FOR CHARLES HODGES

*There must be a reason
That we can't see
There must be a reason why,
A reason that we must take on faith as we do the sun on high....
For we know that life is a journey
Sometimes long and sometimes brief
A journey on which we all find joy
Mingled with sadness and grief...
So try to remember the joy today,
However hard it may be,
And trust you'll find comfort
When you know
The reason you now can't see*

OBITUARY

Charles E. Hodges, was born to the late Charlie Hodges and Roxie Hodges. Charles was born December 15, 1937 in Statesboro, Ga. He departed this life on October 13, 1992 in Monifiore Hospital.

Charles moved to Pittsburgh in November 1942 at the age of four. With his parents, he was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System. He graduated from Schenley High School.

Charles joined Mt. Sinai Primitive Baptist Church in 1986. In later years due to his failing health he was unable to attend church regularly, but always doing his best to serve his church, community, family and friends.

Charles spent two years in the United States Army.

He leaves to mourn his passing his mother Roxie Hedges, two sisters; Mrs. Shirley Carter and Deloris Hodges who preceded him in death, four nephews; Mark Carter, Harry Carter, Martin Carter and Deering Carter and one niece Chris M. Carter-Brown, three great nieces and two great nephews, two aunts; Mrs. Loutishia Williams and Mrs. Vencie Dansby, three uncles; Julius Hodges, Leahman Hodges and Fred Hodges and a host of other relatives and friends.

“No one knows about that day or hour. Not even the Angels in Heaven, nor the son, only the father”

Matthew 24:36
