Ann Slater, Herald.

H-Brace turned to Clifton...
Funeral rites held for Irvin Brannen

The Bulloch Herald — Page 10
Statesboro, Georgia, Thursday, November 18, 1971

On November 3rd, Irvin Brannen died suddenly at his home in Statesboro. Services were held on November 13th, 1971. The service was

Pre-Thanksgiving Savings at OTIS SUPERETTE

Just 31 More

Christmas is just around the calendar

Select BRC GIFTS NOW for LAY-A-WAY

Pay Lay-A-Way

M. W. Wells

STATESBORO Buggy & Wagon Company

First Annual BAZAAR

Sensational Year-End Sale NOW on NEW AND USED Farm Equipment

M. E. Ginn Co.

You are Invited to the Opening of ALRED'S FOOD MART

Statesboro's Newest and Most Modern Supermarket

Today, Thursday, November 14

Visit Us and Shop and Save

Plenty of Free Parking Space

ALRED'S FOOD MART

The Board of Regents approve granting of education degrees at Ga. Teachers College

Dr. C. M. Coulson, to speak at Baptist Rally

Little Theatre to present play Monday night

Troop 340 Boy Scouts hold Court of Honor

Board of Regents approve granting of education degrees at Ga. Teachers College

Blue Devils run wild; defeat Sandersville Satans 34 to 7

B. C. Bank opens drive-in service

Lions Club to sponsor contest on Bulloch