STATESBORO - The Sun Belt Conference men's soccer schools announced today that it will be participating in the Soccer United Against Hunger 2020 food drive campaign, powered by the United Soccer Coaches.

The drive is to help support local food banks in this time of need. More than 500 Division I men's and women's soccer programs across the nation are uniting along with soccer communities to take action against hunger. The Sun Belt men's soccer teams have set their goal to raise $500 towards the campaign for the month of June.

See below a video from the SAAC representatives from the Sun Belt Conference men's soccer schools, including Georgia Southern student-athletes Chase Winters and Maverick Boring, as well as student manager Chandler Jarrell.
