Home Going Celebration of

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*

Obituary

Lula Mae Hendrix completed a full and beautiful life's journey on Friday, February 5, 1999 at 1:30 a.m. at the Jewish Home and Hospital in New York City. She was born in Register, Georgia on December 26, 1923, to the late Katie and Renzy Hendrix. She was affectionately called "Mama Lula" by many relatives and friends.

She was a surrogate mother to Charles Wayne Hendrix and the late Keith Hendrix. She was a proud Godmother to numerous children.

Lula received her educational foundation from the Bulloch County Schools system. She attended the Marymount College in New York City where she received a Bachelors and Masters degree.

Lula pursued a career in cosmetology and later opened a beauty shop of her own. She continued to explore a more rewarding career and became a teacher for the New York City Board of Education where she remained until her retirement. She was also a professional singer.

Lula grew up in a Christian home. She continued her Christian journey until her health began to fade. She loved her Second Saint John family. She was especially devoted to the missionaries.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Beatrice Hendrix of New York; three brothers, Wincel Hendrix of New York; Rev. Carl and Limuel Hendrix of Register, Georgia; a very special nephew, Charles Wayne Hendrix; four aunts, Irene McNeil of Metter, Georgia; Edna Hendrix of Detroit, Michigan; Rose Hendrix of Ocala, Florida and Leola Hendrix of Claxton, Georgia and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
