Formation of Y's

From an interview with Dean Anderson concerning the formation of Y's it has been found that he is a profound believer in them, for he thinks they are profitable to any one who participates. He readily states that it is the best organization in a college to develop real Christian girls and boys.

Every now and then we get up sufficient courage to put one foot out in front of the other. If nothing else, it enables us to stand in to an abyss, we drag the other foot even with it—there to remain until another charge of progressiveness live an urge to rise above mediocrity.

These new organizations on the campus are, not another example of growing up the "same old foot." They have twenty members—president Evelyn Blount; vice president Dorothy Anderson; secretary treasurer Della Bell; treasurer Alice Stubb.

The Y's of... it's not yet been fully organized, but their representatives are Misses Deborah and Francis Wilson. These with Evelyn Blount and council Della Bell and Alice Stubb are fast returning from a convention held in Atlanta, Georgia.

These classes evidence, patriotism, vision, and positive purpose. They are a credit to the institution and we commend those who organize them.

Presentation of Twelve Old Maids

The Sophomore Class of Georgia Normal School presented a one act play entitled "The Twelve Old Maids" and the cast consisted of all the students. The play began with a solo of Daniel west. The performance was followed by vocal selections by Misses Lea and Misses Matson. The play was directed by Dorothy Thomas.

The old maid's main idea and purpose in life was to catch a husband. The play held the attention of the audience by its jest and humor and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Students Selected For Debating

Students Selected For Debating

The preliminary round for Georgia Normal Intercollegiate debate team the following were selected by the judges: Mr. Waldo Pafford, Mr. Bothwell Johnson, Miss Larry Brinson, and Miss Larry Lou Courtney.

The debate will be held sometime in the near future as one of the leading events of the Tifton Agriculture College and Georgia Normal meet. Georgia Normal will have representatives in Tifton to compete with the team there. The same time Tifton Agriculture College will have representatives at Georgia Normal for the same purpose.

The question for debate in "Should Georgia Issue Bonds For Building and Education Purposes?" is an important question that is being discussed by leading educators and is of vital importance to the schools of Georgia.

The affirmative side of the question will be represented at Georgia Normal by Mr. Waldo Pafford and Miss Larry Lou Courtney. The negative side being represented at Tifton by Mr. Bothwell Johnson and Miss Larry Brinson.

Our President's Idea of Student Participation

Mr. Wells thinks the largest part for the Students to take in school activities is keeping the campus clean first of all. They should cooperate for order in the cafeteria, handle cases of discipline like the uniform rules, put up the flag; have charge of Vesper; not take part in chapel.

He volunteered to say the pledge of education makes life itself instead of preparation; it is a thing in itself.

Taking part in various activities gives the students more pleasure, so student likes to be housed. It is a name of better development. Student participation gives a better name to the school.

The rights of maintenance is a splinter in a wooden leg.

Our Debut
The George-Anno makes its bow to the collegiate world to-day.
We are proud of this privilege and will welcome helpful suggestions.
As the freshman class, wish to demonstrate our journalistic abilities.
The rivalry between the sections of the class will be the chief center of attraction, for each is at work trying to out-wit the other in making its issue more original and spicy.

You and who else?

COLLEGE DAYS
Days of hoping, days of dreaming-happy days.
Days of shouting, yelling, screaming-sad days.
Days of song, when love is (dawning) days-of-days.
Days that drift like floating swallows
Days of boar and turn down collars.
Days of Grace for borrowed collars.
College days.

George Glee and Instrumental Club Visits Georgia Normal.

The program rendered by the instrumental Club, Thursday evening, was an event of much pleasure and entertainment to the large crowd that was present.
The amusement ran from the Jazz to the classical, from the comic to the serious. Jokes told by the Black Face Comedians, Dan Bailey and Harry Painapple, as well as the short playlet "The Latest Revision of Macbeth," were enjoyed.

We were given a touch of opera in the solos of Mr. E. T. Tyler,
Mr. John Smelling pleased the audience with a solo, "Hello Little Girl, Hello."

The audience showed their appreciation and enjoyment of the selections rendered by the "Georgia Four" by their repeated encores.

But the program would not have been complete without the Georgia Orchestra, which rendered such splendid selections. This with the lighting effect and the appropriate costumes of Red and Black in the last act gave the final touch of Characteristic Georgia.

 Beauties around G. H. S.
Our campus is a large flower garden in which is planted the G.H.S. The flowers scattered here and there are always in bloom making it very attractive. I'm sure no school can boast of more beautiful woods than those surrounding the college, in which the students and faculty often get together on moonlight nights for some outing, such as a water race. The presence of our flag gives the entire campus an air of love and loyalty. The soft green car-pet of grass spreads as far as the eye can see, with beautiful music.

The two most beautiful pictures are hanging in the girls reception-room and one hangs in the boys dormitory.
The two beautiful collies running here and there throughout the day make this place seem more home-like with the happy and plann-ing smiles on the faces of Stu-dents and faculty.

Trailing in Georgia

Poke Moonbeams come from over the hill,
Where climbs the moon on high
And from the woods a whip-poor-will Sends forth his (mating) cry.

For out across a motor goes
That leaves a trail of light;
While from the trees the South wind blows
The peach blossoms into the night.

No Night in all the world to me
Can be compared I know
With all their hopes and memories
And winds that whisper so.

Q, R Radio.

When by the radio our family sits
Listening to all the latest hits
Daddy wants to hear the stock reports
Mother rather hear her favorite song.
Bill wants to hear from the horse race
Personally I'd rather hear,
"Baby Face."

Spring Holidays will begin at G. N. S. Wednesday April 13 ending on April 18.
Normal Defeats B.P.I.

The Normal Nine defeated the B.P.I. nine by a close game, 14-13.

It was a close game, indeed. The victory was not until the last part of the ninth inning. The B.P.I. boys were leading by two runs at the end of the first part of the pinch inning. The two runs were made when Reddick of B.P.I. knocked a home run with one on base.

It was in the ninth inning that Coach Singley put in his "pinch hitters." Fritchard was called out on strikes. Francis Mathis doubled to right field. Love brought Mathis in with a triple to center. Hecore sacrificed and Love came in, Franklin went around on errors, winning the game.

President Judson C. Ward
Hale, Vlg., Georgia
Sir: Dr. Ward:
I was looking over some files I found some copies of the old Georgia Home-Tree,
I think it should be. Not Volume I.
I sent one of these copies in 1951. Which pages? Vol 5. So the other one must be the very first issue, and it very interesting to the students, and I should thank you. Would you like to have it in your library?
Of course, you may have a Copy already. In which case, you will not find the Copy so interesting.
Sincerely,
J. F. Leever
