Obituary

Itelean Smith Hendrix, daughter of the late William (Mott) and Lue Smith, was born March 14, 1903 in Statesboro, Bulloch County, Georgia.

She later moved to Savannah, Georgia where she lived for many years before moving to White Plains, New York. She resided there for many years prior to returning to Savannah, Georgia. Recently she moved to Statesboro, where she departed from this life suddenly on Saturday, February 24, 1990, at her residence.

At an early age, she joined the St. Mary's United Methodist Church where she served before moving to Savannah and joined Palen United Methodist Church where she served faithfully as an Usher and Stewardess. She was a member of the United Methodist Women and was a dedicated member to her church, never refusing to assist in any capacity.

She leaves to cherish a beautiful memory, one son, Mr. Lee Edward Moore of Statesboro, Ga.; two stepdaughters, Ms. Julia Hendrix and Ms. Fannie Mae Hendrix, both of Savannah, Ga.; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Christian and Mrs. Maude Hendley, both of Statesboro, Ga.; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Rosa Lee Moore of Statesboro, Ga. and Mrs. Carrie Swinson of Bayshore, N.Y.; 14 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*Your life was like a candle light;
So pure so brief, but of so bright
With beams of love, you filled each heart
And made it hard for us to part.
We miss your voice, your sweet embrace,
Your precious smile, your angel face,
Our hearts are sad, but this we know;
When God called, you had to go!
God needed you in heaven above
To teach His angels how to love,
He freed your soul, now it can rise
To lead the angels in paradise.*

With deepest gratitude, the family wishes to acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy shown to them through your prayers, flowers, cards, telegrams, phone calls, visits, and the many other kindness during hours of sorrow. May God bless each of you.
