*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!*

*And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam;*

*When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!*

*And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.*

*For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far;*

*I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Perhaps you sent food or a spray
Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a card or gram
If so, it is here
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us today
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much whatever your part.
