The Story of Bulloch County

Making wedding plans

The guests were in attendance, all dressed for a party, including the bride and groom. The wedding was held at the Bulloch County Courthouse. The bride, Mary Jones, and the groom, Robert Smith, were married in the courtroom. They had been engaged for six months.

A simple wedding

The wedding was a simple and intimate ceremony, with only family and close friends in attendance. The couple exchanged vows in front of Justice of the Peace, Mr. Johnson. The ceremony lasted for about an hour.

Guests arrive at sundown

No members of the guests had arrived. The bride and groom were seated at the altar, with the officiant standing behind them. The guests arrived at sundown, and the ceremony began.

To be continued

The ceremony was to continue tomorrow. The couple had planned a reception at the nearby restaurant, where they would enjoy a romantic dinner.

In Memory

The individuals mentioned in this letter were remembered:
- Joe Miller, 55
- William Smith, 57
- Robert Johnson, 45
- Mary Jones, 30
- Robert Smith, 35
- Justice of the Peace, Mr. Johnson

In 1955, the population of Bulloch County was estimated at 15,000. The county seat is Statesboro, and the courthouse is located in the historic downtown area.
