Obituary

Willie Mae Robins Hagan (Mae) will be most remembered as a sincere, devoted hard worker, devoted to her family and friends. She worked from sun up to sun down, yet never tired of her duties.

She was an avid listener of Gospel Music and her favorite song was "As Long As I got King Jesus". Knowing this, she knew she would conquer the work.

Memories of her driving her little red truck to the store, most fondly, "Bud Lee's" will leave an impression on most hearts - the loud yells of "Hey Ya'll, how you doing?" and the laughter that followed.

She offered money to Diane to marry Bug! Just like Mae Hagan! And oh, Bre's date for her prom - she didn't approve of his hair; the tuxedo made him look very nice, he was a handsome young man, but those braids - she didn't like.

Though, not always able to attend church service, she was a lover of God's Word and attended as her health permitted.

Mae never changed her personality for the approval of others, she gave respect to those who respected her. She was a sincere person who gave freely from her heart. She was the daughter of the late Olliff and Bessie Smith Robins, and was born September 13, 1934 in Bulloch County, Georgia, the youngest of six children.

Mae joined the Miller Grover Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Freddie Hagan, Sr., to which eight children were born. Mae loved life itself and lived it to the fullest! She leaves to cherish her memories: four daughter, Mary H. Bicoy (Puncho) and Sherry Ann Hagan of Statesboro, Georgia, Mercile H. (Errol) Ashond, of College Park, Maryland and Cynthia H. (Gary) Parrish, of Farmville, Virginia; four sons, Gene A. Hagan, Eddie Hagan, Carl Hagan, and Freddie (Diane) Hagan, Jr. of Statesboro, Georgia (Iraq); twelve grandchildren; five great grandchildren, daughter in law, Mary Joyce Taylor of Augusta, Georgia; one sister, Allie Kirkland of Waycross, Georgia; one brother, Louis (Emma) Robins of Statesboro, Georgia; one sister in law, Maybelle Glover of Brooklyn, New York; three aunts, Eula Mae Price of Waycross, Georgia, Mary Lou Eason and Rose Mae Tremble of Statesboro, Georgia; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

If tears could build a stairway,
and memories were a lane,
we would walk right up to heaven
to bring you home again.

No farewell words were spoken
no time to say goodbye
you were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.

Our hearts still aches in sadness
and secret tears still flow,
what it meant to lose you,
no one will ever know.

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.

Just say I tried to do what's right to give the most I could, no less.

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's just for God to do.

I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.

Please don't send me flowers or talk in real hush tones.

Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God.

I've made it home.

Don't talk about what I could have been, it's over and it's done.

Just see to all my family's needs, especially Sherry Ann...

When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint.

I've done some good, I've done some wrong, so use all your paint.

Not just bright and light tones use some gray and dark.

In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart.

Don't just remember good times, but remember all the bad.

For life's full of many things, some happy and some sad.

But if you must do something ten I have one request,

Forgive me for the wrongs I've done and with the love that's left...

Thank God for my soul's resting.

Thank God for I've been blessed.

Thank God for all who loved me.

Praise God for who loved me best.

Recessional

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road
To sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys.
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place far greater than we know...

For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace...

Together, with the Lord.

In Appreciation

Perhaps you sent a comforting message
Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent lovely flowers
If so, we saw them there;
Perhaps you spoke kind words
As only a friend can say;
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day;
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food
Or maybe furnished a car;
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
