P.T.A. Council to meet at Stilson Saturday, Jan. 10

From the Staff of THE BULLOCH HERALD

For the third straight year last Saturday night, the Bullboro High School and Augusta Normal Academy opposed each other in the finale of the G.T.C.-Jaycee annual basketball tournament at the Statesboro Technical College.

And for the second year in a row, Southeast Bulloch High School, under the directing influence of Richmond Academy to win the annual Christmas holiday invitational tournament.

The Historic Lloyd Hotel was to the First Bank for $22.50 in plow pieces for the first time in the state's history. The bank has been in operation for over forty years with such efforts as they have made, they have failed. Our poor effort, a result of acute financial

Editorials

Preserving the county records for the future

The record of Bulloch County will be completely safe from all hazards, safe from hurricane, fire, vandalism, or pestilence, and the range of those that have been destroyed in the past. Under the supervision of the county archives, the records will be being carefully preserved. The records are being protected from dust and moisture and are being impeded from being damaged. Each record will be stored in a fireproof building, with air conditioning and ventilation to protect the records from the elements. The records will be stored in a climate-controlled environment to maintain the records in optimal condition.

The Joyner Society

The Joyner Society was founded by Mr. and Mrs. John Joyner in 1950. The society has been a cornerstone of the community ever since, hosting events and gatherings that bring people together. The Winter Ball, held annually, is one of the society's most beloved traditions. The society continues to thrive and grow, and it is a testament to the spirit of community and togetherness that it embodies.
