BACHELORS' CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Bachelors' Club had a chicken fry Saturday Afternoon. They each in company with an old maid left the campus immediately following the baseball game with Cochran. Properly chaperoned by Mr. & Mrs. Henderson, Miss Simpson, and Mr. and Mrs. Barron they enjoyed a delicious picnic under the stately pines.

A short program was presented. Waldo Pafford gave an informal talk on the work of the Club. After this Mrs. Henderson played and sang several songs of love. Then Mr. Henderson made everyone laugh with glee as he gave his advice to each boy and selected as his subject "How to keep from being a Bachelor."

After this lecture everyone enjoyed a nice chicken supper prepared by the bachelors.

CABINET RETREAT

The old and new Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. accompanied by Mrs. Singley and her baby went to the Boy Scout Camp for planning next years work. The program began with the reading of "Into the woods my Master went" by Kathleen Harmon followed by the scripture reading by Vera McElveen. Addie B. Barker then led in prayer. The girls joined in singing "Father of Lights". Very helpful suggestions were offered by all in the course of the discussion of each officer and the chairman's duty.

A delightful supper given by Mrs. Singley was served as the conclusive feature.

Mr. Wells-"Where is our Sunday School lesson found?"
Dora Smith-(peeping in book)
"Page 85."

INTERESTING CHAPEL PROGRAM RENDERED

Wednesday Morning May the seventh Miss Brannen and Mrs. Johnston had charge of the chapel exercises.

The following program was given.

Devotional	Dorothy Griner
Prayer	Mr. Wells
Reading	Sallie Jo Bird
Piano Solo	Ocoma McDaniel
Reading	Pearl Olliff

After this Miss Cooper gave four vocal classical selections by German, Italian, French, and American composers.

BACHELORS' CLUB PRESENTS PLAY

The Bachelor's Club presented a three act comedy "Bachelors Forever", in the auditorium on last Friday evening. It was a success but they did not prove to the audience that they would remain in that sublime state forever. We think that the name of the club should be change to a more appropriate name for the title "Bachelors Forever" is somewhat misleading.

SAVANNAH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE VISITS CAMPUS

On Monday afternoon, May 12, the students and faculty members of S. G. T. C. were delighted to welcome the Savannah Chamber of Commerce and its official band. Martial music filled the air, as the visitors made a tour of the buildings and points of interest on the campus. Refreshments were served consisting of punch and crackers.

We were indeed glad to have this visit from the outstanding ~~mix~~ citizens of Savannah. It serves as a connecting link in the bond of friendship we wish to hold.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM AND INSTALLATION OF Y. W. C. A. OFFICERS

On May 11 the vesper program WAS PROBABLY the most impressive of the year. And improvised auditorium was formed on the campus in front of East Dormitory, the center of the stage being denoted by a large blue triangle. The program began with the singing of My Mother's Bible, followed by a solo with guitar accompaniment, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine", by little Miss Betty Smith. Devotional was then led by Miss Annie Ruth Moore, and prayer by Mr. Wells. The next feature was the forming of a red and white flowered wreath by the audience with the flowers that were given at the entrance. The placing of the flowers was silent tribute to mother. Miss Marion Cooper sang "Mother Machree" as the old and new cabinet assembled to perform the installation service and Miss Clay offered a prayer for Mother.

The procession was led by the retiring president and the new president, the others falling in line behind them, old members bearing lighted candles, all singing "Father of Lights." Upon reaching the front of the audience, a semicircle was formed; the old president gave a farewell address and the coming in officers a response. And interchange of places, lighting and extinguishing of candles and singing of "Follow the Gleam" then took place. At the completion of this they again march down the aisle singing "Lead on, O King Eternal." Mr. Caruth dismissed with prayer.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. had its regular meeting Wednesday night. The delegates to the State Convention last week end were the main speakers. They were Addie B. Parker, Sarah Katherine Cone, Lucile Suddath, Annie Ruth Moore, and Miss Simpson accompanied by Miss Clay. Their report was interesting and gave us new ideas which we intend to carry out through the work of the Y. W. C. A.

In addition to this report Miss Simpson ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ gave some first hand information concerning the wonders of Blue Ridge. We are hoping to send several delegates to Blue Ridge this summer.

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

The first game of the baseball tournament was played Tuesday evening on the campus field. The game was between the freshman team and the high school team. The freshmen were winners by a margin of 22 to 18.

Wednesday evening the Sophomores and High School students played the second game of the tournament. The Sophomores won by a ~~xxx~~ score of 53 to 8.

The Freshman and Sophomore game is to be played soon. Both teams ~~evidently~~ shall meet their match.

SOCIETY OF MISSIONARY INQUIRY HAS PICNIC.

Tuesday afternoon May the 13th, the members of the Society of Missionary Inquiry enjoyed a delightful picnic wupper among the pines just in front of the campus. Miss Clay and Miss Simpson accompanied the group.

A short business session was held in which the president and vice-president for next year were elected. Dora Smith and ~~Ethel~~ was elected as president, and Ethel Lee as vice-president. After this refreshments were served.

JOKES

S. J. and Dan discussing History.

Dan-"They tell me they have found Columbus's bones."

S. J.-"You know not! I never knew he was a gambling man."

Mr. Carruth-"Now, my dear, I've had my life insured for ten thousand dollars."

Mrs. Carruth-"How very sensible you are. Now I shan't have to keep telling you ~~to~~ to be so careful every place you go."

Dekle Golff-"What keeps us from falling off the earth when we're up side down?"

Mr. Singley-"The Law of Gravity of course."

Dekle-"Well, how did folks stay on before that law was passed?"

Pafford-"Girls wish they were men."

Martha-"Why do you say that?"

Pafford-"Because spinsters like to call themselves 'bachelor girls', but no bachelor ever calls himself an 'old-maid man'."

A. W. Bacon-"And if a bear should swallow me, I should die, shouldn't I?"

Miss Trussell-"Yes."

A. W. -"And should I go to heaven?"

Miss Trussell-"Yes, why shouldn't you?"

A. W. -"But would the bear have to go too?"

Huldah-"Do you eat in between meals?"

Sarah Kat-"I have no between meals."

Mr. Wells-(Worried) "I wonder if they meant anything by it?"

Mr. Henderson-"By what?"

Mr. Wells-"Well, while I was away at school there was a great lecture on fools. Of course I went, and on buying a ticket, it was marked 'admit one'."

Miss Newton-"Who was the first man?"

Huldah-Washington; he was first in was, first in-----"

Miss Newton-"No, no, Adam was the first man."

Huldah-"Oh! If you're speaking 'bout foreigners, I s'pose he was."
