This week's Meditation
By the Rev. W. G. Stailer, Jr.

We are facing the new year, the most important year we shall see in the immediate future. Many of us spend a good deal of time and energy on our personal plans and projects, but we should not neglect our spiritual life. We need to reflect on the past year and consider what we have learned and how we can grow in grace. We should also pray for guidance and strength to meet the challenges of the new year.

The Journey's Start

The Editor's Unstable Chair

New Year's Eve, 1957, was a remarkable experience. We were in the midst of the first round of the Overton Clinic's polio campaign, and we were excited about the progress we were making and the potential for a cure. But we also knew that the battle was far from over, and we were determined to keep going.

This past year, we have seen many changes and challenges. We have faced new obstacles and overcome them with perseverance and determination. We have celebrated successes and learned from our mistakes. We have grown and evolved as a community.

As we look ahead to the new year, we are confident that we will continue to make progress. We will work hard to achieve our goals and strive for excellence. We will be guided by our values and principles, and we will be true to ourselves.

We wish you all a happy and prosperous new year.

Schools

This marks another year of Bulloch County schools as we turn to 1958. In the past, these schools have made a significant impact on the education and future of many students. The Bulloch County School System is known for its dedication to providing quality education to its students.

The Bulloch County School System includes several schools, such as Statesboro High School, Bulloch Academy, and Bulloch County Junior High School. These schools offer a variety of courses and extracurricular activities to help students develop a well-rounded education.

The school system is supported by the Bulloch County School Board, which meets regularly to discuss important issues and make decisions that affect the schools.

This is an exciting time for the school system, as it continues to grow and improve. With the support of the community and the dedication of the faculty and staff, the future looks bright for the students of Bulloch County.
