Invictus

Out of the Night That Covers Me
Black as the pits from pole to pole
I thank whatever God maybe for my Inconquerable Soul.
In the felt clutch of circumstance
I have not wrenched nor cried aloud,
Under the bludgeoning of chance
My head is bloody but unbowed.
Beyond this place of wraith and tears
Looms but the horrors of the shades
And yet the menace of this years finds
And shall find me unafraid.
It matter not how straight the gate,
How charged with punishment the scroll,
God is the master of my fate
God is the captain of my soul.

THANKS

Perhaps you sent a card or gram
Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent food or a spray
If so, it is here
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us today
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much whatever your part.

Obituary

"A child of the air; a joyous spirit; well disposed, warm, affectionate; her nature in her face; tender, merry, loving.

N. Henry

"In His Footseps"

When someone does a kindness
 It always seems to me
 That's the way God up in heaven
 Would like us all to be ...
 For when we bring some pleasure
 To another human heart,
 We have followed in His footsteps
 And we've had a little part
 In serving Him who loves us
 For I am very sure it's true
 That in serving those around us
 We serve and please Him, Too.
