class.

Those on the sick list are Rosylen Walch, Gency Cowart, Mary Brown, Wilama Now, Evelyn Cliff, and Malcolm Gillespie.

The many friends of Miss Sara K. Cone will be interested to learn that she has cut her hair.

Mr. Wells made speeches in Blackshear and Jesup last week on "The qualifications of a good Teacher."

Words of The Wise

There is no satiety in study.

Love and a Cough, can not be hid.

Q.-From what is the word Radio derived?

A.-From the Latin word "radius" which means "ray"

Q.-Who owns Santa Catalina island off the coast of California?

A.-William Wrigley, Jr., the chewing gum manufacturer.

Q.-When was Lady Astor first elected to British parliament?

A.-She was elected by a substantial majority on Nov. 22, 1919, thus becoming the first woman to sit in the house of commons.

Alumni News

Bill Bowen was on the campus Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Felmas Rushing and son were on the campus last Sunday.

Miss Eloise Smith visited friends during the past week-end.

Miss Carleen Aaron was the guest of friends Sunday.

Mr. Phagon- And so, students, we come to the conclusion that nothing is impossible.

Minnehan- Well, I'd like to see you run this umbrella down your throat and then open it.

Little Boy Blue better blow your horn, your car's at the cross-road, your break-lining's worn. Little Boy Blue made nary peep, now he's under the tombstone, fast asleep.

Jane- That's the matter? Can't you state?

Beatrice(Trying for first time)- I don't know, I can't stand up long enough to find out.

Sid- May I kiss you?

Peggy- Heavens, another amateur!

Elmo- What do you make shoes with Miss Russell- Hido.

Elmo- Why should I Hido?

Miss Russell- Hido! Hido! a cow's outside!

Elmo- Ah! Let the Ole cow come in, I'm not afraid.

Eternal Flapper

The seven ages of woman.

The infant.

The little girl.

The miss.

The young woman.

The old woman.

Missress: "Mary has the chemist sent that sleeping draught yet?"

Idid: "No, Ma'am".

Missress: "Then ring him up and ask him if he expects me to keep all night waiting for him."

We imagine the smallest volume in the world is "Who Who in Italy".

ddie B- Have you seen Amanda?