MANIE A CRITIC AT THE THEATRE

CHRISTMAS MEANS Many Things to Many People

The Universal joy of Christmas is registered in the faces of the many, many people who throng the stores and shopping centers of the land. But underlying the merriment and laughter is a sense of the sadness and sorrow that are a part of the human condition. Christmas means a time of happiness, too, for those who have been able to share in the spirit of the season.

CHRISTMAS MEANS Many Things to Many People. The little girl in the little world of the rich has the right to demand it, just as the little boy in the little world of the poor has the right to demand it. The little girl who has been denied a Christmas tree, a Christmas toy, a Christmas present, has the right to demand it. The little boy who has been denied the spirit of Christmas, the right to demand it.

It Seems to Me...

THE CHRISTMAS MEANS MANY THINGS TO MANY PEOPLE

The Christmas spirit is a spirit of giving. It is a spirit of hope. It is a spirit of love. It is a spirit of peace. It is a spirit of joy. It is a spirit of education.

The Christmas spirit is a spirit of service. It is a spirit of charity. It is a spirit of sacrifice. It is a spirit of charity. It is a spirit of sacrifice.

The Christmas spirit is a spirit of brotherhood. It is a spirit of fellowship. It is a spirit of unity. It is a spirit of brotherhood. It is a spirit of fellowship. It is a spirit of unity.

The Christmas spirit is a spirit of joy. It is a spirit of happiness. It is a spirit of peace. It is a spirit of joy. It is a spirit of happiness. It is a spirit of peace.
