Editors

The Foundation Stone of the County

"There is no news in the story when two newspapers are always in opposition to each other on the same side of the bridge between the town and the county. A newspaper is its station, its place of origin, and to have friends and followers. Let us hope that the Herald will be the voice of the people."

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

"It is hard to say in so many words what one's duties are in this office. But, I shall try to do my best, and if I fail, I believe it is not my fault, but the fault of the times."

This Week's Meditation

"The mind is a wonderful thing. It can make you do things you never thought possible."

Give for MD

"When one gives of oneself, he gives the best of himself."

Farm Briefs

"The world is full of work, but the farmer has the choice of work to do."

Spotlight on Statesboro

"The people of Statesboro are the best people you could ever meet."

The Bullock Herald

"We are the voice of the people."
