

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

The George-Anne

Student Media

12-16-1930

The George-Anne

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne>

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "The George-Anne" (1930). The George-Anne. 2690.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/george-anne/2690>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Media at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in The George-Anne by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

George - Anne

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY FRESHMAN CLASS

VOL. V.—NO. 5

SOUTH GEORGIA TEACHERS COLLEGE, COLLEGEBORO, GA.

DEC. 16, 1930

HOME-COMING AT S. G. T. C.

Collegeboro, Ga.,
Nov. 29, 1930.

Dear Lillian:

I just that minute finished my last exam and that is why I feel free to write you all about our Thanksgiving.

I first realized that it was somewhat a reunion day at ole' T. C., when Marie Hendricks breezed into the dormitory, looking every inch the successful music and primary teacher she is reputed to be.

However, Talmadge (Shoat) Roberts had come in Wednesday night from Mercer, probably at Mr. Henderson's request for help during this exam week.

I think the reason we won the game from B.-P. I. was that Fritz Jones came down from Auburn to root for us. Delmas Rushing showed his excitement and longing for a football uniform by pacing madly up and down in front of the grandstand. Walter Usher, Weldon (Coffee) Black, Robert Mobley, Rudolph DeLoach, Waldo Pafford, Earl Rountree, Lester (Big) Newton, Lincoln Boykin, Aubrey Waters, Harry Purcell and A. G. Middleton helped make up the agitated spectators, also. Mary Ann Jones, Dex Elva Hardaway, Jessie Hagins, Pauline Burke, Beatrice Middleton, Dell Hagin, Davis Lindsey, Janet Grace, Ruby Joiner, Earl Spell and Ethel Heidt kept at a respectable distance from the ground, but with all their show of composure, you could tell which side they were for.

The dinner Thursday night would not have been possible without Dorothy Thomas being on hand to assist Mrs. Fulliolle. Talmadge, Dot, E. K. Bell and E. L. Miller contributed to the program by expressing their happiness on being present at WHO'S WHO?

On Wednesday the first ballots for "Who's Who?" were cast. The results were posted, and on Thursday in chapel "campaign" speeches were made. These were very amusing and enlightening, and thoroughly enjoyed.

The contest resulted as follows:

Miss S. G. T. C.—Addie B. Parker.

Mr. S. G. T. C.—Sidney Boswell.

Most beautiful girl—Ruth Peeples.

Handsome boy—Jack Thompson.

Most popular girl—Kathrine Brett.

Most popular boy—John Ellis Rountree.

Most attractive girl—Nina Herrington.

Wittiest boy—James Neville.

Most athletic girl—Mamie Rimes.

Most attractive boy—Ed Jones.

such a gala occasion at S. G. T. C. "Alma Mater".

Oh, I forgot to tell you that Herbert, or "Beautiful" Gooden drove up just in time around noon to get himself in on a campus scene Mr. Rustin was making. Don't be surprised that it was Robert Bradley peering around from behind the car!

I do hope I haven't omitted any one, but there was such a galaxy of alumni here. How we wished for you!

Write me a letter soon.

Love,

MARY.

SONG FOR PARTING

How many tears are shed in token
Of ladies' hearts too lightly broken!
But I, poor instrument of passion,
Will take my solace in this fashion:
Yes, you broke my heart, it's true—
But don't forget that I broke you!

SOPHOMORE TEAM DEFEATS FACULTY

An interesting event of the season was the Sophomore-Faculty soccer game, which was played last Wednesday afternoon. It was quite a treat to the students to see the faculty get out on the field and kick a ball for a change.

The sophomores took the lead right at the beginning of the game by scoring three points almost in succession. When they scored the third point the game was held up for about fifteen minutes. Miss Newton, who was acting as goal keeper, sprained her ankle and almost fainted. She was revived and the injuries done to her ankle were attended to, as she was unable to stay the remainder of the game. Miss Ray took her place.

The sophomores seemed to have received new energy during the short rest period and scored two more points, but the faculty seemed to have been helped by the rest period also and they carried the ball down the field and scored four points while the sophomores scored only two more points, thus making the score of 8-4.

BRUNSON-McCORMICK

Much interest surrounds the marriage of Miss Mabel Brunson, daughter of J. Henry Brunson, to Dan McCormick, of Brooklet, which took place Sunday, December 14.

Mrs. McCormick has been associated with the college for the past six years, serving as book-keeper and teacher of shorthand and during that time has endeared herself to all those with whom she has come in contact.

It is a matter of genuine pleasure to her friends at S. G. T. C. that her marriage will not take her from the college.

George-Anne

Published Weekly By Freshman Class
SOUTH GEORGIA TEACHERS COLLEGE
Collegeboro, Georgia

STAFF

Editor-in-Chief, Margaret Witherspool
News Editor, Beulah Davis.
Club Editor, Constance Cone.
Sport Editors: { James Neville.
 { Kathleen Sewell.
Printers: { James Weeks.
 { D. F. Warnock.
Advisor, Miss Clay.

BEGINNING AGAIN

We have many things to be thankful for and we can express it in many ways. First, we are thankful to those at home who, perhaps at a great sacrifice, are sending us to college. Second, we are thankful to those Pilgrim Fathers who instituted the custom of bringing rich gifts of the soil, and we should rejoice that we are so fortunate as to be living in an age which has so much to offer in a spiritual and material way.

Second term has begun. Though our accomplishments during the last term may have been few, we may now feel that we have a clean slate upon which to put the imprint of the next six weeks.

WHY—

Why should the moon bring an ache to my heart
With fingers of silvery fire
Why should my eyelids tingle and smart
From the tears of a thwarted desire?
Why should the stars bring a message to me
Soft as the notes of a bell?
Why should you live in my memory,
I ask, but the stars never tell?
Why should I love the mystery of night,
The lure of the rainbow's gleam?
Why should I struggle and strive and fight
To shape my life for a dream?
Why should I seek the riches of men
To pierce life's mysteries through
I'd be poorest of all if I failed to win
The ideals I've fashioned in YOU.

—SIDNEY BOSWELL.

Hardeman D.: "Do you think you could learn to love me?"

Ollis C.: "Well, I learned to eat spinach."

LIBRARY REGULATIONS

BOOKS of FICTION and BIOGRAPHY may be checked out at any time during the day and kept one week. These books may be renewed at the end of a week if they are not in demand.

For each day or part of a day that a book of fiction or biography is overdue a fine of two cents is collected.

OVER NIGHT BOOKS may be checked out at 4 o'clock in the afternoon or at 9:30 at night. These books are due at 8:30 the next morning.

RESERVED BOOKS may be checked out after 4 o'clock in the afternoon to be kept until 8:30 the next morning. (If a reserved book is in demand it is kept in the library until 9:30 at night.)

For each hour or part of an hour a reserve over night book is overdue, a fine of five cents is collected.

REFERENCE BOOKS are not checked out.

MAGAZINES are not to be taken from the library by students.

BOOKS taken from the shelves for use in the library should be left on a table.

ALL BOOKS SIGNED FOR should be returned to the desk.

FRIENDS

If to you my faults are known.
All my failings and mistakes,
But can forget them with your own
Just for fond friendship's sake,
You are a friend of mine.

If you would help instead of blame
By showing me the things I do
That bring dishonor to my name;
There could be none more true,
Whom I could call a friend.

If you grant me a field that's fair
Upon which to play the game,
A field from which slam is clear
And dimensions are the same,
I want you for a friend.

If you grant me these demands
And demand no less from me,
Will play a game that will stand
The test of gloom or polity,
For we are friends.

—U. Mc.

INVENTORY

What have I done?
Three months have just past,
Second three have just begun
With the experience of the last.

What shall I do?
Cannot change or borrow
From that which is through,
But, I have the tomorrow.

—U. Mc.

"That last kiss was nice,
dear." "Who said that was the last one?"

Mc. Natt: "May I have the last dance with you?"

Irma D.: "You've just had it."

Miss Clay: "What part of speech is 'vacuum cleaner'?"

H. H. Olliff: "A collective noun."

Murphy: "Why did you wake me out of a sound sleep?"

Big R.: "Because the sound was too loud."

Jane W: "Do you like meat balls?"

Charles.: "I don't know, I've never attended any."

"Twas far, far out in the country,
She said "No," as girls will—
He is back in the city,
But she is walking still!

Father: "I hear you are always at the bottom of the class.
Can't you get another place?"

Newton Wall: "No, all the others are taken."

John: "I want an opportunity to say I love you."

Joan: "Are you so bashful."

John: "No, but I don't want any witnesses."

Jack T.: "Why to they call those things dressing gowns?
You can't dress in one of them."

Ed. J.: "Well, you don't take a bath in a bathrobe, do you?"

Auntie: "Well, Tommy, give me a kiss and you shall have a nice new penny."

Tommy: "No, Auntie, that's what I get at home for taking cod liver oil."

WORK THIS ONE

(By VERA McELVEEN)

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

Across

- I. 1. The game played by the Sophomore team and faculty.
8. A preposition denoting a portion.
- II. 1. Teachers College.
4. A space computed by linear dimensions.
- III. 1. Where the sun rises.
6. Margaret ——— Wells.
- IV. 5. Reciprocal of subtract.
- V. 1. The most popular dish of the dining hall.
- VI. 3. A bird of beautiful plumes.
- VII. 1. Negative reply.
7. Rat when the a is not before the t.
- VIII. 1. Friday night affairs.
7. Denoting probability.

Down

- I. 1. One of our literary societies.
- II. 1. A South American plant resembling our potato.
5. An article.
7. An exclamation.
- III. 1. Multiplied choice test of sea, c, see.
3. In a mediocre manner.
- IV. 1. A domestic animal for old maids.
5. The use of soap (spelled backwards).
- V. 1. An annex of words.
4. An article.
6. Contraction of it is.
- VI. 1. One who keeps up with the times.
- VII. 2. A conjunction.
6. A limb of many gestures.
- VIII. 5. A Latin prefix meaning 8.
- IX. 1. When at liberty!
6. A foliage.

Father: "I'm surprised that you should become infatuated with that girl. Why you should have been able to read her like a book."

Levy R.: "Well, you see, dad, the light was rather low."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT—

1. Juanita Rozier has found the use of Television in East Dormitory, for just as she hung up the receiver, she exclaimed to her friend, "He looked at me so funny when I said that."

2. Jean Kicklighter has regained his progress.

3. Melrose has bestowed upon Mr. Hanner the title of "Matron". Note: We are sure Mr. Hanner is proud of this elevation.

4. Evelyn Zetterower has found her beauty.

5. Imogene Waters feels her importance since she has been admitted to the faculty of S. G. T. C. as a teacher over at the Training School.

WANT ADS

LOST—Our community standing since exams. THE FRESHMEN.

LOST—The good grades I expected to make. EVELYN OLLIFF.

LOST—Social privileges. MILDRED, JANE, LILLIAN and MARGARET.

WANTED—Abolition of the Abnormal Curve System of Grading. FRANK MIKELL.

WANTED—The use of a step-ladder so that I might reach my post office box. STELLA VAN.

LOST—A nutty roommate. If found, please return to SARA J. KENNEDY and receive reward.

WANTED—A special room in East Dormitory in which to install my Beauty Parlor. WILLMA NEW.

WANTED—A chance to present my Health Talk to the inmates of the lunatic asylum. ADDIE B. PARKER.

O: "How did you find the weather while you were away?"

K: "Just went outside and there it was."

Pupil: "Hey, Lady. There's a dead fly in my soup."

Dietitian: "Yes, sir, it's the heat that kills 'em."

He: "Can I be your steady fella?"

She: "If you were any steadier you'd be motionless."

Doctor: "Obey orders, or I'll send you abroad."

Lehman F.: "Okay, Doc. make sure she's a nice one."

Gene K.: "I'm knee-deep in love with you."

Nina H.: "All right, I'll put you on my waiting list."

Buyer: "Let's play the game called 'Building and Loan'."

Seller: "How do you play it?"

Buyer: "Get out of this building and leave me alone!"

Miss A.: "Are you aware of the fact that the faculty has stopped petting?"

Mr. B.: "Is that so? I hope you don't think I do everything they do."

Leonard A.: "Ruth, will you marry me?"

Ruth P.: "Why, you couldn't keep me in handkerchiefs."

Leonard A.: "Well, you don't expect to have a cold the rest of your life, do you?"

Miss Clay: "Correct this sentence, 'Before any damage could be done, the fire was put out by the volunteer fire department'."

Sling Shot: "The fire was put out before any damage could be done by the volunteer fire department."

First drunk: "Shay, quit following me."

Second Drunk: "I can't. I'm going shame plashe you are."

First Drunk: "Where?"

Second Drunk: "I dunno! Thash why I'm followin' you."

COLLEGE NOTES

Mr Hanner was a visitor in Savannah Saturday.

Mrs. Fullilove is spending a few days in Athens.

Lincoln Boykin was a visitor on the campus Sunday.

Miss Veasey visited friends in Dublin during Thanksgiving.

Miss Jewel Cowart was a visitor on the campus Sunday.

Frank Rowe, of Charleston, visited on the campus Thursday.

Beulah Davis spent Thanksgiving with Maude Cobb in Statesboro.

Miss Francis Carter spent Thursday in Statesboro with Miss Maude Cobb.

Miss Essie Mae Davis, of Brooklet, was a visitor on the campus Thursday.

Miss Lucile Hood spent Sunday in Brooklet with Miss Sallie Blanche McElveen.

Miss Maude Cobb spent Saturday night on the campus with Miss Francis Carter.

Miss Mildred Avret is reported to be doing nicely and will soon be back on the campus.

Miss Kathaline Massey, of Rochelle, S. C., was the guest of Miss Beulah Davis Thursday evening.

We are glad to have Miss Evelyn O'Quinn back to the campus with us, after her two weeks illness in the Statesboro hospital.

The Sophomores delightfully entertained the students with a supper at the Scout Camp Saturday night. The following subject was debated: Resolved, That it is worse to have the toothache than to be in love. Sidney Boswell and Elmo Malarl debated the affirmative, while Leonard Powell and Early Love upheld the negative side. The decision was two to one in favor of the affirmative. Readings were given and talks enjoyed, after which supper was served.

Miss Malvina Trussell had as her guests for Thanksgiving Miss Eleanor Ray, Miss Mae Michael, Miss Hester Newton and Miss Emily Simpson.

Several of our old students have stopped, some to go to work and others for various other reasons. However, new ones are entering at the beginning of the new term, taking the places of those who have left.

The students of Anderson Hall delightfully entertained Misses Lucile Hood and Gladys Morgan, who are leaving school, with a supper in the dining hall Monday evening.

A great many of the former students of the college were welcomed back for Thanksgiving. After attending the game on Thursday afternoon the B.-P. I. team and all students returned to the campus for the Thanksgiving dinner. A special program was arranged for that time. Music was furnished by the Collegians and the stringed orchestra. Solos by Mrs. Smith and Mr. Nevil were enjoyed. Humorous stunts were pulled off and snappy talks were given by the former students.

Those spending the week end at home were Reta Lee, Mae Cumming, Mildred Everett, Margaret Duncan, Francis Enecks, Almarita Lindsey, Katharine Lovett, Jaunita Rosier, Lorine Barnhill, Lorina Rosier, Orita Jones, Grace Hodges, Francis Parker, Blanche Fields, Wade Cartee, Howard Cannady, Preston Sandifer, George Thrift, Mildred Proctor, Grace Trapnell, Selma Watson, Madge Temples, Lucile Suddath, Francis Coleman, Mildred Bird, Mildred Proctor, Kathleen Sewell, Pearl Olliff, Nora Zetterower, Evelyn Zetterower, Ollis Cowart.

In honor of Mrs. Edgar Cone, of Manchester, England, who is spending some time in Statesboro as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Cone, Miss Hester Newton entertained with a delightful tea on Wednesday afternoon. During the hours from four-thirty to six o'clock, the guests gathered in the parlor of the East Dormitory, where an informal program was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Those present, in addition to the hostess and the guest of honor, were Mrs. Lula Bell, Miss Mamie Veazey, Miss Edith Robertson, Mrs. Alvin Singley, Mrs. R. E. Fullilove, Mrs. Z. S. Henderson, Mrs. B. L. Smith, Mrs. D. N. Barron, Mrs. J. E. Carruth, Miss Mabel Brunson, Miss Effie Bagwell, Miss Viola Perry, Mrs. Perry, Miss Eleanor Ray, Miss Marie Wood, Miss Emily Simpson, Miss Malvina Trussell, Miss Carrie Clay, Miss Marion Shuptrine, Mrs. Howell Cone, Mrs. Guy H. Wells and Miss Mae Michael.

A delightful function of last week was the tea with which Mrs. Guy Wells entertained the members of the faculty at her home on Friday afternoon, December 12. Mrs. Howell Cone poured tea and was assisted in serving by Miss Brannen, Miss Clay and Miss Trussell. During the afternoon Christmas gifts were presented to the guests by the hostess.

Fulfilling its tradition, the Y. W. C. A. sponsored the singing of Christmas Carols at the homes of the faculty, board members and ministers in town, and at the dormitories on the campus. This event takes place during the early morning hours of the Sunday preceding the holidays and is always anticipated with keen pleasure. Nothing is more beautiful than these favorite carols, and nothing can so fill one with a feeling of reverence as the singing of them at the beginning of a sacred day. Those who took part in Sunday's program were Miss Simpson, Madge Temples, Stella Vanlandingham, Addie B. Parker, Hazel Thompson, Sara Katherine Cone, Ruth Edenfield, Martha Martin and Dora Smith.

"Were you ever completely down and out?"

"No, but there was once when I would have given a thousand to be that way."

"Quit your kidding. How could that be?"

"My plane went into a tailspin at one thousand feet."