THE OTHER SIDE

This isn't death - - it's glory!
It's not dark - - it's light!
It isn't stumbling, groping,
or even faith - - it's sight!
This isn't grief - - it's having
my last tear wiped away;
It's sunrise - - it's the morning
of my eternal day!

This isn't even praying - -
It's speaking face to face;
Listening and glimpsing
The wonders of HIS GRACE.
This is the end of pleading
For strength to bear my pain;
Not even pains dark memory
Will ever live again.

How did I bear the earth-life
Before I knew this rapture
of meeting face to face
The ONE who sought me, saved me,
And kept me by HIS GRACE!

Obituary

Mr. Charlie Holloway was born to Mr. Randall Holloway and Mrs. Dicey Dekle Holloway, September 22, 1915 in Candler County, Georgia.

He joined Sam's Creek Baptist Church at an early age. He remained a faithful member until his passing, September 5, 1992. He never forgot Sam's Creek. Throughout the years he would send monetary contributions to the church.

He was joined in holy matrimony to Miss Velouria McNeal, January 11, 1952. To this union two sons were born.

Mr. Holloway served in the United States Army for 27 years including active duty in World War II and the Korean Conflict. He was awarded the Bronze Star.

Upon retirement from the Army in June of 1971, he made his home in Atlanta, Georgia. He attended Atlanta Bible Baptist Church, where Rev. John McNeal is the pastor.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Velouria McNeal Holloway of Atlanta, Georgia; three sons: Edward Holloway of Lawrenceville, Georgia, Larry Addison of Hallendale, Florida, and Randolph Holloway of the United States Air Force-England; one brother: Randall Holloway of Louisville, Kentucky; ten grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, two nieces and three nephews.
