SNOW ON SAVANNAH ESTATES: A tree near Freezer Park bears a light coating of snow as the temperature drops below freezing Saturday morning.

DELTA SAFETY RINGS: One of the items cut in the sweep of the Belk's Christmas Toy Drive was the Delta Safety Rings as many of the children want. The rings are used to teach children swimming technique.

BULLOCH COUNTY'S OLD ANTIQUE FURNITURE: An unusual piece of Bullcoth County's old antique furniture is shown in the picture. The piece includes a desk, a chair and a picture frame. The desk and chair were once owned by Mr. J. H. Marston, who was a merchant in Statesboro.

Mr. J. L. L. Green, Jr., a resident of Statesboro, was recently named the new owner of Belk's Christmas Toy Drive.

Belk's has been a leader in the Christmas Toy Drive for many years and has always been successful in collecting toys for children in the area.

Belk's Toy Drive has a long history of success in the community, and this year's drive is expected to be no exception. The company has always worked hard to make sure that every child who wants a toy has a chance to receive one.

The Belk's Christmas Toy Drive is an important event in the community, and it is always a pleasure to see the toys being delivered to the children who so desperately need them.

Charlie Cone played his part well

When we delve into the history of the great and noble state of Georgia and in particular the county of Bulloch, we are reminded of the great and noble state of Georgia and in particular the county of Bulloch, the name of Charlie Cone is usually mentioned early in the list of those who have given their time, their strength, and their influence to the betterment of the county. Cone was a man who had the courage to stand up for what was right, regardless of the consequences. His leadership was not only felt within the county but also beyond its borders.

The most significant aspect of Charlie Cone's influence was his ability to unite people. He was a man who understood the importance of cooperation and teamwork. Cone's approach was always inclusive, and he strived to bring people together to achieve common goals.

It is fitting that we remember Charlie Cone on this occasion, as he is a true example of a man who lived by his principles and made a difference in the lives of many. His legacy is a testament to the strength and resilience of the people of Bulloch County.

The Santa Claus Special

The Santa Claus Special was a very special train ride for the children of the county. It was a day filled with magic and wonder, as the children were taken on a journey through the countryside.

The train was decorated with fairy lights and Christmas decorations, and the children were dressed in their finest holiday attire. The ride was a perfect opportunity for the children to have fun and create lasting memories.

For the children involved, it was a memorable experience that they would never forget. The Santa Claus Special was a symbol of the joy and love that is at the heart of the holiday season.
