Notes
Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.
Originals provided for filming by the publisher.
Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/3212

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
BPW names 'Girl of the Week'

The Civic Participation Committee of the Statesboro Junior Women's Club recently named Carol Smith, a senior at Southeastern High School, as the Club's 'Girl of the Week.'

During her four years at Southeastern, Smith has been a member of the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior Honor Societies. She has also been a member of the math team, art and debate clubs. Smith has held the offices of president and vice president. She is a member of the Southeastern Girls' Basketball Team. Smith is also a member of the Girl Scouts and Junior Red Cross. She has attended the Junior Red Cross camp at Statesboro.

Academic program studied by faculty

For the past eight months, members of the Georgia Southern College faculty have been engaged in a thorough study of the college's curriculum. The study, which is supported by the Georgia State Board of Education, was conducted to determine the most effective way of organizing the college's curriculum. The study was conducted by the Georgia Southern College faculty and the results were presented to the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia.

SHS honor roll lists 78 students

Seventeen seniors in the Statesboro High School have made the honor roll for the second quarter, according to Principal Dr. W. J. Waller.

First Baptist budget for 63 adopted

The First Baptist Church of Statesboro will receive a message containing a budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, according to the Rev. W. J. Waller, minister of the First Baptist Church.

Grand Jury appoints Denver Lanier of Portal to Board of Education

The Grand Jury of October terms of the Bulloch Superior Court appointed Denver Lanier of Portal to the Board of Education, according to the Rev. W. J. Waller, minister of the First Baptist Church.

Health Department issues warning on injury beats

In recent weeks, the statesman has been receiving a number of reports of injury beatings. These reports have indicated that the injury beatings are occurring in a number of areas. The statesman has been receiving reports of injury beatings in the following areas:

1. A young boy was beaten and left for dead in the woods.
2. A young man was beaten and left for dead in the woods.
3. A young woman was beaten and left for dead in the woods.

C-D adult education class is set

An Adult Education Class in Courtesy and Etiquette will be offered at the Statesboro High School on Monday night and Tuesday night. The class will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Waller, who will serve as instructors.

Portal Baptist to observe their Fifth Anniversary

The Portal Baptist Church will observe their fifth anniversary on Sunday, November 12, at 3:30 p.m. The church will be open for worship at 3:30 p.m. The church will be open for worship at 3:30 p.m.

Fellowship Baptists set annual meet

The Fellowship Baptist Church of Statesboro will hold their annual meeting on Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the church. The meeting will be conducted by the Rev. W. J. Waller, minister of the First Baptist Church.

Real Carnival Link - the game booth at Statesboro Fair, which will be open at 10 a.m. on Thursday, November 16. The game booth will be open on Thursday, November 16.