He answers like this

...what has the little boy about his shoulder, and the boy answers, "It's a cat." The man says, "No cat," and the boy says, "Yes, and it can talk, too." The man answers, "No, it can't," and the boy says, "Yes, and it can fly, too." The man says, "No, it can't fly." The boy says, "Yes, it can." The man asks, "Where did you learn that?" The boy answers, "From my neighbor's dog, and he's a boy, too." The man says, "No, he's not.
A dog's a boy.

This Week’s Meditation

By The Rev. G. F. Wright, Jr.

Let’s Set Them Try

It was the Legislature set the middle way. It went to the middle way, and the middle way was the best way.

In the middle way, we can find a way to get along with all the people.

We can work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to solve our problems.

Let’s Set Them Try

The middle way is the best way to get along
with all the people.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to
solve our problems.

We must work on the
middle way, and we
will find the way to solve our problems.
