Obituary

At the breaking of a new day and in the comfort of dedicated healthcare workers God reached down and whispered, Jessie Mae its time. And with the soft heart she always possessed, she left us. The lost most naturally weigh heavy on our hearts because of the human ties which are now broken. However, when we focus on her life we are pleased with God selection from this family. We have learned from her impeccable character and survived by her unconditional love.

Mrs. Jessie Mae Warner Jenkins was born December 21, 1928 in Evans County, Daisy, Georgia to the late Ola Denmark Warren and Nathan Warren.

At a very early age she joined the Historic Mt.Pleasant Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev.Solomon. A faithful member and a true believer in God she served until her calling home. She was a member of the Senior Choir and a member of the Mission.

Jessie Mae was educated in the Public school of Evans County and received her Cosmetology license from Myers beauty school. She was a participant of the Concerted Services and A retiree from Quartermasters Laundry, Fort Stewart Georgia.

On November 18, 1947, she was joined into holy matrimony to Robert Jenkins. She was preceded in death by her loving and devoted husband Robert Jenkins Sr., her caring son Robert Jr., her parents Nathan and Ola Warner, brothers Henry Warren, Nathaniel Warren and Rudolph Warren.

She leaves to cherish her memories, four daughters, Betty Jenkins Hagan, Reidsville ,Ga.,Christine Davison(Walter)Radcliff,Kentucky,Carlina Bacon(Gurnie)HinesvilleGa.,Amy Williams, Gulfport,Mississippi.One son, Warnell Jenkins(Oma) Sylvania ,Ga. Three sisters , Magaline Carlton, Pompano,Florida,Dona Lee Bacon(James)Daisy ,Ga., and Verdie Lee Boggs, Claxton ,Ga.One brother Rilo Warner,Maywood,Ill.Three sister -in-laws :Doris Warren, Audrey Warren and Gerome Wilkerson. Two Brother-in-laws, James Bacon and Frank Wilkerson.16 grandchildren and 32 great grandchildren. A special friend Mr. Robert Kelsey and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we love is still.
A place is vacant in our hearts
That can never be filled.
