Georgia Teachers College makes plans for celebrating bi-centennial on February 7
On January 31, the Statesboro Division of Rockwell Manufacturing Company will celebrate their second anniversary with an open house from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. No formal ceremonies are planned for the occasion, which will enable visitors to come at the most convenient to them.
Visitors will be "on their toes" in the plant and will follow a route that will take them into all segments of the plant, offices and storage areas. Extensive use will be made of displays and signs, and narrators will be located along the tour route to answer questions. By the time of the show, and no exhibit may be removed before 9 p. m., but must be moved by 9:30 Saturday morning, February 8.
Because space for exhibits in the artistic division is limited, reservations for entries must be made by Friday, January 31, with Mrs. A. C. Bradley by telephoning 4-2528.
Entry cards for the show may be secured in advance from Mrs. W. M. Newton, Donaldeen Street at Mrs. H. P. Jones Sr. at 7 East Parrish Street.
Entries will be classified as follows: horticulture division, educational division, commercial division, artistic division and a non-competitive division to include painting, china and other items containing camellias in the designs. There are several classes in each division. The complete rules for the show will be published next week.
Approximately two years ago a number of Rockwell management officials, including W. E. Rockwell Jr., president of the company; L. A. Dixon Sr., executive vice president, and N. W. Rowland, vice president of the Statesboro Division, were in Statesboro participating in formal ceremonies marking the Rockwell officially received the keys to the building. On February 1, the first local employee was hired. Now, more than 325 personnel are employed, and the once empty building contains several millions of dollars of equipment, material, and supplies.
Mrs. Ruth Bishop's first grade-B won the "room corner" for the largest number of parents attending the Monday night meeting of the Zetterower elementary school P.T.A. meeting. Mrs. Walter Odum's second grade-A won second place.
A panel discussion on selecting activities for children in the field of military legislation, Lawrence and Max Lockwood, J. P. Folds was moderator and program chairman.
A play was presented by Mrs. Bishop's first grade.

There are several classes in each division. The complete rules for the show will be published next week.
Approximately two years ago a number of Rockwell management officials, including W. E. Rockwell Jr., president of the company; L. A. Dixon Sr., executive vice president, and N. W. Rowland, vice president of the Statesboro Division, were in Statesboro participating in formal ceremonies marking the Rockwell officially received the keys to the building. On February 1, the first local employee was hired. Now, more than 325 personnel are employed, and the once empty building contains several millions of dollars of equipment, material, and supplies.
Mrs. Ruth Bishop's first grade-B won the "room corner" for the largest number of parents attending the Monday night meeting of the Zetterower elementary school P.T.A. meeting. Mrs. Walter Odum's second grade-A won second place.
A panel discussion on selecting activities for children in the field of military legislation, Lawrence and Max Lockwood, J. P. Folds was moderator and program chairman.
A play was presented by Mrs. Bishop's first grade.

Dana King, president of the Statesboro Community Concert Association, announced this week that the first attraction in the 1958 concert season will be the college on Wednesday evening, January 22, at 8:15.
Mrs. Mary Kate Evans of Soperton was named new house director of Lewis Hall, Junior-Senior girls dormitory at Georgia Teachers College, immediately after the Christmas holidays.
Mrs. Evans was born and reared in Vidalia, graduated from Vidalia High School, and then attended Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville.
She has done substitute teaching and her job previous to the one she now holds was director of the nursing department at the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta.
When asked if she liked her new job, Mrs. Evans replied, "Definitely, yes I expected to, do, and I shall. The people here are most friendly."

There's dynamite in these figures

He spoke with dignity and complete knowledge of his subject.

And what he had to say had a terrific impact upon the thinking members of the Statesboro Rotary Club at their Monday meeting.

Federal Bureau of Investigation Investigator Dekle DeLoach of Washington, D. C. told the Rotary Club that the concern of our nation over material things rather than Godly things is basically responsible for the shape of our nation today.

Quoting 1956 statistics he said that a total of 2,563,150 major crimes were committed across the nation that year. With preliminary figures in for 1957 there is an indication that more than 2,756,000 major crimes were committed to set an all-time record.

Dramatizing his figures he said that a major crime occurred each 11.2 seconds during January-June, 1957. For the same period a felonious homicide was committed each 38.7 minutes, a burglary each 53.3 seconds, a robbery each 8.4 minutes, a larceny each 18.1 seconds, a rape each 25.4 minutes, an aggravated assault each 5.3 minutes and an auto theft each 1.8 minutes.

The thought-stopping figures he quoted included the juvenile crime trends. With data in for 1956 from 1,551 cities with a total population, according to 1950 census, of 41,219,052, a total of 11.3 per cent of all persons arrested that year were under eighteen years of age. They accounted for 24.7 per cent of arrests for robbery, 53.9 per cent of arrests for burglary, 50.4 per cent of arrests for larceny and 66.4 per cent of all auto theft arrests. He added that the rise in crime during 1956 and 1957 reveals that we are still faced with an abnormally high rate of juvenile misbehavior.

And the sad thing about it all is that the estimated cost of crime is 20 billion dollars a year. This means a cost of $117 per person or $460 per family. Think of the great school system we could build with that kind of money.

Figures can be dull and without meaning. But not figures like these. There's dynamite in them and we must come to grips with them and translate them into action before they bring about our destruction.

Now comes the time of decision, and here—NOW—they are about to make that decision. YOUTH IS ABOUT TO TAKE A STAND.

Top entertainment

The first presentation of the Statesboro Community Concert Association is scheduled here on Wednesday evening, January 22.

The Concert Association here has become an institution and with the cooperation of Georgia Teachers College, it has brought some of the nation's top performers here to provide fine entertainment in our community.

The booking and financing of these performances do not come easy. It requires a great deal of effort on the part of those who are intensely interested in bringing top entertainment to us.

Their effort deserves our support and applause and we commend those who have worked at making the 1958 season a fine one.

Pure politics

The 40-day session of the Georgia Legislature which opened Monday promises to be a dilly.

This being an election year we can expect it to be shot full of politics. We can only hope that our representatives will remember their responsibilities to the citizens of Georgia first and then if there is time left play their politics.

We are being baited with the vision of a $3 auto tag and the vision of every rural road in the state being paved. Both of these visions are attractive to our representatives and to the people. But we can't see them as very wise moves in the light of our present financial status. One in effect reduces taxes, the other increases spending.

Both of these proposals are pure politics and our representatives will be doing their state a service by rejecting them.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN — AN AMERICAN WHOSE GREATNESS GROWS WITH THE YEARS AS AN INVENTOR, DIPLOMAT, POLITICIAN, AND THE ONLY MAN TO SIGN ALL FOUR BASIC DOCUMENTS OF OUR BEGINNING — THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, THE TREATY WITH FRANCE, THE TREATY WITH ENGLAND AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES...

This Week's Meditation

By The Rev. L. E. Houston Jr.

IF ONE CHRISTIAN denigration has this challenge before it, think of the evangelistic challenge to ALL Christians in the Coastal Empire area. One can hardly take lightly a conference that points up such a need.

Another high moment came when a young couple with their eighteen-month-old daughter was introduced to the group. The young man was a graduate of medical school and had accepted the challenge of medical missionary work in Southern Rhodesia. To be sure, he had been advised by loved ones and friends to stay in America and gain his reputation, prominence, and financial success. But it was easy to see the "die was cast," and that Southern Rhodesians would benefit from the medical skill and the Christian devotion of this couple.

MODERN COTTON PRODUCTION. D. L. Branyon, agronomist-cotton, Agricultural Extension Service, says our forefathers would be amazed to see the progress made in reducing the manual labor required to produce a bale of cotton with modern machinery. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, it required 260 man hours to produce a bale of cotton in the 1928-32 period and only 108 hours during the last five years.

PERHAPS the high point of the conference, at least for me, came in the afternoon session when a group of laymen spoke on "Building the Kingdom." One of the laymen was Mr. R. P. Balcom Jr., Warden of the State Prison near Reidsville, Georgia.

He spoke about the work of the State Prison System, and then he began to tell us something of his experience and philosophy, especially in the area of juvenile delinquency.

"JUVENILE TRAINING begins in the home," said the warden. I think who are parents always cringe under that realization. No matter how clean our town, nor how effective our recreation program, (and it's one of the best), the initial responsibility for child training is in the home.

Before he concluded his message, Mr. Balcom planted an idea in the thinking of every parent present when he quoted another warden who said, "I have never found a boy in prison who had a fishing pole or a bird dog back home."

Spotlight on Statesboro B.P.W. Career Women

Irene Baxter says if you like to travel, going by bus is the ideal way. She can send you anywhere you desire to go, and arrange for you to see your beautiful country as you go.

Mrs. Baxter came to Statesboro in 1937 as manager of the Greyhound Bus Station, which position she has held since that time. Prior to coming to Statesboro, she served one year (1935-1936) as Star Mail Carrier at Graymont, Georgia.

Her high school education was completed in Emanuel County. With this background, and through observation and her dealings with the public, Mrs. Baxter has made a valuable contribution to the career field for women.

Since her affiliation with the Statesboro Business and Professional Women's Club, two years ago, she has a record of never missing a regular meeting of the club. Her interest in the club and its projects, and the services rendered, under difficulties, are recognized by her fellow-members. She is a member of the health and safety committee, and a special committee on newspaper item collections. Her expressed desire is that she can continue to be a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club for a long, long time.

WE ARE FASCINATED by the man who always has several pencils and pens in his shirt pocket or the breast pocket of his coat. They never failed to make us think of the pipes of the pipe organ that were in the choir loft of the old First Methodist Church here before it was demolished to make way for the new sanctuary to be built.

A LADY on the local radio station suggested that Joe Axelson of the College, A. B. McDougald and we had one thing in common—"Big Mouth!" Now we have no objection to being tagged "Big Mouth" for, after all, it takes a "Big Mouth" to sound off loud and clear the manifold attractions possessed by our community. We're sure that Joe Axelson, public relations director of Georgia Teachers College, has no objection to being tagged "Big Mouth" for, after all, it takes a "Big Mouth" to sound off loud and clear the manifold attractions possessed by our community.

YELP FOR HELP!—We are seeking the roster of Cone's Company and the roster of W. W. Williams Company, two of the four units of Bulloch County troops which fought in the 1860's between the States in the War of Secession. Our company included the following officers: Capt. John DeLoach, First Lieut. J. S. Cone, Second Lieut. David Beasley, Third Lieut. James Miller. This company enlisted with the 11th Battalion of the 47th Georgia Regiment. The officers of the W. W. Williams Company were Capt. W. W. Williams, First Lieut. W. A. Summerton, Second Lieut. R. J. Williams, and Third Lieut. D. Proctor. They also belonged to the 17th Georgia Regiment. If any one has the roster of the enlisted men of these two companies of Bulloch County Confederate troops, we would appreciate it if we might copy them. We have complete rosters of the Bulloch Troops, Company E, Fifth Georgia Cavalry and Company D of DeKalb Guards. We want to use the full rosters of all four units in "The Story of Bulloch County."

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to understand the thesis of those who contend that the Soviet threat to our nation's military superiority must be met with greater outlays for foreign aid. Programs to utilize the wealth and resources of the United States to strengthen its military posture are necessary and just.

Rites held for W. G. Richardson

Walter G. Richardson, 59, of the Statesboro Community, died Wednesday night, January 8, at the Bulloch County Hospital after a long illness.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday, January 10, at the New Hope Methodist Church, with the Rev. R. E. Brown, assisted by the Rev. Ernest Veal, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Scott Richardson, a son, Jimmy Richardson, Statesboro, a sister, Mrs. Rachel Hildebrand of Dayton, Ohio; seven brothers, Steve, Dade, C. J., Pierce, Mark, Ralph and Lauro Richardson, all of Miami, Fla.; Jessie, Bay Pine, Fla., and Pete Richardson, Dayton, Ohio.

There are more than fifty sub-committees in the House, and just a fraction of these had expended the energy and the faithfulness shown by the Preston Committee as the last budget was prepared, our country would be burdened with a much smaller debt. Mr. Preston chopped millions from the padded figures presented by many of the bureaus without affecting the needed government programs one per cent.

It seems incredible that responsible government and military leaders will say to the American people, "If we had had the money we could have a satellite of our own flying around the earth. Therefore the Congress is to blame for our lack of preparedness." Anyone has but to consult the record to see that the military has received every dollar requested from the Congress and it is a matter of record that the Congress has insisted on occasion that the budget for defense was not adequate and through real determination forced branches of the military to accept more funds and greater responsibility than the military wanted to accept.

IT IS TRUE that we live in a perilous age but there is not one bit of evidence which points to factual knowledge of circumstances under which the years. Senator Byrd of Virginia, long a proponent of balanced budget spending, has been able to accomplish very little over the years, and other than to keep his name before the people of the nation in his once-a-year speech on the subject.

SOMETIME ago, as the toast was being buttered, I noticed the clock and turned on the radio for the 7 a. m. news broadcast. It was startling to hear the reporter saying the Lord's Prayer. I didn't know whether I liked it or not, mixing it in with advertisements.

THE NEXT MORNING things were running a little late. I stopped shaking the orange juice to turn on the radio for the 7 o'clock news. The Lord's Prayer was said. It gave me a good feeling.

So far many mornings turning on the radio just at 7 o'clock meant a time for quiet meditation with God before hearing the news.

WHEREAS I had wondered about its proper place, I now felt that it was excellent to hear it even if the eggs had to be

Herman Talmadge Reports From Washington

THE CONSENSUS of 48 world leaders recently polled by the Committee for Economic Development that the United States must undertake over the next 20 years "to help achieve a better balance of world wealth" is an admission, at long last, of the real object of foreign aid.

It is ironic that in the same country where the late Huey Long was ridiculed a quarter of a century ago for advocating a program to balance the wealth among individuals, it should be proposed now that the nation seek to balance the wealth of the world. It is particularly ludicrous in light of the fact that the United States has been sorely strained to balance its own national budget only five times since 1930.

IF THE PURPOSE of foreign aid programs is to buy friends, it is fallacious because everyone ought to admit at this late date in the history of the world that friendship cannot be purchased. And, if the alternative idea is to so bolster the economies of other nations that Communism will not be a threat to them, it should be remembered that for all our spending programs between 1933 and 1940, we could not even relieve the unemployment situation in our own country.

Those who would have other United States attempt to spend itself strong and give itself security ignore history's fundamental economic laws. To rely on dollars alone is to court the national bankruptcy which Marx and Lenin predicted for us. The strongest army and the mightiest missile fleet will be of no avail if we cannot afford to support them.

Those who would have other nations successfully resist any potential enemy, including Russia, is to make the best of what we have and to give as much attention to preserving our economy as to maintaining our defenses.

David Howard of Stilson dies

David Howard, 62, died at the Veterans' Hospital in Dublin Sunday, January 12, after a long illness. Mr. Howard was a World War I veteran and had lived in the Stilson community of Bulloch County for several years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edith Howard of Stilson; three sons, Randall Howard, Waldo Howard and Alfred Howard, all of Savannah; two daughters, Mrs. Louise Riverbark and Mrs. Abiline Hodges, both of Savannah; a brother, Tom Howard of York S. C.; three half brothers, Arthur Howard of Statesboro, James Howard of Claxton and Nathaniel Howard of Brooklet, and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the Upper Back Creek Primitive Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. R. L. Rhiner and the Rev. Howard Cox. Burial was in the cemetery at Stilson.

Survivors were nephews, Jerry Howard, Charlie Howard, Claude Howard, Lester Fordham, Edwin Atkins and Brooks Atkins.

Honorary pallbearers were A. N. Newman, Fred Lee, W. N. Bruce Jr., Ollie Atkins, Austin Rigdon, Sidney Ballard.

Smith-Tillman Mortuary was in charge of the services.

ANNOUNCEMENT. Dr. Albert M. Deal and Dr. L. Frank Lovett of Memorial Clinic announce a change in office days. The Clinic will be open from 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. daily with the exception of Sunday.

What's Going On at the Recreation Center

With another year gone, it is time again for the national game of basketball. This year the Statesboro Recreation Center will be composed of five leagues.

The men's city league, senior boys' league, junior boys' league, midjet boys' league, and the junior girls league. Any individual who wants to play basketball during his leisure time now has a chance. If he is young or old, girl or boy, everyone can participate in one of the five leagues. The sports staff of the recreation department wants to make the new year, 1958, a big year in all phases of sports activities and will greatly appreciate the public's help in making this possible.

SENIOR BOYS' LEAGUE. Gold Bricks, won 1, lost 0; Dynamites, won 1, lost 0; Grem-lins, won 0, lost 1; Cobras, won 1, lost 1.

JUNIOR BOYS' LEAGUE. Pilots, won 4, lost 0; Red Caps, won 1, lost 3; Cardinals, won 3, lost 1; Blue Devils, won 0, lost 4.

MIDJET LEAGUE. Thunderbolts, won 2, lost 0; Rattlers, won 1, lost 1; Cobras, won 1, lost 1; Indians, won 0, lost 2.

More profit from forests. Maximum profit from forests can be obtained only by growing top quality trees of a merchantable species, points out B. H. Murray, forester, Agricultural Extension Service. Unmerchantable and cull trees which are competing with crop trees should be removed. Timber stand improvement work often requires a financial outlay for labor, machinery and chemicals, but will be offset by more profit at harvest time.

What Car Has The Best Brakes?

Read this "After tasting a 1958 CENTURY, one of four Buick Series (all but the SPECIAL) equipped with new deeply-finned aluminum front brake drums, it is our agreeable duty to report that these are the best brakes on a Detroit sedan by far that we have tested, and that they are, conservatively, a 100 per cent improvement over conventional Detroit brakes."

Direct quotation from the new issue of SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED in a report entitled: "THE SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED 1958 AWARD IN RECOGNITION OF OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT AND SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTION IN THE AUTOMOTIVE FIELD PRESENTED TO THE BUICK MOTOR DIVISION GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION, FOR MAJOR ADVANCES IN BRAKES."

22 emergency stops from 60 mph—and Buick's brakes still effective!

As a result of this grueling brake test, SCI stated: "We find the rule for Detroit sedans to brake quite efficiently for the first few stops, but thereafter they deteriorate rapidly." But here's what happened in the Buick Century: 22 "crash stops" were made from 60 MPH, and afterwards, the brakes were still fully effective. Says SCI: "This was by far the most severe test we ever have submitted a sedan's brakes to, but after it was over the Buick's brakes functioned perfectly... Buick has done it, has achieved a much better product, and has set a new standard of brake quality for Detroit."

That's the story as told by SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED. You'll find how true the story is when you drive the Air Born B-58 Buick yourself and learn about all its great features.

There are totally new features in ride, in performance, in all-round comfort and ease of handling. Come on in and prove that—at your Buick dealer's—today.

Stilson News Stilson correspondent shares poem she liked with her readers

By MRS. W. H. MORRIS This week I shall bring the Stilson news with a poem which I have shared with me and I, in turn, would like to share with you, my readers.

PLAY WITHOUT CEASING I Thessalonians, 5:17—Prayer is the most important spiritual exercise that a Christian can have. If you are to live a happy and victorious life, prayer is absolutely essential daily.

POEM Perhaps the day would not have been so long. The skies would not have seemed to grey. If on my knees in humble prayer I had begun the day.

Perhaps the fight would not have been so hard. Prepared, I might have faced the fray. If I had been alone with Him Upon my knees, to pray.

I would remember just the pleasant things The harsh words that I meant to say I would forget, if I had prayed When I began the day.

I hope you have enjoyed this poem as much as I did. I'd like to say "Thanks" to my friend for sending it to me so that I might share it with you.

VISITORS Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Padgett of Savannah spent the weekend at their country home here and had several guests visiting them during the weekend.

Mrs. D. I. Morris of Denmark spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Morris. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. Levi Morris Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Boen of Guyton visited Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Shurling Sunday night.

Mrs. Stella Lee and son, Richard Lee of Guyton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Levi Morris last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Fannie Northcut of Statesboro, spent Sunday visiting a friend here.

STILSON COMMUNITY TO MRS. DAN STEARNS We at the Stilson Presbyterian Chapel, feel very deeply the loss of our beloved superintendent of our Sunday School, Mr. Dan P. Stearns. To know him was to love him. Although he can no longer be with us, he found, during his work in this church, a way to live forever in the hearts of those who know him. Christian love lives on. (He was one of the nicest persons we have ever known). We pray that God will watch over Mrs. Stearns and Bill and his wife. May God bless them.

production by about 8 per cent. Prices have declined in 1957, resulting in a sizeable increase in the percentage of this crop placed in the government loan program. Sales over the past year, however, have about equaled the amount of rosin pledged to the program in 1957. Turpentine and high grade gum prices are expected to rise early this year, but little change is expected in medium grade rosins.

Rockwell invites public to Open House at plant Jan. 31

Sam W. Brown, general manager of the Rockwell Statesboro Corporation, announced this week that plans are now complete for the observance of the company's second anniversary in Statesboro.

The celebration will be held at the plant on U. S. 301 on Friday, January 31. A general invitation to the people of this section is issued to open house from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m. Friday. There will be no formal ceremonies so visitors may inspect the plant at their leisure. A route will be laid out through the plant with members of the organization to answer questions along the way. Visitors may remain in the plant as long as they wish.

Mr. Brown says that Rockwell Statesboro Corporation is proud of the progress made by the employees and "we want to show the people here how their sons and daughters have quickly grasped new skills."

The general manager is arranging to have the regular work force on duty so that their friends and neighbors might see this progress.

Teen Time is planned at Rec. Center

The Tween Teen Club will sponsor Teen Time at the Recreation Center on Fair Road on Friday night of this week. All teenagers living in Bulloch County are invited to join in the fun from 8 to 11 p. m. There will be square dancing, cake walks, pie eating contest, door prizes, contests and other planned recreational features. Members of the Tween Teen Club are requested to pay their dues. All teenagers are invited to join in the fun. Refreshments will be served around the big open fire and there will be fun in store for all.

The dances will include ticket dances, Paul Jones, broom dance, flashlight dance, multiplication dances and just plain fun and frolic for all.

Make your plans now to present and bring along a guest. Students not in school will not be admitted without a special invitation.

FRIDAY PROGRAM PLANNED AT REC. CENTER

An all-day program of activities is planned at the Fair Road Center on Friday of this week. Youngsters will not be in school. Games and movies are planned for morning and regular activities for afternoon and evening.

Schedule set for Bookmobile

Monday, January 27, East Route 1; Tuesday, January 28, East Route 2; Wednesday, January 29, Ogeechee community and Thursday, January 30, Leafield community.

Jaycees to observe Founder's Day; honor past presidents

Members of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce this week are observing National Jaycee Week and will honor the founders of the National organization at the club's annual Founders Day banquet Tuesday evening, January 28, at 7:30 at the Forest Heights Country Club.

The guest speaker at the banquet will be Alvah Chapman Jr., associate editor of the Savannah Morning News, Charles M. Robbins Jr., past state president of the Jaycees, will introduce Mr. Chapman. Donald McDougald is president of the local club.

Mr. Chapman, named associate editor of the Morning News last year, grew up and attended the public schools in Bradenton, Fla. His early newspaper experiences began with the Bradenton Herald. He graduated at "The Citadel" in Charleston, S. C., 1942, with the rank of cadet colonel. During World War II he was a combat pilot and squadron commander with the rank of major in the Eighth Air Force. He led thirty-seven bomber missions over Europe. He holds the Distinction Flying Cross with two Oak Leaf Branches, the Air Medal with five Oak Leaf Branches, the Presidential Unit Citation and the Croix de Guerre.

His newspaper experience includes the business management of the Columbus, Ga. Ledger-Enquirer, and president and general manager of the St. Petersburg Times in St. Petersburg, Fla. His position he held until he came to Savannah. He was named one of the five outstanding young men in Georgia by the Georgia Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1961 and in 1952 he was named the outstanding young man in the Columbus, Ga. Jaycees.

A feature of the banquet will be the honoring of the club's past presidents including Josh Lanier, Talmadge Ramsey, Hoke Hester, Mrs. Catherine Kirkland, Mrs. Pauline Watts, Earl McElveen, Bob Donaldson, J. Brantley Johnson, Horace McDougald, Emory Allen, Buford Knight, Dub Lovett, Charlie Robbins, Joe Neville, H. P. Jones Jr., Luke Anderson, G. C. Coleman and Lowell Adams. These served in the order named. The club was organized in 1939 with Josh Lanier the first president.

Camellia Show date is set for Friday, Feb. 7

Mrs. Waldo Floyd, chairman for the sixth annual Camellia Show, sponsored by the Civic Garden Club of Statesboro, announced this week that the show will be held on Friday, February 7, at the Statesboro Regional Library from 3 to 9 p. m.

She suggests that, because of limited space, those who plan to enter camellias in the artistic division of the show should make reservations with Mrs. A. C. Bradley before Friday, January 31.

Mrs. Floyd announced the rules for the show as follows:

GENERAL RULES FOR EXHIBITORS

1. Entries accepted between 8 a. m. and 11 a. m. Friday, February 7.

2. No exhibit may be removed before 9 p. m. Friday, but must be removed by 9:30 Saturday, February 8.

3. Committees will exercise all possible precautions but cannot be responsible for breakage or loss.

HORTICULTURE DIVISION

A—More than one bloom to a single stem will disqualify entry.

B—Variety must be named by exhibitor.

C—There will be a limit of one bloom of any one variety to be exhibited.

D—All specimens shall have one or two leaves and at least two inches of stem on each specimen.

E—If only bloom of a variety is entered it shall constitute a class and will be judged against the standard of perfection for that variety and awarded a blue, red or yellow ribbon.

F—Plants from which specimen blooms are exhibited should have been owned by the exhibitor for at least three months.

G—Wiring of blooms to their stems is permitted.

H—Unnamed blooms will not be accepted.

J. H. Wyatt and Miller Thompson in T.P.A. Club

Two Bulloch County farmers from the Brooklet community, J. H. Wyatt and Miller Thompson, were among the farmers recognized at the meeting of the Georgia Ton-Per-Acre Peanut Club in Tifton, Friday, January 17.

These two farmers were commended for producing more than a ton of peanuts per acre the past year, and were awarded certificates of membership and membership keys at a dinner given by the peanut industry of Georgia. County Agent Roy Powell also attended the meeting and expressed the hope that a large number of Bulloch farmers would qualify for membership in the Ton-Per-Acre Peanut Club in 1958.
