SMITH-ROBERTSON FORMAL LUNCHEON FOR BRIDESMAIDS

Mrs. H. P. Jones Jr. was hostess at her home on North Main Street honoring Miss Claudia Tinker and her bridesmaids at a lovely luncheon Saturday, December 20, prior to her marriage to Robert Donaldson on December 26.

A color motif of gold and white was carried out in the reception rooms. White and gold table linens were used in a mantel arrangement.

The identification of the clothing followed the discovery by Deputy Rufus Waters of a veterinarian's receipt in the name of Michael Carlizzo, dated October 17, showing that the animal was a dog for rabies, inquired to the discovery that Mrs. Estelle Irene Carlizzo had left Atlanta on October 22 or 23.

A hunter was in the woods near Lotts Creek on December 23 and found the skeleton and tattered remains of clothing. He did not report his findings until Christmas Day when he told Sheriff Harold Howell about it.

After Sheriff Howell began his investigation he called in the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and the State Crime Laboratory to aid in probing the circumstances surrounding the case.

Relatives of Mrs. Carlizzo were in Savannah Monday and identified the clothing found with the body.

Sheriff Howell was in Savannah Tuesday with officers of the GBI.

Brooklet bank pays 10 per cent dividend Dec. 31

By MRS. J. A. ROBERTSON

BROOKLET, Ga. — The eleventh annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Brooklet was held at the Brooklet Community Home Wednesday night, December 31, 1958. Approximately sixty stockholders and visitors were present. A Christmas dinner, prepared and served by the members of the Senior Class of Southeast Bulloch High School, was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with Christmas berries and greenery, carrying out the spirit of the holiday season.

Mrs. W. D. Lee presented Jane Lanier, Polly Ross and Mary Alice Belcher, who furnished music throughout the dinner hour.

T. E. Daves, president of the bank, was master of ceremonies, and he gave a short talk on the progress the bank had made, and reminded those present that it was their bank, and it was due to their splendid cooperation that the institution had continued to grow each year since it was established. The president then called on H. M. Robertson, Jr., executive vice president and cashier, for the financial report. This report showed that the bank's assets for the year were $125,000. Mr. Robertson then handed out 10 per cent dividends to the 102 stockholders present, 10 per cent dividend checks.

J. H. Warrt also made a short talk on the progress of the bank and pointed out the part it played in the development of the community served by it. He suggested that another member be added to the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy that had existed since the bank was opened for business, and he suggested the name of John C. Cromley to fill the vacancy. Mr. Cromley was nominated and was duly elected.

The directors elected for the ensuing year are: F. A. Akers, W. O. Denmark, L. Mincey, H. M. Robertson Jr. and J. H. Warrt.

1958 receipts totaled $121,815.59. 1957 receipts were $96,081.73, which was a 9.62 per cent increase over 1956 receipts of $87,647.33.

He stated that many changes had been made during 1958 to improve the postal services for the people who use the Statesboro office. "And we have other changes in the works which we hope will continue to improve our services," he said.

The Postal Service was held Sunday, January 11, at the Rev. Barry B. Macon, executive secretary of the Christian Churches of Georgia, will be the guest preacher at the First Christian Church of Statesboro, located on Savannah Avenue at 11:30 a. m. The Rev. Barry B. Macon was formerly pastor of the First Christian Church of Savannah, and is well known in Georgia. Services will begin at 10:30 a. m.

Dude Renfrow shoots 64 for new golf record

Dude Renfrow, 38-year-old Statesboro cotton broker, shot an eight-under-par 31-63-64 to establish a new course record for the Forest Heights Country Club.

The record was made Sunday, January 11, in a five-hole with Art Patches of Augusta, Bruce Owens of Savannah and Chas. E. Alderman and Arnold Rose of Statesboro, Renfrow, the FHCC club champion, strung together nine birdies, eight pars and one bogie to better the old mark now 65, held jointly by himself and John Dekle of Statesboro.

Members of the Statesboro branch of the American Association of University Women will meet Tuesday afternoon, January 13, at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. P. Offitt Jr., with Mrs. Marie Wood and Mrs. O. F. Gav as co-hostesses.

Dr. Katherine Lovett will speak on the club's theme, "The Art of Psychiatry: Curative and Preventative Therapy."

March of Dimes drive now in second week

Mr. A. W. Ellis, chairman of the drive for the 1959 March of Dimes campaign, this week announced that volunteers for the drive are now in their second week of the January 2-31 drive for funds.

He pointed out that citizens of this community have responded generously when asked to assist with the drive.

"I want to express my appreciation for the way they have responded," he said. The following chairmen have their several groups well organized and are now working. They are:

Jimmy Gunter, chairman of the social events committee; Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Jr., mailings chairman; Mrs. R. S. Bondurant, "Blue Crutch" chairman; Mrs. Kermit R. Carr, Mothers March; Mrs. Eloise Hunicutt, publicity; May Wilson, president of the senior class of G. T. C. chairman of the college campaign; Sue Ellis, past president of the S. H. S. Tri-Hi-Y Club, chairman of the ten-age program committee; Mrs. W. W. Wayman, chairman of the W. W. Wayman Booklet; Mrs. Jack Bowen, Registrar.

In the Negro community, R. H. Hamilton, principal of William James High School, chairman of the city drive; and Louise Lynch, instructional supervisor of the county Negro schools, chairman of the county drive.

Col. Leroy Cowart is chairman of the Bulloch County "Special Gifts" campaign.

Our community attitude is our yardstick

Now that our New Year is in its eighth day, take time out to consider the proposition that the attitude of our community is the yardstick by which we may measure our successes or failures.

We think it wise to pause long enough to do some serious and clear thinking about ourselves and our community.

What about our community spirit? We are told all over the state that Statesboro and Bulloch County is one of the state's finest communities. Is it really? Is our spirit rising, is it static, or is it falling?

What is our attitude toward our business and our industry? Do we appreciate them, and if we do, do we take time out to express our appreciation? Keep in mind that it is they who hold the strings to the economic structure and economic well being of our community.

Our attitude plays an important part in the future growth and development of our business and industry.

If our attitude toward these two segments of our community should become cool then the word gets around and prospective businessmen and industrialists may become cool to us also. And because of this attitude we would stand to lose potential growth and new payrolls.

In this intense competitive age, when communities all over are vying with each other for new industry, new business, we must be alert and must constantly work at the business of keeping our relations with business and industry friendly and warm.

For it is on these that community spirit is built and on them community growth and development depends.

Let us resolve to keep our community spirit flaming with enthusiasm during 1959—and every year thereafter.

A fine job—

It was a rough day for the members of the Statesboro police force on duty Friday and Saturday of last week.

For it was on those two days and nights that travellers, by the thousands, were passing through the city of Statesboro on U. S. 301. Most of them were on their way home from the football game in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day.

The flow of traffic was constant and heavy. Our local police handled the situation with apparent ease. They kept the traffic moving smoothly, while at the same time giving proper consideration to local traffic and pedestrians.

We commend those policemen whose lot it fell to handle the traffic those two days. They did a fine job, pointing up the careful training and administration by Chief of Police Ben Allen.

They deserve it

Mayor Bill Bowen will be one of the city officials from more than 420 towns and cities of Georgia to be honored at Georgia's first "Mayor's Day" to be held in Atlanta on January 20.

More than a thousand mayors, council members and other city officials are expected to attend the celebration to recognize the service being rendered to the cities, counties, and the state by municipal officials.

Mayor Bowen is a district vice president of the Georgia Municipal Association.

We commend Mayor Bowen and concede that city officials have a rough time in administering the affairs of communities like ours and that they should be recognized for the fine things they do for their communities.

And he will represent the city of which he is mayor with distinction and credit.

This Week's Meditation

By Rev. L. E. Houston Jr.

LIFE AS USUAL?
THE NEW YEAR is here and the Christmas tree is gone! For me, the saddest day in the year is December 31st. That's the time we pack up the decorations, take down the front door greenery, and throw out the evergreen which has given a spicy fragrance throughout the entire house.

The questions that always linger to haunt me is: "Have we thrown out Christ with the Christmas tree? Does the sigh of relief of a tired mother and an exhausted father signify that it is all over for another year? And does this mean that we have dispensed with the meaning of Christmas as we have stuffed the cedar, pine, or fir into the trash can?"

SOMHOW I FEEL that the week between Christmas and New Year's can be the most important week of the year. For it is the time we are prone to settle down to life as usual when I wonder if this is the intent of Christmas or the will of God for us all.

The best after Christmas text that I know of is the one that says: "And the shepherds returned, praising and glorifying God for all that had been seen and heard." The high moment of spiritual exaltation was over, but it had left its indelible mark. They would never again be the same for they welcomed to the world the Son of God. From that moment life would be anything but routine and normal—anything but the usual.

Such a routine indicates that they had truly received the Gift of God. A gift that included:

LIGHT for him whose feet stumble along the darkened path of life's roadway.

PEACE for him whose heart is divided by Dr. Jekyll and Mr.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

We received two New Year's greetings which we sort of liked. We want to share them with you.

One is the annual New Year's commission by Dr. Fielding Russell which he mails out to his friends. He calls it "Count Down—1959" and it goes like this:

1 New Year...
12 new months...
365 new days...
8,760 new hours...
525,600 new minutes...
31,536 new seconds...
New seconds for breathing slowly...
New minutes for thinking clearly...
New hours for seeing fully...
New days for dealing wisely...
New months for living richly...
New Year for treasuring friendship's love...
The Fielding Russells We liked that.

THE OTHER was written by Mrs. Harville, a cashier at Winn-Dixie's Statesboro store.

COMPANIONSHIP for the lonely who feel that there is no one who really cares, or understands their particular problem;

STRENGTH for him who has gritted his teeth and given his best, but who still fights a losing battle against the weakness of human nature; and,

RECONCILIATION for him who, by carelessness, or willful rebellion has separated himself from God.

When Abe Lincoln was in the White House, a Union Soldier nearby received word of the serious illness of his mother. His every appeal for leave was refused, so he decided to take his request straight to the President.

However, much to his dismay he found this was easier said than done. He was refused entry at every gate, leading to the President's home. Finally, in exhaustion, he sat down and wept.

A young boy found him there, and after hearing his tale of woe, took him by the hand and led him up to the White House. As they approached each entrance, the guard stopped to attention and opened the way without a question. Finally, this amazing young lad pulled the confused soldier to the door marked—Private—Office of the President.

Without a moment's hesitation, he turned the knob, walked in to the presence of the United States, and announced: "Daddy, here is a man who needs your help!"

The greatest gift of Christmas is the gift of One who has long since entered into the presence of His Father God to reconcile us to our Heavenly Father. Upon the acceptance of such a gift, life will be anything but usual!

I AM GRATEFUL for the opportunity which I have had to see them grow to manhood. I have watched them as they grew from one stage of development to another and it has been an inspiration in my life to watch them as they found their way from one level to the next. What a thrilling struggle they make of it, not having the patience to wait for life to come but ever working tirelessly to pull the future into focus and never quite believing that such a thing can never come.

It was printed up and distributed by Mr. L. C. Mills, an official of Winn-Dixie in Jacksonville and mailed out. It is called "Do It Now!" and goes like this:

When you have a job to do, Do it now!
If it's one you wish were through, Do it now!
If you're sure the job's your own, Just tackle it alone, Don't hem and haw and groan, Do it now!
Don't put off a bit of work, Do it now!
If the other fellows wait, Or postpone until it's late, You hit up a faster gait, Do it now!
If you want to fill a place, And be useful to the Race, Just get up and take a brace, Do it now!
Don't linger by the way, Do it now!
You'll lose if you delay, Do it now!
If the other fellows wait, Or postpone until it's late, You hit up a faster gait, Do it now!

NUMBER 3 made her last run on Wednesday night, December 31, and ended an era in the history of this community. Number 3 was the night train of the Central of Georgia from Savannah to Atlanta which stopped at Dover shortly after 10:30 each night on its way. On Wednesday night, New Year's Eve, Number 3 made her final trip, and now the Nancy Hanks is the only train people in our section going to Atlanta can ride. On her final trip Number 3 carried only twenty-three passengers.

Those who used Number 3 to make business trips to Atlanta will miss her. They could board her at Dover, sleep until after 5 a. m. when she arrived in Atlanta, complete their day's work and ride on the Nancy Hanks which leaves Atlanta about 6 p. m.

MISS DONELL THOMPSON BECOMES BRIDE OF WILLIAM THOMAS AKERS

In an impressive ceremony Tuesday afternoon, December 30, at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church of Statesboro, Miss Donell Thompson became the bride of William Thomas Akers.

The Rev. Miles C. Wood Jr. performed the double ring ceremony. Carl Smith, an uncle of the bride, and student in the ministry at Columbia Seminary, gave the opening prayer.

The sanctuary was decorated with an altar arrangement of white snapdragons and chrysanthemums. Tall seven-branched candelabra, against a background of emerald fern, interspersed with white mums and pom poms, completed the nuptial scene.

Mrs. Akers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson of Statesboro. Mr. Akers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Akers Sr. of Woodcliff Lake, New Jersey.

Jack Brouck, organist, and Miss Jan Deal, soloist, presented a program of wedding music including "I Love Thee" and "Because," followed by the "Lord's Prayer," after the vows.

BRIDE LOVELY IN ALENCON LACE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire dress of peau de soie, trimmed with Alencon lace. The lace was flowered into a chapel train. A diamond and pearl brooch, worn at the rounded neckline, was a gift of her mother, Judge Deal's mother, a lovely heritage as accessory. Her other jewelry was a watch, graced with diamonds, a gift from the groom. Her bridal veil of illusion was attached to a half hat of Alencon lace over peau de soie, embellished with roped seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and feathery carnations, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Norman Wells of Long Branch, New Jersey, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Henry Chenuat Jr. of Danville, Va., and Mrs. Leon Houston of Sylvester, Ga. Their dresses were waltz-length emerald green satin, featuring necklines of satin folds, ending with bows in the back. They wore bandeaus of emerald green satin with side bows and short blouses. Their bouquets were white mums and algonet leaves and cascaded with white lily tuffing.

Herbert S. Akers Jr. of White land, N. J., was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Jerry

ASSISTANT CHAPERONE MET AT DANCE BY HIS PARENTS, DR. AND MRS. DEAL

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Deal entertained at a dance at the Forest Heights Country Club Tuesday evening, December 30, honoring their son, William, home from Williams Academy, Easthampton, Mass., for the holidays.

The Country Club was elaborately decorated for the holidays. The music was furnished by Emma Kelly and the dances directed by Eloise Hunnicutt. Lovely young girls in dance frocks and the boys in white coats and dark trousers or vice versa, added up to holiday gaiety for the young society set.

Huge trays of assorted sandwiches, cookies and punch were served.

Barbara Gray Deal, junior hostess, presided at the punch bowl.

Out-of-town junior hostesses were Judith Deal of Savannah, Henrietta McArthur of Vidalia, Joyce Joyner of Macon, and Deal McArthur, out-of-town guest.

Assistant chaperones were Mrs. and Mrs. Stothard Deal, Dr. and Mrs. John D. Deal and Mrs. J. R. Joyner of Macon.

At intermission, Dr. Deal brought his daughters, Savanna and Cynthia, to look in on their big brother's party.

SLUMBER PARTY

Following William Deal's dance at the Country Club, Misses Barbara Gary Deal and Henrietta McArthur, Judith McArthur and Deal McArthur, and Becky Joyner, spent the night with their grandmother, Mrs. Hen A. Deal on South Main Street.

RECEPTION AT BRIDE'S HOME

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on College Boulevard.

Mrs. Stothard Deal met the guests and Mrs. Joe G. Tillman introduced them to the receiving line.

The bride's table was overlaid with an imported linen table cloth. A three-tiered wedding cake embossed with bride roses, encircled with tulle in which ferns and daisy mums were caught at intervals, centered the table. The bride's bouquet was placed at one end of the table.

The refreshment table in the den was covered with a handsome cutwork cloth and decorated with mums and pink snapdragons. Misses Louiegra Smith and Mary Anderson passed the napkins. Mrs. Louis Ellis, Mrs. A. M. McDougald and Mrs. Albert M. Deal served lime sherbet, floated in ginger ale, from cut glass punch bowls.

Mrs. Ronald Neil and Mrs. John D. Deal directed the guests to the gift rooms. In the gift rooms were Mrs. Al Sutherland, Mrs. John Strickland, Mrs. Edna Tillman and Miss Leona Newton.

Presiding at the bride's book were Bob Canteay and Mrs. James Rowan of Macon, who alternated with Mrs. Clifford Park of Jessup and Mrs. Bob Richardson of Charleston, S. C. Miss Melrose Kennedy rendered piano selections during the afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Akers left for Sea Island for their honeymoon. The bride traveled in a sapphire wood suit with matching hat and shoes. She wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. and Mrs. Akers will reside in Dumont, New Jersey. The groom is employed in the research division of the American Cyanamid Company.

Mrs. Louis Ellis, Mrs. A. M. McDougald and Mrs. Albert M. Deal served lime sherbet, floated in ginger ale, from cut glass punch bowls.

Mrs. Ronald Neil and Mrs. John D. Deal directed the guests to the gift rooms. In the gift rooms were Mrs. Al Sutherland, Mrs. John Strickland, Mrs. Edna Tillman and Miss Leona Newton.

Presiding at the bride's book were Bob Canteay and Mrs. James Rowan of Macon, who alternated with Mrs. Clifford Park of Jessup and Mrs. Bob Richardson of Charleston, S. C. Miss Melrose Kennedy rendered piano selections during the afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Akers left for Sea Island for their honeymoon. The bride traveled in a sapphire wood suit with matching hat and shoes. She wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. and Mrs. Akers will reside in Dumont, New Jersey. The groom is employed in the research division of the American Cyanamid Company.

MISS HEART BRIDE OF JOHN W. TRUNNELL JR.

Miss Jewel Anella Hart became the bride of John William Trunnell Jr. of Cochran, Ga., on December 26, in an impressive afternoon ceremony in the First Baptist Church in Statesboro.

The Rev. J. Robert Smith, pastor of the church, officiated in a double ring ceremony in a lovely setting of white gladioli, fusi mums and white snapdragons centering the altar, which was illuminated by white burning tapers in cathedral standards against a background of palms.

Mrs. E. L. Barnes, organist, and Joe Walker Meadows of Cochran, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music including "Because" and "At Wedding."

Mrs. Trunnell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Addison Hart of Statesboro. Mr. Trunnell's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Trunnell of Cochran.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of brush train in the back with a front panel of nylon net. Her tulle illusion veil was caught to a pill box of Chantilly lace, embroidered with sequins. She carried a lace covered Bible, topped with an orchid.

Miss Carolyn Hart was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Wilson Groover, Mrs. Wendell Babbitt of Dudley, Mrs. Quilon Anderson, Atlanta, and Mrs. James Harley of Waycross. The attendant wore red waist-length tulle sheath dresses with red harum overskirts on sides and back. A large butterfly bow was attached to the deep V decollete in the back. Each wore a head band, roped with pearls. They carried cascade bouquets of white fusi mums.

Mrs. Richard Bird and Mrs. Joe Hart Jr. were hostesses at the bridesmaids luncheon held at a luncheon at Long's Restaurant.

The table was centered with pink carnations on a white tablecloth. The cake, marked with pink wedding bells, covered with white frosting, was served to Mrs. T. L. Barnes, Miss Jewel Hart, Mrs. Wilson Groover, Mrs. Clifford Park and Miss Carolyn Hart.

Wedding guests were entertained at the Parish House which was beautifully decorated in green and white. The bride's table, overlaid with an old Irish satin handkerchief, was centered with a mass arrangement of white carnations and chrysanthemums. Silver services were at each end of the table. Miss Amelia Reeves and Miss Ann Lamb poured coffee. Mrs. Norman Jackson and Miss Jane Richardson served. Mrs. E. Grant Tillman Jr. cut and served the three-tiered green and white embossed wedding cake which was a gift of the bride's maternal great aunt, Mrs. Mary Holliday Davis of Atlanta. The cake knife, used in the property of the late Mrs. W. H. Ellis, belonged to the bride.

Mrs. Jim Spiers introduced the guests to the receiving line. Mrs. Mary Naramor, sister of the bride, kept the bride's book.

KAY LANCEFORD FITES MISS LOVETT AT LUNCHEON

Miss Kay Lanceford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Frank Lovett of Statesboro, was hostess Monday, December 20, at a luncheon at Mrs. Bryant's Kitchen honoring Miss Susan Lovett, sister of Dr. Lovett, visiting here from Leesburg, Fla.

Guests at a delicious four-course luncheon were Misses Willette Woodcock, Anne Lamb of Statesboro, Helen Lanier, Sandra Trappell, and Patricia Lane of Metter.

First Baptists get director of education

The First Baptist Church of Statesboro announced this week that Miss Florrie Coffey has begun work as educational director of the church. She comes to the Statesboro church from the First Baptist Church of Hartsville, South Carolina, where she worked in a similar capacity for the past four years. For some five years before that she served as director of religious education in the First Baptist Church, Tifton, Georgia.

Miss Coffey is a native of Georgia, having been reared in Lithonia. She received her college work at Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, and in addition to a degree from that college, she holds a Master of Religious Education degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas.

In addition to her responsibilities as educational director, Miss Coffey will work with the Baptist students at Georgia Teachers College, as director of student work under the Department of Student Work of the Georgia Baptist Convention. She served in this capacity some years ago at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, Tifton.

A reception will be held for Miss Coffey at the church on Sunday night, January 11, following the evening worship service. The reception will be in the social hall of First Baptist Church and all members and friends of the church are extended a cordial invitation to come and meet Miss Coffey at that time.

Register News

Register Parent-Teacher Association will meet tonight, January 8, at the school with Mrs. J. O. Nevils as program leader.

MRS. ROBERT NEWTON LYNN AND REV. ROBERT LYNN MARRY IN VIDALIA

The wedding of Miss Fern Cone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Basil Cone of Vidalia and the Rev. Robert Newton Lynn, son of Mrs. Ollie Randall Lynn of Decatur and William Mathew Lynn of Vidalia, took place at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 21, at the Vidalia Methodist Church.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Charles E. Cone and the late Charles E. Cone of Statesboro.

The Rev. DeWitte Shipley performed the ceremony before a background of magnolia trees, palms, candelabras and an arrangement of gladioli, carnations and flowers. Mrs. Esley Thompson was organist and Miss Florence Randall sang.

Miss Mary Sims was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Anne Brantley and Miss Sarah Ware. The attendants wore dresses styled alike with pleated fullness in back, and a fitted bodice featuring a sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Their headbands were trimmed with white tulle. Miss Sims, in moss green velveteen, carried a cascade bouquet of bronze mums while the bridesmaids, wearing autumn gold velveteen, carried cascades of tulsipumpkins.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace dress with tiered panels in the skirt which was appliqued with medallions of lace. The bodice featured long tapered sleeves and a Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls. Her fingertip veil of matching lace was also trimmed with sequins and pearls.

The cake knife, used in the property of the late Mrs. W. H. Ellis, belonged to the bride.

Mrs. Jim Spiers introduced the guests to the receiving line. Mrs. Mary Naramor, sister of the bride, kept the bride's book.

'Open House' at Gold Medallion home of Royal's

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Royal of Route 1, Brooklet, and officials of Excelsior Electric Membership Corporation, announced this week "Open House" at the recently completed new home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal on Sunday afternoon, January 11, from 3 to 5:30 o'clock.

According to Roy Kelly, public relations director of Excelsior E. M. C., the new home meets all the standards of "Gold Medallion Homes" which are built to a specific standard.

The Royal home has a 200 amp, 30 circuit main switch box. It has an all electric kitchen and laundry. It is adequately wired for air conditioning and heated with baseboard electric heaters. It is a three-bedroom home of brick construction located about twelve miles south of Statesboro. Mrs. Royal is the contractor. Bruce Nesmith was the contractor.

The public is invited to the "open house" Sunday afternoon.

The Bulloch Herald

At this time of year, we will have new folks moving into our neighborhoods, and we will have some of our neighbors to move away. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parrish have moved away from our community. Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Morris and family who have been living at Pembroke are moving back to Stilson. We hope Mr. and Mrs. Parrish will enjoy their new home. They were good neighbors and we were sorry to see them move away.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Sanders of Chatham City were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morris on New Year's night.

Mrs. Maggie Ems of Pooler spent last week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. I. H. Beasley, who has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beasley had as guests for New Year's Day Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bean and son, Mike of Garden City, Mr. and Mrs. George Beasley and Mrs. Larry Bosen and Mr. Bosen at Guyton.

THE BULLDOCH HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLDOCH COUNTY

VOLUME XVIII — ESTABLISHED MARCH 26, 1937 — P. O. BOX 829

STATESBORO, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1959

NUMBER 9

P.T.A. Council installs new president

Beautiful in its simplicity was the installation ceremony of the president of the Bulloch County Council of Parents and Teachers Association, and presenting the past president's pin, at a "Dutch Dinner" recently. Mrs. Bryant's Kitchen, given by the executive committee of the County Council.

Mr. Miles Moody, vice president of the County Council returned thanks before the broiled chicken dinner was served. Broiled chicken, asparagus tips topped with creamed cheese sauce, potato souffle, chef salad, blueberry muffins, hot rolls, butter, black-bottom pie, and coffee were served to the twenty-five people present.

Mrs. D. Perkins, director, Seventh District division of the Georgia Congress of Parents and Teachers, had charge of the beautiful installation ceremony.

The entire staff of officers: Miles Moody, vice president; Mrs. Ray Trappell, secretary; Mrs. John Davis, treasurer; were asked to stand with the president, Mrs. Cluise Smith, during the installation ceremony. At the end of the ceremony the past president, Mrs. Ray Akins, was called to the front to light the huge "Candle of Honor" which was entwined with P. T. A. colors, blue and gold ribbons, as a tribute to Mrs. Smith to whom she was "passing the torch."

At this point in the program, Miss Maude White, endowment chairman for the district, came forward and presented an official past president's pin which has the Georgia Congress emblem and one bar to Mrs. Ray Akins, as an expression of appreciation to her from the Bulloch County Council.

The following people were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Cluise Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Akins; Mrs. W. D. Perkins, Miss Maude White; Mrs. S. H. Wall; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Moody; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trappell; Mr. and Mrs. John Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bradford; Kenneth Beasley; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Proctor; Dr. and Mrs. Hunter Robertson; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Akins; Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Olliff and Albert Braswell.

Woman's Club to sponsor benefit bridge Jan. 29

Mrs. J. E. Bowen Jr., president of the Statesboro Woman's Club, this week announced that the club will sponsor a benefit bridge and canasta party on Thursday, January 29, beginning at 3:30 o'clock at the Recreation Center on Fair Road.

The proceeds of the party will be added to the Woman's Club project to air condition the library on South Main Street.

Mrs. Bowen stated that the general chairman for the affair is Mrs. W. A. Bowen, Mrs. Alfred Dorman will have charge of the door prizes; Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr., the refreshments; Mrs. C. P. Olliff Sr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones Jr., the room decorations; Mrs. J. A. Pafford, the table decorations; Mrs. Ouis Hollingsworth, collector of the tables and Mrs. L. M. Durden, Episcopalian Church, the Trinity Episcopal Church.

The churches participating in the census are the First Baptist Church, the First Methodist Church, the First Presbyterian Church, the Statesboro Presbyterian Church, the Church of God and the Trinity Episcopal Church.

A pre-census general meeting has been scheduled for Thursday night, January 29, at 8:30 o'clock in the room of the Statesboro Baptist Church, the Statesboro Presbyterian Church, the Church of God and the Trinity Episcopal Church.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Jake Smith by calling 4-2991, or Mrs. Gerald Groover by calling 4-2065. Reservations will be fifty cents per person. Bridge clubs and individuals are invited to make reservations early. Cards and prizes are to be furnished by the hostesses. The Woman's Club will award a grand prize.
