A LETTER TO TAN

My Cousin, My Sister, My Friend

Dear Tan,
Just the other day my mother asked me, "when was the last time you talked to Tan?" And I said, "It's been a while but I know she is somewhere working."

WORK...

Work is what you did Tan, and your work is measured by your accomplishments. I reminisce of your work. It was your work that brought family and friends together years ago at Pizza Inn when our kids were little, to bringing friends and family together when our kids graduated. It was your work that nurtured and cared for Ethel. Never wavering, always persevering. It was your work that allowed you to get your dream home as your and I peeked through the windows before you even had the keys. It was your work that earned you the respect of any employee that worked under you, and you made them better. It was your work in our friendship, and our kinship and in reaching out that allowed us to say to each other, I love you. And Tan, I so thank you for that. It's work now, as I fight these tears, writing and realizing the absence of that all too familiar greeting, "what up girl!," you always gave me.

Good work is accomplished if you are precise, leading, loving, and daring. All qualities that you possess. And anyone lucky enough to be a part of your life, Tan, you gave US your BEST WORK.

TAN, you are one of God's best work, and I will love you forever.
May you rest in peace.

Love, your cousin, sister, and friend.
