CROSSING THE BAR

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

OBITUARY

Unselfishly she walked among us
With her meek and tender ways
Seeking always to help others
Constantly busy all her days.

Mrs. Annie Mae Love Johnson, daughter of the late Ned and Susan Riggs Love was born in Bulloch County, October 2, 1902, one of 11 children. She departed this life Thursday morning, March 24, 1977.

She attended the public schools of Bulloch County. At an early age she joined the Old Bethel Primitive Baptist Church where she served faithfully.

She was joined in Holy Wedlock on October 20, 1922. To this union ten children were born.

She later moved to Eden, Georgia. There she connected herself with the Eden Baptist Church. In 1952 she moved to Savannah, Ga. and joined the Little Bryan Baptist Church in Southern Junction under the leadership of Rev. Donaldson. She served there faithfully until God called her home.

She leaves to mourn her passing, a loving husband, Mr. James G. Johnson; six sons, Milton, Galbert, Ashby and Rudolph Johnson, all of Savannah, Ga. Charles Johnson, New York, N.Y.; four daughters, Mrs. Vivian Knight of Statesboro, Ga., Mrs. Mattie Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Bulloch of New York, N.Y., and Mrs. Earline Wesley of Savannah, Ga. Three sons-in-law, four daughters-in-law, two sisters-in-law, 45 grandchildren, 29 great grands, and a host of relatives and friends.

Should you go first and I remain
One thing I'll have you do,
Walk slowly down that lonely road
For soon I'll follow you.
